Coun. BAYLEY—Inasmuch as there will probably not be a roll call on this matter, I want it recorded that I am going to vote in the negative on this matter, along with the councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick). I believe that we should have some information on this matter before we O. K. a proposition which is somewhat dubious as a revolutionary step.

A vote was taken and the resolution was passed.

2. Report on resolution that Council favors enactment of legislation entitled "An Act providing for the annual payment by the Commonwealth to the City of Boston of a certain sum to be expended by said city for certain expenses and salaries of its Police Department," provided that said legislation contains a referendum to the Mayor and Council.

The report was accepted and the question came on the passage of the resolution.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I would like to ask the clerk, through you, if this particular resolution comes within the scope of Rule 7-B of the Legislature, since it is not a layout of Boston Common.

President KELLY—I am informed by the clerk that this was put in as a precautionary measure. It wasn't known if it was necessary or not.

Coun. KINSELLA—Addressing myself to the clerk, through the Chair, Mr. President, that is not a requirement within the meaning of the 7-B law?

President KELLY—I am informed the Committee on Rules sometimes, councilor, requires a little more than Rule 7-B apparently calls for.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, am I properly informed when I say that Rule 7-B provides for loans beyond the debt limit, and pays for personal injuries to city employees and one thing and another?

President KELLY—I am informed that is what the rule says, but they have broadened it out on specific occasions to cover many other things.

Coun. KINSELLA—And the clerk feels this is in that category, Mr. President?

President KELLY—He does.

Coun. HANNON—I might say we asked, the Committee on Legislative Matters asked, the Law Department whether or not this came within the purview of Rule 7-B, and we were informed it did not. But this matter provides $1,000,000 of transfer from the Highway Fund to pay police officers of the City of Boston involved in the regulation of traffic.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I don't wish to be repetitious or boring, but I want to state in connection with this resolution and others which will follow, not having had a chance to read any of the proposed bills, and not having had a chance to consider them properly, I find it necessary to vote in the negative on this one and all others. And that is based not on the merits, but merely on lack of present knowledge concerning the bodies of the bills.

A vote was taken and the resolution was passed.

3. Report on resolution that Council favors the enactment of legislation entitled "An Act for the purpose of tax rate relief in the City of Boston for the year nineteen hundred and forty-six," provided that said legislation contains a referendum to the Mayor and Council.

The report was accepted and the question came on the passage of the resolution.

Coun. MUCHNICK—This one here I am opposed to, not for the reasons heretofore stated, but it seems to me that this bill potentially can mean a lot of trouble to Boston. There is no precedent for this having been done exactly in this form, as I understand it, either in Boston or any other city. And if a precedent of this nature is once established, we may be borrowing ten, twenty or thirty million dollars a year from now on, and leave it to future administrations and future generations to pay off what we should be paying now, as we go along. I think you will recall, as the other members of the Council probably will, that Mr. Fox stated, if I am quoting correctly, that under the former Mayor, now Governor Tobin, the City of Boston had to pay off approximately forty-eight million dollars in a period of seven years that had been borrowed back approximately fifteen years ago. It was unfair for us to pay it out of present income during those years, for money's the people of Boston should have been taxed for fifteen to twenty years ago. And it is similarly unfair that people fifteen to twenty years from now should pay off what we should be paying ourselves today. It seems to me that for those reasons we should at least, on this resolution, defer complete action, defer any action, until we can get some real information. And that information can only come once we get the budget before us and other facts connected with expenditures for the city for this year.

Coun. BAYLEY—I agree again with the distinguished councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick). This is the $10,000,000 bill, even though it has an inconvenient title. I am going to vote in the negative, if it comes to a vote. Further than that, I move that it be referred to the Committee on Finance for further study.

A vote was taken and the motion to refer to the Committee on Finance did not prevail.

The question came on the adoption of the resolution and the resolution was adopted.

President KELLY—Now, if there is no objection by any of the councilors, I am going to ask that each of the resolutions be read one after the other.

Coun. BAYLEY—I object. I would like the one regarding the garage under the Common and the one regarding the bridge over the Charles river taken up separately.

President KELLY—If you could pick out the resolutions you want, we could save a lot of time.

Coun. BAYLEY—Those two, the garage under the Common and the bridge over the Charles river.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—State your point, councilor. Coun. KINSELLA—Isn't Councilor Bayley's motion subject to a vote, that they be heard one by one?

President KELLY—We don't have to have a vote, councilor. I am informed that the one as to the bridge has been held in executive session; the one as to the Common is here. So we will take the one regarding the Common. They are both here, incidentally.

Coun. McCORMACK—I took those two resolutions out of there, the one on the Common and the one on the bridge.

President KELLY—They are both in here. They must be in here by mistake.

Coun. KINSELLA—Where were they referred? Coun. MUCHNICK—They were left with Roy Green.

President KELLY—We will get on on the others, then.

4. Report on resolution that Council favors enactment of legislation entitled "An Act relative to the limitations upon the power of the City of Boston to incur debt within the statutory limit of indebtedness, the purposes for which said city may incur debts, and the periods within which such debts shall be payable," provided that said legislation contains a referendum to the Mayor and City Council—that same ought to pass.

Report on resolution that the City Council of Boston favors enactment of legislation entitled "An Act relating to expenditures for public band concerts, or for music furnished for public celebrations," provided that such legislation contains a referendum to the Mayor and City Council—that same ought to pass.

Report on resolution that the City Council favors enactment of legislation entitled "An Act establishing the Suffolk County Council and providing for an equitable apportionment of the expenses of Suffolk County," provided that said legislation contains a referendum to the Mayor and City Council—that same ought to pass.

Report on resolution that the City Council favors enactment of legislation entitled "Extending the emergency allotment plan of the City of Boston," provided that said legislation contains a referendum to the Mayor and Council—that same ought to pass.

The question came on the acceptance of the reports and the passage of the above four resolutions, and the resolutions were adopted.

President KELLY—Now, there are two resolutions in the hands of the Clerk of the Executive Committee. The clerk will read the titles of the resolutions.

(The clerk here read the titles of the resolutions.)

5. Report on resolution that the City Council favors enactment of legislation entitled "An Act authorizing the extension of the Washington Street Tunnel in the City of Boston to Sullivan square, in the Charlestown district of Boston and to Forest Hills in said city, and the removal of the existing elevated structures," provided said legislation contains a referendum to the Mayor and the City Council—that same ought to pass.

Report on resolution that City Council favors enactment of legislation entitled "An Act authorizing, for the relief of traffic, the construction of garage facilities under the Common and Public Garden in the City of Boston," provided that said legislation contains a referendum to the Mayor and City Council—that same ought to pass.

President KELLY—On the first two resolutions, I guess there is no objection. I am holding two out.

Coun. BAYLEY—I understood the resolution in regard to unanimous consent of the School Committee was tabled in Executive.

President KELLY—I am informed that four are still in Executive Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS.

Report accepted; said order passed.

POINT OF INFORMATION.

Coun. McCORMACK—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—State your point of information, counselor.

Coun. McCORMACK—There were only two resolutions held out in Executive, the one on the School Committee and the one we are calling the Planning Board. The garage under the Common passed in Executive Committee, and the subway was passed. Those two were passed. There were only two held up.

President KELLY—Well, I have been misinformed, counselor. There were only two, you say, held up in Executive?

Coun. McCORMACK—Only two, one on the viaduct and one about the powers of the School Committee.

President KELLY—That being the case, we will go on those other two.

Coun. KINSELLA—Just to enlighten the Body, Mr. President, I think we also held up the School Committee resolution, and I asked that Alexander Sullivan be brought down.

President KELLY—That is being held up.

TAKING OF SHELLFISH.

Coun. MORIARTY, for Coun. CAREY, submitted the following:

Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to inform the City Council whether or not chapter 5 of the Ordinances of 1945, concerning the taking of shellfish, is legal with respect to the authority of the City Council to issue such licenses and also with respect to the limitation as to the number of licenses issued yearly.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

ADDITIONAL RESOLUTIONS SUBMITTED BY THE MAYOR.

President KELLY—The clerk will now read the other two resolutions.

The clerk read the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the City Council of Boston favors the enactment of legislation entitled "An Act authorizing the extension of the Washington Street Tunnel in the City of Boston to Sullivan square, in the Charlestown district of Boston and to Forest Hills in said city, and the removal of the existing elevated structures," provided that said legislation contains a referendum to the Mayor and City Council.

The report was accepted and the resolution was passed.

2. Report on resolution that the Council favors enactment of legislation entitled "An Act authorizing, for the relief of traffic, the construction of garage facilities under the Common and Public Garden in the City of Boston," provided that said legislation contains a referendum to the Mayor and Council—that same ought to pass.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, the Common and the Public Garden are both situated in the district which I have the honor to represent. I have always tried to go along with the councilor from the district who was most concerned on any matter, and I have done so in the case of several cemeteries and other matters. When something has concerned your district, I have gone along with you. This vitally concerns my district. Now, in Executive, we had no chance to hear the other side of this case. The chairman of the Planning Board, William Stanley Parker, has said he was opposed definitely to a garage under the Common. He was not given a chance to be heard. I believe his argument is that it will only take care of a city block. That is the number of people who will be able to be helped by this new idea. There is some question whether a garage can be built under the Public Garden, because it is provided no other structure can be built in the Public Garden except a City Hall, and there is a legal question if any building can be built in the Public Garden. It could be built under the Common, but in view of the fact that the chairman of the Planning Board and the Park Commissioner, Commissioner Long, have opposed, we should give these people a chance to be heard. I have talked with some people in my district. I haven't had a chance to make a full poll of the district, but I hope to do that very soon. This is an important matter which does not require consent beforehand, I believe. I would like to ask the City Clerk on that matter.

President KELLY—I am informed, counselor, we have to give our consent before the Legislature will take action, because it involves money of the City of Boston.

Coun. BAYLEY—This bill came up for hearing in the Legislature last year and was defeated in the Legislature. Our consent was not asked at that time. The committee reported adversely, and it was defeated.

President KELLY—Evidently our consent was not asked last year. It is being asked this year.

Coun. BAYLEY—Is it necessary, in view of the fact it was reported by last year? Is that so?

President KELLY—The Chair will so rule, until I find out definitely—

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, last year I think when it was talked of, it was talked of as a state venture, and didn't require our support. This year the city is going to do it, and I think it will require our support. Last year it was talked of as a state venture.

President KELLY—Your point of information is well taken.

Coun. BAYLEY—In conclusion, Mr. President, this is my district, as I said before. I hope the councilors will go along with something that concerns my district more than any other. There is some question if this is a state venture or should be done in private industry. You heard the City Auditor say it would be much better done in private industry, and not by state or city grant. All I am asking is that this be referred back to Executive, and next week that we call up the chairman of the Planning Board and the Park Commissioner, and at least hear their side of the story, where they have indicated their opposition. This bill, with all the elements presented to us, we should hear from both sides, and I move and hope that you will go along with me, as the councilor from Ward 5, that this be referred to the Executive Committee, referred back for action on it next week.

A vote was taken and the motion to refer back to the Executive Committee was lost.

Coun. BAYLEY doubted the vote, and President KELLY asked for a rising vote. A rising vote was taken and the motion was lost.

Coun. BAYLEY—I asked for a roll call in the hope that two other councilors will rise for me on a matter that concerns my district.

The roll was called on the motion to refer back to Executive Committee, and the motion was lost, yeas 4, nays 8:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Cantwell, Muchnick, Russo—4.

Nays—Coun. Bryan, Cook, Hannon, Kinsella, Lane, Madden, McCormack, Moriarty—8.

The question came on the passage of the resolution and the resolution was passed.

Adjourned, on motion of Coun. BAYLEY, at 5:07 p. m., to meet on Monday, February 18, 1946, at 2 p. m.

CITY RECORD

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 38

SATURDAY, MARCH 2, 1946.

No. 9

MAYOR CURLEY SUBMITS BUDGET FOR 1946 MUNICIPAL FINANCIAL REQUIREMENTS—EXPENSES OF RUNNING GOVERNMENT MAKES IMPERATIVE AN INCREASE OF $5,067,530 OVER 1945—EXPANDING OLD AGE ASSISTANCE DEMANDS, RETIREMENT OF EMPLOYEES UNDER NON-CONTRIBUTORY PROVISIONS AND HIGHER COSTS FOR MATERIALS AND PLANT REPAIRS AS WELL AS SALARY INCREASES ALL ENTER PICTURE AS FORCING MAYOR TO FINANCIAL COURSE PROPOSED—HOSPITAL, FIRE, POLICE AND PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENTS REQUIRE BIGGEST BOOSTS—SAVINGS EFFECTED WHEREVER POSSIBLE—PRESENT ADMINISTRATION IN NO WAY RESPONSIBLE, HE TELLS CITY COUNCIL.

In submitting the City's Budget requirements to the City Council Mayor Curley sent the following message:

To the City Council.

GENTLEMEN,— I submit herewith supplementary appropriation order for the expenses of the city and county for the current fiscal year. This appropriation order is in addition to the amounts allowed by me for departments and activities submitted to your Honorable Body on February 4, 1946.

It was my original intention to submit the budget for the year 1946 in full segregated form. After conferences with the financial officers of the city, however, I have concluded that existing conditions preclude such a segregation. At the present time, due to unstable price levels, it is impossible to make accurate allowances for the purchase of supplies, equipment and materials, nor is it possible to estimate with accuracy the cost of necessary plant repairs, or the cost of non-contributory pension retirements. Under such conditions, it is obvious that a fully segregated budget for 1946 would result in the necessity for innumerable transfers. In order to avoid such a contingency, it is my opinion that the budget for 1946 should be adopted in as flexible a form as is possible, consistent with sound and economical procedure.

Under my instructions, the Budget Commissioner and the City Auditor will exercise control over departmental appropriations and activities. Under such a plan, we may be certain that there will be no abuse of the flexible character of the budget allowances.

The budget allowances for 1946 total $55,328,186.37 and are $5,067,530.18 in excess of the budget allowances for 1945. This increase over last year's allowances is attributable to the following main factors:

1. Increased payroll costs because of salary increases and appointments during the year 1945, and because of the return of veterans.
2. Increased costs for supplies, including food, fuel, etc., equipment and materials.
3. Increased costs of plant repairs, acutely necessary because of long deferment.
4. Increased costs for retirement of employees under non-contributory pension provisions.
5. Increased costs for old age assistance because of mandatory statutory requirements.

Purchase of Equipment Costs.

It will be noted that in the budget allowances for various departments there is no provision for the purchase of equipment such as trucks, apparatus, automobiles and other heavy equipment. Estimates submitted to me by the Budget Commissioner indicate that essential replacements of such equipment will exceed one million dollars. In view of the fact that much of this equipment will have a life of five or more years, and in view of the fact that these most necessary replacements, if included in the budget, would be sharply reflected in the tax rate for 1946, it has been decided to make such replacements through the agency of a loan, which will be submitted to your Honorable Body at a later date.

MAYOR CURLEY SUBMITS BUDGET FOR 1946 MUNI- PAL FINANCIAL REQUIREMENTS—EXPENSES OF RUNNING GOVERNMENT MAKE IMPERATIVE AN INCREASE OF $5,067,530 OVER 1945.

Despite the extraordinary efforts of your financial officers, the budget for 1946 shows an increase over the budget allowances for 1945. For this increase, this administration is, in no part, responsible. Conditions have been inherited which call for quick, remedial action. Other conditions exist which call for drastic action during the course of the year. Slipshod, expensive methods of conducting the city's affairs, which place a heavier burden on the taxpayer than is necessary, invite our earnest and cooperative attention. It is my purpose to establish, as quickly as possible, an efficient, economical administration of the city's business. In this effort, I shall, from time to time, request the assistance of your Honorable Body.

To aid you in determining the necessity for the budget allowances as shown in the accompanying schedule, I shall submit the original departmental estimates and all other figures which will enable your Honorable Body to give careful and prompt consideration to the requirements for 1946. I respectfully request your approval of this supplementary appropriation, as submitted herewith, as well as your approval of the appropriation order submitted under date of February 4, 1946.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Supplementary Appropriation and Tax Order for the Financial Year 1946.

Ordered, that the respective sums of money specified in the schedules hereinafter set out be, and hereby are, appropriated for the purposes hereinafter specified, said sums to be raised by taxation on the polls and estates in the City of Boston, and that all orders heretofore or hereafter passed by the City Council relating to appropriations, taxes, and the interest thereon, apply to the appropriations and taxes herein provided for; and that the expenditures for Revenue Departments be met from the income of such departments and that any expenditures in excess of the income be met from taxes.

Statement of the Mayor on Budget Allowances.

In the preparation of the Budget for the year 1946, no Mayor in the history of the city has ever been faced with the problems that confronted me. The total estimates submitted by the various departments of the City and County, exclusive of the so-called Revenue Departments, amounted to the huge total of $59,666,136.51, which represented an increase of $11,897,207.84 over the appropriations of last year. The excess of Budget estimates for city departments over the 1945 appropriations amounted to $11,411,967.95, which estimates, in large part, represented the judgment of department heads for all purposes for the needs of the current year.

After the most careful consideration of all the elements involved, I have found it necessary in my best judgment to allow a net increase for City Departments and Activities of $4,743,601.42. These increases, with comment, are outlined as follows:

PERSONAL SERVICES.

Increase$2,681,613.11

Due in large measure to salary and wage increases and new positions established during the financial year of 1945 without provision in the Budget for that year; amounts necessary for the return to employment of veterans; sliding scale increases in salaries and wages.

CONTRACTUAL SERVICES.

Increase$526,507.15

Due in large part to increase in contracting prices for removal and disposal of waste, and all repairs to general plant.

EQUIPMENT.

Decrease$100,153.75

Due to the elimination of items for motor vehicles and other permanent equipment, in excess of $1,000,000.00, to be provided by loan issue.

SUPPLIES.

Increase$302,518.16

Due in large part to increased costs in food, fuel, medical and surgical supplies in hospitals and institutions, as well as other supplies.

MATERIALS.

Increase$88,358.00

Due to increased cost in allowances for materials not previously available, used in the various departments for work performed by employees.

SPECIAL ITEMS.

Increase$1,957,833.75

Due to increases in Old Age Assistance and Aid to Dependent Children, partly caused by legislation enacted in 1945; and increased costs of pensions principally for policemen and firemen.

INCIDENTALS.

Decrease$3,650.00

Due in part to no further appropriation being necessary for the Boston Port Authority, and small increases in other activities.

EMERGENCY COMPENSATION ALLOTMENT.

Increase$45,000.00

Due largely to the allowances for returning veterans.

SNOW REMOVAL.

Decrease$500,000.00

No payments to contractors have been made for Snow Removal up to the recent storm; amount allowed should be ample.

SPECIAL APPROPRIATIONS.

Decrease$254,425.00

Due in large part to elimination of the Board of Recreation, and reduction in the appropriation for Park and Playground Improvements, offset by increases in appropriations for other necessary special purposes.

The excess of Budget estimates for County Departments over the 1945 appropriations amounted to $485,239.89, and I have allowed a net increase of $223,039.51, of which $138,399.04 is on account of Personal Service due to sliding scale increases provided in the County Classification Plan, as well as increases required by State legislation.

It is quite evident from the foregoing that a substantial increase in the present tax rate of $42.50 must occur, unless authority is received from the State for the city to issue tax rate relief loans. To accomplish this purpose I have introduced legislation for authority to borrow $10,000,000.00. No hearing on this bill has yet occurred, and when such hearing is to be held all home owners and owners of business and industrial real estate who are interested in keeping the tax rate down should appear at the hearing in support of my measure. In my opinion there should be a reduction in the present tax rate, and in no event should there be an increase in the same. To accomplish either or both of

MAYOR CURLEY'S REVIEW OF CASE OF HUNTINGTON AVENUE FIRE FINDS CITY OFFICIALS NOT TO BLAME — FINDS THE MEN INVOLVED DID EVERYTHING TO BE REASONABLY EXPECTED IN SITUATION IN CONFORMITY WITH EXISTING LAW — CONFLICT OF AUTHORITY BETWEEN CITY AND STATE WITH REFERENCE TO INVESTIGATIONS HAD MUCH TO DO WITH SITUATION THAT AROSE — EFFORT TO BE MADE TO CHANGE LAW TO MEET ANY FUTURE CONTINGENCIES — CAPTAIN FITZGERALD AND INSPECTOR ELDRACHER FOUND TO HAVE MADE REPORTS OF WARNINGS.

At a conference held this day at the Mayor's office, attended by Commissioner Russell S. Codman, Jr., Fire Commissioner, Napeen Boutilier, Chief of the Boston Fire Department, Deputy Chief Edward F. Montgomery, Captain John F. Fitzgerald, Building Commissioner John J. Mahoney, and Building Inspector Theodore Eldracher, after reviewing the case of the Huntington avenue fire it was the consensus of opinion that both department officials, Captain Fitzgerald of the Fire Department and Mr. Eldracher of the Building Department, had done everything that could have been reasonably expected in conformity with existing law.

It appears, upon investigation, that there is a conflict of authority between state and city with reference to investigation of cases of this character similar to that which took place at the Huntington avenue fire.

There is a necessity for a change in the statutes which will restore to the Boston Fire Department officials the rights enjoyed prior to the adoption of chapter 148 of the General Laws as amended in 1945.

This law prohibits the Fire Commissioner in Boston from entering and inspecting any premise unless authorized by the State Fire Marshal. The division of authority, as represented by the Fire Department and the Building Department of the City of Boston, should be corrected by centering authority in the Building Department with reports from the Fire Inspection Division of the Fire Department, and the Law Department will be instructed to draft the necessary legislation.

In this bad case of the Huntington avenue fire, reports were made by both the Fire Department and the Building Department (Mr. Eldracher). It likewise shows that the reports these purposes the city should be authorized to issue a loan in accordance with my petition.

of Captain Fitzgerald of the Fire Department were sent to the Building Department and that inspections were continued and orders issued to comply with the law with reference to the use of chutes constructed of wood, as a means of depositing rubbage and garbage from the four floors of this particular building to a room in the basement.

It was found upon investigation that no application had ever been made for a permit and that no authorization had ever been given the owner of the premises to break through the party wall for the installation of chutes, as required by a law enacted in 1942 which required that chutes used for this or any similar purpose must be of fire-resistant material.

Unfortunately, fire-resistant material could not be procured during the period of the war, but, under the circumstances, the owner of the premises should not have cut through the party wall and should have installed a wall of non-inflammable material which would not create a fire hazard. It was pointed out by both the Building Commissioner and the Fire Commissioner that there is an immediate need for the installation, in all homes for the aged and in day nurseries where a number of people live or are confined in one way or another, of fire-resistant material or the installation of fire sprinkler apparatus.

The law at present permits the ordering of such installations by the Building Commissioner. The only question is the ability to get the material installed, and a check-up will be inaugurated at once, as is done in every other large city in the country, in order to prevent the loss of life and property, and measures will be taken at once to do everything that can be done and will be done at the earliest possible date.

MAYOR CURLEY SEEKS TO HAVE STATE BUILD CANCER HOSPITAL ON PARKER HILL.

His Honor the Mayor on February 27 addressed the following letter to Dr. Vlado A. Getting, Commissioner of Public Health of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts:

My dear Commissioner,—My attention has been called to the proposed erection of an 800-bed hospital for the care of cancer and other chronic diseases. I am further informed that adopted legislation provides for the erection of this proposed hospital unit on state-owned land. I also understand that the proposed site is located in Stoneham, somewhere adjacent to the Melrose Sanatorium.

I am of the conviction that the planned location would not operate to advantage because of its distance from our great medical center here in Boston with its availability for all that is best in medical skill and judgment, second to none in the world. I have in mind that the distance removed from our medical schools whose educational programs would benefit from the opportunity of training medical students within a reasonable distance in the chronic aspects of disease and what could be done in the way of care for this type of patient.

The City of Boston owns on Parker Hill over 500,000 square feet of land which could be deeded to the state so that the latter might be able to proceed to erect such a hospital in accordance with adopted legislation and at the same time with all of the advantages which I have tried to outline to you, and of which I know you are cognizant.

I trust you will give this the immediate and helpful consideration it deserves, and I would like to know what might be done to further this worthwhile plan.

Sincerely,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

ASKS GOVERNOR TO CONSIDER PARKER HILL SITE FOR ERECTION OF CHRONIC CANCER HOSPITAL BY STATE.

His Honor the Mayor on February 27 forwarded the following communication to Hon. Maurice J. Tobin, Governor of Massachusetts:

Your Excellency.

I have forwarded this day a letter to Dr. Vlado A. Getting, Commissioner of Public Health, directing his attention as to the possibilities of placing the chronic hospital that is proposed to be erected by the state upon land owned by the city at Parker Hill, and I enclose a copy for your consideration.

You are thoroughly familiar with this section of the city, having been born there, and also are aware of the advantages of locating the chronic hospital in a medical center of this character.

I sincerely trust that you will give serious consideration to this proposal as I believe it would be best for the state, city and the people of the Commonwealth because of its accessibility and the opportunity it affords for the advancement of public health.

Sincerely,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

VETO OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT RE FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 14, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I beg to return herewith, without my signature and disapproved, a proposed amendment to the ordinances adopted by your Honorable Body, under date of February 11, 1946, for the reasons as hereinafter set forth:

The change recommended, effective as of April 3, rather than as of six months after termination of the war, is impossible of acceptance at this time, due to the financial condition of the city.

It is estimated that the adoption of the proposed amendment would increase the expenditures of the Fire Department, in this particular item, to the amount of $200,000, and there is no way that I can justify this additional expenditure at this time.

In the event, however, that a subsequent amendment is submitted by your Honorable Body, which will not impair the effectiveness of the service, nor increase the cost of operation of the Fire Department, I shall be pleased to consider the same.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—This is in reply to Council order dated January 14, 1946, which reads as follows:

"Ordered, That the Traffic Commissioner be directed, through his Honor the Mayor, to include in the budget for 1946 an amount sufficient to provide for the installation of additional traffic lights at various intersections in the Ward 3 district of Boston."

The program inaugurated in 1942 for installing traffic signals at twenty-four intersections throughout the city was interrupted by the war because traffic signal mechanisms were not available.

This program included several intersections in Ward 3. It is assumed that this program will be resumed during 1946.

APPROPRIATION FOR CEMETERY DIVISION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 15, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—In the preparation of the 1946 budget provision was made, as in previous years, that $60,000 of the maintenance expenses of the Cemetery Division of the Park Department should be charged against income of the Cemetery Fund. Before this income can be utilized it is necessary that an appropriation be made.

I accordingly submit herewith, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 117 of the Acts of 1913, an order providing for the appropriation from the income of the Cemetery Fund in the sum of $60,000, the same to be utilized in meeting maintenance expenses of the Cemetery Division, and respectfully recommend adoption by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

This sum is to be appropriated under the provisions of chapter 117 of the Acts of 1913.

When making up the budget estimates for the Cemetery Division for the year 1946, it was indicated that the amount of $60,000 could be deducted from the A-1 item (permanent employees) if permission was given to use $60,000 for Maintenance and Improvement from the General Cemetery Fund.

Respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

CONVERSION OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS INTO APARTMENTS.

Coun. LINEHAN offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to take up with the Boston Housing Authority the matter of accepting the school buildings offered by the School Committee for immediate conversion into apartment houses for veterans and their families.
Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, speaking in regard to the first order, in regard to his Honor the Mayor taking up with the Boston Housing Authority the conversion of some of the school buildings into apartments for veterans, I would like to say a few words. According to the newspaper, the Boston Housing Authority will soon start constructing a housing project in South Boston, and in July another housing project in the South End, near the Cathedral. It seems to me those projects will not be ready for six months to a year after that, so it will probably be a year and a half before there are any apartments available in either one of those projects. Now, we all know that the housing situation is a bad one at the present time, and that is why we say now is the time to act—not a year and a half from now, but now. And up to now there hasn't been anything done to try to help the housing of veterans, other than the fact that the Boston Housing Authority has set out a proposition whereby only veterans can get into the project. Now, all well and good, but unfortunately there are very few vacancies in housing projects during the winter time, and there aren't going to be many more when the summer time rolls around. So it does not look very good in the near future for taking care of many veterans. Now, the School Department recently in the newspapers suggested that quite a few of their school buildings that no longer house school children be turned over to the city, to be converted into apartment houses for veterans. Well, it doesn't seem to me that the city can take those school buildings at the present time and convert them into apartment houses. I don't think the city is in a position to go into apartment house building and leasing buildings to tenants. But there is one agency in the city to do such a thing. I refer to the Boston Housing Authority, and that has already considered the advisability of taking over Camp McKay and converting it into apartments for veterans. But, unfortunately, the veterans themselves don't want to be stuck in good old Camp McKay, and for the very good reason that the buildings over there aren't fit for people to live in. Soldiers have lived there, but I don't think that children should live in them at the present time, and I don't think that they could be converted so that they would be appropriate. But I do think that these school buildings can be converted into apartment houses that will house veterans. And I sincerely hope that his Honor the Mayor will contact the Housing Authority and see if they will do something about it in the very near future—and I mean the very near future—because the veterans are sick of trying to get housed. And, as I said before, no agency in the government has done very much about it. We read in the paper how Congress is considering bills before them, and is still considering them, and it seems to me, if the Boston Housing Authority will get to work on this and convert school buildings into apartment houses, something will be done for the veterans. Now, if the Boston Housing Authority doesn't see fit to do such a thing, it seems to me that there is one very important thing that can be done, and that is for private industry to buy those school buildings at a low price, if it is to be with the understanding that they will be converted into apartment houses by private industry, and that they will house veterans at a reasonable figure, at a reasonable rental. Now, if we can only do that, it means that we increase the taxable property in the City of Boston, and that is the one thing that has to be done here in the next few years if the city is going to come back. We have to get more real estate into the taxable rolls, and the sooner we do it the better off the city will be. And I sincerely hope his Honor the Mayor will very quickly communicate with the Boston Housing Authority in regard to this matter and, if they don't feel like going into this proposition, induce private industry to get into this thing and give the veterans housing in the very near future. And I mean within the next six months, and not a year and a half from now, like it looks as though they will have to wait in regard to our housing projects that will be built by the Boston Housing Authority.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

CONSTRUCTION OF HOSPITAL BY WHITE FUND.

Coun. LINEHAN offered the following:
Ordered, That the trustees of the George Robert White Fund be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider the advisability of constructing a memorial hospital for the treatment of infantile paralysis and other contagious diseases.
Coun. LINEHAN—Now, in regard to the second order, requesting his Honor the Mayor to contact members of the George Robert White Fund to consider the advisability of building a hospital in the City Hospital to take care of people afflicted with infantile paralysis and other contagious diseases, I would like to take a few minutes of the time of this Body. I realize that the President of the City Council is a member of the George Robert White Fund committee, and I know, as a private citizen, he has been in the South Department of the City Hospital, and he knows what is there. As you all know in here, I have been going to the South Department now for a period of about six months, and I find the service wonderful. Doctor Manary, through his assistants, Doctor Place and Doctor Prizer, is doing a wonderful job with what they have got, but I am sorry to say they haven't got much. The treatment of infantile paralysis in the Boston City Hospital is excellent up to the time a patient is all through with what they call the acute stage. That means the pain has all left the body, and the person is left with what she has got. There will be no more, you might say, bad results from it. But let us say the patient is left without the use of arms or legs, or whatever it might be. I am sorry to say the City Hospital is not in a very good position to take care of those patients, and for one reason—they haven't got a proper hospital over there to take care of infantile paralysis cases. Now, as you all know, due to advertising and publicity that has been given to the Kenney Foundation down in Warm Springs, Georgia, you hear a lot about baths and pools, and whirlpools, and Kenney treatment of patients afflicted with infantile paralysis. We have heard how a lot of money has been sent out of Boston to help treat people afflicted with this terrible disease. We have also heard of the infantile paralysis foundation giving money to different agencies in Boston to help combat the disease. I am sorry to say there isn't very much given to the City Hospital, and for very obvious reasons. It is because they have not got very much over there to treat with, and they haven't got the reputation of successfully treating them after the acute stage. Now, what does that mean? It means this. That there are some poor, unfortunate people who like to stay in Boston, and when they are sick particularly they like to see friends who might come to see them once a week, or whatever it might be. Now, they haven't got very much of a choice if they are adults. If they are children, they can go to the Children's Hospital and be treated by Harvard, and if they are very bad cases, they can be taken care of in the Baker Memorial, which is doing a very good job for children. So the only alternative for anybody who is an adult afflicted with infantile paralysis is one of two things. They can either go out to Milwaukee, the Kenney Foundation, or they can go down to Warm Springs, Georgia. And I am sorry to say that I know of one person that doesn't want to leave Boston and go down to Warm Springs, Georgia, with the thought of being all alone and having no friends to visit. Now, it doesn't only happen to that individual. It happens to probably every individual who might go to a hospital afflicted with infantile paralysis. It seems to me it is a mockery on Boston to think we have not a really good place in this city to take care of such cases. Now, I certainly don't want to have the city spend money at this time for improvements. I think the best thing we can do is try to lower the tax rate. We can't do it by spending money on improvements, but I do think we have millions of dollars—I am not sure how many millions now, but we have millions—and while I was a member of the George Robert White Fund committee I tried to get that particular board of trustees to spend money for additional health units, but to no avail. But here we have something new, something the city needs, and it is something which the city has not done up to now. And I bring this fact out today, due to the fact that we do know from previous debates in this Council that the George Robert White money, the fund money, can only be spent on certain projects. It can be spent on things of utility, things which the city does not ordinarily provide for. And I can surely say that the City of Boston does not provide for the proper treatment of people who are afflicted with infantile paralysis. I certainly think that the Corporation Counsel would rule that the money in that particular fund could be used for such a worthy project. Now, leaving the subject of infantile paralysis, once again may I pay tribute to Doctor Place, who is in charge of that hospital, and Doctor Prizer, as well, who, as is well known, has a child in there afflicted with a contagious disease, and knows they give A-1 treatment with what they have. But what have we got? Take, for example, scarlet fever. I don't know how many types of scarlet fever there are, but probably about twenty. I am not a doctor, but I know there are more than ten. I can tell that. And they are numbered. Now, a person might be afflicted with, say, No. 1, No. 2 or No. 3, whatever particular group they fall in. And it is possible for the one who was afflicted with No. 1, who is a patient that gets better, to come down with No. 3 or No. 4, after they have contracted it from some patient that is right next to them. Now, here is what I am trying to drive at. When you are treating contagious diseases you should isolate the patient, and I am sorry to say in the South Department the buildings are so darned old that they are not properly constructed to isolate the patients. We need an up-to-date contagious hospital, which I think could be housed with the particular hospital I spoke of awhile ago, for the treatment of infantile paralysis. If we could open a floor to this so-called infantile paralysis, we could then construct additional floors to take care of other contagious diseases, and I just mentioned one, scarlet fever. Now, as the gentleman from West Roxbury well knows, they have about twelve little children so afflicted with scarlet fever in the one room—a room probably about one-third as large as this. And, due to the improper segregation or isolation of those patients, it is possible for one of those patients to become afflicted with three different types of scarlet fever. Whereas if we had a modern hospital, each patient afflicted with a contagious disease could get well of that particular disease with which they are afflicted, and they would not contract the other. And I sincerely hope, with all of the so-called money that is spent for the upkeep of our hospital, and the so-called marvelous reputation the City Hospital is supposed to have for the treatment of different diseases—I certainly hope they can improve the treatment of contagious diseases to such an extent that the City Hospital will be A-1 in the country, along with their surgical building and other things which they treat, and for which they have a wonderful reputation of treating. But I am sorry to say it is a sad state of affairs to think that the City of Boston has not got a proper place to treat infantile paralysis patients. And I am also sorry to say—and I only learned of it in the last six months—what you can learn if you get around—that it is certainly a travesty to think how we take care of contagious cases. I certainly hope that the Boston City Council and other members of the George Robert White Fund will study this thing seriously, as I studied it seriously with Doctor Place. That poor gentleman who has been over there in charge of the South Department for thirty years, and is discouraged because of the lack of facilities, proper facilities, will agree with me it is about time somebody did something for them. And I hope that the money comes from the George Robert White Fund, where it will not affect the tax rate of the City of Boston. I sincerely hope that the members of that trust will give this very favorable consideration, and in the future I don't doubt, if they do, and we treat infantile paralysis cases in that new building, you will find that all this money, or that some of this money that is being spent throughout the country, in Milwaukee and in Georgia, which is collected at birthday balls each year—that a lot of that will go towards maintaining that new building for the treatment of infantile paralysis and other contagious diseases.

REMOVAL OF ICE, WARD 3 STREETS.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:

Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to remove all the ice from the streets in Ward 3 immediately.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I have been requested by practically all the people of my district, and in particular the clergy, in regard to this. It is really an eyesore as you go through the streets of our city and find that the ice that has been accumulated there since the last snowfall has not been removed. And not only that, but dirt, dust and various other forms of debris have collected, and it makes it very hazardous for walking, driving or otherwise. I believe that I read something in the newspaper in regard to his Honor the Mayor giving a certain time limit to the people of our city to start cleaning up their back yards, cellars, and so forth. I wonder when we are going to start in to keep our streets clean. And I don't want to imply anything so far as my remarks are concerned in regard to the Public Works Commissioner, for whom I have the highest respect. I feel that he is doing a good job, and I know he will continue to do a splendid job. However, our streets should be cleared of this snow to make our city a better place to live in. Of course, the weather may keep up the way it was yesterday, I thought we were coming into summer. However, let us hope that the Public Works Commissioner will immediately remove all the ice from our streets, and try to clean our streets as soon as possible.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

RENOVATION OF FAIRMOUNT SCHOOL.

Coun. CANTWELL offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to direct the authorities of the Boston School Department to take immediate steps to completely renovate the Fairmount School, which was erected in 1871, and, if the cost of renovation is found to be prohibitive, to promptly condemn and close this school and arrange for school facilities in this district which will be safe.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. FISH, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on petition (referred August 27, 1945) for payment of annuity to Teresa M. Savage, widow of John T. Savage, late member of the Fire Department—recommending passage of accompanying order, viz.:

Ordered, That under the provisions of section 89 of chapter 32 of the General Laws, an annuity of seventeen hundred and eighty dollars be allowed and paid to Teresa M. Savage, widow of John T. Savage, a member of the Fire Department who died on August 12, 1945, on account of injuries received in the performance of his duty; said annuity being made up of allowances as follows:

For the widow, Teresa M. Savage, so long as she remains unmarried, $1,000 per annum.

For each of the following-named children during such time as he or she is under the age of eighteen or over said age and physically or mentally incapacitated from earning, $260 per annum: Mary E. Savage, born December 16, 1927; Neil J. Savage, born August 15, 1929; Francis X. Savage, born August 12, 1937; provided, however, that if the widow remarries the annuity for each of said children shall be $520 during the remainder of the time aforesaid; the payments to date from August 12, 1945, and to be charged to the appropriation for Fire Department, Pensions and Annuities.

Report accepted; order passed.

2. Report on message of Mayor (referred today) appointing constables to serve without bond and without authority to serve civil process for term ending April 30, 1946 (No. 1 on calendar)—recommending confirmation.

The report was accepted and the question came on confirmation of the appointments.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, speaking on confirmation of these eight constables, I can't see for the life of me how any one of us can cast our vote here today and cast it intelligently, knowing what we are doing. Information was given in Executive by one of our councilors that there are approximately twenty constables who have been kept on the pay roll since and after his Honor the Mayor declared that all constables were no more needed, from January 31 on. Later on, I was informed, and I guess each and every one of us knows, that his Honor the Mayor will appoint thirty constables out of the amount that were previously working. Through his graciousness, I am given also to understand that each councilor may submit a name of an individual for whom he will vouch as constable, and that he will name eight himself to bring it to the total of thirty. So far, if there are about twenty who have never been working—I mean, who were never fired—and still continuing on the pay roll, and eight sent to us last week, which is the question now before us, and eight more have been sent in this week, bringing it over and above the thirty that he was going to appoint at the beginning, it is way above that figure of thirty. I believe that before we approve one constable or more we ought to find out for ourselves how many constables are needed, and how many he intends to appoint. I don't believe that we ought to go too hastily on this matter. And I can very well sympathize with some of the new councilors, because perhaps in that particular list there may be individual names that they have sponsored. But I say to them that, if his Honor the Mayor had not made that statement when he said that no constables were needed in the City of Boston, these individuals who have been put off the pay roll would have still been on the pay roll until such time as their expiration date, which would have been April 30. So, therefore, we should sympathize with the older men in the Council, also. I, for one, have felt since I came into this Council seven years ago that I didn't believe you should take away a man's job, and especially when they have children, and put someone in there of your own choice, knowing full well that that is an appointment which carries with it an expiration of approximately four months hence. I say, Mr. President, let us be fair on this matter. Let us be fair to his Honor the Mayor, and let us be fair to ourselves, as men in public life who have been entrusted with the affairs of the City of Boston, by being fair to the people. We can't say that seventy-nine or eighty were too much one day, and abolish them all the next day, and approve thirty the following day. I wonder if there is one councilor here that can honestly tell me if thirty is a sufficient number of constables needed throughout the City of Boston by the various city departments. I believe that none of us can answer that. And I feel that that should be sent to its proper committee.

We have started out to function in referring matters back to committees, in order to study them so they may report in to us. Therefore, if I am in order, Mr. President, I would like to make a motion that this matter be referred to the Committee on Constables, whereby the proper information may be given so that we may be able to act wisely and fairly when it comes before us.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Talking on the motion, Mr. President. As chairman of the Committee on Constables, I am very happy to second the motion made by Councilor Russo. I remember distinctly at a luncheon given by the Mayor of Boston on January 7 to the incoming Council, immediately following the inaugural address, that Mayor Curley said, in substance, among other things, in some very well chosen words, that one of his first official acts would be to eliminate all constables in the City of Boston, that they served no useful purpose, and that they were only eating up the taxpayers' money by way of salaries that were being paid to them for doing nothing. He stated that until such time as they were fired he was going to have them scrubbing the steps and floors of the City Hall and washing the windows, and doing various other things, in an attempt to make them earn their salaries until they left. Now, I don't feel that the Mayor of Boston is running around town, or should run around town, making irresponsible statements. The Mayor of Boston at that time must have had some reason, and some good reason, for saying what he did say, that there was no need of constables. Now, we are faced with an entirely different situation. We were informed in Executive Committee that fourteen of the men were never fired. Eight had been put back to work. A list was sent in last week of eight more, and a new list today of eight. And there are supposed to be seventeen or eighteen assigned to councilors to appoint as personal patronage of councilors. That adds up to somewhere around forty or fifty men to be appointed to do work which I understood the Mayor of Boston to say, in a perfectly sober, calm manner, there was no need for them to do. As chairman of the Committee on Constables, I would like to have my committee examine into whether that is needed. If we need those forty or fifty, if we need only ten or none, or if we need two hundred, I would like to have my committee examine as to the facts. Two weeks ago today, after many of these men had been fired with practically no notice, most of the members of the Council were informed that they were supposed to go downstairs to the Mayor's office and submit one name apiece, and that that man, as a constable, would be assigned to some department that needed him, and he would go to work immediately. It has now been two weeks and most of these men, if not all of them, have not yet been assigned. I don't believe this is due to lack of time or negligence in the Mayor's office, or lack of time or negligence in the different departments. It may be that the Mayor was right on January 7, and that there was no need for these people. And it may be that the Mayor's secretary or clerk is having difficulty in locating departments in which these men can do useful work. It seems to me that ought to be looked into. Not only should the need be looked into, but it is our duty as public officials of this city not to spend any money for constables or any other reason, even if it means personal patronage for our friends. Not only must the need for the job be looked into, but it seems to me appropriate that the Committee on Constables should examine the qualifications of the men. Different departments may need different types of persons to act as constables. Most of us don't know the duties of these constables in a general way, and much less what duties they would have in any department with which they might be connected. And it seems to me the only way we can get this information is to have a meeting of the Constables Committee; to have somebody representing the Mayor's office, with knowledge of what these people are supposed to do, come up and explain their duties and the need for men with the necessary qualifications; have somebody from the Law Department inform us as to just what these men might do from the Law Department's point of view; and also speak to some of the department heads and learn from them what they want these men to do. If we don't do that, if we are only to come in here every Monday and refer something to Executive, rubber-stamp whatever the Mayor wants us to rubber-stamp, then let us dissolve the Committee on Constables, and let us dissolve all committees, and let us tell the people of Boston we are only here as yes men for the Mayor, that we are not going to examine into anything anybody wants, that we will go along with anything that is suggested, and let us say so to the people who sent us here, sent us here to represent them. If, however, we want to do our duty as public officials, then it seems to me that we have no other course than to vote in favor of the motion just made by Councilor Russo, and I sincerely urge its passage.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I agree with everything that the distinguished councilor from Ward 3 (Coun. Russo) and the distinguished councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick) have said. I believe that this should be referred to a committee, and that we should pursue the democratic processes in this Council as they should be pursued in this great country of ours. Mr. Chairman, we have been told by the President of the Council that he will take this matter up with the Mayor of Boston tomorrow morning, so that we may have action, but according to the afternoon paper, which I have before me—and I quote from the Boston Traveler: "Curley, last defendant to address the Court before sentences were pronounced, disclosed that his health was impaired and that he is entering the naval hospital at Bethesda, Maryland, later today for a check-up." It becomes apparent from that that the chances of his being back here tomorrow to confer with anybody are exceedingly remote, and it may be the same for several days. It is a question, if we pass this, if we will be able to get any assurance, directly or indirectly, from the Mayor. We were told by the Mayor of Boston that all constables were fired. There was no mention of the fourteen constables that were on the city pay roll at the time he made that statement. Did he not know the facts, Mr. President? If he didn't, he should have known them. Or was it possibly a publicity stunt? In Sunday's paper, in all the Sunday morning papers, particularly in the leading Democratic paper, of the city there was an account of how the Mayor of Boston had saved the home of a widow of a former City Clerk—

Coun. HURLEY—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. HURLEY—I would like to state that I wish the councilor from the Back Bay (Coun. Bayley) would confine his remarks to the subject at hand, and that is the subject of this order.

President KELLY—Your point of order is well taken, councilor. The Chair wants to be fair and impartial with everybody. Councilor, kindly confine your remarks to the subject of referring this matter to the Committee on Constables.

Coun. BAYLEY—I yield. You are correct. I was getting off line on the order, as many of the councilors have done in sessions without having that point brought forward.

President KELLY—We shall call it to their attention.

Coun. BAYLEY—I shall speak of that subject when I have a chance. Mr. President, this matter should be referred to the committee. We have committees set up to take care of these matters, and I don't know what a Committee on Constables would be for if not to look after constables. It might be to look out for books, but the word shows that it is appointed to look after constables. It has been the practice of preceding mayors to send in a list of constables all together. Occasionally, when one or two have been forgotten, they have been submitted later. Now they are being sent in piecemeal. It has been said that one of the reasons why they have been sent in piecemeal is that certain of our Body did not submit their recommendations. Now, these names could have been submitted later. All those that have been recommended should have been sent in at one time, either at this Monday's meeting or at last Monday's meeting. We should have the right to pass on the list of constables at one time, and not in dribbles. So, Mr. President, I hope that we will refer this matter to the Committee on Constables, and that they will hold the list of constables until all are sent in, and that they will go into the matter very thoroughly. Let us attack this by democratic processes of government. Let us have our committees function. I hope this matter is referred to the Committee on Constables. (Loud applause.)

Coun. LINEHAN—Speaking on the motion, in all seriousness I would like to add a few more words to the number that have already been said. It was only a short while ago that members of the Boston City Council were told there was no need of a veterans' service center. I remember the time when a member of the City Council—

President KELLY—Councilor, I want to be fair and impartial. The question before the body is referring this matter back to the Committee on Constables.

Coun. LINEHAN—May I inform you, Mr. President, that I certainly can refer to other acts that will show a relation to this act? You can ask the City Clerk—

President KELLY—I want to be fair, but please talk on the matter of referring this back.

Coun. LINEHAN—I rise to a point of parliamentary inquiry.

President KELLY—State your point.

Coun. LINEHAN—I would like to ask the City Clerk, through you, sir, if I can refer to an act of his Honor the Mayor quite similar to this one, for a purpose, to show the resemblance of what might happen to this particular action. I might say quoting history.

President KELLY—Councilor, I am going to rule that you can refer to that at times, but not to make any lengthy discussion on it. Kindly confine your remarks to the subject under discussion.

Coun. LINEHAN—I will confine this by comparing it with the present situation I am discussing.

President KELLY—Thank you very much.

Coun. LINEHAN—I am very glad to see the President of this Body really getting on the ball and keeping us in our place, but I am sorry to say that I think I am in my place.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, some weeks ago his Honor the Mayor sent up an order here—or he didn't even send up the order. Through the newspapers he made the statement there was no necessity for the veterans' service center.

At the time I thought, as a veteran of World War II, that we certainly needed a veterans' service center for obvious reasons which were heard of here at the committee later on, in regard to a new measure which his Honor the Mayor sent down to establish a veterans' service center. Now, at the time, he said there was no need of those men in the veterans' service center. Bringing the relation to bear on this subject, he said he was doing away with the constables, or words to that effect. I don't quote him exactly. Now, personally, I thought just like I did about the veterans' service center, that some constables were necessary to carry on city business. But, to be honest with you, Mr. President, I didn't know how many were necessary. I thought perhaps we did need at least fifty, but I was not sure, and to this day, to be honest with you, after discussing a bill about reappointing or putting on something like thirty or a total of forty-four constables, as a member of the City Council, which carries on the city business, I still don't know whether we need forty-four or whether we need the fourteen that are now still working for the city as constables—five in the Law Department, two in the Hospital, two in the Street Laying-Out Department, one in Health, one in the Board of Real Estate Commissioners, one in the Collector's office. I feel sure these fourteen men earn their money working for the city. I feel sure that it is possible forty-four constables would earn their money working for the city if the department heads under whom they come saw that they earned their money. I am almost certain of that. Now, as I said before, in that other bill in regard to the service center, I didn't know who was going to get the job in the veterans' service center. Because some other mayor had jobs, I am assuming, in the old department, it was abolished. Well, I don't like that business as a City Councilor. I think that either we need them or we don't need them, whether it is the veterans' service center or whether it is constables. Now, it happens I am an old City Councilor and not a new one. At one time we had two city constables. I understand that most councilors had two constables. I understand that at the present time, to my knowledge, no City Councilor has a constable. That is really eliminating help. Now, it seems to me, if we need them—and I think we do—I want them to go to work, but I want them to be put on in a businesslike manner, and I think we should have department heads telling us in a businesslike manner why they need constables. I want my man to go to work, just like every other councilor. And I want him to earn his money, and I think he will, if he is appointed. Of course, being sentimental about it, I can say he is a man with seven children. He does need a job as much as Mr. Curley, his Honor the Mayor. He has been laid off, but he was not laid off because he didn't work. Some men were laid off because they didn't work, but some of them were just wiped out completely because his Honor the Mayor said they were not needed. Now, I believe that is the correct situation up to today. Now, he doesn't say we need the fourteen, and I am assuming that they are needed. No question about that. There are eight more before us here today, and I think another eight that will be acted on a little later, so that is a total of thirty all together. Now, I think there are more to come—how many more I don't know. I know there are at least fourteen of us councilors who have not received any appointments. Now, it is possible it might be eight, seven or six. Personally, I think that is an awful situation. I think in fairness to all the councilors we all should get them at once, or not at all. I say that publicly. Now, getting right down to the conclusion here, I think that the councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick) is right. Within one month, since I have come into this Body after being out of it for two years, I have seen measures treated in an unbusinesslike manner. Why? Well, it is perfectly obvious why. Because the gentleman downstairs—up at the State House they say "the gentleman in the corner," so I suppose I can say "the gentleman downstairs"—wants it that way. I say it is time that the members of the City Council stood right up in their boots and decided they had something to say about how the business of the city is run. Because I say, if measures keep being acted upon like in the veterans' service center, and like this, in an unbusinesslike manner, it won't be long before you have a change of government in this city. And it isn't far off unless we show the public we are men of courage, men with a little business acumen, and that we run the business of the city the way it should be run, through committees, when a bill should go through a committee. Now I say this, that I am going to vote against this particular group for its defeat. I will vote for this group later on when it comes in with all of the other appointments. And I say that with the hope that his Honor the Mayor is going to submit the names of the other constables, those constables which he says that the city now needs. If his Honor the Mayor had said one week ago, that we only need eight constables, and it could be shown in a businesslike manner that that is all the city needed, I think every councilor here would have voted for the order. Now, I just want to know this: Will the department heads come to the Committee on Constables and tell us that they need forty-four constables, and tell us where and why they need them? And if they do that, you can rest assured that 1, for one, will vote for the appointment of forty-four constables, and not eight plus fourteen, or twenty-two. I hope the motion prevails.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, there has been considerable publicity surrounding the constables of the City of Boston in the past few weeks. If I remember correctly, the Boston Finance Commission came out with several reports condemning the use of the constables, claiming that they were not performing any useful work. And subsequently his Honor the Mayor made several statements, which were picked up by the Boston newspapers, saying that there was no use for such a large number of constables. Well, Mr. President, far be it from me to approve of any measure whereby any number of men are going to be employed by the city and not perform useful service for their wages. I think, in view of the fact that we have had so much bad publicity on the constables, that the Chairman of the Committee on Constables should arrange for a hearing. I hope, Mr. President, that this Honorable Body will see fit to refer this matter to the Committee on Constables. I think the public is interested in seeing it referred to the committee. I think that the committee should give a very thorough study to the question as to whether or not the city can use these constables to useful advantage. If the Committee on Constables comes forward with a report that constables are not necessary, and advocates the non-approval, I say here and now that I will vote in support of the committee's report. But the way matters stand now, in view of the Finance Commission's report and past declarations of his Honor the Mayor, I can't see how I can possibly vote to approve this measure. I trust, sir, that your Honorable Body will refer this to the Committee on Constables.

Coun. MUCHNICK—One point that was brought out by Councilor Bayley, Mr. President, was something with which I was not familiar at the time I first arose to speak. That is that the afternoon's newspaper is carrying the story that the Mayor is now in Maryland and is in the hospital for a check-up. It is obvious that the President of the Council will not be able to speak with him tomorrow in Boston for the purpose of clarifying the situation, and it is further very obvious that one of the main arguments advanced in Executive Committee no longer holds water. There was a lot of to-do in Executive Committee about the fact that, if these eight men who are now before us were confirmed by us today, their confirmation could be ratified by the Mayor tomorrow, and they could go to work tomorrow. That situation does not prevail any more. It will be Thursday or Friday at the earliest before the papers could be sent to Washington and returned here, and there is no point, from the point of view of providing these men with an extra week's work, as important as that may be, in rushing this matter through. While it is true that these papers could be flown to Washington and flown back, it would still be at least Wednesday night before that could be done, and it seems to me that they could not be put to work before Thursday at the earliest. In the interest of orderly government in the City of Boston, I am sure that these eight men, as citizens of this great city, would just as soon forego the two days' work if they could possibly have this done in the right manner. There is one further point I would like to cover. His Honor the Mayor stated, either at the luncheon or through the newspapers, I don't recall exactly which, that the functions of some of these constables were limited to going down to the paymaster's office every second or third week, when they got around to it, and picking up their pay check. It seems to me that the Committee on Constables should examine as to whether any of those men who allegedly were doing nothing and collecting the city's money for doing nothing at all are men who have been reappointed. I don't accuse the Mayor of Boston of appointing people to positions for the sole purpose of going down each week to get their pay check, but in the light of history, beginning with January 7, at least, I would like to check into it as a public official in this city, before I take any statement at its face value. And I heartily urge that this go to the committee where it can be given a real exhaustive study.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, not to take up too much time, but there is only one point I would like to bring up and that is that it seems peculiar to me—and I haven't been in the city much more than a year—why this City Council in the past eight years (and most of the members are still presently members) has not had meetings and discussed the need for any constables at all. It is part of the procedure to go on the basis of past experience. The Committee on Constables has suddenly taken on great importance, and I don't think it is entitled to, and I am a member of the committee. I think it was discussed fully in Executive Committee. I think most of the members here, older members than myself, know what that history is, and I hope that the appointments are passed now. I should have asked when Councilor Linehan was speaking as to what measures he was referring to when he said that in the two months we have been here they were carried on in an unbusinesslike manner. I have no recollection of any matter coming before this Body up to today that was not conducted in accordance with the rules, by-laws and regulations of the city government.

Coun. LINEHAN—For the benefit of the gentleman from Ward 12 (Coun. Cook), may I say that I think that an unbusinesslike method means this: When a committee is appointed by the President of the City Council to take up matters particularly which they can study in an exhaustive manner, and then when such a matter is brought up, which is supposed to go to the Committee on Soldiers' Relief, such as the establishment of a veterans' service center in the Soldiers' Relief Department, I think it is unbusinesslike not to give it to that committee.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President.

Coun. LINEHAN—Will the councilor yield in answer to another point?

Coun. COOK—I yield.

Coun. LINEHAN—I also wish to state that we are now in the process of another unbusinesslike matter. The appointment of these constables should be discussed by the Committee on Constables before it comes into this Body. That is perfectly obvious. I, therefore, think that is unbusinesslike. I just mention only two unbusinesslike things, but, to be honest with you, there is another which I just happen to faintly remember reading in the newspapers. This is probably not so good to mention, but as long as my statement was kind of checked up, I might say that it is unbusinesslike to give out contracts without bids, raising the price without going through the proper procedure. That is not Council business, but it is of interest to the Council, and it could be made their business. Now, I am glad to answer any other questions presented to me by the gentleman from Ward 12 (Coun. Cook). I shall yield.

Coun. COOK—I wanted the councilor to answer as to what business came up before this Council that was handled in an unbusinesslike method to date, and I wish to call the attention of the councilor from Ward 7 (Coun. Linehan) to the fact that the veterans matter was taken up before the proper committee.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. Chairman—

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan has the floor.

Coun. LINEHAN—If I remember correctly, Mr. President, it was not in the original instance referred to the proper committee. It was not referred to the Committee on Soldiers' Relief but was committed to the Committee on Ordinances.

President KELLY—Everything you say is correct, but your discussion has nothing to do with the matter before this Honorable Body now. The question is on referring this matter back to the Committee on Constables. The Chair wants to be fair, but the Chair is going to run this meeting under parliamentary procedure.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, a point of order. I ask to be recognized.

Coun. LINEHAN—The gentleman from Ward 12 (Coun. Cook) said that he would like to have asked me some questions while I was on my feet. I then attempted to answer the question, and you permitted me to.

President KELLY—I was lenient; I was wrong. Now the question is on referring this matter back to the Committee on Constables.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I may perhaps say that I take the floor now on a point of personal privilege. In answering the councilor from Ward 12 (Coun. Cook) when he made the statement as to what took place before on this constable matter, I wish to bring to his attention, and also for his information, that, in so far as I am concerned, the question of constables has never been presented to us as it is presented today. No mayor before has made that statement, and no mayor has fired all of them. Therefore, I have taken that stand because his Honor the Mayor saw fit to make the statement that no constables were needed in the city government, and then he says that they are needed. I don't know what the figure is, but at least, to my knowledge so far, it is thirty. I would like to find out whether or not thirty is the proper number. And I would like to find out whether fifteen may not be sufficient, or whether we may need seventy or eighty. So, for his information, that is the situation that exists today. So far as my actions are concerned on constables, then I certainly have voted in the right way. And may I also state that it isn't so much a matter of the individual or individuals that I knew who were constables of the City of Boston. One of them was the father of four children, and he was fired without any notice whatsoever. It was promised that he should be back to work, but that has not been done, and I have seen to it that that individual receives $35 a week, in order for him to support his family, out of my earnings that I get out of the City Council, $40-odd. Thank God that I happen to be in business, and I can use his labor. That is not the point. The point is, how many do we need? Is he going to take away one constable from me that I submitted and give it to someone else because he fits? Let us find out. If thirty is the number, let us give him thirty. I don't give a darn if he doesn't give me one. But let us find out the exact figure of how many we need. And I don't mean to imply that I am in discord with his Honor the Mayor. I have no quarrel with him. I have not even talked to him. But I say, let us be fair with ourselves; let us be fair with the Mayor; and let us be fair, above all, with the citizens of Boston. And that is why I urge that this matter be referred to the Committee on Constables. Let them give us a report and, after they have given us their report, then we can make up our minds according to our conscience and according to the best of our ability.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, I would like to point out to the councilor from Ward 12 (Coun. Cook) and also to other new members of the Council, if they are not already familiar with it, that in the three and a half years in which I have served in this Council, if my recollection is correct, never has an appointment of a constable, whether individually or in groups, been submitted to the Executive Committee before; that in almost every instance, if not in all instances, it has been laid over for a week, and has been acted upon by the Constables Committee. Most of the time it has been by an actual meeting of the Committee on Constables, many of which I have attended, having been a member of the committee. I think, in all three years, and last year, not so much by way of a meeting, but last year by way of a poll of the committee, which took place with the approval stamp of the appointment by the Clerk of Committees before action by the Council. If it is not done that way today, it will be the first time to my knowledge that it has not been done that way. And if, incidentally, this is referred to the Committee on Constables, there will be a meeting of the committee on Thursday at two o'clock, at which time representatives from the Mayor's office and the different departments would be asked to attend, and they can give us their story as to what they know.

A vote was taken, and the Chair, with two other members joining, doubted the vote and asked for a roll call. The roll was called, and the motion to refer to the Committee on Constables was lost, yeas 7, nays 9.

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Chase, Hannon, Keenan, Linehan, Muchnick, Russo—7.

Nays—Coun. Bryan, Cook, Fish, Hurley, Kelly, Lane, Madden, McCormack, Moriarty—9.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I move reconsideration of the motion before the committee.

A vote was taken on the motion to reconsider, and the motion was lost. Coun. RUSSO doubted the vote and asked for a roll call. The roll was called on the matter of reconsideration, and the motion was lost, yeas 6, nays 10.

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Chase, Keenan, Linehan, Muchnick, Russo—6.

Nays—Coun. Bryan, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Kelly, Lane, McCormack, Madden, Moriarty—10.

The question came on confirmation, and the Chair appointed Coun. Russo and Madden as a committee to receive, sort and count the ballots.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, I rise to a point of information.

President KELLY—State your point.

Coun. Muchnick—Can we vote on each one individually?

President KELLY—Councilor, I am informed by the clerk we can vote on each individual individually, but it will require a roll call on each one, and three members or more of the Council must stand.

Coun. MUCHNICK—You mean to make it individual?

President KELLY—That is right, to make it individual.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Is a motion in order to confirm the first four names on the list, and lay the other four on the table?

President KELLY—Well, I am informed a motion is in order to confirm the first four.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Well, if the motion is in order, without making the positive motion, is an inactive motion to lay the last four on the table in order?

President KELLY—I am informed you can make one motion at a time.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I move the last four names on the list submitted by the Mayor be laid on the table.

A vote was taken, and the motion was lost. Coun. MUCHNICK, with two members joining, doubted the vote, and asked for a roll call. The roll was called, and the motion was lost, yeas 5, nays 11.

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Chase, Keenan, Linehan, Muchnick—5.

Nays—Coun. Bryan, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Kelly, Lane, Madden, McCormack, Moriarty, Russo—11.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—State your point.

Coun. HANNON—Is a motion in order now that when the vote be taken it be taken by yeas and nays?

President KELLY—If two members will join with you, councilor.

(Coun. LINEHAN and BAYLEY join.)

Coun. KEENAN—Mr. President, not having spoken, I find myself in a very peculiar position here. I am very much interested in seeing a certain man go to work as constable. There is a name here that appears on the list his Honor the Mayor sent up that is a constituent in my ward, and I don't want to deprive him of going to work, but I certainly am not going to vote for any name on that list until I have assurance from his Honor the Mayor or his secretary that the constable's name I submitted is going to go to work, and for that reason I want it understood that by voting against the list that his Honor the Mayor sent up I am not voting against his Honor the Mayor. I want to protect the man that I am interested in as a councilor.

President KELLY—The gentleman can vote as he desires.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I am in somewhat the same position as Councilor Keenan. There are three men on this list with whom I am very friendly. I don't know whether they qualify for the positions for which they have been appointed. I don't know if there are positions necessary for them to fill. And I don't have any accurate knowledge on which to base an affirmative vote. It is for that reason, and not because I want to vote against this man or any other man, or for these men or any other men, that I find it necessary, particularly in view of the fact that I am chairman of the committee that should handle this, to vote against any of the appointments.

Coun. RUSSO—Seeing that they all are giving an explanation, I might as well give an explanation.

President KELLY—We will be glad to hear from you, councilor.

Coun. COOK—A point of order, Mr. President. I think we are ready for a vote, and I don't think any more talk is in order, the matter having been discussed, and I press my point.

President KELLY—Councilor, debate is in order at any time. The roll call has not been started, so debate is in order. Councilor Russo, be as brief as possible.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I will be as brief as possible. I am placed in a very peculiar position also. I don't know which stand to take. It isn't that I have any reason as far as those names that have been submitted to us are concerned. As I said before, the only reason I wanted this to be referred to a committee was to find out how many we really do need. It is all right, brother councilors, your shoe may be on the other foot some other day, and it will be so far as I am concerned. There is a particular name there and I would like to see the man go to work, a man that I know personally, and therefore I would not vote against the matter. But remember these words.

The question came on confirmation, and the roll was called, and the appointments were confirmed, yeas 11, nays 4:

Yeas—Coun. Bryan, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Kelly, Lane, Madden, McCormack, Moriarty, Russo—11.

Nays—Coun. Bayley, Chase, Linehan, Muchnick—4.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RULES.

Coun. LANE, for the Committee on Rules, submitted the following:

Report on resolve (referred today) that Council protests action of Boston University in ordering tenants at 264-270 Bay State road to vacate premises, and requests that Trustees and President Marsh either defer indefinitely such proposed action or abandon permanently during the present housing shortage any proposal to cause said tenants to vacate the premises at said location—that same ought to pass.

The report was accepted and the question came on the passage of the resolution.

Coun. LANE—Mr. President and fellow members of this Body, and if I am not speaking out of order I will also include the gentlemen of the press, because I feel that last night we had the gentlemen from the respective papers present at a protest meeting held at W. N. A. C. club rooms, and these gentlemen here today are picking up where their fellow associates left off last night. When I introduced this resolution today it was referred to the Committee on Rules, and as chairman of the Committee on Rules I polled each member individually, and all agreed to report favorably so that the matter could come before the Body today. The majority of the members voted it ought to pass. I firmly believe that every adult person in the United States today is thoroughly familiar with the fact that a most unprecedented housing shortage exists in every city, town and hamlet of this country. We have read from the press of this city and other cities about unfair evictions, but never before, to my mind and to the minds of many others whom I have consulted, has a wholesale eviction been planned such as is being planned now in the City of Boston in a very exclusive apartment house at Nos. 264-270 Bay State road in Boston, a six-story structure having forty apartments, and having 115 persons occupants therein. The trustees of Boston University, the recorded owners of this property, have served notice that they intend to order all tenants evicted in order that the trustees of the university may convert the property into a dormitory for girls. Most of the girls are very likely coming from outside the bounds of our own Commonwealth. As I have said previously, some 115 persons will be so evicted, four of whom are aged, bed-ridden patients, eleven others of whom are veterans of this World War. A protest meeting was held last night. Another protest meeting is being held tonight at the Yankee Network. A hearing is set and scheduled for tomorrow morning before the OPA. In the rules of the OPA it specifically states that no evictions will be approved by the regional area officer of the OPA unless there exists a compelling necessity, and in this instance we feel that no compelling necessity is present. The university now owns the property, and it is recorded in the names of the trustees of Boston University. It is assessed, the entire building, 264-270 Bay State road, by the assessors of our city for $166,000. You can easily see, with a tax rate of $42.50, if such a move is approved, the City of Boston, the Assessing Department, will charge off $7,000 in taxes, because, I am told by the Assessing Department today, if Boston University transfers that into a girls dormitory they will lose no time in requesting tax exemption. Now, I have also been in touch with the secretary of the Boston Apartment Owners' Association, 1318 Beacon street, Brookline, an organization recognized as the official body of all apartment house owners in this city. I have been told that not one apartment is available, let alone necessary and proper facilities for the forty families who would be evicted if this is allowed by the OPA. The President of Boston University, for whom I have a very high regard, Daniel L. Marsh, is very, very determined, apparently, as are all the members of his Board of Trustees, to evict these tenants, most of whom have been there for a period of at least five years, and many of whom have been tenants on the premises for some twenty years. It is all right for that same honorable gentleman, Daniel L. Marsh, to occupy a most imposing structure across the street, at 225 Bay State road, with some twenty or more rooms, with ten baths, with two in his family and one hired servant. He certainly cannot have sympathy for the housing shortages that exist today. And I urge you gentlemen to suspend the rules here. The hearing is tomorrow, and I urge you to suspend the rules to allow our honorable City Clerk to transmit without delay a notice to the President of the Board of Trustees for action on this order. Thank you.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Talking on the resolution, Mr. President. I don't have the good fortune to have attended Boston University, nor am I a graduate of Boston University, but it seems to me we ought to go a little bit slowly in acting in any way upon this particular resolution. In the first place, I don't feel that we as a municipal body in an executive capacity should pass resolutions in an attempt in any way to sway the opinion of the OPA, which is hearing this in a semi-judicial capacity, that if it were a court procedure might amount to contempt of court. And I don't think we ought to be involved in anything like that. While it is true, to continue on the merits, that some forty apartment holders are going to be greatly inconvenienced if they have to get out of these premises, it may be that eliminating them is the lesser of two evils. The purpose, as I understand it, of putting these people out is to convert this building into a dormitory for girls who are and will be students at Boston University. Most of them, as I understand it, are discharged Wacs and Waves who have been guaranteed under the Bill of Rights, under the G. I. Bill of Rights, that they are going to get a college education if they want it. Most colleges have all the necessary facilities for students except buildings in which to house them. Now it may be in the cause of education, particularly in the cause of education for discharged Wacs and Waves, that it is the lesser of two evils to put these people out and to allow ex-service girls in, and it seems to me that we should not pass on this resolution until such time as President Marsh or the trustees of Boston University have had a chance to say something. Now, while it may be that the OPA is going to hear this tomorrow, I am convinced that there probably will be no decision for a couple of weeks. There probably won't even be a completed hearing for the rest of the week. And I would suggest that we do nothing until next week, during which time we may be able to get the views of the trustees of Boston University.

Coun. BAYLEY—Talking on the resolution, Mr. President, I believe that we have committees here who are to carry on the business of the Council. And I believe that it is provided in Rule 30 of the rules as we have adopted them that "No meeting of any committee shall, without the consent of all the members thereof, be called upon less notice than twenty-four hours from the time the clerk shall have mailed the notices or dispatched them by special messenger, provided, however, that meetings of the executive committee may be held in the recess period of any meeting of the Council without such consent or notice." And then: "No committee meetings shall be called later than one hour immediately preceding the time set for any regular meeting of the City Council, nor shall any committee remain in session later than the hour named for any such regular meeting." Mr. Chairman, while I am in sympathy with this resolution, nevertheless, it should be passed in a legal way. The plain intent of the rules we have adopted is to refer it to committee, have that committee have a meeting, and report it back. I question if this has been observed today, and if notices could be mailed in twenty-four hours in advance of the meeting, when it only came in today. We must observe a businesslike proceeding here today. I ask you, sir, for a ruling, if a committee can report back the same day, as in Rule 30?

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, may I tell the gentleman from Ward 5 (Coun. Bayley), through you, that we did have a meeting and unanimously passed the matter?

President KELLY—Does that clear up the matter?

Coun. BAYLEY—If all the members were present and consented, that takes care of that. But I still feel that this matter should have a thorough investigation. I think it only fair that a committee hearing should be held, and not only representatives of the tenants should be present, but representatives of Boston University also should be allowed to appear, so that we may hear that side of the question. I agree with the councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick) that we should wait and act slowly until both sides may be heard, so all matters passed by the City Council shall have due consideration and due deliberation. A vote was taken, and the resolution was adopted. Coun. BAYLEY doubted the vote and asked for a rising vote.

President KELLY—How many members will join with Councilor Bayley?

Coun. BAYLEY—I asked for a rising vote.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. Do you need more than one person to stand for a rising vote?

President KELLY—No, you do not.

The resolution was adopted on a rising vote. Coun. BAYLEY asked for a roll call, but was not sustained.

The resolution was adopted.

REOPENING OF PASSAGEWAY UNDER NEW HAVEN TRACKS.

Coun. ELECTION OF CHAIRMAN

The Committee proceeded to the election of a Chairman, and the Secretary was directed to call the roll.

On roll call, the members respectively voted as follows:

For CLEMENT A. NORTON—Messrs. Foley, McDevitt, Ward, and White—4.

NOT VOTING—Mr. Norton—1.

On motion of Mr. White, the election of Mr. Norton as Chairman of the School Committee was declared unanimous, and Mr. Norton assumed the Chair.

Chairman: As I have said before, there are only two times, when you die they say you were a former member and the next day a little publicity and beyond that it is ephemeral and transitory.

I want to congratulate Mr. Ward for his year of service. I don't know of anyone who conducted these meetings as well as he did. He never quarreled with us and never got excited and never cut any of us off.

I want to congratulate you, Mr. Ward, and when you are not here I miss you.

He comes from the ranks of the city politicians and we are all suspects. It is unfortunate, but it is so. One thing I want to say, since he has been on this School Committee everything he has done has been for the best interests of the children, and I never met him or talked to him before he was a member of this Board.

Chairman: Might I interject at this point that I have written out a statement, and I would like the members of the Committee to hear it. It relates to a remark relative to the high cost of schools. The Committee will work 100 per cent with Mayor Curley. We never pass a budget unless the Mayor first agrees to it, so he has a gentleman's agreement veto power now. The Mayor asks why the School Department has spent $15,230,000 to educate 137,000 pupils in 1933, and $18,000,000 in 1945 to educate only 96,000, even though we have 450 less teachers today than in 1933.

The answer is this: Costs of everything have gone up. Our schools are used at night by the people more than ever and this costs money. No teacher can properly teach forty pupils, so pupil numbers have been lowered, and this costs money.

Most big cities have the same situation. Here is where research comes in. We have these figures. It cost Washington, D. C., $10,407,000 to educate 83,679 pupils in 1937. It cost $12,521,000 for 77,761 pupils in 1945. In similar years, St. Louis paid $10,051,000 to educate 104,743 pupils, and $13,594,000 for 90,559 pupils. Cleveland and Los Angeles have the same situation.

In 1930 the School Budget was $20,000,000 and today it is $16,000,000.

Now we have to be fair in this survey. There are two large cities that have decreased their expenses with decreased pupils, and those are Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. Philadelphia spent $3,000,000 less, or $2,500,000 less on 215,000 pupils in 1945. Pittsburgh spent $13,750,000 on 118,504 pupils in 1933 and $13,270,000 on 82,000 pupils, or $450,000 less in 1945.

Those are the only two cases where the costs decreased with decreased enrollment.

Many of our teachers are college graduates and very low paid. During the war pupils and clerks in the 5 and 10-cent-store earned more than a teacher. I am opposed to pay cuts of any kind and to firing anybody, but the 160 teachers who resign or retire each year should not be replaced.

ADOPTION OF RULES AND REGULATIONS

On motion, it was ORDERED, That the Rules of the School Committee and the Regulations of the Public Schools of last year which involve the expenditure of money, are hereby adopted for the present year until otherwise ordered.

On motion, it was

ELECTION OF TREASURER

The Committee proceeded to the election of a Treasurer of the Corporation.

The Secretary was directed to call the roll, and the members as their names were called respectively voted as follows:

For DANIEL J. McDEVITT—Messrs. Foley, Norton, Ward, and White—4.

On motion, Daniel J. McDevitt was declared Treasurer of the Corporation by unanimous vote.

ADDRESS BY FATHER REDDING

On motion of Mr. Ward, the following was ordered spread upon the records:

PREFACE FOR PEACE BY

The Rev. John P. Redding, S. T. D.
Professor of Philosophy, Emmanuel College

(Address given at the meeting of the Boston Home and School Association at Roslindale High School, November 15, 1945).

At 7 o'clock on the evening of August 14th, President Truman announced the thrilling news that the Imperial Japanese Government had accepted the surrender terms of the Allied Nations. A sigh of relief escaped from the hearts of a hundred million Americans at this news for now four years of suffering and sacrifice had ended in the collapse of tyranny and the triumph of freedom. Indeed God had been merciful. On this night 90 days later we look around the world to see the happiness and gaiety of the people of the world and the prosperity and contentment of the Peace. Instead we find that in the Far East 11 million men are fighting a civil war in China; in the Near East civil riot amounting to civil war has desecrated the Holy Land; in South America, Brazil and Argentina again are going through the throes of another civil revolt; in the Netherland East Indies, once again war and revolt are the order of the day.

In America, the end of the war has brought only the millions of workers out on strike, with the resulting violence and hardship for management and labor. In short, instead of basking in the sunlight of Peace, the peoples of the world will not take down their storm windows because hurricanes of still greater force seem about to break over us. Having spent a trillion dollars, and what is more important, having killed 50,000,000 human beings in the blood bath called World War II, every man, woman and child expected and has the right to demand that the Four Horsemen of Death, and Famine and Plague and War would no longer rule the world. We look for the noon day sun of Peace and find instead a blood red moon.

An absolute Peace is the desire of every Mother whose heart has been wrenched by the death of her son; an absolute Peace is the demand of every man who has seen his friend and buddy snatched from his side by an enemy bullet. Every one wants Peace, but Peace seems far away. How can we secure Peace? How can we maintain Peace?

There have been many suggestions and plans for Peace. Some maintain that armies and armament will give us Peace. Armies and armament have demonstrated that they will never bring Peace. They may forestall war for a time, but ultimately they bring only what they were made for, viz., "graveyards where are gathered the remains of victims in ever increasing numbers." Germany and Japan are two examples of countries which maintained huge armies as a guarantee of peace, yet these have been the first countries to start wars and the countries which suffered the greatest punishments of war. NO! armies and armament will never nor have they ever brought Peace.

Others say that diplomacy and diplomatic agreements will secure the Peace. Diplomacy has shown itself as ineffective to ward off bombs, as Prime Minister Chamberlain's umbrella was to stop the tanks of Hitler. Perhaps scientific advance will secure the Peace? Remember as Dorothy Thompson the columnist has said in this regard—Germany was not behind any other nation in the world, including our own, in scientific advancement, in medicine, in labor-saving devices, in school or universities.

What then can be suggested to bring about Peace and security? The answer, I think, can be found in an historical event which took place some 170 years ago when the Constitution of our country was written. Fulton Oursler broadcast the story a few weeks ago in his radio program. You will recall that after the Revolutionary War, the thirteen colonies met in Philadelphia to pool their resources for the formation of one strong nation. For five weeks in the heat of a Philadelphia summer the delegates to this Convention argued, discussed, and rejected the various proposals presented. Finally Benjamin Franklin, then 81 years of age, arose and delivered the following words of advice to the delegates of the Thirteen Colonies: "The small progress we have made after four or five weeks close attendance and continual reasonings with each other is, methinks, a melancholy proof of the imperfection of human understanding. In this situation, groping to find political strength and scarce able to distinguish it when presented to us, how has it happened, sir, that we have not hitherto once thought of applying to the Father to illuminate our understanding? In the beginning of the contest with Britain, when we were sensible of dangers, we had daily prayers in this room for Divine protection. Our prayers, sir, were heard and they were graciously answered."

"I have lived, sir, a long time, and the longer I live the more convincing proof I see of this truth—that God governs in the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without His notice, is it probable that an empire can rise without His aid? I believe that without His concurring aid, we shall succeed in this political building no better than the builders of Babel. We ourselves shall become a reproach and a by-word down to future ages."

Fulton Oursler then gives the result of that plea. "The delegates adjourned to go home. They prayed. And when they returned on August 6th they wrote the Constitution of the United States of America. No bomb that could have been thrown into Constitution Hall could have made those delegates change. Only prayers could do that. No invented contraption could have changed the minds of those men, transformed their hearts so that they could forget their squabbles and write that immortal document. They could build a nation because they went back to God."

If only the members of the Peace Conference in 1945 or 1946 could write a document which would be as successful as the Constitution of the United States, no one would worry about the wars of the future, nor about the possibility of your children's children dying on a foreign shore or in a foreign jungle. But the document as successful as the Constitution can be written only if the delegates will take the same means and appeal to the same authority as did the delegates of the Philadelphia Assembly—they must appeal and pray to God.

Do not think that such a suggestion is merely the wish of some saintly group of people who are out of touch with the world and the things of the world. That the peace document must be based upon the word and will of God is the opinion of no less an authority on war than General MacArthur. Standing on the deck of the U. S. S. Missouri where the surrender of Japan was signed, General MacArthur said that the problem of peace was basically theological, and involves—an improvement of human character which will synchronize with our almost matchless advance in science, art, and all—development of the past 2000 years. It must be of the spirit, if we are to save the flesh. (The Catholic Digest, November, p. 19) General Dwight Eisenhower at a banquet tendered him in Boston this week made the definite statement; "I feel nothing but a spiritual awakening will lift the world out of the condition we now face" (Boston Herald, 11/12/45).

Dorothy Thompson, well known columnist in the September issue of the Ladies Home Journal maintains that when the modern world rejects God it becomes devilish; its education system must glorify something else in God's place. When education rejects God it consistently rejects His moral law and then, lust and dishonesty and brutality follow as a matter of course.

Drew Pearson, one of the better known columnists of the country, during the past few months has proposed that the Peace document be based upon the Beatitudes as being the best plan ever offered man as the secret of personal and collective security.

From these few professional writers and from the history of the Constitution of the United States it appears obvious that the presence of God at the Conferences for Peace is the only guarantee for the success of that long sought for peace. Where in the history of the world can there be found a document of ten sentences which can be even compared with the Ten Commandments? Where can there be found the document of eight sentences which can hold out the comfort and spiritual thrill of the Eight Beatitudes? These are God's statements for peace and tranquility and well-being. Will any man or any group of men dare reject these Divine plans and substitute his own meagre thoughts? If they do then let them remember their history. It was attempted in 1918 at Versailles and the seeds sown at the Conference instead of bringing forth the lilies of peace and the roses of beauty brought forth a devil's garden of cactus and suffering and death. Will the writers of this new Peace ignore the 50,000,000 corpses of this war? Will the writers of this Peace be blind to the oceans of tears shed over loved ones who will speak no more?

A new civilization, a new house must arise out of the ashes of the two wars which have been fought in the last generation. Make sure that this new house will be built according to the plan of God. Let that house have as its foundation the Ten Commandments; the Ten Commandments so that one nation will not steal another country simply because it is stronger, any more than I may steal your coat because I am bigger than you are; the Ten Commandments so that no nation will covet another country's wealth or trade any more than you may covet your neighbor's wife or husband; the Ten Commandments — so that throughout the world, one day each week, will be God's Day when we would do honor to God rather than forgetting the God who made us. If such be the foundation of our new house, God will be the ever present Member of our family, rather than the Guest invited only at the time of trouble. Let that new house of ours have two entrances of Justice and Charity which includes that mercy of which Shakespeare wrote "it is twice blessed, it blesses him that gives and him that takes." Let's be our brother's keeper rather than our brother's assassin. Let that house have the eight Beatitudes as windows of our new house so that our children may peek through those windows and see the blue sky of God's heaven unmarred by the smoke of battle. Let that house have as its roof and protection, the prayers of a grateful people thanking the God Who made and protects them.

To have a strong and flourishing Peace we must plant the seeds of virtues in the human heart; we must let the sunshine of God's religion shine upon it; we must water it with God's grace. Then and only then will we have a flower garden of virtues and peace. If we fail in this second chance at World Peace we will have failed to keep trust with our dead. We will be traitors to our fallen heroes; we will be the widows and orphans of the next generation. Please God do not let that happen again. You and You alone can prevent it—save us from our own stupidity and give us Peace.

The Committee adjourned.

Total	$1,211,730.00

On December 31, 1945, our department closed its books with an unexpended balance of approximately $23,401.20. The exact amount of this balance is in process of checking in the City Auditor's department.

Your Committee will notice that the total appropriation requested this year is $1,211,730.00 which is $125,890.00 in excess of the amount appropriated in 1945. The amount of the appropriation requested this year is well within the statutory limits of $1,221,085.38.

We have endeavored to request for this year an appropriation not in excess of what was appropriated last year, but this we found impossible to do, in view of the fact that the provisions of the Department of Public Safety required our department to make many alterations in order to conform with Chapter 143, increasing the amount of our budget for Fire Protection alone $80,000.00 more than the amount appropriated in 1945 for this purpose.

In addition it is our intention to reconvert the boiler plants in approximately thirty-five buildings to the use of oil as fuel. These plants you will recall, because of war conditions, were converted from oil to coal burning and account for a further increase in our budget requirements of approximately $50,000.00.

We sincerely hope that the budget as presented in detail will meet with your approval.

The Superintendent made the following statement:

On Dec. 19, 1945, I attended a meeting of the Boston Host Lions Club and on this occasion the Club made a presentation of fourteen table radios for use in the Classes for Conservation of Eyesight in the public schools of this city. I know that these radios will be of great value to the pupils in these classes.

The report of the Superintendent was ordered spread upon the records and the Secretary was directed to extend to the Boston Host Lions Club the deep appreciation of the members of the School Committee for this fine gift to the public schools of this city.

LOANS TO TEACHERS BY SAVINGS BANK

Mr. Ward made the following statement:

Some time ago it was brought to my attention by a judge in one of our courts that in a number of cases that had come before his court the applicants for small loans were invariably unable to pay because the rate of interest on small loans is 36 per cent plus charges and fines, which overtaxes the small wage earner.

Regardless of public opinion, a school teacher is a small wage earner. Many teachers are forced into court by the so-called "loan sharks." I assume that the reason they go to loan sharks is because they have no means of knowing that under the present law reputable savings institutions are open to them and can loan them money at a 6 per cent rate, with no fines and no charges.

I appeared before the Council of Presidents some three weeks ago and presented a letter from the President of the Union Savings Bank of Boston, in which he has offered to our school personnel an opportunity for them, when occasion demands, to borrow money on not less than a 6% discount basis.

I want to read into the record this letter to permit the Council of Presidents to digest it and so that the school personnel, in general, may have an understanding of what the savings banks can do for them if they are forced to borrow money.

The letter referred to follows:
UNION SAVINGS BANK OF BOSTON
216 Tremont Street, Boston 16
December 28, 1945.

Mr. Michael J. Ward, Chairman,
Boston School Committee,
15 Beacon Street,
Boston 8, Massachusetts.

Dear Mr. Ward:

As Chairman of the School Committee of the City of Boston, and knowing of your sincere interest in the welfare of the teachers and other employees of the School Department, may I call your attention to a recent law enacted by our legislature whereby the savings banks of Massachusetts are now enabled to make Personal Loans to any one borrower up to $1,000.

Such a loan is available to any person regularly employed and in each case must be repaid in equal monthly installments over a period of time not exceeding eighteen months.

Naturally, in addition to doing business with a long established strong savings bank, the paramount consideration to the borrower is the interest rate charged on the loan. In most cases, our rate is figured on not less than 6% discount basis. For example, to borrow $108 for twelve months, the borrower would pay back $9 each month. The cost of the loan would be $6.48. I believe a comparison of these figures with those of most other finance companies will show that the borrower can effect a substantial savings in interest charges.

The Union Savings Bank, 216 Tremont Street, Boston, welcomes applications for loans of this type.

For your further information, there is enclosed a folder relative to Personal Loans.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) William B. Carolan,
President.

Placed on file.

Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"
From Boston Centennial Poem by NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

MAYOR CURLEY NAMES CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON NAMING SQUARES FOR HEROES OF WAR.

His Honor the Mayor on March 1 forwarded the following communication to the City Council:

GENTLEMEN,—It is obvious that the termination of hostilities will result in many requests for the naming of squares or circles in memory of residents of Boston who were killed or died in the service of our country. It is equally obvious that neither the City Council, nor the Mayor, have the facilities or the time to weigh and adjudge each such request.

In order, therefore, that we may co-operate in the naming of squares or circles in memory of those most deserving of that honor, I hereby appoint the following-named Committee Memorializing Veterans, to whom I shall look for advise before approving any orders for the naming of squares or circles:

Richard Casey, Chairman, Board of Street Commissioners.

David J. Brickley, Soldiers' Relief Commissioner.

A. Ralph Granara, Veterans' Graves Registration Officer.

It shall be the function of this committee, among other things, to determine the degree of merit attached to each case, whether the spot to be named is desirable; whether the individual was a resident of that area; whether or not other individuals in that area are entitled to consideration; whether or not veterans' organizations approve the proposed naming, and other related information which will permit the naming of squares and circles for those who sacrificed their lives in the service of our nation.

It is my suggestion that before members of your Honorable Body submit an order for passage, that you first submit all available information in the case to the committee. It is most desirable that we exercise our authority in this matter with proper caution and with proper regard for all the facts. It should be our purpose to accord the honor of naming a square or circle to only those who are richly entitled to this memorial. It is my intention to be guided by the advise of the committee in all future cases.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

MAYOR CALLS CONFERENCE ON EAST BOSTON TRANSIT PROBLEM.

His Honor the Mayor on March 1 forwarded the following letter to members of the State Planning Board, City Planning Board, Transit Department, Law Department, Trustees and General Manager of the Boston Elevated Railway Company, the City Auditor, City Treasurer and Budget Commissioner of Boston:

DEAR SIR,—Chapter 692 of the Acts of 1945 making provision for rapid transit extension in East Boston to Day Square and the Vicinity of the Airport provided that \$5,000,000 and the customary $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent rental be provided for this work.

Since 1945 when the act was adopted certain changes have taken place in the cost of material and in labor costs and it is estimated there may be an increase of 50 per cent or more in the cost of construction.

In the opinion of the Transit Commission the rental of $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent could very well be reduced to 3 per cent which would lessen the burden to be borne annually by the city and the term of maturity should be forty-five years.

It is desirable that you make a special effort to be present at a meeting to which have been invited the State and City Planning Boards, Transit Commission, Trustees and General Manager of the Boston Elevated Railway Street Company, the City Treasurer, Corporation Counsel, City Auditor and Budget Commissioner, to be held at the Mayor's Office, School street, Boston, on Monday, March 4, 1946, at 12 noon.

Sincerely,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

$1,342,038.55 OVER EXPENDITURES CLEARED BY WATER SERVICE.

The Mayor has approved the following request of the City Auditor:

BOSTON, February 25, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—According to the records of this office the receipts of the Water Division of the Public Works Department in 1945 exceeded total expenditures by $1,342,038.55. Under the provisions of section 1 of chapter 324 of the Acts of 1914, this surplus "shall be used to meet interest and sinking fund requirements or serial loan payments on any debt of the City of Boston." I respectfully request your approval of my application of this surplus in the manner as prescribed by the statute previously mentioned. Your approval of this application will, in effect, reduce the amount to be provided in the tax levy for debt requirements by an amount equal to the surplus.

Respectfully,

CHARLES J. FOX,
City Auditor.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor has approved contracts with commercial houses, contractors, etc., for furnishing supplies, etc., for the several departments interested. Communications from the heads of the departments were as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

BOSTON, February 18, 1946.

HON. JOHN B. KELLY,

Acting Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Practically without interruption, work of removing dangerous portions of the R. C. Humphries School, which was destroyed by fire has been in progress since receipt of your approval to perform emergency work as of February 7. This work is being performed under the personal direction of Mr. William Tonner, inspector of this department.

Mr. Tonner was obliged to determine the progressive procedure necessary to avoid collapse of the upper part of the structure and has found it necessary to remove portions of masonry walls which became unstable due to the necessity of removal of lateral supports and the progression has been so extensive that concealed portions of structure, now exposed, require further emergency action.

As the upset cost of three thousand (3,000) dollars which you approved September 7 is not sufficient to cover the costs of the emergency work which must be continued, in order to protect the public, I ask your approval in writing to make an additional expenditure not to exceed two thousand (2,000) dollars to Daniel Marr & Son Company, Inc., without the formality of advertising.

This is an acute emergency which will not permit of delay.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, February 20, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Authority is requested to incur expenditure not exceeding $2,000 for boat hire when required as a substitute for the steamer "Stephen O'Meara."

This department has been accustomed to hire the "723," or equal, at $30 per round trip to allow the "O'Meara" crew time off,—two trips Sunday morning and as required on holidays. We have recently added a 6 p. m. trip on Saturday for the convenience of employees.

These trips are covered by service orders and charged to Item B-10 of the steamer budget (see orders Nos. 1, 2, 5, 8 and such other orders as may be required).

In addition to the above regular trips we are obliged to hire a substitute boat when either the "O'Meara" or "Perkins" are out for repairs and charge same to Item B-39. The department usually hires the steamship "Corkum," a larger boat, at $70 per day for this purpose, although occasionally, when the "Corkum" is not available, the "723" is used for this purpose (see service orders Nos. 4, 6, 7).

The prices appear reasonable and I believe nothing could be gained by advertising.

Respectfully,

G. FRANK McDONALD,
Commissioner.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, February 27, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—On January 5, 1946, a contract was made with Marinucci Brothers & Co. for emergency repairs to the decking, roadway and piles of Warren Bridge, over Charles river.

Although this bridge is in such a condition that it will have to be rebuilt in the near future, the work contemplated under this contract was entirely of an emergency nature in order to keep the bridge in operation while Charlestown Bridge—because of the accident which occurred last December—was out of commission. The estimated cost was $6,000.

The Charlestown Bridge work was delayed while the Boston Elevated Railway awaited the approval of the Department of Public Utilities on its plans for the temporary support of the Elevated structure, and the delivery of steel girders and beams was held up by the recent strike in the steel industry. While this work is now progressing satisfactorily, it will be at least six weeks before the bridge can be reopened to full use. In the meantime, it is absolutely necessary that Warren Bridge be kept in constant repair and that incipient breaks be taken care of before they become too serious.

Because of the facts stated and, furthermore, because of the immediate need of taking care of this additional emergency work which cannot be deferred, I feel that the present contractor should be engaged for the purpose of making these repairs. His work has been entirely satisfactory, and his force is thoroughly familiar with what has to be done.

I therefore respectfully ask the permission of your Honor to dispense with advertising and to award an additional contract for emergency repairs on Warren Bridge, to Marinucci Brothers & Co., in the estimated amount of $6,000. In my opinion, under the conditions which exist in regard to this bridge, it is to the city's advantage to handle the matter in this manner.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

CONSTRUCTION WORK.

The Mayor has approved the request of the Public Works Department for the following construction work:

A sanitary sewer of 10-inch pipe in E street, between Silver street and West Broadway, in the South Boston district, at an estimated cost of $1,700.

EXTENSION OF CONTRACTS.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

J. W. Praught Company has been granted an extension of the time of completion of the contract for furnishing and installing steam pumps, etc., at the Boston Trade High School, which contract was approved July 5, 1945. Completion date to be extended from February 28, 1946, to August 1, 1946. This extension is requested for the reason that the manufacturers are unable to obtain the necessary castings due to labor conditions.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Marinucci Brothers & Co. have been granted an extension of the time of completion of the contract for construction work on the Boston Street, Dorchester Avenue and Southampton Street Bridges, over the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, to April 27, 1946. This extension is requested for the reason that this work was delayed due to the inability of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad to obtain the labor and materials necessary to do its portion of the work.

Charles A. Maguire & Associates have been granted an extension of the time of completion of the contract for professional services in connection with the reconstruction of Meridian Street Bridge, over Chelsea creek, between Boston and Chelsea, to February 28, 1946. This extension is requested for the reason that the Bridge Service of this department requires more time to check the plans and specifications submitted by Charles A. Maguire & Associates and to give that firm such time to make revisions as may be necessary.

J. D'Amico has been granted an extension of time of completion of the contract for sewerage works in Pontiac street, Humboldt avenue and South Huntington avenue, Roxbury, approved by his Honor the Mayor, December 24, 1945, said contract to have been completed within sixty days after approval by the Mayor, from February 24, 1946, to April 24, 1946. This extension is requested for the reason that the contractor engaged on this work was unnecessarily delayed due to the severity of the weather.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

BUDGET FOR 1946.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 25, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I submit herewith supplementary appropriation order for the expenses of the city and county for the current fiscal year. This appropriation order is in addition to the amounts allowed by me for departments and activities submitted to your Honorable Body on February 4, 1946.

It was my original intention to submit the budget for the year 1946 in full segregated form. After conferences with the financial officers of the city, however, I have concluded that existing conditions preclude such a segregation. At the present time, due to unstable price levels, it is impossible to make accurate allowances for the purchase of supplies, equipment and materials, nor is it possible to estimate with accuracy the cost of necessary plant repairs, or the cost of non-contributory pension retirements. Under such conditions, it is obvious that a fully segregated budget for 1946 would result in the necessity for innumerable transfers. In order to avoid such a contingency, it is my opinion that the budget for 1946 should be adopted in as flexible a form as is possible, consistent with sound and economical procedure.

Under my instructions, the Budget Commissioner and the City Auditor will exercise control over departmental appropriations and activities. Under such a plan, we may be certain that there will be no abuse of the flexible character of the budget allowances.

The budget allowances for 1946 total $55,328,186.37 and are $5,067,530.18 in excess of the budget allowances for 1945. This increase over last year's allowances is attributable to the following main factors:

1. Increased payroll costs because of salary increases and appointments during the year 1945, and because of the return of veterans.
2. Increased costs for supplies, including food, fuel, etc., equipment, and materials.
3. Increased costs of plant repairs, acutely necessary because of long deferment.
4. Increased costs for retirement of employees under non-contributory pension provisions.
5. Increased costs for old age assistance because of mandatory statutory requirements.

It will be noted that in the budget allowances for various departments there is no provision for the purchase of equipment such as trucks, apparatus, automobiles and other heavy equipment. Estimates submitted to me by the Budget Commissioner indicate that essential replacements of such equipment will exceed one million dollars. In view of the fact that much of this equipment will have a life of five or more years, and in view of the fact that these most necessary replacements, if included in the budget, would be sharply reflected in the tax rate for 1946, it has been decided to make such replacements through the agency of a loan, which will be submitted to your Honorable Body at a later date.

Despite the extraordinary efforts of your financial officers, the budget for 1946 shows an increase over the budget allowances for 1945. For this increase, this administration is, in no part, responsible. Conditions have been inherited which call for quick, remedial action. Other conditions exist which call for drastic action during the course of the year. Slipshod, expensive methods of conducting the city's affairs, which place a heavier burden on the taxpayer than is necessary, invite our earnest and cooperative attention. It is my purpose to establish, as quickly as possible, an efficient, economical administration of the city's business. In this effort, I shall, from time to time, request the assistance of your Honorable Body.

To aid you in determining the necessity for the budget allowances as shown in the accompanying schedule, I shall submit the original departmental estimates and all other figures which will enable your Honorable Body to give careful and prompt consideration to the requirements for 1946. I respectfully request your approval of this supplementary appropriation, as submitted herewith, as well as your approval of the appropriation order submitted under date of February 4, 1946.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

SUPPLEMENTARY APPROPRIATION AND TAX ORDER FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR 1946.

CONTINUANCE OF VICTORY GARDEN PROGRAM.

Coun. RUSSO, CHASE and BAYLEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to include in his budget sufficient money to carry on the victory garden program for the coming year.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, on this order it has been brought to my attention, as far as the so-called Victory Gardens are concerned, that not only have they been a great deal of help in so far as our food situation is concerned for the past several years, but it has also been of great benefit to have these victory gardens for recreational purposes, because, as I understand it, most of these individuals who have these victory gardens are middle-aged persons and elderly persons, and they have enjoyed these victory gardens, and it costs the city very little money. So, therefore, I hope that his Honor the Mayor will continue these victory gardens, as they will be a great help in the solution of the food situation and also be a great deal of help and recreation for these elderly people who haven't a chance perhaps to go to the country to engage in that kind of work. And I feel it will be a worthy cause that should be continued on for this coming year.

Coun. CHASE—May I support the gentleman from the North End (Coun. Russo) on this order? I have heard a number of constituents in my district pressing for a continuation of the victory gardens. In view of the fact that this country unquestionably will be faced with a food shortage because of the relief we are furnishing to European countries, I feel that the city can at least contribute these gardens until next year, and I trust that the order will pass.

Coun. BAYLEY—I, too, am very much in favor of this order, and I should like to join with the distinguished councilor from Ward 3 (Coun. Russo), if I might, as a co-sponsor of this order. We have a large victory garden up in the Fenway section of my ward, which has more than 500 separate plots of land, and people in my district are very much in favor of these victory gardens continuing. I am 100 per cent in accord with this order, and I hope that we will continue the victory gardens for a year at least, to give recreation and also provide extra food.

Coun. RUSSO—I will be very glad to include Councilors Chase and Bayley on this order. As I understand it, the city provides the water and whatever plumbing there is taken care of, so I say, where the amount of money involved is so trifling, and it is a worthy cause, I hope this Council will go on record as approving.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

CONTINUATION OF CHILD CARE CENTERS.

Coun. LINEHAN offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to send the Boston City Council today a request for an appropriation to continue the child care centers until action has been taken by the State Legislature in regard to a state appropriation to reimburse cities that continue the child care centers.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, several weeks ago—as a matter of fact, January 28, 1946—at a meeting of this Body, several councilors, including myself, that have child care centers maintained in their districts filed an order requesting his Honor the Mayor to send a request for an appropriation to continue child care centers, which all members of the Council know will cease to be maintained unless the city appropriates money at this session. When I say “this session” I mean the session of the City Council today. As we all received notices from the Greater Boston Community Council about two weeks ago in regard to the expense involved in maintaining these centers, I don't care to go into that today. You can refer back to the notice received from the Greater Boston Community Council, which will give you all the information you desire. It seems to me, after waiting since January 28 up to now, and March 1 is right around the corner, when it is decided whether or not these child care centers will be maintained, that it is about time we got some answer on our order. Now, let us find out whether or not we do want to maintain these child care centers, and the only way to do it is to act today. And I am filing this order early so it can be sent down to his Honor the Mayor—I hope he is in town today—asking him if he is going to send up an appropriation. He cannot do it next week, because that will be too late. Now, Maurice Tobin, the Governor of the Commonwealth, only last week did do something on it, and I sincerely hope that the Legislature will act on it. I am reading from a newspaper clipping in regard to what he is doing:

“Tobin Seeks $26,470 as State Aid to Thirty-one Child Care Centers.

An appeal for an immediate appropriation of $26,470 so the state could assume part of the cost of operating thirty-one child care centers in nine Massachusetts communities was sent to the Legislature yesterday by Governor Tobin.

Federal contributions to these centers, caring for over 1,000 children of working mothers, will expire February 28, he pointed out. “It is my belief that assistance should be provided by the state in order that this valuable contribution to the welfare of our children may be continued,” he stated.

I recommend that that part of the cost heretofore borne by the Federal Government be continued and that such cost to the state be charged against the education fund before distribution.

Referred to Committee on Appropriations.

“The amount the state requires between March 1 and June 30, 1946, based on 40 per cent of salaries of personnel now paid, is estimated at $26,470.”

Now, I, like every other councilor, believe in economy. But I think we have to watch where we economize. Personally, I think this is a service that should be continued. The Governor of the Commonwealth thinks so. I believe the Legislature within the week will think so—at least, I hope so—but if the city does not appropriate money today it means that on February 28 the child care centers will cease to exist, and it is about time that we had some action from his Honor the Mayor in regard to the order that we filed some weeks ago. Now, I notice in the papers this week—I think that is apropos of this order, it is related to it—something about the taking away of the Dennison House, which, as everybody here knows, is carrying on service for boys and doing a good job. And, unfortunately, the Fire Department is going to need the fire house they closed some time ago. I really don't know, if it was no good some time ago, what good it is now to the Fire Department. It is getting to a point where we hear a lot about juvenile delinquency. Last year there was an attempt made to correct juvenile delinquency in the City of Boston. How successful that was, I don't know, but I do know this, that since that program was abolished, I am sorry to say, the City of Boston as a city is not doing very much to diminish juvenile delinquency. Our recreational program is just about nil as of today, and that is a terrible situation at the end of the war, when it is very possible that juvenile delinquency can increase, and I have no doubt it probably is at the present time increasing, due to the fact that we haven't enough recreational facilities for children. This is sort of a recreational facility for children—that is why I am bringing that out—and it seems to me we have to go slow when we cut out things which, after all, amount to only a very small part of the tax rate, and when you think of what good a particular appropriation would do—an appropriation like that for child care centers, and I might say an appropriation that might be made to give some kind of a program for recreation for the children of Boston. And I, in the near future, will file an order requesting some sort of survey be made in the very near future so that Boston, the so-called Hub of the Universe, the city of culture, can at least give something to the children in the way of recreation. I sincerely hope that the President of the Council will act right away in regard to this order and send it forthwith down to his Honor the Mayor, so that we can get some action before this Body here is adjourned for the day. I sincerely hope the order is passed.

President KELLY—A copy of the order will be immediately sent to his Honor the Mayor.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

NAMING OF SERGEANT PATRICK F. CRISSAFULLI SQUARE.

Coun. HURLEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the space at the junction of Harrison avenue and Northampton street be named Sgt. Patrick F. Crissafulli Square in honor of a veteran of the Marine Corps in World War II who was killed in action in the South Pacific, and that suitable signs be erected designating same.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

CONFIRMATION OF EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS.

On motion of President KELLY, the Council took up under unfinished business Nos. 1, 2 and 3 on the calendar, viz.:

1. Action on appointments submitted by the Mayor, February 18, 1946, of Charles A. Cantwell, Rudolph F. Watson, Robert H. Kopp, Carl H. Kohlus, Edward J. MacIsaac, Lawrence Linnehan, John W. Toole and Jeremiah A. Daley, to be Constables not authorized to serve civil process.

2. Action on appointment submitted by the Mayor, February 18, 1946, of John L. Priest, to be a Constable authorized to serve civil process.

3. Action on appointments submitted by the Mayor, February 18, 1946, of Alan W. Smith, to be a Weigher of Coal; and Ralph G. Dobson, to be a Measurer of Leather.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, has No. 1 been referred to the Committee on Constables?

President KELLY—I think not, counselor.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I think we should await action, not acting until the Committee on Constables can report.

President KELLY—Do you want a division on this?

Coun. BAYLEY—Yes.

President KELLY—The Council in the meantime may act upon Nos. 2 and 3 on the calendar, and the Chair will appoint as a committee Coun. Russo and Madden.

A vote was taken upon the appointments in Nos. 2 and 3 on the calendar, yeas 15, nays 0, and the appointments were confirmed.

On motion of Coun. BAYLEY, No. 1 was referred to the Executive Committee.

ORDINANCE RE FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Coun. COOK, for the Committee on Ordinances, submitted the following:

City of Boston,
In the Year Nineteen Hundred and Forty-Six.
An Ordinance Concerning the Fire Department.
Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

Chapter fifteen of the Revised Ordinances of 1925, as amended, is hereby repealed, and the following new chapter substituted therefor:

Chapter Fifteen, Revised Ordinances of 1925.

Section 1. The fire department shall be under the charge of the fire commissioner, who shall exercise the powers and perform the duties provided by statute; and shall appoint a chief of department, deputy chiefs, district chiefs, engineers, and other firemen.

Section 2. The commissioner shall regulate the hours of duty of the officers and members of the fire department so that the maximum strength of each company shall be maintained, insofar as is possible, at all times.

The officers and members of the fire department shall work the two-platoon system, as described in paragraph one of section three of this ordinance. The commissioner, may, however, wherever and whenever practicable, allow officers and members to work alternating days of twenty-four hours from eight o'clock ante meridiem to eight o'clock ante meridiem the next following day.

Section 3. The hours of duty of the day force shall be from eight o'clock ante meridiem to six o'clock post meridiem, and the hours of duty of the night force shall be from six o'clock post meridiem to eight o'clock ante meridiem; provided that every third day, for the purpose of alternating the day force with the night force and vice versa, the number of hours of duty herein stated may be exceeded, but one force shall be at liberty at all times, except as otherwise provided in section four of this ordinance; and provided further that each member of the fire department while on a twenty-four hour tour of duty may be allowed one meal period of one and one-quarter hours while on such tour of duty.

The hours of duty of the force on twenty-four hour duty shall be from eight o'clock ante meridiem to eight o'clock ante meridiem the next following day, with one such force at liberty at all times, except as provided in the following section.

Section 4. In case of a conflagration or extreme emergency involving a fire hazard, the officer or board having charge of the fire fighting force shall have full authority to summon and keep on duty any or all of the members of the fire fighting force while such conflagration or emergency continues.

The commissioner may furnish, on such occasions and to such extent as he may deem advisable, the assistance of the department to another city, town, or fire district, in extinguishing fires therein.

Section 5. The provisions of the foregoing sections shall not repeal, affect or change any rule, order or ordinance now in force relating to the fire department, or the officers or members thereof, except as herein specified.

Section 6. The commissioner shall appoint a superintendent of fire-alarm, who shall, under the direction of the commissioner, have the entire care and maintenance of the wires, posts, machinery, and appliances of the fire-alarm telegraph and telephone system; shall see that all such wires, posts, machinery, and appliances are maintained in good order and condition; and shall keep in his office a map showing the locations of the same.

Section 7. The commissioner shall make to the mayor a monthly report of the location and number of fires that have occurred in the preceding month, the cause of the same and the amount of property destroyed thereby, and shall, in his annual report, include a brief summary of such matters.

Section 8. The commissioner shall, before calling before him a member of the department for a hearing on charges, give such member at least twenty-four hours' notice of the charges made, and shall allow him to be represented at the hearing by counsel.

Section 9. The fire commissioner shall exercise the powers and perform the duties imposed by law upon the wire commissioner, and shall establish in the fire department a division to be known as the electrical inspection division. The electrical inspection division shall be in charge of a deputy appointed by the fire commissioner, who, under the direction of the fire commissioner, shall carry out the provisions and requirements of law relating to wires and inspection of wires, and the installation and use of electric conductors and appliances in buildings in the city of Boston. The salary of the deputy shall be fixed by the fire commissioner, subject to the approval of the mayor.

Section 10. The hours of labor prescribed for firemen under the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to the deputy, subordinates and employees of the wire division of the fire department.

Section 11. Six months after the end of the participation of the United States in World War II, or at an earlier date if the Mayor and City Council so order, the hours of duty of officers and members of the fire department shall not exceed a total of seventy hours for any consecutive seven days, except as otherwise provided in this ordinance. The commissioner, when this section is in effect, and notwithstanding the provision of sections two and three of this chapter, shall arrange the officers and men of the fire department into such bodies or platoons as will enable the work of the department to be carried on most efficiently consistently with the provisions concerning hours of duty as provided in this section.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President and members of the Council, this is a new ordinance which has been drawn up by the City Clerk after conferring with the Fire Commissioner and firemen, in order to take care of the situation, now that our previous ordinance for a seventy-hour week was vetoed by the Mayor. The matters taken up in this ordinance were discussed fully at our committee meeting. It allows by amendment the Fire Commissioner to place the firemen on a twenty-four-hour day, off-and-on system, or on the two-platoon system. It also keeps the provision of six months after the end of the war as the beginning of the seventy-hour week. I have polled most of the committee on it, and they are in agreement on it, and I ask that this ordinance go to the Executive Committee instead of to the Committee on Ordinances.

Coun. COFFEY—May I ask the Chairman of the Committee on Ordinances if he has any assurance from the Mayor that six months after hostilities cease, or six months after the war is decided to be over by Congress, if the Mayor has given any assurance he will put the firemen on a seventy-hour week?

Coun. COOK—No, sir, I can state to the councilor from Ward 1 (Coun. Coffey) the fact that it is not up to his discretion right now. The ordinance is a matter of law right now, and unless the City Council changes that law the Mayor has nothing to do with it.

Coun. COFFEY—Didn't we pass an ordinance similar to this last year? What happened to that? Wasn't it on the seventy-hour week?

President KELLY—It is effective. It is on the books now.

Coun. COFFEY—If it is on the books now, why are we wasting our time on another ordinance?

President KELLY—Under the law it cannot go into effect until six months after the official declaration that the war is ended.

The ordinance was referred to the Executive Committee.

USE OF CASHMAN SCHOOL FOR BOYS' AND GIRLS' CLUB.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor confer with the Boston School Committee for the purpose of converting the now vacant Cashman School in the East Boston district of Boston into a boys' and girls' club.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

GARAGE UNDER BOSTON COMMON.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:

Whereas, There is pending before the Massachusetts Senate and the House of Representatives an act providing for the construction of a garage for parking facilities under the Boston Common, by the City of Boston, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the City of Boston, acting through its Park Department, may construct a garage and parking facilities under Boston Common in said city, and for such purpose may expend a sum or sums not exceeding, in the aggregate, the sum of one million dollars, for which bonds may be issued which shall be outside the statutory limit of indebtedness of said city, and that said Park Department is authorized to set fees and charges for the use of said parking space.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, there is now pending before the Legislature a bill authorizing the City of Boston to construct a garage underneath the Boston Common. Ever since this issue has come up, I know, from my own personal observation and through speaking with various individuals throughout the city, I have not found one individual opposed to the erection of this garage under Boston Common. You and I know, Mr. President, the condition in so far as traffic is concerned and parking conditions in the City of Boston. It has reached its peak, and, if it continues, something has to be done in order to clear our streets of automobiles, because every space available is taken by automobiles parking. And I feel that, by the erection of this garage under Boston Common, it will increase the business of the City of Boston and will eliminate all these tie-ups due to the parking of automobiles on every city street and in every possible space that is available. I do not feel it is anything that will be a hindrance to that historical section of our city, which is Boston Common. I have spoken with some of the individuals who have come from California, and they tell me that the one erected there is really a beautiful sight. Nothing is touched in so far as the top of the park is concerned, and when they get through with this project it will remain just as beautiful, if not more so, than the condition which exists there today. So, therefore, I am fully convinced that something ought to be done, and if the State Legislature does not give that permission to the City of Boston, then I say that some other drastic action must be taken in order to eliminate the congestion that is in our city at the present day.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, there is no doubt in my mind that the councilor is sincere, and that something should be done about the parking conditions, but this is going to be the biggest racket that was ever put over on the people of Boston—yes, and the people of the Commonwealth. This is something that was started not only by members of the Legislature, but by those high in office, by the newspapers in Greater Boston and throughout the entire Commonwealth. And I say that this is nothing but a racket, and a big racket. I will tell you why they want to make a parking lot under the Common. The aviation clique has gone to work with the president of the Chamber of Commerce, who is also the president of the National Shawmut Bank, and is also the same man that made and broke mayors up until this last campaign, when he got on the wrong track and picked the wrong candidate. But previous to that he had been picking successful candidates for years—that is, five—and made them Mayors of Boston and sent them to higher office. As I say, in the last contest he picked a loser. He couldn't help picking a loser because he just could not be with Curley. He knew it wouldn't do any good to be with Curley, in the first place, so in desperation he picked somebody else who might defeat Curley. Curley's two opponents couldn't get together, so the result was that Curley was elected. What I am getting at is that this man, president of the Chamber of Commerce and president of the National Shawmut Bank, has just been appointed for a long term as head of the Boston Port Development. The same man is very much interested in the airport at East Boston. Therefore, in my opinion, which I have expressed in the Council for the last four years, that airport is never going to be a paying proposition; it is never going to be of any value to the City of Boston—never. And those words you can put down in the years to come, when I am forgotten in politics. You will some day realize that I was right. That place is no place for an airport. I come in contact with and talk to pilots every day. They hate and despise the place. They bypass it every chance they get. There is a blanket of fog there twice a week. If they can't land there, they land in Chicopee or any other place, to make a safe landing. Even when General Eisenhower came here, he couldn't land here. When Tobin and his party left for London, they couldn't leave the East Boston airport. But not only that, they have taken away recreational facilities and a park over there that we have had for seventy-five years. And how? Commissioner Long hated to let it go. The Park Department expended over $200,000 on it, and never got one thing in return. But what I am getting at is this. The fill that is going into that airport is coming from Peabody. That fill is running out. It is very low. They want action immediately; they want action now, because there is around three million cubic yards of fill under Boston Common that they want to put over in the airport. That is the only reason that they want to make a parking lot under Boston Common. There is no other reason. That is all they want; that is all they need, that fill, to take care of the aviation clique. And I have asked the aviation clique up here time and time again about this. The state took over the East Boston airport and expended close to $20,000,000, and they know they have to spend another $50,000,000 before they can make that a first-class airport—and then all the planes are going to bypass it, anyhow, because they are building airports in Maine. They are building the biggest airport in Maine, and we can't use the excuse that we are nearer Europe, because Maine can come out and say, "We are ninety miles nearer Europe." I have asked time and time again why this aviation clique can get something for nothing, and I have asked that right here in this chamber. I have asked those that operate over there, from the general manager down, if they ever offered a five-cent contribution to the airport that is making them rich, and everyone admitted that they never have and they never will, because they have the Legislature up there definitely going to give them what they want, and the Legislature is going to get what they want in return. We know, Mr. President, we have a Legislature that created seventy to eighty jobs in the City of Boston. It was not permissive legislation. We never had a word on it, we members of the Council. They just created those jobs, and the first thing we knew seventy to eighty new people went to work for the city, and we never had a word to say on it. But we had to appropriate salaries for them. And I say that this is another red herring across the trail. They don't care whether there is a parking lot up there or not. None of them live in Boston. No, they want the fill under that Common so they can fill the airport up, and that is all they want. They will tell you the fill is running low in Peabody, and now they are waiting and getting all kinds of publicity, offers from the Legislature to do this and that, and the Governor will have to sign it because it is supposed to be progressive legislation, for the good of the Commonwealth. They tell us we have the best airport in the world, but I know East Boston. They even changed the name of the East Boston airport to get the South Boston delegation to vote for it—changed it to General Logan. They used every trick in the game to get the votes to pass that bill and get the state to take over the airport, the state to spend all the money, leave the aviation clique alone, leave the bankers alone, let the state—and that means us—foot the bill. Before we go on record for a garage under the Common, let us check further and find out if my statement is right, that they only want the Common for one reason, for all that dirt they can get for fill for the airport.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, in contrast to the distinguished councilor from Ward 3 (Coun. Russo), I have had quite a few people in my district tell me that they are opposed to a garage under the Common. The last bill was defeated in the Massachusetts Legislature, so I feel that there is something to be said on both sides. I hope that this matter will be referred from Executive to the Committee on Legislative Matters, so that we will hear both sides of the question. Boston Common is located in the district which I have the honor to represent, and I hope that the members will go along with me, and have this referred to a committee where we can hear both sides of the question. The Chairman of the Planning Board and the Park Commissioner, I understand, are against it. We don't want to lose the playground that we have on the Common, which we have been trying to beautify for some time. I particularly have been trying to get it in better shape than it is in now and I don't want to see that ruined. I hope this will be referred to a committee where both sides of the question may be heard before we go on record.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, it is my understanding there was a hearing up at the State House today in regard to this matter. And I understand that hearing is still going on. And I was very glad to hear from my informer that his Honor the Mayor had requested the committee that is hearing the petition, the bill or bills—that he suggested that the city at this time is not in proper financial condition to vote bond issues for constructing a garage under the Common. I for one am very glad to hear that, because during this year I for one am going to be very slow in voting for any bond issues for the construction of anything, because I don't think the city is in a position to do anything at this time. That is why I like to see the George Robert White Fund spent for benefits, instead of its coming out of the city treasury. It seems to me if we are to have a garage on or under the Common, and if we are going on record in favor—and I sincerely hope we can go on this way—that if the Legislature should recognize a bill which would permit private industry to build a garage and run the garage, and will restore the Common to the condition it is in at the present time, I for one would vote for it. But I would certainly need plenty more statistics than I received last year when I was legislative agent of the City of Boston, when I had a hearing—or listened to a hearing—on a similar bill. At that time there were no statistics or anything at all given. I don't know what has been given this year, and I don't think we in the Council should go right off the handle and vote in favor of it unless there is a proviso in this particular order. And I certainly hope that the gentleman from Ward 3 (Coun. Russo) will amend his order requesting that, and that he will be in favor of a bill which will be recommended by the Committee on Cities, which would permit private industry to build it, and not give the city of Boston permission to raise a bond issue for it. In that way we are not taking any chances of the city maintaining a white elephant like we did originally, as the gentleman from East Boston said—the white elephant of the airport. That was a white elephant some years ago. Personally, I don't know whether it is a good business proposition as far as the state is concerned now or not. As you all know, the state has taken over the airport. While the city had it, it was my understanding the airport was not a paying proposition. There is no question about it. The city needs an airport, know. We have it, and I suppose we have to keep it with us. There is no question about it, a city of our size has to have aviation transportation facilities to maintain transportation. Now, I sincerely hope if this order is referred to the Legislature, O.K.ing the bill, that the gentleman from Ward 3 (Coun. Russo) will amend his order so he will be specific in showing that the City of Boston will not, you might say, finance it by issuing bonds, and so loading down the taxpayers later on. It is easy to say, "Float a bond issue; it doesn't cost the taxpayers anything this year other than interest," but some one of these days we have to pay the bonds, and they will come due in the future. Mr. President, I certainly hope that the gentleman from Ward 3 (Coun. Russo) will amend his order so that I can vote for it. If he doesn't, I cannot vote for it.

President KELLY—I might ask the gentleman from Ward 3 (Coun. Russo): The way you have the order introduced, it is a loan order, and is that the way you want it?

Coun. RUSSO—It is a loan order.

President KELLY—I am going to refer it to the Committee on Finance. That is the only place I can refer it, unless you want to reword the order. Then I can refer it to Executive.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—State your point, councilor. Coun. HANNON—On page 68 of the records of the City Council we have already adopted a position of approval of this project. We made that adoption at the meeting on February 11, at which time we gave our approval to the proposed legislation sponsored by the Mayor of the City of Boston. Now we are going to get ourselves into difficulty if we are to take some other position here now. So my point of information is this: This matter should be referred to some committee and be laid on the shelf for awhile, so as not to run counter to an action taken previously by this Body.

Coun. RUSSO—I am very happy that the distinguished councilor from Ward 13 (Coun. Hannon), my colleague, brought out that we had taken that stand before, and I was about to bring that out myself. However, let us face the situation squarely. This problem has to be solved, either by one means or another. As to bringing private industry into our city and letting them go ahead on a project of that kind, I have not heard of anyone or any corporation that is willing to undertake such a project. I say merely that this here is only a request, and even if the Legislature approves and passes it, it has to again come into the Council to receive its final approval, and, if we cannot construct it this year, then next year some other space must be taken. We have lost in the City of Boston a tremendous amount of money on taxable property, on buildings you have seen that have been razed, buildings on which the city has lost a great deal. And, unless this problem is solved, there are many more buildings that will have to be razed in order to accommodate the parking of these automobiles. In the Boston Common, as I understand it, there is nothing that will be done that will take away the value of that historic section of our city. All the beauty of that land after they get through with this garage will be still there, if it is not more beautiful than it is today. At least, it will be as beautiful as it is today. So I don't see any harm in building this garage under Boston Common. There is no one that is paying any taxes on that particular spot. We are not going to lose other moneys that the city might get into its treasury by the razing of various buildings throughout our city, in order to accommodate this situation of parking cars. Therefore, having that in mind, I sincerely say this: I can't see why it shouldn't be done. If there were to be a private industry or a private corporation that would like to see that done and do it themselves, I would be in favor of it, because I don't believe the City of Boston ought to enter into any business which private enterprises can handle. This is a great problem, Mr. President, and unless the city undertakes it itself, to start the road going, and then later, if there is a corporation that would like to take that over without touching property that will bring a revenue into the city treasury, I don't see how we are going to eliminate this traffic condition. In the last few days there hasn't been an inch of space throughout our entire city where anyone could park their car. Cars have been parked even in double line sometimes and, with the snowfall, you and I realize what has been the situation in the last few days. What future is there for the City of Boston if they do not eliminate this condition? I, for one, don't see any at the present time, and the only hope that I see for us is the erection of this garage under Boston Common. Yes, and if they are able to use even the Public Garden, let them do it. We have had the assurance that, in so far as the ground itself is concerned, it will be left in the same condition as it is today. Other people from other sections of the country tell us that they have such projects, and have made a very good report on it. I believe that project will be a very good one. It will be a self-paying proposition, and will eliminate the traffic congestion which we have in our city, and will bring into our city business that we don't get today, on account of people not wanting to come into the city because of this traffic condition. As I understand it, Mr. President, there is a bill before the Legislature asking permission for the City of Boston to float a loan for ten million dollars in order to eliminate the burden to the citizens of Boston at the present time. That is why I am asking that this be adopted, because, as Councilor Hannon has said, we have taken that stand, that we are in favor of the erection of a garage under Boston Common. And I feel that the one solution that is before us at this time is if we get that permission from the state for the City of Boston to carry it through.

Coun. HANNON—As my worthy colleague from Ward 3 (Coun. Russo) has stated, we have already taken the position that we are in favor of the erection of a garage under Boston Common. However, in keeping with my worthy colleague from Ward 7 (Coun. Linehan), I think that this is a problem which demands much more study than we have given it. This matter was referred to us, as you recall, and we were asked to give our approval of the matter in order that it might be acted upon by the members of the General Court up at the State House. That approval we gave. But even that approval was based upon the fact that the legislation to be presented and to be acted upon by the state was likewise to bear a clause on the end of it that it be referred back here to us for our approval. We approved it tentatively, but in that approval I, for one, did not pledge myself to the construction of a garage under the Common. I agree with the gentleman from Ward 3 (Coun. Russo) that we must do something. But I don't agree with him when he says that this construction might be the cure-all for the financial plight of the city, or the cure-all for our terrible traffic conditions. We need something to relieve traffic, that is true, but I don't believe in the city going into it. I would much rather have some private corporation undertake construction of this garage. Many times pictures are painted to us of the revenue-producing qualities of some project that is going to cost the city millions of dollars. We had a test of that when the Sumner Tunnel was built. We were told the burden on the city would be relieved just as soon as the tunnel was opened, that traffic was going to pour through there, and you and I, the citizenry of Boston, were going to benefit by the premiums that would be paid and the dividends that would result because of the expenditure of the money for the building of this tunnel. But we know too well that that was not so, and practically every year since that tunnel was built the City of Boston has suffered a financial loss. We have had to expend money to pay the deficit. So, too, when we talk about the erection or the creation of a garage under the Common, I am one of those fellows who believes in Boston first, and I think that is part of our trouble. When we built the airport, we built it on the outskirts of the city, where it is going to benefit residents of the North Shore. People are going to erect factories here, but they are going to build those factories not in Boston, but in Lynn, down through the North Shore. It was the same way when we built the Sumner Tunnel. Whom did we benefit? Not Bostonians primarily,—the people of East Boston might benefit to some extent, but most of them were satisfied to use the old ferry and pay a penny tax. However, we built that for the benefit of Revere, Lynn, Salem, and all those residential cities on the North Shore, and instead of helping Boston we helped people to move out of Boston, because we made it easy for those people to commute and get back and forth from positions that they occupied in Boston. It would be the same way with this garage under the Common. It is very easy for the newspapers to paint a glowing picture of the revenue that is to pour in from it, but if we build it what revenue are we going to get? The only revenue we would get is the revenue we would obtain from the parking of cars, and if we obtain that revenue we are going into competition with private business. True enough, we might make money, but we might also put the Motor Mart and the Bowdoin Square Garage out of business, and other big corporations and garages that are paying taxes to the city—put them out of business. Then how are we to pay for this? Are we going to float bonds? And when are they to become due? These things are big problems, Mr. President. It is easy for us to come in here and say yes or no when somebody says, "Let us spend a million." Why, most of us can't even conceive of a million. If most of us had a million, we wouldn't be here. But I think this is something that demands study, that demands forethought. I think we have been honest and sincere about it. We have given the Legislature the go-ahead on it. They are supposed to draft a bill, and then it is up to us to approve that bill, but I think now we are putting the cart before the horse. Even before we get the bill, we want to approve down here one method of financing. I think that our job as councilors here is to find out what this state wants to give us permission to do, and then if we don't agree with that let us not do it. I am not going to vote to spend any million dollars in any way, and I am not going to give my voice of approval to the construction of any project that is to cost millions, until I give it some study and some forethought. I therefore move, Mr. President, that this be sent to Executive Committee.

Coun. CAREY—Talking on the motion of Councilor Hannon, Mr. President, I certainly hope, too, that the Council will be a little hesitant in taking action immediately on this resolution. We all well realize that there is traffic congestion in the city, but no matter where you go today, whether in Boston, New York, going South, or across the border into Canada, in large cities there you will find the same congestion. As Councilor Hannon well said, this city has altogether too often bitten off apparent bargains at the time that eventually proved to be white elephants. And I am very fearful myself as to the consequences that might ensue were the Council to be too hasty in taking action on this matter today. I, too, feel that we have a garage business, which of course will be the business under which this traffic relief is sought or carried on by private industry. We have constantly found and listened to complaints from private property owners because of their inability to pay taxes on property upon which they were trying to make a living and make a profit. I don't feel that the city would be justified in going into the garage business. I furthermore feel that what might look like one million dollars today might easily amount to several million dollars before this proposition is finally concluded. We can't afford to be too hasty in a matter of this kind. We all want to see traffic relief afforded when and if possible, and I have not seen anyone yet come out with a convincing argument that would prove to me that through the erection of a garage under Boston Common we are going to have the desired traffic relief in the city. And I think the stand taken by the Chairman of the Planning Board, when he said that a garage up there would not be of any use to the real parkers of automobiles in the lower section of downtown Boston here, was certainly right. It is all well and good for the Council to have taken the action it already has in giving its consent to the hearing of the bill before the Legislature. To go farther than that at this time would be poor judgment, in my opinion, and I certainly hope this matter will be referred to Executive for further study before action is taken.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I move an amendment. I would like to add, before it is read, is it possible for this amendment to be substituted for the resolve we are now discussing?

President KELLY—The form of that would be the subject of an entirely different order.

Coun. LINEHAN—Talking on the motion to refer to Executive, Mr. President, I notice the gentleman from Ward 3 (Coun. Russo), in his resolve requests the sum of one million in bond issue. Now, I don't know where he got the figure of one million dollars. I was up at the Legislature last year, and they estimated the cost of building an underground garage at that time, and at that time they didn't have very many facts before them, and they estimated the cost as $5,000,000. So we certainly don't want to start with $1,000,000. Now, once again, I want to talk in regard to whether or not the city wants to spend a dime on it. The amendment which I suggested, which is not in order, is one which would strike out all of this subject matter here after "Resolved, in regard to the city of Boston having permission to spend," and would give the city authority to grant private industry the right to construct a garage under the Common and charge rental for the use of said land. And I sincerely hope there is some way we can get around this particular resolution, Mr. President—probably kill it, and then have the gentlemen from Ward 3 (Coun. Russo) substitute this particular order, and I would be very glad to substitute that later on.

Coun. RUSSO—I have no objection to referring this matter to Executive, but I would like to bring out just a few facts. I hope that I did not leave the Council in the position of believing that the erection of a garage under Boston Common is the only solution and will be a cure-all of our traffic condition. That has not entered into my mind, and I don't believe that ever will be the only solution that will take care of all the problems in so far as traffic is concerned. However, like the doctor that is called on a sick call, he gives you one kind of medicine and then follows it up. Therefore, the only thing I had in mind is that if something is done, and done immediately, in order to eliminate—

Coun. HANNON—A point of information, Mr. President.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. HANNON—My good friend from Ward 3 (Coun Russo) said the doctor was called and he gave you a pill, and then he followed it up. I was wondering if the councilor from Ward 3 then followed it up.

President KELLY—Do you care to answer that question?

Coun. RUSSO—Yes, I follow it up by being healthy again. So, in bringing that out, Mr.

President, I sincerely hope that something will be done. And I have in mind that unless something is done as to Boston Common, then we are going to have the City of Boston placed in a position where many of these buildings throughout our city, and especially in the downtown sections, are going to be razed, and you are going to lose taxable property by reducing the buildings that are now occupied. Naturally, it is profitable for private enterprise to tear down a building that cost a million or a million and a half on assessments, and have it brought down to $100,000 or less. That is money that the treasury is losing, and it is a question we have to try to solve.

The resolution was referred to the Executive Committee.

AUDIT OF ELEVATED BOOKS BY STATE AUDITOR.

Coun. CHASE offered the following:

Whereas, The taxpayers of the City of Boston are compelled to make up the deficit incurred by the Boston Elevated Railway Company, and

Whereas, Through extraordinary legislation, the Public Control Act, the Boston Elevated Railway Company's business is supervised by a state-appointed Board of Trustees, and

Whereas, The public's interest warrants an audit of the Boston Elevated Railway Company's books by the State Auditor; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council in regular meeting assembled urges the Massachusetts Legislature to adopt legislation which will enable the State Auditor to audit the Boston Elevated Railway Company's books, and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to the President of the Massachusetts Senate and Speaker of the House.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, there is now pending before the Massachusetts Legislature a bill which, if adopted by the Legislature, would authorize the State Auditor to audit the books of the Boston Elevated Railway Company. In my opinion, it is fundamentally necessary for the benefit of the public to have these books audited. The Boston Elevated Railway Company today, and all during the war, has been doing an overwhelming amount of business. As a matter of fact, they have been doing more business in the past four years than in any other time in the history of the road. Yet, Mr. President, somehow they manage to continue to operate at a deficit. And, because of the fact that they operate at a deficit, the taxpayers of the City of Boston are called upon to make up the deficit and to pay dividends to private stockholders. Now, Mr. President, in view of the fact that the Boston Elevated Railway Company, through the Public Control Act, is a quasi-public institution, that is, in the nature of a public institution, today, it stands to reason, if the taxpayers of the City of Boston can be made to make up the deficit, surely our State Auditor should have the right to go in and audit those books. I don't know what possessed the Legislature in years gone by to pass this present act, which compels our taxpayers to make up the deficit. To me, Mr. President, it was a sinister piece of legislation. It favored a few and hanged many, namely, the taxpayers. I have heard of highway robbery, but this is the best piece of highway robbery that has ever taken place in this Commonwealth, when taxpayers are compelled to pay over to private stockholders and to a private corporation money because that private corporation—

Coun. COOK—Will the councilor yield?

President KELLY—Will you yield for a question, councilor?

Coun. CHASE—I do not care to yield. I don't understand, Mr. President, just what caused this piece of legislation, but I do know, sir, that in 1941, at the expense of many thousands of dollars, the City of Boston—the City Council—authorized a special investigation by the Boston Finance Commission, through Timothy F. Callahan, who was engaged as special counsel, and he came back with a report which in substance states that the taxpayers have been gyped of about $20,000,000, and he recommended at that time that the only remedy that could be had could be secured by the Attorney General of the Commonwealth. Well, the Attorney General of the Commonwealth at that time apparently did not see fit, or could not do anything about it. At the present time, if I remember correctly, the matter is now pending before the Supreme Court. Well, Mr. President, this has been a bone of contention for many years. One body throws it to another body, and that body will throw it to another body, and yet nothing has been accomplished; and yet the stockholders of the Boston Elevated Railway Company continue to get their dividends at the cost of the taxpayers. Something should be done. We should have better control over the Boston Elevated Railway Company. We should be able to go in there and examine the books for the benefit of the public. And I trust, sir, that members of this Body agree with me in my contention that the State Auditor should be able to go in there and audit those books. I hope that the resolution will pass.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, it so happens that the act is a very short act, and I would like to read it into the record so that we would all know what we are voting on. But before doing so I would like to suggest that this matter should not be sent to any committee, that the rules should be suspended, and we should act on this at once because, as I understand it, a hearing took place last week at the State House on this matter, and it is to be reported out of committee within the next few days. With your permission, Mr. President, I will read the few lines with which the act is concerned. It is House Bill No. 6, and goes as follows:

"Section 3 of Chapter 333 of the Acts of 1931 is hereby amended by the inserting after the word 'public' in the twenty-ninth line the following new sentence: 'The Department of the State Auditor shall annually make a careful audit of all accounts of the Trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway Company, including all departments and offices under their operation, supervision and control. And as a part of said audit, the Department of the State Auditor shall make such audit as he may deem advisable on the operations and expenses of the Boston Elevated Railway Company, and shall each year make a report in writing to the Governor, the Executive Council and the General Court of its findings, together with any recommendations he may deem necessary to make.'"

As can be seen, Mr. President, this is a very simple bill, which, in effect, states that in view of the fact that the public is paying the freight, both by way of fares and also by way of taxation on the City of Boston and surrounding towns by way of deficits, the only fair thing to do is to let the people of the Commonwealth in on the book-keeping. If the expenses and the income are as the Elevated alleges in its own reports, then they have nothing to fear from such an audit. But if, as has been hinted many times, both publicly and privately, the Elevated is having a free ride at the expense of the taxpayers of Boston, and some favored few stockholders are getting unearned dividends, then it seems to me that we, representing the people of Boston, should demand that the Legislature do its duty and pass this legislation. And I move that the rule be suspended, and we act on this now.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I guess we have been talking on this order for years and years. It so happens that the gentleman that wants the investigation—I give him credit for rising from his seat today and asking for it—it so happens that his party is the one that has always stopped the investigation. I remember when I was a member of the Legislature in 1929 that Senator Saltonstall was then being elected Speaker of the House. Martin Hays took the floor as the only Republican up there to oppose Senator Saltonstall's election as Speaker. Martin Hays said at that time, and I vividly recall his words, that Mr. Saltonstall was a very large stockholder in the Boston Elevated Railway Company. Mr. Saltonstall, in answer to that, and ninety-five other charges, as there were ninety-six charges made by Martin Hays, that occupied four hours, claimed he severed all connection with eighteen or twenty banks and brokerage houses, that he severed all connections and turned all his stock over to relatives, and so forth, and he had no connection whatsoever with the Boston Elevated Railway Company. Then we come down the years to this investigation that Mayor Tobin called us down and asked us to pass on. And in our sincerity we did appropriate $25,000 for the investigation. When a report was made to us it looked very much as though we had something—and if I am mistaken, I hope I am corrected—but it was a Republican Attorney-General who refused to go farther on the report that was brought back and given to us and presented to the Mayor. So no matter what we do we are only wasting time and breath and wind up here. Nothing is going to take place, and we know it. The Legislature is Republican. They know what is going on as well as we do. They know in the boom years just gone by that the Elevated claimed they only made money one year, and every other year they were running at a deficit. Why are they hiding behind closed doors? Why don't they welcome an investigation? We have done it time and time again. We have thrown ourselves wide open, and will do it again, with this little Body of ours, and asked an investigation by him of this, that and the other thing, and the Legislature never has done it. And, mark me, while the Legislature is Republican, they never will have to.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, I just want to say a word. I hope that the councilor from Ward 1 (Coun. Coffey) is wrong. As was well said by the councilor from Ward 4 (Coun. Chase), the worst bit of highway robbery every perpetrated on the people, either publicly or privately, was that perpetrated—I believe it was in 1918—when that great steal was permitted at the State House. If one is asked to pay a bill, naturally he wants to know what the expense was contracted for, and yet, year in and year out, the people of Boston and the other thirteen cities and towns are asked to pay a bill that they are denied information on, telling them why such an expense was necessary? The Legislature on Beacon Hill this year, as Councilor Coffey well said, is Republican, and they have an opportunity to undo the great wrong of the year 1918. Why, Mr. President, if somebody goes out at night and breaks into a store and steals a loaf of bread or some small article, he is sent to jail, and he is given headlines in the newspapers. And yet this worst steal in the history of this nation, perpetrated by men who were supposed to be honorable, has been allowed to go on from year to year, and that same Republican Legislature has constantly refused to right that wrong. I don't see how the Legislature on Beacon Hill this year can dare do anything but see that favorable action is taken on this bill, which will permit the annual state audit in order that the people who are forced to make up this deficit are acquainted with why any deficit is necessary. And, as was brought out by Councilor Chase, I will remember when Attorney Callahan made the Finance Commission investigation in 1941. He reported to us that there was absolutely no such thing as a deficit existing. Why aren't the people let in on the facts? I demand that the Legislature on Beacon Hill this year be the honorable gentlemen that they are supposed to be, that they see that this bill is favorably acted upon. It is about time that something was done about it. This is their chance.

Coun. MADDEN—A point of information, Mr. President.

President KELLY—State your point of information, councilor.

Coun. MADDEN—I would like to ask the councilor from Ward 4 (Coun. Chase), is that bill retroactive? Is there any provision in the bill to examine the books in the past year, or is this just for this year and subsequent years?

Coun. CHASE—I assume this bill will, if granted, authorize the audit to go back many years.

Coun. MADDEN—I think it should, don't you?

Coun. CHASE—Surely.

The resolution was adopted.

TRAFFIC HAZARD, SEAVER STREET AND WALNUT AVENUE.

Coun. COOK and MORIARTY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to investigate and correct the traffic hazard that is now encountered at the junction of Seaver street and Walnut avenue, Roxbury, because of poor lighting facilities.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

GARAGE UNDER BOSTON COMMON.

Coun. LINEHAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Massachusetts State Legislature be informed that the Boston City Council is in favor of legislation that will give the City of Boston authority to permit private enterprise to construct an underground garage under the Boston Common and charge a rental for said use of the land.

Referred, on motion of Coun. BAYLEY, to the Executive Committee.

AUDIT OF ELEVATED BOOKS BY STATE AUDITOR.

Coun. MUCHNICK offered the following:

Ordered, That the City Treasurer be instructed by his Honor the Mayor to withhold payment of any sums claimed to be owed to the Boston Elevated Railway Company by the City of Boston on account of any operational deficit until such time as the books and records of said company are audited by the department of the State Auditor or some other auditor appointed by the Justices of the Superior Court of the Commonwealth.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I am not, in this order, attempting to urge that the City of Boston should not pay its just bills. But, so far as any of us know, any of the claims that have been made in the past by the Elevated are unjust and cannot be backed up. If they were just claims, the Elevated would have no objection to there being an audit by the Auditor of the Commonwealth or by any other impartial person. Now, it seems to me we cannot expect too much from a Republican-controlled Legislature this year, in view of the fact that the last time, which was in the preceding session, that the State Auditor filed the exact bill that is now before us the Legislature ruled against it at that time. If, however, we refuse to make payment of the amount that is now claimed to be owed, then the Boston Elevated Railway Company would have to have recourse to the courts and bring suit against us for the amount that they claim is due them. If that is so, it seems to me that in a courtroom, with an impartial justice sitting there, we may get the opportunity to examine their books and to see just what they claim constitutes a deficit. If that procedure is followed, it may be a little high-handed, but, comparing it to the action that the Elevated has been following in the past few years, in gouging the residents of Boston out of these hundreds of thousands—and probably millions—of dollars, it seems we have no other course left to us in order to get at the true facts. And I move suspension of the rule and passage of the order.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I don't know how legal this order is, but, if it is legal, why can't it be amended so that the taxpayers in turn will be notified by the City Treasurer not to have to pay their share of the taxes to the city which, in turn, has to turn over its sum, which is, I suppose, ten times as much as any one of the other thirteen communities that have to contribute to the deficit of the Boston Elevated? I would like to know if it can be amended. If it can, I would like to amend it to see that the taxpayers of Boston be notified as to the sum they are supposed to pay to make up the Elevated deficit, and they in turn not have to pay.

President KELLY—I am informed that that figure won't be known until some time in May or June when the assessment on the city is known.

Coun. COFFEY—I am not worrying about the City of Boston. We are not in business to make money. Can an amendment be made to that?

President KELLY—I am informed this order cannot be amended, but you can introduce a separate order.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

RECESS.

The Council voted at 3.40 p. m., on motion of Coun. CANTWELL, to take a recess subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled and were called to order by President KELLY at 4.15 p. m.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. FISH, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on ordinance (referred today) concerning the Fire Department—that same ought to pass.

Report accepted; ordinance passed.

2. Report on message of Mayor (referred today) appointing eight constables to serve without bond and without authority to serve civil process for term ending April 30, 1946 (No. 1 on the calendar) that appointments be confirmed.

The report was accepted, and the question came on the confirmation of the appointments.

Coun. MUCHNICK—For the reasons that are recorded in the minutes of last week's meeting, the reasons given by myself, Councilor Linehan and others, and may I include Councilor Bayley, I move that this matter be referred to the Committee on Constables, where it belongs.

Coun. HURLEY—I just came in. May I have the reasons repeated by the councilor?

President KELLY—We will be glad to have them repeated.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I would be glad to repeat them. They are all contained in the minutes of last week's meeting, and, if there is any inability on the part of my brother on my right (Coun. Hurley) to read them and understand them, I would be glad to read them and explain them to him.

Coun. HURLEY—I would like to have them read.

President KELLY—Councilor Muchnick, will you grant the councilor's request?

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, I would like to ask the councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick), through you, whether he thinks the committee that should have considered the Boston Elevated audit and bills less important than the Committee on Constables?

President KELLY—Could you answer that question, councilor?

Coun. MUCHNICK—Would I answer it? Yes. President KELLY—Will you answer it?

Coun. MUCHNICK—Do I consider one committee less important than another?

President KELLY—That is the way I understood the question.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I don't think my opinion as to the importance of any committee makes much difference, but in my opinion that committee is as important. I am in the midst of reading, Mr. President.

President KELLY—Will you yield?

Coun. MUCHNICK—If Councilor Hurley will. Coun. COOK—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. COOK—I would like to ask again, in view of the answer from the eminent councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick), if he thinks all committees are as important as they should be, and equally important, why it is he now distinguishes between the Committee on Constables and asks that this grave matter be referred to it, and asked this Council only a short time ago to refer the Boston Elevated audit bill immediately to Executive and not to the committee it should have gone to?

Coun. MUCHNICK—By way of answer, I did not ask that the Boston Elevated audit bill go to Executive. I asked that bill be passed upon immediately, and I did that only after I read the bill, which is written in ten lines of very simple English, which could be understood by any member of this Council. That situation is clearly distinguished from the possible situation wherein we have had conflicting reports from the Mayor's office as to the need of any constables, and he did finally establish a need for some constables, and as to the number of constables he needed. And there was further a grave question in the minds of some of us whether some of these people could fill the job adequately, as to what departments required constables, and what the positions in the different departments were. And there were many other reasons, as I outlined in last week's minutes.

President KELLY—I think that covers it.

Coun. FISH—In view of the fact he has repeated about all the reasons he gave last week, and they are not very impressive, I am going to ask Councilor Hurley to withdraw his motion.

Coun. HURLEY—While the councilor here was talking, Councilor Fish explained in detail what Councilor Muchnick said. So, therefore, I withdraw my motion.

The question came on referring the order to the Committee on Constables. A vote was taken, and Coun. BAYLEY doubted the vote and asked that two rise with him to confirm his doubt. Two not having risen, the question came on confirmation of the appointments.

Coun. BAYLEY—I agree with the distinguished councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick), and last week I also put forth my objections to this matter. I am going to vote in the negative for the same reason I stated last week, and I hope that my brother councilors will join me in protest against the incorrect way in which these constable lists were sent up by the Mayor of Boston.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, I find it necessary to vote against confirmation of any of these men, not because I want to deprive them of any position, nor because I don't feel that they might be the right persons, but merely because, not having had a chance to examine into the merits of the situation, I don't know enough about it to add them or anybody to the city pay roll.

Coun. LINEHAN—I would like to ask the Chair, could you give the councilor an account of what has transpired since last Monday?

President KELLY—I would be glad to do that, but I was not given an opportunity. At last week's executive session I said I was going to try to straighten out this constable situation. I think it has been straightened out during last week. Are there any constables, councilor, that have not gone to work? If there are, I wish the councilors would rise.

Coun. HANNON—I will rise halfway, because I don't know.

President KELLY—Will anyone rise all the way?

Coun. BAYLEY—I rise halfway, too.

President KELLY—Nobody will rise all the way, so I think the situation has been straightened out. So the Chair will appoint Councilors Russo and Madden to receive, sort and count the ballots.

A vote of yeas 16, nays 0, was announced.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I voted in the negative, and I ask that those ballots be examined again.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President—

President KELLY—There is a recount in process now. Maybe they counted them wrong.

Coun. BAYLEY—They counted the nos wrong.

The votes were recounted, with a result of 12 in the affirmative and 4 in the negative, and the appointments were confirmed.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I would like to make a motion.

President KELLY—You are perfectly in order.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I move that the Committee on Constables be abolished.

President KELLY—If you will put that motion in writing, I will refer it to the proper committee.

ABOLITION OF COMMITTEE ON CONSTABLES.

Coun. MUCHNICK offered the following: Ordered, That the Committee on Constables be, and hereby is, forthwith abolished.

The order was declared referred to the Committee on Rules.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—There is no debate.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I am asking for the floor. President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. MUCHNICK—To ask for the floor.

President KELLY—The gentleman has the floor.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I want to make a motion.

President KELLY—State your motion, councilor.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I move that the rules be suspended and that this matter be heard forthwith.

President KELLY—You can make that motion, councilor.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, talking on the order. The work of the Committee on Constables has, up to a certain degree, been completely performed by the President of the Council. There therefore is no present need for the existence of that committee, and there is no sense in having a committee on the books with no functions, its functions having been wholly performed in so far as they could be performed. And it seems to me it is a little bit ridiculous and a little bit stupid to continue to carry that committee as a committee of the Council. And it is in view of that that I made the motion that I submitted, the order that the committee be abolished. And it is further, in view of that, that I made the motion that the rules be suspended, and that this be acted upon forthwith. This has nothing to do with the rest of the order or the motion; there being no further sense in having such a committee or to serving on such a committee, I am resigning from that committee as of now.

President KELLY—Mr. Councilor, I might answer you and say that the committee will be a very active committee, because about the middle of April you will have two lists of constables submitted to this Honorable Body, which will automatically be referred to the Committee on Constables. I only did, councilor, what every other President of the Body has done. I have only acted the way I acted when Chairman of the Committee on Constables, when an individual's name came into the Council, as these have come, in other months than the month of April. I have in turn laid them over for one week. They in turn have been laid over one week in previous years when I have been Chairman of the Committee on Constables, and we have called them off the calendar the next week.

Coun. MUCHNICK—If there is a function for the committee to serve in April when the names come in, then there was some function for the committee to serve in February when the names came in. If you recall last year when you were chairman, and Councilor Taylor from Ward 12 and myself were members of the committee, and these names were laid over for a week, you leaned over in your seat and said, "This one is all right, isn't it?" and then you checked with Councilor Taylor, and checked the same thing with him as to whether he approved. You didn't, so far as I know, go to any other members of the Council, but limited yourself to those who were members of the Committee on Constables on individual appointments, as well as the large batch which came in in April. That was the situation as I remember it last year, and two years ago, and three years ago. This year the functions of the committee, its most important function and at the most important time in the history of the committee, at least in my terms in the Council, were taken away from the committee. In view of those circumstances, there seems to be no point in continuing with that committee or with any of the men on it. Regardless of what happens, I find it necessary to let the resignation I delivered stand.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, I am a member of the Committee on Constables, and I don't feel that any single member of any committee, in order to justify his own feeling in a matter, should ask that the committee be abolished. I don't think I am trespassing on the other member of the committee. I think he is in accord with what I have said. The arguments advanced are very inconsistent. We have heard suspension of the rules and going into executive session. I think there must be something behind it. I can't fathom what is so important about this whole matter that a committee that existed so long a time should suddenly be abolished because the chairman of the committee fears he has either been slighted or it doesn't function. I feel, on behalf of myself and, if I am not wrong, on behalf of the other member of the committee, that we should not be put in a position where the chairman is speaking for us, and I, for one, will vote against suspension of the rule and also the abolishing of the committee.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I agree with a great deal of what both the distinguished councilors have said. I believe there is too little reference here by the Council to committees. I believe that many of the gentlemen, in fact the great majority of the gentlemen, are in error when they ask for suspension of the rules and passage of the order. I do not ask that in behalf of any order I introduced this year. I think I asked that one be referred. Any order I introduce I intend to have referred to the proper committee. I believe that several matters were introduced today which should have been referred to the Legislative Committee. I believe the councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick) is inconsistent when he asks suspension of the rule. I believe all matters should be referred to committees, as I said in my two speeches this year. And while I am heartily in accord with and would like to go along with the motion and general order of the councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick), I can't in fairness go along for suspension of the rule. I hope that this committee will report back favorably very soon. The Committee on Constables is apparently of very little usefulness.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, I would like to clear up something that seems to be bothering the junior councilor from Ward 12.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, I don't know of any junior or senior ratings in the Council.

President KELLY—The Council will be in order. We will not have any of that at all. If I am to use my authority as President of the Council, I will use it. We are all gentlemen in this body, and we are to be treated as gentlemen. I am going to conduct this meeting in a fair and impartial manner. I don't want to ever hear any statement like that again, or I will show my authority. That is a warning.

Coun. MUCHNICK—There is no personal reason for this resignation, Mr. President. It was not because I felt slighted, as has been intimated here. That has nothing to do with it. This was done purely as a matter of protest against what was referred to last week; and very well referred to, by Councilor Linehan as the unbusinesslike way of doing things here. If we are not to have committees functioning properly, there is no point to having committees at all, and, until such time as the committee which I had is going to be able to perform its proper functions. I very frankly want no part of it.

Coun. LINEHAN—Seeing that my name has been referred to—and personally I don't think it should be allowed by the presiding officer of this Body that names should be thrown around as promiscuously as they are, and I sincerely hope in the future, when councilors are referred to, that they be referred to by their wards. Sometimes we get a little bit hot under the collar when we hear our names mentioned. Now, I sort of agree with the councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick), but I can't go along with him all the way and recommend that the committee be abolished. But I do say this, if I were Chairman of the Committee on Constables, and if the same thing were done to me as was done to him in the past two weeks, I, too, would resign, but I would not request that the committee be abolished. Therefore, I cannot go along with my good friend from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick).

Coun. BRYAN—Mr. President, as a member of the Committee on Constables, I would like to clear up one matter. Last week I went along with the order because of the constables who had been off the payroll for three weeks being without pay, and acted last week so that those men might get back on the pay roll earning their salary. And again I, for one member of the Committee on Constables, went along with the Executive Committee upon the adoption of those constables. I hope that the Committee on Constables is not abolished. I believe it will function in April again, and I believe it can be of some use.

The question came on the motion to suspend the rule. A rising vote was asked by the Chair. The motion to suspend was lost, and the order was referred to the Committee on Rules.

GARAGE UNDER BOSTON COMMON.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:

Resolved, That the Boston City Council hereby favors the enactment of legislation for the construction of a garage under Boston Common, provided that said legislation contains a referendum to the Mayor and City Council.

Coun. BAYLEY—I move that this be referred to the Executive Committee, which has two other matters connected with the garage to come before them, and that they all be given a hearing at the next Executive Committee meeting.

Coun. COOK—A point of information, Mr. President.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. COOK—I would like to ask the President whether or not this Body has not approved such an order before.

President KELLY—Is this the same order that is on page 68?

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I believe we have approved a similar order some time ago. So, realizing that the Legislature is hearing this question now, I thought it would be proper to put in this order, in order to let the State Legislature know we have approved of such a project. But where the other order of mine has been laid on the table, I wouldn't want to do anything to hinder the State Legislature approving this matter.

President KELLY—I might call your attention to the fact that this order is the same order we passed, on page 68, the meeting of February 11. If you will kindly look there, you will see we have already passed a similar order. I think under the circumstances the best thing to do would be to withdraw this order.

Coun. RUSSO—I withdraw the order.

HEARINGS ON BUDGET.

Coun. CHASE—I notice by the late edition of one of the evening papers that the annual budget submitted by his Honor the Mayor is up $5,000,000, and the paper states that it may raise the taxes over $3.50. The paper goes on to say that the budget submitted by Mayor Curley was a lump sum budget, and so forth, Mr. President, back in 1939 I was Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, and I know what it means in the way of assisting the City Council in determining the necessary money for the conducting of municipal affairs to have the budget broken down and put in an itemized way. I don't see, Mr. President, how the Council can logically pass on this budget, the way it has been submitted to us. I think the only logical thing to do is to refer the budget back to his Honor the Mayor and have the various department heads segregate their expenses, and itemize them so that we can act intelligently on the budget if it is going to continue to be with us in its present setup. I think it requires too much interrogating, and I think we can accomplish much more if it is set up so that the taxpayers can more readily understand just what this is all about. I don't like the way it has been submitted, and I assume there are other councilors that don't care to act on it as submitted.

President KELLY—The Chair may state that this matter has already been referred to the Committee on Appropriations, so, therefore, I will have to rule this motion out of order. But you have two motions that would be in order. That is, to reconsider the reference to the Committee on Appropriations, and to ask it taken from the Committee on Appropriations. Either order would be in order.

Coun. CHASE—In view of that, I move that the matter be taken from the Committee on Appropriations, having in mind that I would subsequently offer another order requesting that the matter be referred back to his Honor the Mayor with a request that he submit an itemized budget with various department expenses itemized, so we can intelligently act on it.

The President asked for a rising vote. A rising vote was taken, and the motion was lost. Coun. CHASE doubted the vote and asked for a roll call.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. RUSSO—I would like to find out whether or not the budget that has been submitted by his Honor the Mayor to the Council, and which is now in the hands of the Committee on Appropriations, has been submitted in the usual way, the same as it has been in the past.

President KELLY—The Chair will say he has not had the time to study the budget as yet. Of course, we are only trying to settle the debate right here.

Coun. MUCHNICK—A point of information, Mr. President.

President KELLY—State your point of information, councilor.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Does the Chair or anyone have knowledge as to whether the Appropriations Committee will be furnished with the same kind of information that has been furnished in the last few years?

President KELLY—I have been informed by our genial City Clerk that the Appropriations Committee will be furnished this year with more information than they have been furnished with in the past.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, it is my intention to vote against taking this from the committee, and I do so because I think we will be reasonably assured that we will get a more complete breakdown when the Appropriations Committee have their hearings. If they are not supplied with the breakdown at that time, they can then request that information. I think there is no doubt it will be given to them.

Coun. HURLEY—I am rather uncertain as to what I am voting on. I get the general idea of it. The Committee on Appropriations is meeting here next Thursday?

President KELLY—Thursday, at 10 a. m.

Coun. HURLEY—Next Thursday we will have a good idea whether the budget is broken down as in the past years, or better, and, if the budget is not broken down as it has been in the past, then at our next meeting could we ask to have the budget removed, or the appropriations removed from the Appropriations Committee to the Executive, or back to the Council?

President KELLY—That motion would be in order next week, yes.

The question came on taking the budget from the Committee on Appropriations, and the motion was lost, yeas 4, nays 13.

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Chase, Linehan, Muchnick—4.

Nays—Coun. Bryan, Cantwell, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Keenan, Kelly, Madden, McCormack, Moriarty, Russo, Scannell—13.

CHILD CARE CENTERS.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. LINEHAN—Earlier in today's session I filed an order asking his Honor the Mayor to submit to us an appropriation to continue the maintenance of the child care centers. I would like to ask you at this time if that was forwarded to his Honor the Mayor and, if so, is there an answer to it?

President KELLY—I am informed an attaché of the City Messenger's office took it personally to his Honor the Mayor's office, and left it with the chief clerk, and his Honor the Mayor was not present at the time. We have not heard anything further at the present time.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I don't know whether I am in order or not, but I would like to speak in the record on a point of personal privilege.

President KELLY—State your point of personal privilege, councilor.

Coun. LINEHAN—When I filed an order requesting his Honor the Mayor to give us action because of an emergency situation, which I am compelled at this time to do because I have to give some information to people who are interested in maintaining child care centers, I am desirous of getting some kind of information from his Honor the Mayor in regard to this matter, and I may add a few words by just reading from this letter, showing why I am on my feet discussing this matter. I will read from this letter it won't take a minute having in mind that it was about two or three weeks ago that I filed an order which gave his Honor the Mayor plenty of time to submit an appropriation or not. At least he should give us an answer to that order. This letter is from Helen L. Stevens, secretary of the Committee on Child Care Centers, Greater Boston Community Council, and reads as follows:

"Dear Councilor Linehan,—Mrs. Driscoll asks me to thank you for your kind reply to her letter of February 15th and for the copy of the Minutes of the City Council meeting. She assumes that any action by the City Council to prevent the closing of the Centers at the end of next week would have to be taken at your next meeting.

"As there is no indication that Mayor Curley will make time before that to see Mrs. Driscoll as she requested, she is now suggesting that Mayor Curley request a temporary appropriation until he can give the matter more consideration. If the staff of teachers and the equipment once became scattered, there would be very great difficulty in reopening the centers. Mrs. Driscoll is also bringing to Mayor Curley's attention the interest of the Education Committee of the General Court in Senate Bill 225 which would allow state assistance to Child Care Centers to the extent of 40 per cent of the salaries involved. There is hope that this measure may be pressed ahead rather soon in order to meet the emergency.

"In addition, the School Lunch Program, now before Congress and expected to pass, would cover the expense of feeding the children at the Child Care Centers, where they receive their hearty noontime meal. Although the federal government shows no indication of undertaking full operation of Child Care Centers, plans now being considered for child health and welfare might give some financial help for such a program. It is unlikely, therefore, that the full cost of the Centers (in addition to what the mothers are able to pay in fees) would long rest upon the city treasury. Unless the City Council takes some responsibility for them, these other sources of assistance will not be available.

"We shall be glad to report to you any further developments, and rely upon your interest to do what is possible in this matter during the week now remaining before March 1st.

Sincerely yours,

HELEN L. STEVENS,

Secretary, Committee on Child Care Centers."

I am sorry to say once again that this city is not being conducted in a businesslike manner. When members of the City Council request information one way or the other, I certainly think they should get it in due time so letters can be answered intelligently—such matters of civic interest as child care centers. I think every councilor in this Body who is interested in these centers certainly should be up in arms at not getting an answer from his Honor the Mayor, and I certainly hope that something will be done about it. I don't know whether it will be in time next week. I hope that the child care centers will not be so broken up. I am sorry to say once again we are getting unbusinesslike in the management of the City of Boston—not by members of the City Council.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. HANNON—To make a motion. Mr. President, it is customary to commemorate historical events by cessation from work. That is, we are about to cease our labors today through the motion of adjournment. I think we, too, should celebrate a historical event. Somebody has called to my attention that one of our fellow

DUGAN, S. J., HERO OF BATAAN, TO DELIVER ORATION.

Plans have been completed and approved by Mayor James M. Curley and William J. Shepard, Director of Public Celebrations, for the observance of the 170th anniversary of the Evacuation of Boston by the British. From the headquarters of the chief marshal of the parade the general order has been issued for the participation of organizations, and preparations have been made for the inauguration of the three-day observance with the annual night-before banquet at the Parker House.

More than 10,000 marchers, including World War II veterans, and units of veteran and civic organizations from all parts of the state will be in the line. Captain Edward L. Hopkins, a World War II veteran, will be chief marshal.

Lieut.-Colonel Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., former United States Senator, will be the principal speaker at the night-before banquet. Lieut.-Commander Robert L. Grimes, another veteran, is chairman of the banquet committee.

Major John J. Dugan, S. J., hero of the Bataan death march and present chaplain at Cushing General Hospital, will be the orator at the historical exercises Sunday evening in the auditorium of the South Boston High School. Winners of the annual school children's essay contest will be awarded prizes. Coleman G. Coyne will preside.

Monday's program will open at 10 a. m., with memorial exercises on historic Dorchester Heights, with Francis Skerry, another World War II veteran, presiding. Representative John E. Powers will be the speaker.

Prior to the parade, which will start from Andrew square at 2.15 p. m., a road race for youngsters will be held over the parade route.

Governor Tobin, Mayor Curley, Representative John W. McCormack and District Attorney William J. Foley will march in the parade and later review the units from a stand at West Broadway, near the Parkman School.

The orders for the parade follow:

BOSTON, March 8, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—It is recommended that the City of Boston purchase one of the ocean-going towboats now at Prawl's Island, New York Harbor, at the government price of $43,200, as is. This boat is to replace the steamship Perkins which, through a constant need of expensive repairs, expense in operating, and undependability in supplying transportation to Long Island, has outlived its usefulness.

The proposed boat is an ocean-going towboat, wooden hull, 126 feet long, 28-foot beam, 11-foot draft forward and 13½ feet aft. It is powered with two Diesel engines and superchargers, made by the Superior Engine Company of Springfield, Ohio, and develops 1200 horsepower, with a speed of 12 knots. The boat was built by the Minneford Yacht Yard, City Island, New York, and designed by E. T. Dobson, Naval Architect of New Bedford. It was delivered to the United States Army in February, 1944. It has had very little use and to all intents is a new boat. In giving consideration to the purchase of this boat it is stressed that the purchase price represents less than 10 per cent of its cost price and will ideally supply our needs. The inspection of this boat was made by Mr. Simpson of the John Alden Company, Marine Architect, Mr. McDonald of the Lawley Company, Chief Engineer of Construction, and myself.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

There would necessarily be alterations and superficially it was agreed that these alterations would require the removal of all extraneous compartments and special structures in the superstructure, the lengthening of the superstructure to provide saloon space to accommodate 200 passengers, with a promenade on the second deck. It was agreed that there would be no necessity in disturbing the engines and their beds or the equipment below the decks or the wheelhouse which is equipped with all modern appliances, even a ship-to-shore telephone. The removal of such apparatus as tow cable equipment and power winches which take up considerable of the deck space is necessary.

There would be considerable expense in these alterations; probably in the vicinity of $30,000. When it is considered, according to our records, that it cost $30,000 in 1933 to alterate the steamship "O'Meara" at a time when material and labor costs were low, it would seem that our price would not be out of line. It should also be taken into consideration that we paid $36,575 in 1944 for shipyard repairs to the "O'Meara" and it now needs repairs again.

It is recommended if the boat is purchased that it be towed from New York. In discussing this with Captain Clark at the United States Army Base in Brooklyn who has the custody of the boat, he declared that consideration would be given to the City of Boston in having the Army tow the boat without cost by including it in tows that they are periodically making to Boston.

I respectfully submit that payment for the boat be provided by a recommendation to the Council by your Honor for a special appropriation in the sum of $80,000, to provide for the purchase, architect's fee and alterations of said boat.

G. FRANK McDONALD,
Commissioner.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, February 21, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—In October, 1945, the 15-inch sanitary sewer in Centre street, near St. Theresa avenue, West Roxbury, broke down. This sewer is about 15 feet below the street surface and located under the inbound street car track. At that time the street was being repaved by M. DeMatteo Construction Company, and they were engaged to repair the sewer, for which purpose a service order was issued in the sum of $500.

Under date of October 31, 1945, permission was requested and granted by former Mayor John E. Kerrigan to cancel the service order and enter into an unadvertised contract, at an estimated cost of $2,500 for repairing the sewer. This was necessary because of the difficulties encountered in doing the work; also, because it was found necessary to rebuild a greater length of sewer than was originally anticipated.

The difficulties encountered in doing the work consisted of a deep trench located under the street car track and the necessity of maintaining street car traffic during the progress of the work, it being necessary to support the track for this purpose, also because of the heavy flow of sewage which had to be pumped.

The work was completed on November 23, 1945, and the contractor's bill, in the sum of $4,881.23, has been checked against Sewer Division records and approved accordingly.

Your approval is requested to amend the contract approved by the Mayor December 5, 1945, by increasing the estimated cost of the work from $2,500 to $4,881.23, for the reason stated above.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

BOSTON, March 6, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—A very serious condition exists in the streets throughout the city which requires immediate attention. The surfaces of the streets have become so broken up because of the storms of the present winter, that immediate action must be taken in the matter of repairs. This condition is not confined to any one section, it is city-wide.

I feel that the best way of handling the situation would be to authorize contractors to make such repairs as are required under orders issued by this department. With that in mind, I respectfully request the permission of your Honor to engage the following-named contractors to furnish material, men and equipment required to make repairs required under orders issued by this department:

Ward General Contracting Company,
Baker & Co., Martin J. Kelly Company,

Inc., John Deveney Company, Hancock Construction Company.

The cost in each case will not exceed $2,000. This is an emergency which must be taken care of immediately. Subject, therefore, to the approval of your Honor, I shall issue orders to the above-named contractors to do such work as is necessary. As no advantage will be gained by inviting bids, I ask your permission to dispense with advertising.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,

Commissioner of Public Works.

BOSTON, March 8, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Supplementing my request of March 6—which your Honor approved on the same day—for the employment of five contractors to assist the department in the work of repairing streets, because of the condition which exists following the snowstorms of the present winter, I respectfully request the authority of your Honor for the employment of three more contractors, namely, Anthony J. Ryan, Inc., Edward M. Matz, Inc., and M. McGinnis Company.

I feel that it is to the advantage of the city to employ these contractors to assist the department force in making repairs to our streets which, in all sections of the city, are so dangerous that immediate attention is necessary.

The cost of this work will be above $1,000, but will not exceed $2,000, in each instance.

I therefore respectfully request the authority of your Honor to engage the three contractors named, who will furnish the material, men and equipment necessary to make these emergency repairs. No advantage would be gained by advertising, and the best interests of the city require that we dispense with advertising and handle the work in this manner by issuing service orders covering the work to be done.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,

Commissioner of Public Works.

CONSTRUCTION WORK.

10-inch pipe sanitary sewer and a 15-inch pipe surface drain in Payson road, between Hackensack road and 147 feet northwesterly (to Brookline sewers), in the West Roxbury district, at an estimated cost of $2,300.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Coleman Brothers Corporation has been granted an extension of the time of completion of the contract for emergency construction work on the Charlestown Bridge, over Charles river, to April 15, 1946. This extension is requested for the reason that the contractor was held up on account of delay by the Department of Public Utilities in approving the plans by the Boston Elevated Railway Company for the temporary support of the bridge; also on account of the steel strike which delayed the furnishing of the steel girders and beams for the permanent structure.

Coffin & Richardson, Inc., have been granted a further extension of the time of completion of the contract for engineers' services for a proposed incinerator on Southampton street, from March 1, 1946, to June 1, 1946. Because of the necessity for further conferences in connection with this work, the plans and specifications have been delayed in completion, so for that reason the extension of time requested is necessary.

V. COMMENDATION.

The Fire Commissioner is pleased to publish for the information of the department the following letter which he has received from Mr. John H. McLaughlin of the Massachusetts Hospital Service, Inc.:

"DEAR COMMISSIONER CODMAN,—As a result of the recent Blue Cross-Blue Shield enrollment in your Fire Department, 825 men are now members of Blue Cross and 485 of Blue Shield as well. This has been the most remarkable enrollment from any municipal department and the accuracy with which the men of your department filled out the application cards is particularly significant. Less than fifteen cards required correction of any type and I assure you that few business houses could boast of such a record on the part of their employees.

I feel that this result is a remarkable tribute to the manner in which the enrollment was conducted by Chief Boutillier and to your own cooperation. I am sure that you must be very proud of the men of your department."

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Regular meeting of the City Council, held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 p. m., President KELLY presiding. Absent, Coun. Coffey and Linchan.
The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

APPROPRIATION FOR ABOLITION OF BIRD STREET GRADE CROSSING.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 4, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am submitting herewith an order for $25,000 for the abolishment of the Bird Street Grade Crossing, being the share that Herman A. MacDonald, Commissioner of Public Works for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, determines to be the cost to the city.

The Commissioner of Public Works advises me that under the last highway bill passed by Congress we can now only abolish grade crossings on the primary or secondary Federal Aid roads; so unless we do Bird street now the chances of it ever being done are highly slim. He also informs me that the plans are all drawn and ready to be advertised, and that the Department of Public Works is very desirous of going ahead with this project, and would appreciate the cooperation of the city.

I therefore recommend the passage of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered. That the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) be, and hereby is, appropriated for the abolishment of the Bird Street Grade Crossing, said amount being the City of Boston's share of the cost of said abolishment, to be paid from time to time to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts upon requisition by the State Commissioner of Public Works; said sum to be raised by taxes on the polls and estates in the City of Boston, and that all orders heretofore or hereafter passed by the City Council relating to appropriations, taxes, and the interest thereon apply to the appropriations and taxes herein provided for.

Referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

ORDINANCE RE TAKING OF SHELLFISH.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 4, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Law Department, to inform the City Council whether or not chapter 5 of the Ordinances of 1945, concerning the taking of shellfish, is legal with respect to the limitation as to the number of licenses issued yearly.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Law Department, March 4, 1946.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—On February 23 you referred to this office for consideration and report the following order of the City Council passed on February 11: "Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to inform the City Council whether or not chapter 5 of the Ordinances of 1945, concerning the taking of shellfish, is legal with respect to the limitation as to the number of licenses issued yearly."

The authority of the City Council to deal with the subject matter of the ordinance in question must be derived from G. L., c. 130, s. 52. Material portions of the first paragraph of that section are as follows:

"The . . . city council of any city . . . may control, regulate or prohibit the taking of eels and any or all kinds of shellfish and sea worms within such cities . . . and may, from time to time, without other or special authority therefor, make any regulations not contrary to law in regard to said fisheries as they deem expedient, including the times, places, methods, purposes, uses, sizes, quantities and any other particulars of such taking, and may grant permits, and establish the fees therefor, subject to any such regulation, then or hereafter in force. . . ."

Chapter 5 of the Ordinances of 1945, with which we are here concerned, provides as follows:

"Effective April 9, 1945, no person shall dig or take shellfish from those contaminated areas in the limits of the city of Boston which have been determined by the department of public health to be suitable for the taking of shellfish for treatment at an approved purification plant unless he holds, in addition to the state permit required by law, a permit to do so from the committee on licenses of the city council. To avoid undue depletion the number of permits to be issued annually is limited to twenty. Should there be a greater demand for permits than the limit herein determined further permits may be issued with preference to residents of Boston." (Emphasis supplied.)

While this ordinance provides in terms that "the number of permits to be issued annually is limited to twenty," that limitation is in effect removed by the last sentence of the ordinance. It is not clear to me, therefore, that the ordinance establishes any definite restriction upon the number of permits which may be issued thereunder. So far as the ordinance gives preference to residents of Boston it is unobjectionable. Commonwealth v. Hilton, 174 Mass. 29. In view of the rather broad language of the enabling statute, quoted above, which inter alia gives authority to regulate " . . . times, places, methods, purposes, uses, sizes, quantities and any other particulars of such taking . . . " it is my opinion that the ordinance in question is not invalid by reason of any provision contained in the last two sentences thereof above underlined.

I have said enough to answer the somewhat limited question presented by the order of the Council. However, an examination of the ordinance and of the relevant statutes discloses to me certain other objections to the ordinance which I think it proper to state. In the first place, the permits provided for by the ordinance are to be given not by the City Council but are to be obtained " . . . from the committee on licenses of the city council." It appears to me that this provision is in conflict with the requirement of section 52 of chapter 130 quoted above which provides that " . . . the city council may grant permits. . . ."

In my opinion the council is not authorized by the relevant statutes to delegate its licensing authority to any committee of its members. No such authority to delegate is found in section 53 of chapter 130. That section provides as follows:

"All permits issued under section fifty-two shall be issued in the name of the body authorizing the issuing of the same; but, under a vote of such body, any such permit shall be valid if issued bearing the signature of any one member thereof, or of the city or town clerk. . . ." (Emphasis supplied.)

In my opinion this language does not deal with the substance of the licensing transaction but only with the form of the paper to be received by the licensee as evidence of his license. The license must still be granted by a vote of the Council and the Council itself must pass judgment upon the qualifications of the licensee. Once it has approved such qualifications and voted that a license issue the purely ministerial duty of executing a document conforming to such vote need not under the terms of section 53 be executed by the entire Council. Such ministerial duty of executing the required document may be delegated to any member of the Council or to the City Clerk. In my opinion, however, the delegation of duty authorized by section 53 extends only to the ministerial duty of executing the required papers. It is not intended to authorize the delegation of the power to license, including the power to pass upon the qualifications of proposed licensees. That duty must be exercised by the Council itself by the passage of a vote in the case of each licensee. The passage of chapter 5 of the Ordinances of 1945 is not in itself a "vote of such body" within the meaning of section 53 of chapter 130. In my opinion, therefore, the ordinance in question fails to conform to the relevant statutes in that it purports to delegate the licensing power of the Council to a committee of its members.

I feel it necessary also to call attention to the last paragraph of section 52 which provides as follows:

" . . . Every city or town which exercises the authority over such coastal fisheries as provided in this section shall set aside an area or areas not then in private control or under municipal cultivation in which the commercial taking of shellfish shall be prohibited and from which shellfish may be taken for his own family use by any inhabitant of the commonwealth holding a permit therefor from such city or town. . . ." (Emphasis supplied.)

The ordinance now under consideration obviously does not make the provision required by the language just quoted. In my opinion it is objectionable also on this ground. Compare Commonwealth v. Hilton, 174 Mass. 29, 32.

Yours very truly,

JAMES A. KELLEHER,
Acting Corporation Counsel.

Referred to Committee on Ordinances.

Later in the session, on motion of Coun. SCANNELL, the matter was taken from the Committee on Ordinances and referred to the Executive Committee.

VETO OF NAMING OF STREET JUNCTION FOR VETERAN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 26, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I return herewith without my signature and disapproved the order of your Honorable Body to name the junction of Harrison avenue and Northampton street in honor of a veteran who was killed in World War 2.

The custom of naming streets, avenues, parks and squares after veterans who lost their lives in the service was inaugurated shortly after the conclusion of World War I and there are but few locations which were not preempted for the purpose in the next few years.

It is my intention at an early date to appoint a commission to discover what parks, streets and squares are still available to be named after departed heroes and to determine those most entitled to the honor.

Accordingly I am of the opinion that all such proposals should be considered by the commission before final action thereon, and therefore I am constrained to veto this order which undoubtedly has great merit.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Placed on file.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE MEMORIALIZING VETERANS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 28, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—It is obvious that the termination of hostilities will result in many requests for the naming of squares or circles in memory of residents of Boston who were killed or died in the service of our country. It is equally obvious that neither the City Council, nor the Mayor, have the facilities or the time to weigh and adjudge each such request.

In order, therefore, that we may cooperate in the naming of squares or circles in memory of those most deserving of that honor, I hereby appoint the following-named Committee Memorializing Veterans, to whom I shall look for advice before approving any orders for the naming of squares or circles:

Richard Casey, Chairman, Board of Street Commissioners.

David J. Brickley, Soldiers' Relief Commissioner.
J. Ralph Granara, Veterans' Graves Registration Officer.

It shall be the function of this committee, among other things, to determine the degree of merit attached to each case; whether the spot to be named is desirable; whether the individual was a resident of that area; whether or not other individuals in that area are entitled to consideration; whether or not veterans organizations approve the proposed naming, and other related information which will permit the naming of squares and circles for those who sacrificed their lives in the service of our nation.

It is my suggestion that before members of your Honorable Body submit an order for passage, that you first submit all available information in the case to the Committee. It is most desirable that we exercise our authority in this matter with proper caution and with proper regard for all the facts. It should be our purpose to accord the honor of naming a square or circle to only those who are richly entitled to this memorial. It is my intention to be guided by the advice of the committee in all future cases.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Placed on file.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I would like to have you inform the City Messenger to have mimeographed copies of this communication which was just read made for all members of the Council, and in the future have this done and all communications received regarding the naming of such circles or squares, so we will have this information on hand.

Chairman FISH—The suggestion is a very good one, and the Chair will so inform the City Messenger.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—I return herewith order of the City Council passed at its meeting of January 14 and reading as follows:

This street is still under contract, and I assure you that, just as soon as weather conditions permit, Charles Capone, the contractor for the work, will be directed to remedy the conditions mentioned in this order.

TRAFFIC HAZARD, EDWARD EVERETT SQUARE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 21, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner in reply to your order of January 21, 1946, regarding traffic hazard now existing in the vicinity of Edward Everett square, Ward 7.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Traffic Commission, February 20, 1946.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—This is in acknowledgment of Council Order dated January 21, 1946, which reads as follows:

"Ordered, That the Traffic Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to study the traffic hazard now existing in the vicinity of Edward Everett square, Ward 7, for the purpose of installing traffic lights or constructing an underpass or overpass, whichever may be feasible."

We are aware of the serious traffic hazard which exists at this large junction. Happily, the accident record during the past four years shows a definite reduction as compared with the previous four years. However, this may be attributed to decreased traffic during the war years and does not necessarily predict improvement from now on.

Because of the number of entering streets and the peculiar physical layout of this intersection—complicated by the direction of street car movements—our engineers do not believe that a successful traffic signal installation could be made.

It is assumed that the suggested overpass or underpass is intended to accommodate the major volume of vehicular traffic passing through the intersection. It is our opinion that an overpass would be costly and unsightly, and we cannot visualize such a structure which would materially reduce the accident hazard.

It is conceivable that an elaborate underpass or system of underpasses could be designed. Such construction would entail rather extensive land-taking and would be very costly. No reasonable estimate of cost could be arrived at without extensive engineering surveys and studies.

This commission has recently designed an island in the throat of Columbia road at the east side of the intersection. We believe that this island would serve as a haven in mid-stream traffic for the many children who cross daily at this point in going to and from the three schools in the immediate vicinity. We intend to submit this plan to the Board of Street Commissioners for approval and to the Public Works Department with a recommendation that it be constructed.

Respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. HICKEY, Commissioner.

J. Joseph Connors, Esq.,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—At a meeting of the trustees of the George Robert White Fund, held on Friday, February 15, 1946, quoting from the records:

"Orders passed in the City Council, January 28, 1946, requesting the trustees of the fund to construct a municipal building in the West Roxbury section of Boston, and a veterans memorial, with a seating capacity of at least 2,000, in the Roslindale section, were considered. After discussion it was the opinion of the trustees that construction of the proposed projects from the income of the fund would be contrary to the following provision contained in the Will of the late Mr. White:

"It is my intention that no part of said income, however, shall be used for . . . any purpose which it shall be the duty of the city in the ordinary course of events to provide."

Respectfully submitted,
CHARLES S. FOX, Secretary.

INSTALLATION OF TRAFFIC LIGHTS, JAMAICA PLAIN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 2, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner in reply to your order of January 21, 1946, to erect traffic lights at the junction of Brown avenue and Cummins Highway, Roslindale, and Centre street and Louder's lane, Jamaica Plain.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Traffic Commission, February 27, 1946.

Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—This is in reply to Council Order dated January 21, 1946, which reads as follows:

"Ordered, That the Boston Traffic Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to erect traffic lights at the junction of Brown avenue and Cummins Highway, Roslindale, and Centre street and Louder's lane, Jamaica Plain."

It is the opinion of the engineers of this commission that neither the accident records nor the volumes of cross traffic at these two intersections warrant the installation of automatic traffic signals.

Respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. HICKEY, Commissioner.

WIDENING OF POPLAR STREET, ROSLINDALE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 1, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of Public Works in reply to your order of February 25, 1946, regarding the widening and reconstructing of Poplar street, from Canterbury to Beech streets, Roslindale.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department, March 1, 1946.

Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—I return herewith order of the City Council, passed at its meeting of February 25, and reading as follows:

"Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to widen and reconstruct Poplar street, from Canterbury to Beech streets, Roslindale."

Since the order calls for the widening of this portion of Poplar street, I would suggest that the order be referred to the Board of Street Commissioners for consideration. This department could do nothing in the matter of widening and constructing this street unless an order to that effect comes from that Board.

Respectfully yours,
ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

INSTALLATION OF TRAFFIC SIGNALS, WARD 7.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 2, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner in reply to your order of February 18, 1946, regarding the installation of automatic traffic signals at the corner of East Eighth and L streets, Ward 7.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Traffic Commission, February 27, 1946.

Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor.—This is in reply to Council Order dated February 18, 1946, which reads as follows:

"Ordered, That the Traffic Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install automatic traffic signals at the corner of East Eighth and L streets, Ward 7, which is a very dangerous intersection."

It is the opinion of the engineers of this Commission that traffic conditions at the intersection of East Eighth street and L street do not warrant the installation of an automatic traffic signal.

There are certain minimum conditions which must obtain before the approval of the State Department of Public Works can be secured for a traffic signal installation. The volume of cross traffic using L street is below the minimum requirements.

Furthermore, while it is to be deplored that serious accidents have occurred at this intersection, the record shows that the number of these accidents is far below that at hundreds of other non-signalized intersections throughout the city.

Respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. HICKEY, Commissioner.

AMENDMENT OF COMPENSATION AND CLASSIFICATION PLANS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Budget Department, March 4, 1946.
To the City Council,

Gentlemen,—Your order of February 18, 1946, to amend the Compensation and Classification Plans and Rules for the Officers and Employees of Suffolk County, as it affected the Assistant Clerk of Courts of the District Court of Chelsea, has had my consideration. I respectfully disapprove of the same.

While your order refers to Assistant Clerk of Courts, it appears that this refers to the First Assistant Clerk of Court whose range of compensation under date of March 14, 1945, was established in the County Classification and Compensation Plan as, "Annual $2,200-$2,400-$2,600-$2,700." It also appears that as of March 14, 1945, the salary of this position was advanced to the maximum of this class, due probably to the fact that the incumbent had over five years' service.

Under Rule 9(C) of the County Compensation Plan, it is provided that county employees, under sliding scale, shall advance by successive steps after the completion of the period of service of not less than twelve months, and, further, that salary advancement within the class shall be limited to one increase a year. While the rule contains a proviso permitting the Mayor to make exceptions in individual cases, nevertheless I feel that exceptions of this character should be discouraged rather than encouraged.

The purpose of the Classification Plan was to establish a basic salary with sliding scale increases over several years. The fact that the position of First Assistant Clerk is now established at the maximum rate, without following the procedure of annual increments, does not, in my opinion, justify the establishment of a new scale rate so soon after the rate established as of March 14, 1945.

Respectfully submitted,

RUPERT S. CARVEN,
Budget Commissioner.

Referred to Committee on County Accounts.

APPOINTMENT OF FRANK H. NORRIS.

Notice was received from the Health Commissioner of appointment of Frank H. Norris, 6 Holbrook street, Jamaica Plain, as inspector of housing and sanitation at $1,800 a year plus $200 E. C. A., effective February 27, 1946.

Coun CAREY—Mr. President, while the City Messenger is informing the Mayor of the venire of jurors, I was wondering if we could have read the communication received today from the Law Department regarding the so-called shellfish ordinance.

President KELLY—The clerk will read the communication.

(The clerk read the communication from the Law Department.)

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, are we to understand—this is a point of information—are we to understand, Mr. President, that the instrument known as the shellfish ordinance is itself illegal, or was it improperly drawn?

President KELLY—A little of both. It was drawn by the City Clerk. It is a little of both. The City Clerk further informs me it is illegal for the Committee on Licenses to issue any more permits.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, we are finding all these things out at a late date. Several weeks ago one of the Boston newspapers carried a story that the City Council had far exceeded itself in passing many ordinances which it is rumored are illegal. I think it is a direct insult to the intelligence of every one of us present here to be asked to toy with something in the nature of an ordinance designed to help the general public, and we find the best legal opinion at the time either supports or condemns it, and if they report on it and we pass it, we find out it was improperly drawn or we were improperly informed, and if we condemn it and we take no further action on it we find we are remiss and lax in our duties as public servants. When are we going to get any reliable information in the Boston City Council? I am, personally, damned sick and tired of attending meetings here where they bring down Assistant Corporation Counsel, at a salary of anywhere from $5,500 to $8,000 a year, and we wind up months later with the rather sour knowledge that the result of our actions, after hours of debate, is illegal. There is a lot of tricky and involved talk in that opinion, which could be summed up in a few short words: the shellfish ordinance of 1945 is illegal. There isn't one of us to which that makes sense. I understood the clerk to read one point—and I was not listening closely—that the Council cannot delegate to a committee on the Council the right to issue such licenses as this. In the next breath I thought I heard him say that it was properly a business of the Committee on Licenses. Did anyone else hear that?

President KELLY—I understand, counselor, that the reply said that the members of the City Council itself can vote on a license, but it cannot delegate the power to the Committee on Licenses to issue the licenses.

Coun. KINSELLA—Well, if I stay here long enough I will be crazy altogether. I still don't quite understand it, and I am not going to press that point, but what I want to know is—and I have a right to ask it, and I have a right to demand not to be made a fool of—when are we going to get legal opinions that will stand up? Tom Hannon time and time again called meetings of the Committee on Ordinances last summer, and finally, when he got a quorum after weeks of effort, he brought out what purported to be a perfect instrument for licensing non-resident clam diggers. We find out scarcely eight months later that the thing is illegal. Now, this is not a life or death matter, and should not involve any long-winded debate. But it is a matter of great personal concern to every member of the City Council that the legal opinions that we get here are substantially trustworthy, honest and reliable. I am informed that certain other ordinances are about to be rescinded because of their non-legality at the time we stupidly and foolishly—but understandably—passed them into something that resembles law. It is a crime to expect us to come in here and sit down and argue back and forth in all sincerity and honesty with each other, and bring out of the mountain a mole hill. If there is any other member of the Council that has a similar complaint to air, I do wish he would speak now. We are supposed to be guided by the best opinion in the city—and God knows we pay enough for it—and then we find out that none of it is reliable. Does the opinion change with every administration? Which is in the ascendancy—the administration or the law? I would like to know which takes precedence over the other. I think from now on I will just draw my salary and just stay away from here on Mondays and if somebody with a little knowledge goes into our actions for the last four years they might find out that the pay raises we gave are illegal.

Coun. SCANNELL—Speaking on this last message from the Mayor, I would like to have the Corporation Counsel sent for and have that message from the Mayor taken from the Committee on Ordinances and put into the Executive Committee to see if we can clean up this matter today.

President KELLY—The Corporation Counsel will be sent for. You make a motion that this order be taken from the Committee on Ordinances and referred to the Executive Committee, and that the Corporation Counsel be sent for today?

Coun. SCANNELL—Yes.

The motion was carried.

Coun. FISH in the chair.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LEGISLATIVE MATTERS.

Coun. HANNON, for the Committee on Legislative Matters, submitted the following:

Report on resolve (referred February 25) approving enactment of legislation enabling city to pay sum of money to parents of Francis Ricci—that same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said resolve passed.

Coun. CAREY—I have a communication from the City Council of Newburyport regarding the digging of clams in the City of Boston, which I would like to refer to the Body and ask that it be referred to the Executive Committee.

The communication was read as follows:

Newburyport, Mass.,

February 18, 1946.

The Honorable City Council of Boston.
Gentlemen,—We, members of the City Council of Newburyport, have been appointed as a committee to submit recommendations to the Council concerning what action should be taken on a petition received from the Clammers of Newburyport "to take proper and immediate action ordering that the clam purification plant be closed until something is done to permit the local citizens to dig clams in other communities."

The shellfish treatment plant at Newburyport, built, owned and operated by this city, has cost the taxpayers over $31,000 for construction and repairs, and over $13,000 for maintenance expenses. In spite of this cost, the city of Newburyport is receiving clams from Boston for purification, extending the good neighbor policy. Last year, 46.86 per cent of all clams purified from outside areas came from the Boston area. Our clambers cannot see why we should purify Boston dug clams when they are not allowed to work in the Boston area.

At the present time, our clambers, some of whom are World War II veterans, have been out of work since July of last year due to the State Department of Public Health closing the Newburyport area to all digging.

We do not send this letter in an attitude of "let our clambers in or else." We write it in a spirit of humble supplicants, beseeching you as fair-minded men to allow a limited number of Newburyport clambers to dig clams in your contaminated area until their area is opened so that they can get back to work again.

We would greatly appreciate a decision concerning our request before March 13, 1946, so that our committee can submit its recommendation concerning the clambers' petition to the City Council of Newburyport.

BIDS FOR BATH HOUSE AND SOLARIUM, ESPLANADE.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:

Ordered, That the Trustees of the George Robert White Fund be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to immediately advertise for bids for the erection of a bath house and solarium at the Charles River Esplanade, Ward 3.

Coun. RUSSO—Just a few words on this matter. This is something I have had pending for the last four years or more. It has been approved by the Trustees of the George Robert White Fund, and blueprints and specifications have already been made. And the reason it has not been let out for bids is on account of the war. Now, the war has ended, and it is something that is needed in the district. The people of my district have been patiently waiting and have been patriotic on this question because of the war. Now that the war is ended, I hope it will be advertised for public bids as soon as possible, so that the solarium can be started.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

Coun. KELLY, for Coun. BRYAN, offered the following:

Ordered, That the City Clerk be directed to prepare and submit to the City Council a draft of a revision of the ordinances with no substantive changes from the Revised Ordinances of 1925 except such as have been made necessary by the ordinances and statutes adopted since that revision; provided, however, that further substantive changes other than in salaries, if deemed advisable, may be submitted in a separate recommendation; the expense to be charged to the Contingent Fund.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

POINT OF INFORMATION.

Coun. KEENAN—Mr. President, a point of information.

Chairman FISH—State your point of information.

Coun. KEENAN—Are we in order at this time to take a recess to go down and see his Honor the Mayor? Well, I withdraw that.

Chairman FISH—The Council will very shortly, I understand, go into recess for the purpose of going into Executive. By that time it may be taken advantage of.

LEGISLATION RE RETIREMENTS AND PENSIONS.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, favors the enactment of legislation now pending before the General Court entitled: "An Act relative to Retirement Allowances for persons retired for accidental disability and for recipients of accidental death benefits under the Boston Retirement Act," also "An Act relative to pensioning members of the Fire Department of the City of Boston."

Passed under suspension of the rule.

COST OF COVERING THIRD RAIL ON EL SYSTEM.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to direct the trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway to submit their report relative to the cost and advisability of covering the so-called third rail of the Rapid Transit System.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, a few weeks ago an order was presented in here by me asking that the Boston Elevated Railway consider the advisability of covering their third rail. I did this at that particular time because of the death, the unfortunate death, of a youngster in the Dorchester district, who came in contact, apparently, with the exposed third rail. This matter was properly referred to the Committee on Public Safety, and a meeting of that committee was promptly held at which time the Elevated assured us that a study would be made and a report submitted to us containing data relative to the advisability and as to the cost of covering this third rail. Now, last week something else occurred because of the fact that this third rail was exposed. Because of the weather conditions, with an accumulation of frost and ice on the third rail, service on the Elevated was so obstructed that, I dare say, half of the employees of the business houses of the city were not merely inconvenienced but were forced to remain at home. That brings forth another reason why this third rail should be covered—because of the unfavorable weather conditions, because of the inconvenience to be caused the commuters who have to use the Boston Elevated. Now, these various reasons call for some action. I don't think we should delay too long. The Elevated attorney told us that this would be a great financial burden upon them. I cannot imagine it being much of a financial burden, and anyway I don't think that the Elevated cares much about financial burdens because you and I pay the bills. But I think now that spring is here, before next winter arrives, for many and varied reasons, this third rail of the Boston Elevated should be covered. And I am filing this order, Mr. President, to see if we cannot expedite matters and see if the Mayor won't confer with the trustees and if we can't get the low-down and the real facts and figures, and remove this danger to both life and limb, and now again to transportation.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

RECONSTRUCTION OF POPLAR STREET.

Coun. CANTWELL offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to widen and reconstruct that portion of Poplar street, from Canterbury street to Beach street, Roslindale.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

STATEMENT BY PRESIDENT KELLY.

Coun. KELLY—Mr. President.

Chairman FISH—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. KELLY—I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

Chairman FISH—Are there any objections? (No response.) There are no objections, and you may proceed.

Coun. KELLY—Mr. President, I was talking to his Honor the Mayor late last Monday, and he set aside the official time of 11 o'clock to 1 o'clock on Mondays to see members of the City Council. Now today something unfortunate happened, because, unknown to me, his Honor the Mayor had made previous engagements for today, starting at 12 o'clock. So although the official time for members of the City Council to see his Honor the Mayor is from 11 to 1 o'clock on Monday, he was not able to see the members today on account of his appointments being made before I sat down with him.

CLEANING AND PAINTING OF DORCHESTER COURT HOUSE.

Coun. KEENAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Superintendent of Public Buildings be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to clean and paint the Dorchester Court House.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

RECESS.

The Council voted at 3.05 p. m., on motion of Coun. HANNON, to take a recess subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled and were called to order by Coun. FISH at 3.55 p. m.

RESTORATION OF POLICE RANK TO JOHN A. DORSEY.

Coun. KEENAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Police Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to immediately restore the rank of captain to John A. Dorsey, who was demoted to lieutenant in June, 1944, particularly in view of his heroic work in recapturing the convict who escaped from State Prison last week.

Coun. KEENAN—Mr. President, I introduced this order on account of the compliments I have heard throughout the city as to Lieutenant John Dorsey. Personally, I have not had the honor of meeting the gentleman, but I have heard such good compliments about him in the past week. And I think if the Police Commissioner saw fit at that time to promote the lieutenant to captain for something, and now demotes him for something which it is my personal opinion he is not involved in, I think he should take that into consideration and now promote him for the heroic work he did in capturing the convict that escaped from State Prison last week.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. Chairman, I want to commend the councilor from Ward 17 (Coun. Keenan) for presenting this very meritorious order in regard to the former police captain, John Dorsey. At that time we were very much interested, some of the members of the Body, about some of the investigation that was going along in regard to this. And it is the same old story, that somebody had to take the rap, and I think I know from what has been going on that this same former Captain Dorsey has taken the rap. And I think in all fairness to Captain Dorsey, or the lieutenant, that it is a very good order, and I think if the Police Commissioner would have a hearing on this matter and be fair on this matter, the same as some of the trial boards of the captains of the Boston Police Department should be, then there would be no question in my mind that they would restore Captain Dorsey to his old position as police captain of the City of Boston.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, it seems to me that this is something that should be sent to a committee, probably the Committee on Public Safety, so that the Police Commissioner could be invited to attend, we could express our views to him, he could express his views to us, and we would do much the wiser thing not to rush this through. If, as has been hinted at here, one man or many men took the rap for something which was not their fault, if they didn't get fair hearings before the board of police captains, it seems to me that we are entitled to get that information, and the only way we can get such information is to invite the persons who are informed to appear and testify before us. I therefore urge that the motion to suspend the rule be withdrawn, and that this be sent to the proper committee at this time.

Chairman FISH—Do you make that as a motion?

Coun. MUCHNICK—As a motion.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, I am not going to take issue with the motion to refer this matter to a proper committee, because many times I have taken the floor here and urged that these matters take their proper course. However, I am a neighbor of Captain Dorsey, and probably am more conversant with his career and with his habits than any other member of the Council. I have a great opportunity to observe him, both as a citizen, as a layman, and in his official capacity as police officer of the City of Boston. I heartily endorse this order because of my years of association with the captain, now Lieutenant Dorsey. I have always found him to be a 100 per cent man and 100 per cent on the job. As I say, he and I are neighbors, and I have had many opportunities to meet him socially and in a business way. I know he is a man of his word, and in the neighborhood he is highly esteemed as a man of character. In his capacity as police official he is assigned to the district which embraces Ward 13. As a police official in that district I have had many opportunities to call on him, to go to him for advice, and I have always found him courteous and cooperative and, above all, considerate of the rights of the individual. I heartily endorse any attempt to restore him to his former place as captain. He worked hard to attain that position. I feel that he has all the necessary qualifications, both as a man and as a police officer, to be captain in the Police Department, and nothing would please me more than to see him restored to his former position.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I choose to refer to the gentleman who is the subject of this order or resolution as Captain Dorsey. And that is the title still used in addressing him by thousands upon thousands of people in the City of Boston. Now, had I not known Captain Dorsey, I would still be interested in the gentleman because of the rank injustice that was done him when, after having been indicted by the Attorney-General of the Commonwealth, the indictment was then nolle prossed by the same gentleman, with the recommendation that a so-called impartial group investigate the charges against him and make recommendation. The recommendations were that Captain Dorsey be demoted one rank, to that of lieutenant, after thirty-five years in the Boston Police Department. That would have broken the heart of any man, a man not constituted as John A. Dorsey was constituted. I have seen him under trying circumstances act the part of a gentleman and act the part of a kind humanitarian to those who have nothing. And that is a true test of a man's character. He served in Charlestown some years before I went into politics, and he served there two or three years after I made my entrance into politics, and there was never a breath of scandal against the character of John Dorsey. But he was caught in the cross-fire between Segansky and a weak-kneed administration, and the result was that the good name of John Dorsey that he got from his mother and father was dragged down in the mud and mire and made a football because of the personal aggrandizement of those in ascendancy over him. I don't know as I could have had more affection for my own father than I have for John Dorsey. As I say, I saw him under trying circumstances, and the proof of his character upon his demotion. Another man would have gone into a decline and failed rapidly. Another man would have asked for retirement on any terms. Dorsey knew, as he knows today, that he was the victim of vicious circumstances, and he stood his ground. He is the first man in many years as a ranking officer of the Boston Police Department to be so publicly excoriated and so vilified and condemned as to be reduced a rank, when he should have gone up a rank. He is one of the most brilliant detectives in the history of the United States, and his long record is studded with successes that won't, in years to come, be matched by those who happen to hold a position over him. Now, I have for the last couple of years been at peace with the present Police Commissioner, but I think I should stir your memories so that you, Mr. President, and the other members of this Body shall not become embroiled with the Police Commissioner and come out second best, as we always do. Some time last November or December Senator Taylor, then Councilor Taylor, offered what was probably not much worse than a mild criticism of the present Police Commissioner, and the Police Commissioner, in retorting to the criticism, said, "I am not interested in any comments from that source." Not Charlie Taylor, but the Boston City Council. He was not specifying Councilor Taylor, he was specifying the Boston City Council. He was not interested in any opinion we had, good, bad, impersonal, or as a personality. Now, I don't know in what form this has been presented, Mr. President, whether as an order which we cannot make, since this is strictly a civil service proposition, and if it was an order it should have been in the form of a resolution, but it is highly meritorious and will work a fine-handed justice on a man who has spent his life seeing that justice was done. And I say to you and to your members, Mr. President, who have not had the pleasure of enjoying the company of Captain Dorsey, that it is one of the biggest deficiencies of your public career. A grander and more substantial character I have yet to meet, in or out of politics, in or out of political life. And if there is any integrity left in the City of Boston, that integrity will be well administered in a return to the proper rank that Captain Dorsey always should have held and from which he never should have been removed. I urge upon all of you members that you make the acquaintance of Captain Dorsey, and you will find that you are enjoying a richer existence for it.

Coun. KEENAN—Mr. President, speaking on Councilor Muchnick's amendment, I am very much opposed to having this sent to the Committee on Public Safety, because I think it was a year and a half ago I had an experience with the Police Commissioner relative to having police officers removed from the theatres of Boston, acting as watchmen, and I also spoke to him with reference to officers at the Boston Police Department. His remark to me at that time, when I asked to have the police officers removed from the Boston theatres, was that there were police officers twenty-four hours a day. I know, Mr. President, that if this order goes to the Committee on Public Safety, and the Commissioner comes up here, he is not going to give us cooperation, the cooperation that he should. You, Mr. President and members of the Council, have heard of the honors bestowed on Lieutenant Dorsey by Councilor Kinsella and Hannon, who know him far better than I do, because I have never had the pleasure of meeting the gentleman.

Coun. LANE—Mr. President, the introduction of this order today came as a surprise to me, and I am very happy to hear the reading of it. I have had the pleasure and privilege of knowing Jack Dorsey for twenty years or more. I have had frequent communication and contact with him in my official business, and have always found him an industrious, able, and capable executive. He is an authority with other detectives, and he is known in insurance investigations as one of the most capable men in the business. Not only in Boston, but in police departments in other cities they look to Jack Dorsey.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I don't know Captain Dorsey personally, so I can't speak either for or against him. But I feel that in this matter we are getting very far afield. I don't consider it my duty as a councilor to determine what police officers may be promoted or demoted. We have police officials to determine that. Our job is to look after the affairs of the City of Boston. Surely there would be no harm in referring this to a committee appropriate for proper action. Recently we had a matter which we felt was not properly inspected, and we received criticism in the press, which I felt was well deserved. Let us not speak without reference to the proper committee. In this case, while I don't know the gentleman, I know a little of the case, and I remember action was taken in demoting the gentleman in question after a report of an unbiased and impartial committee of two—two of the finest, highest type, high-grade men in Massachusetts, one of whom is the State Representative from my district and a personal friend of mine, and one of the finest men in public life today. They spent a great deal of time on this matter, and I think before we take action on this matter

Coun. KEENAN—Will the councilor yield for a question?

Chairman FISH—Do you care to yield, councilor?

Coun. BAYLEY—No. When I have finished, I will.

Coun. KEENAN—Thank you.

Chairman FISH—Continue, councilor.

Coun. BAYLEY—I believe that we should go slow. Let us make sure when we take action in this Council that we have done it after due deliberation, when a matter has been referred to the proper committee. I said in my maiden speech here this year that I was in favor of referring all matters to committees, and, while we have done better in that than in the past, I think in the future we should follow that procedure. If, after due deliberation, we decide this order is a good one and the gentleman concerned should be put back to his former rank, then we will know it was done after due deliberation, and it will be more effective than if it was hastily passed here. I am therefore opposed to suspension of the rules.

Chairman FISH—Does the gentleman yield for a question?

Coun. BAYLEY—I yield.

Chairman FISH—Do you still care to present your question?

Coun. KEENAN—Will the councilor be good enough to inform me of the names of the two gentlemen who were on that board?

Chairman FISH—Will you please inform the councilor of the personnel of that board?

Coun. BAYLEY—I believe the two gentlemen were Charles B. Rugg of Worcester and Mr. Henry L. Shattuck of Boston.

Coun. KEENAN—I have another question.

Chairman FISH—Does the councilor care to answer the question?

Coun. BAYLEY—Certainly.

Coun. KEENAN—As to the two gentlemen that heard that trial at that time, would the distinguished councilor feel in his opinion they had enough evidence or knew enough about the Boston Police Department as justices and attorneys to know they should make that decision on the evidence that was presented?

Chairman FISH—Even though you yield for a question, councilor, you don't have to answer.

Coun. BAYLEY—I believe that was their decision, and I have confidence in their integrity that they would not have made the decision unless they felt confident it was proper.

Coun. KEENAN—Does the councilor care to yield again?

Coun. BAYLEY—I yield.

Coun. KEENAN—When the councilor introduced his order relative to Sunday baseball, he didn't want to stipulate a special committee to send it to.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I did. I asked it be referred to the proper committee, and it was referred to the Committee on Parks and Playgrounds, and another councilor made a motion that it be taken from the Committee on Parks and Playgrounds and referred to the Executive Committee. I asked at that time that it be referred to committee.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, it seems to me that the purpose of this order is to obtain a proper hearing or proper justice, if that be the word, for Captain Dorsey. That has been hanging fire for approximately a year now, if my memory is correct, and another week or two won't hurt the matter any. Now, if the purpose is to give Captain Dorsey a perfunctory pat on the back, then I say get it over with now one way or another, and we will be done with it. But if the purpose of this order is to give him a fair hearing and have him restored, after all the facts have been considered, then it seems to me the only proper thing to do is to refer it to a committee. There has been talk that the Police Commissioner doesn't pay any attention to our opinions. He may not show up, it has been said, and various other things. Well, if this matter is referred to a committee and lays over for one week, there are only two or three possibilities that can happen. The Police Commissioner will be invited to attend the hearing, and either he will or he won't show up, and he will or he won't send somebody to represent him. If he doesn't show up, or if some representative does not show up, then we can act as we see fit without him, and clearly he has placed himself on the defensive, at least so far as the public of Boston is concerned. If he does show up and gives us the facts as he knows them, then we are in a position either to approve or disapprove of this order. If he comes and refuses to give us the facts in accordance with what was suggested by the councilor from Ward 2 (Coun. Kinsella) concerning his opinion of the Boston City Council, then again the Police Commissioner places himself on the defensive by withholding information that we and the rest of the citizens of Boston are entitled to have. But in any event, no matter what happens, clearly only some good can result from referring this to a committee and holding it open a week. And clearly no harm can result to Captain Dorsey or anybody else. And it is in view of that that I press the amendment to have this referred to a committee.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, it might be well for all of us to remember that we have actually no legal authority or power in this matter. All we can do is offer it as our opinion that Dorsey ought to be restored to his old rating. Now, upon recommendation of Mr. Rugg and Mr. Shattuck, he was reduced a grade in the Boston Police Department. It is obvious that it must have carried greater implications than the mere motion itself, because the Boston Police Department has seen a number of lieutenants promoted in recent years into captaincies. It is rather plain that promotion back to captain was never again attempted for Dorsey. I think that before we refer it to any committee at all, Mr. President, the proper thing to do is to ask some Corporation Counsel or Assistant Corporation Counsel to come down here and give us an opinion as to the legality of the two-man board's action in reducing Dorsey one rank. We do know that civil service laws make provision for demotions within certain services, but we also realize that the period of that demotion in all fairness to Dorsey should not last any longer than the term that Doc Segansky is serving. If Segansky was taken out of circulation for two or three years, there is no earthly reason that will hold water for Dorsey being penalized for the rest of his life. Mr. President, with reference to the Public Safety Committee hearing this matter, I will ask the Chair to ask the City Clerk for a ruling on this point of order. The point of order, Mr. President, is that it is not a subject matter for any Council committee because it does not concern a policy of the city.

Chairman FISH—I think, councilor, that Captain Dorsey being an employee of the city, in direct connection with the city government, it would come under the City Council.

Coun. KINSELLA—Well, Mr. President, I prefer to state that this primarily should be heard by a committee of the whole Council in executive session next Monday, at which time we might ask a capable Assistant Corporation Counsel to come down and explain the validity, if there be any, of the action of Mr. Rugg and Mr. Shattuck in having delegated to them by the Police Commissioner the right to recommend demotion or anything else for an officer who was not up on charges. The Council should remember —

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

Chairman FISH—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. MUCHNICK—Merely to state that if the councilor from Ward 2 (Coun. Kinsella) would rather have this go to executive, rather than to the Committee on Public Safety, I will be very glad to go along with him.

Chairman FISH—We will wait until the council gets through with his remarks, to see if there is any further motion.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I am just offering my moral support.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I think it is obvious, in view of the nol-prossed charges against Dorsey by Attorney-General Bushnell, the man who instigated the indictment, that that is sufficient exoneration, and I question the legality of two laymen, however accomplished otherwise, to find that the Civil Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts deems itself to be bound by a recommendation of demotion. They enjoy absolutely no legal or official status as inquisitors into Dorsey's wrongdoing, if wrongdoing there was, because the chief law enforcement officer of the Commonwealth, who sought and brought about the indictment, is the very man upon whose direct recommendation the indictment was quashed, after which the Police Commissioner asked that two laymen, although both are prominent public-spirited gentlemen, sit as an impartial board of review on the case of a man already nol-prossed by his first and primary inquisitor, the Attorney-General of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Now, I am not a lawyer, and I have often stated publicly that since I am not a lawyer I have to take refuge in the exercise of common sense, which would imply that there is some conflict between law and common sense, and, by God, there is. When a man can be indicted, the presumption of guilt is strong. The lawyers can set me right on that. The presumption of guilt is strong.

Coun. MUCHNICK—If the gentleman wants to be set right, the presumption of guilt is not strong when a man is indicted.

Coun. KINSELLA—I stand corrected. The presumption of innocence apparently is strong when you are indicted. Mr. President, when a man can be indicted on evidence that indicates wrongdoing, and then because the evidence is insufficient, either in quality or quantity, a nol-pros proceeding is instituted and sustained by the indicting authority, I question the legal right then to bring in laymen to pass judgment on the wrongdoing, so called, of the exonerated person. And I would like to know by what legal method Captain Dorsey was demoted, as long as the subject has been brought up here, and who invested Mr. Rugg and Mr. Shattuck with powers that the state civil service apparently recognized and sustained,—demoting a man after 35 years of honorable service in the Police Department because there was a suspicion of guilt. If that suspicion were any more than a shadow, why didn't they proceed against Dorsey? Why didn't they take him into court and try him on an indictment? What grounds have they got to excuse their action in turning the case over after the elected law enforcement officer of the Commonwealth says in effect, "We indicted you by mistake and upon insufficient grounds." That is exactly what that attitude means to me. Then we find he is reduced in rank and reduced in salary, and meantime some young men, almost half his age, have gone along and exceeded him in rank in the Boston Police Department. It is as plain as a pikestaff there is no further promotion for Captain Dorsey. It is up to us one way or another to find out why. If he was not a good captain, he most certainly never could be a good police officer of any other rank. And I move that we refer this matter to the Executive Committee for next week, and that some representative of the Law Department, able to explain the proposition to us, be asked to come down and answer a few pertinent questions.

Chairman FISH—Does Councilor Muchnick withdraw his motion to refer the matter to the Committee on Public Safety?

Coun. MUCHNICK—If Councilor Keenan will add that the Police Commissioner will be invited to attend along with the member of the Law Department.

Chairman FISH—I think that is his purpose.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, in answer to Councilor Muchnick's suggestion, I don't think we will see him here, and if he sends a representative, Mr. President, he will send a deputy or chief clerk, who is not authorized to make statements that we want to hear from the commissioner.

Coun. MUCHNICK—May I suggest that the invitation specify that we would like to have him here in person, and no representative, and that the invitation be sent out soon enough so that he can make the necessary plans.

Chairman FISH—If the motion passes, the Chair will see to it personally.

Coun. MUCHNICK—May I ask further that the invitation specify that we want to discuss with him the Dorsey case?

Chairman FISH—Yes, Councilor Muchnick, do you want to withdraw your motion?

Coun. MUCHNICK—Yes.

Chairman FISH—Councilor Muchnick withdraws his motion to send the matter to the Committee on Public Safety.

Coun. MADDEN—Mr. President, I know nothing of the Dorsey case, but I do know Captain Dorsey or Lieutenant Dorsey. When this matter happened, I happened to be over in Africa, and for once I concur with my esteemed colleagues, Councilors Muchnick and Bayley. I think that the best interests of the captain would be served by holding this hearing and bringing the Police Commissioner in here, and all other parties, so that we can go on record as giving Captain Dorsey a fair and impartial hearing. If he was given an unfair trial and an unfair recommendation, I think that that whole matter should be aired before the Boston City Council. I think we are entitled to know all the facts, and I think in this particular case it would be wrong to rush it through today. I don't think that another week would make any difference, and I really think, in all deference to Captain Dorsey, that his best interests would be served. I am sure if he feels he has a grievance, and he certainly must, that he would like the opportunity to appear before this Body and to give his side of the case. And if he is getting pushed around, I think there are those of us here who can stop that business.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, a point of information.

Chairman FISH—Will you state your point of information?

Coun. KINSELLA—Will the clerk through the Chair state to the Body what our limitations are for hearing of the facts?

Chairman FISH—Beg pardon?

Coun. KINSELLA—Will the Chair get the whole picture from the City Clerk as to the limitation of our powers in this matter?

Chairman FISH—I understand that the Council have no power whatsoever. Any action we may take would just be on recommendation.

Coun. KINSELLA—It is just a matter of opinion?

Chairman FISH—It is just a matter of opinion.

Coun. MADDEN—Mr. President, I would like to also move that Captain Dorsey be invited to that meeting, and that he bring such evidence with him as he may care to offer.

Chairman FISH—The Chair has so stated, that all parties concerned will be invited, and the request of Councilors Madden and Muchnick will be granted.

The order was referred to the Executive Committee.

SPEEDY CONSTRUCTION OF WASHINGTON STREET BY BAKER & CO.

Coun. KEENAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to immediately notify Baker & Co. to proceed with the construction of Washington street, between Gallivan Boulevard and Fuller street, which they started last fall and left in a dangerous condition throughout the winter months.

Coun. KEENAN—Mr. President, Baker & Co., Hyde Park and Roslindale, were awarded a contract for construction on Washington street, Ward 17, last summer. They started it and have not finished it, and have left the main thoroughfare, Gallivan Boulevard to Fuller street, broken and in a deplorable condition. And I ask that the Public Works Commissioner notify the Baker Company to either fix this or have the contract taken away from them.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON COUNTY ACCOUNTS.

Coun. BRYAN, for the Committee on County Accounts, submitted the following:

Report on petition of Matthew L. Kelly, master of steamer "Michael J. Perkins," for retirement, recommending passage of following:

Whereas, Matthew L. Kelly, employed in the Penal Institutions Department of the City of Boston as master of the steamer "Michael J. Perkins," has made application to be retired under the provisions of chapter 32, section 58, of the General Laws, and

Whereas, The said Matthew L. Kelly has submitted to the City Council satisfactory evidence that he is a veteran as defined in section 56 of said chapter and that he has been in the service of the city or county for thirty-seven years;

Ordered, That under the provisions of section 58 of chapter 32 of the General Laws, as amended by chapter 514 of the Acts of 1943, Matthew L. Kelly, employed in the Penal Institutions Department of the City of Boston as master of the steamer "Michael J. Perkins" be and hereby is retired by the Mayor and City Council acting as county commissioners, at an annual pension of fifteen hundred dollars, being one half of his highest regular rate of compensation.

The report was accepted, and the order was passed.

PROBE OF AIRPLANE CRASHES.

Coun. SCANNELL offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to immediately communicate with the Civil Aeronautics Administration and ask that they make a sweeping probe of airplane crashes that have occurred on various air lines operating from East to West and vice versa.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, in presenting this order I am given to understand by authorities on airplanes that some of the airplane companies who have planes flying over our country or the City of Boston or the New England states are doing such a big business that they are not checking up on their airplanes as they should, the planes that come from another section of the country. I think it may be happening right in this part of the country. As I understand it, there are preliminary check-ups on airplanes, these air transports, every twenty, thirty, sixty and one hundred and twenty hours, where they are supposed to take an old motor out and put a rebuilt motor in. Now, there is a question in my mind as to the hearing of these crashes that they had in Connecticut, and the New York-bound plane crashed and killed a number of Boston people—there is a question in my mind whether the Civil Aeronautics authorities are going into this and finding out why we are having these crashes. They took this Boston-bound plane and they said they were going to take it to New Jersey and try to determine the cause of this accident, and then we never heard anything about it. I don't want to see a catastrophe in our city, where one of these airplanes might come in and crash into one of our buildings, or one of our schools, and kill hundreds of civilians of our city. There is something wrong in this matter, and it wouldn't do any harm to do a little checking up to find out if these air companies are doing the job that they should do. So that is why I am presenting this order. I therefore move suspension of the rule and passage of the order.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

Adjourned, on motion of Coun. BAYLEY, at 4.35 p. m., to meet on Monday, March 11, 1946, at 2 p. m.

BLESSINGS OF PEACE WILL NEVER BE FOUND WHERE JUSTICE AND CHARITY ARE UNKNOWN — MAJOR JOHN J. DUGAN, S. J., TELLS HUGE AUDIENCE IN ADDRESS AT HISTORICAL EXERCISES IN SOUTH BOSTON HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM, SUNDAY, MARCH 17, AS PART OF EVACUATION DAY PROGRAM COMMEMORATING 170TH ANNIVERSARY OF DEPARTURE OF BRITISH FROM CITY — URGES CITIZENS TO APPRECIATE FREEDOM COUNTRY HAS WON AT UNTOLD SACRIFICES AND WORK FOR LASTING PEACE OF WORLD AND SECURITY.

The following is the oration delivered by Major John J. Dugan, S. J., at the historical exercises in South Boston High School Auditorium, Sunday, March 17, in Evacuation Day program under the auspices of Citizens' Association and City of Boston.

It is a well-proven truth of life that the lessons that man learns best are those learned in the crucible of suffering. Seldom if ever does man appreciate that which he does not earn either by the powers of his body or the faculties of his mind.

History of daily experience bears witness to this truth. People who have been persecuted because of their religion become more deeply religious; they value and they love their religion beyond all price. A mother loves her own with an intensity of love that is beyond all earthly comparison; does not the law of nature decree that a mother bring forth her child in pain and labor, and the soldier — when he has fought and bled and suffered on the field of battle — is given by all men the first place in the love of one's country.

On the 9th of April in the year 1942, in the far-distant islands of the Philippines, a small group of Americans, personnel of the Army, of the Navy and of the Marine Corps, and some civilians, surrendered to the overwhelming numbers of Japanese forces. For four long and dreary months this small group had fought unflinchingly. Each day had brought them nearer to the dreaded realization that no help could reach them. Each day brought them nearer to the inevitable day of surrender.

Bataan Day Never Forgotten.

That day in Bataan will never be forgotten. The feeling of loneliness and abandonment overcame the strongest of the small group. With the act of surrender an accomplished fact, and the flag of the enemy raised over the peninsula, the men realized, as they had never realized, the true meaning of freedom and liberty. The full import of those two words was brought home to their minds only when freedom and liberty were taken from them. For the ensuing days, months and even years, the men were to learn in the school of suffering, just what the deprivation of freedom and liberty really means to human beings.

Stripped of their worldly possessions, denied a life-saving quantity of food, denied even the medicine which might restore their fast-waning health, the men were existing under a dictator who proclaimed absolute control over a man's life and death; and what the lack of food or want of medicine failed to bring about, beatings and all manner of inhuman treatment made certain to accomplish.

Physical suffering may be severe, and the pain acute, yet the pain of mental suffering is far greater and exerts a more lasting effect upon the victim. The well-known treachery and brutality of the enemy and the uncertainty of the future increased the natural fear among the men which never fully subsided until the accomplishment of their liberation.

Such is the story of what the men of Bataan endured in that school of suffering. As a consequence, the men, who with God's help survived that experience, have in their hearts and souls a love for this beloved nation greater than the love of any man or any group of men for their country.

Sacrifice for Freedom.

Tonight on this happy occasion, I feel proud and greatly honored because of the privilege extended to me to address you. It is the occasion of the 170th anniversary of an event wherein true and loyal Americans not only preached freedom, but lived it. They would make any sacrifice, even life itself, not only to obtain freedom for themselves but also to safeguard and preserve it for future generations.

What a timely lesson this celebrated occasion offers you, honored citizens of this honored section of the City of Boston! Tonight you may send forth to the four corners of the earth the meaning of this happy gathering. A gathering where men and women do honor and reverence to the great men of the past who fought and paid with their lives that this land might be blessed with a God-given gift of freedom. On two occasions within our own generation this nation has been called upon to fight for the principles of freedom and the total cost of our efforts will not be settled in the near future.

ADDRESS OF MAJOR JOHN J. DUGAN AT THE HISTORICAL EXERCISES HELD IN SOUTH BOSTON, MARCH 17TH.

Tonight, though we are at peace with all nations, we are not certain of the peace that should be ours. We doubt the genuineness of the peace which now reigns throughout the world. Everywhere there is uncertainty, everywhere there is a growing restlessness, and nowhere does one find security. Since the hostilities of the recent war have ceased, gigantic efforts have been attempted by nations to secure the peace of the world.

To secure that peace and to make that peace an accomplished fact, it is evident to all men that every honest man and woman as well as every honest nation must pledge themselves to make every honest effort to secure a true and lasting peace. Otherwise, a sacrifice, one that cries out to heaven for vengeance, is being perpetrated upon the sacred memory of the millions of young men who offered their lives.

BLESSINGS OF PEACE.

But the blessings of peace will never be found where the virtues of justice and of charity are not known. Peace is the result of the liberal practise of the virtues of justice and of charity, and these virtues can be practised only by those who believe in a Supreme Being. Consequently, in any group, political or otherwise, wherein God is denied admittance, peace will never be realized.

If we would have peace throughout this world, let everyone lift up his mind and heart to the Almighty, the Prince of Peace, and from Him learn the virtues of justice and of charity. On these virtues rest our confidence and our hope for the peace of the world.

With a formula for world's peace so simple, why doesn't the world enjoy peace today? Why are millions of souls deprived of the blessings of justice and of charity? Why are millions of souls denied the God-given gifts of freedom and liberty? Why do we have the present world-wide unrest? Why the so-called war-of-nerves?

The answer to all of these questions is found in the fact that a pernicious philosophy of life has been roaming over the world at large. Because of its inherent principles, this philosophy of life is breeding confusion and disorder. It denies any authority higher than its own self-made course of action. It denies God. Because it denies God, it knows neither justice or charity. Because it knows not either of these two virtues, it cannot be working for the peace of the world. Such a pernicious philosophy of life is a grave danger to the world's peace, and as such, under its true colors, is Communism known and recognized.

WARNS OF COMMUNISM.

With no intent or purpose to add to the general unrest or to intensify the war-of-nerves is any mention made tonight of Communism. But during these days people are inclined to attribute to the effects of the recent war many of the present day evils; yet a more accurate and complete explanation is found in this insidious doctrine of Communism.

It has left the land of its birth and has spread itself throughout many foreign countries; it is found today in the schools, in the universities, in the workshops and in the market place; it has violated the sanctity of the home with its false teaching that the child is but the property of the State. It is even found in the halls of Legislature.

If the governments of the world are sincere in their efforts for world's peace if they are still mindful and loyal and true to the millions of their patriots who have made the supreme sacrifice, then they will condemn injustice wherever it is found. They will make every honest effort that all men might enjoy the blessings of charity and of justice. On these two virtues must the program of peace be founded.

On this occasion we are commemorating an illustrious event of American history. We are honoring a group of Americans who fought for the establishment and the preservation of the American way of life. We are honoring too every American who in each of our country's wars has fought and suffered for our country's fundamental principles of freedom and liberty. On this same solemn occasion we wish to honor all men of all nations who have fought and have suffered and are ready to die that freedom might live.

MAYOR'S PROPOSAL FOR CHRONIC DISEASE HOSPITAL ON PARKER HILL BEING CONSIDERED BY STATE OFFICIALS.

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH,

STATE HOUSE, BOSTON.

March 14, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MAYOR CURLEY,—The department has been giving careful consideration to the information contained in your letter of February 27 relative to land owned by the City of Boston on Parker Hill which might be considered as a site for the proposed chronic disease hospital. We have also discussed this matter with his Excellency Governor Tobin who will communicate with you directly concerning it.

To the Heads of All City Departments.

GENTLEMEN,—You are directed to forward to this office, as soon as possible, the names of all employees who are now serving in your department under the provisions of chapter 16 of the Acts of 1942.

Chapter 55 of the Acts of 1946 terminates the application of chapter 16 of the Acts of 1942 on June 1, 1946, and provides severe penalties for violation of the same.

Therefore, it is imperative that these names be received at the earliest possible date.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 7.

CITY OF BOSTON,
MAYOR'S OFFICE, March 15, 1946.

To the Department Heads of the City of Boston.

When the Red Cross Drive for 1946 was inaugurated I was requested to designate someone in our official city family to take over the responsibility of trying to meet the quota which it was felt would be fair for our city officials and employees to contribute.

I complied with the request, and named Col. David J. Brickley, Commissioner of the Soldiers' Relief Department, as director of our part in this meritorious drive.

As of this day we have only reached 32.2 per cent of our quota, despite the fact that Colonel Brickley and his associates have a most efficient force in operation. There is one week remaining. We must not let them down. No contribution is requested, but I am sure that all those who can and will contribute to a worthy cause, will derive a personal satisfaction quite soothing to mind and conscience.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

OVERSEERS OF PUBLIC WELFARE.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—The Board of Overseers of the Public Welfare respectfully requests your permission to award contracts for the year 1946, without advertising, to the following undertakers for the burial of poor persons who have no one to assume the cost of their burials:

Sincerely yours,

MARGARET J. GOOKIN, Chairman.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 11, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without advertising, to the Consolidated Elevator Company of Boston for disconnecting all old equipment and furnishing and installing of new hangers and new horizontal bar closers with electric contacts and short circuiting buttons in the cars on each landing doors of elevators No. 3 and No. 4 in City Hall Annex.

For more than a year the Elevator Division of the Building Department has ordered elevators No. 3 and No. 4 closed due to the fact that the present locks and hangers are in such condition that there is a possible danger of being able to open the landing doors when the elevators are away from the landing. These locks and hangers are the original ones installed when City Hall

Annex was erected. The other four elevators have been modernized.

Recently I asked the Building Department for authority to operate one of these closed cars during the hours between 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. My thought was to help alleviate the overcrowding during these hours. The Building Commissioner answered as follows:

"Any use whatsoever of elevator No. 3 City Hall Annex under present conditions would foster a hazardous condition and endanger the life and safety of the employees of the building and the public."

The elevator situation insofar as sufficient cars operating is serious. Cars loading at the 10th floor have no room for passengers at any floor and they pass all floors through to the first. This works in reverse in cars going up. The further discharges of veterans tend to aggravate this condition. For over one year now only four cars have been operating. I consider this an emergency.

In view of these conditions I have asked the Metal Building Supplies Company and the Consolidated Elevator Company to submit a bid to do this work, with the following result: Metal Building Supplies Company, $4,216; and the Consolidated Elevator Company, $4,176.

We feel that the Consolidated Elevator Company is a reliable and efficient company in this particular type of work and that the best interests of the city will be served by giving them an order to proceed at once in a sum not to exceed $4,176.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES E. SULLIVAN,
Superintendent of Public Buildings.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 1, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of October 9, 1945, and after public opening and reading of bids, a contract was awarded to the Hersey Manufacturing Company, the lowest bidder, on its proposal for furnishing water meters to the Water Division of the Public Works Department. The total amount of the contract was $17,836.

The expiration date of the contract was December 31, 1945, but at the time of the award it was understood that deliveries would be affected by the availability of materials.

This office has now been informed by the Public Works Department that the contractor was unable to complete deliveries during 1945 but did make commitments for materials which will enable it to complete the balance of the order during 1946.

Under the circumstances, your permission is respectfully requested to extend the expiration date of the contract from December 31, 1945, to July 1, 1946. No advantage would be gained by re-advertising for bids at this time since the labor situation will undoubtedly react unfavorably on the price.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, March 7, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is requested to award a contract, without publicly advertising for bids, to the Worthington-Gamon Meter Company, Newark, New Jersey, for furnishing meter parts to the Water Division of the Public Works Department.

Since these parts are for use in meters manufactured by this company, no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids.

The total amount of the contract will be $3,247.50, less a trade discount of 40 per cent, less a cash discount of 2 per cent for payment in ten days.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

Boston, March 11, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—On October 13, 1944, approval was granted for the award of a contract to Albert M. Grass, 100 Forbes Hill road, Quincy, for furnishing one six-channel, ink-writing electroencephalograph to the Boston City Hospital at a price of $2,225. According to the letter of the then Superintendent of Supplies, "This apparatus is to be used in the Nerve Service at the Boston City Hospital and the superintendent of the hospital recommends its purchase as very necessary in the furtherance of the work of the service. As Mr. Albert Grass is the manufacturer, no advantage would accrue to the city from publicly advertising for bids."

Delivery of this instrument under purchase order No. 67524 was indefinitely postponed during the war since the production of the company had been completely absorbed by the war program and the city was unable to provide a priority rating.

This office has now been informed by the contractor—now doing business as the Grass Instrument Company, 101 Old Colony avenue, Quincy—that with the inception of civilian deliveries, a tentative production date for this instrument has been assigned for the latter part of April. Doctor Manary of the Boston City Hospital has, as of this date, confirmed the fact that the hospital requires the electroencephalograph for the proper functioning of the Nerve Service.

The Grass Instrument Company has stipulated that definite notice of the acceptance must be given within ten days and, for this reason, your approval of the previous award is respectfully urged.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

MUNICIPAL COURT OF THE CHARLESTOWN DISTRICT.

Boston, March 14, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—It is requested that advertising be dispensed with for the budget items of this court as listed below for the reasons set forth.

B-4. Transportation of Persons. This covers commitment of persons by the court officer to Charles Street Jail, House of Correction at Deer Island, and occasionally to the State Hospital.

D-1. Office Supplies. This includes cost of United States Postage and the balance of this account is to cover all printing, dockets, forms, office supplies, etc.

Yours very truly,

JAMES J. MULLEN, Clerk.

REGISTRY OF PROBATE.

Boston, February 11, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—As you are aware it is necessary for me to purchase supplies for the Registry of Probate and the Probate Court under Item D-1 in the budget. The principal expenditures from this item are for the purchase of blank forms of which we have approximately three hundred kinds. With such a variety it is very difficult, if not impossible, to anticipate the needs of the Bar, the public and the office in that connection and very often we find it necessary to order some items for quick delivery, so that we cannot wait until our needs would amount to one thousand dollars.

We do not usually expend as much as one thousand dollars at any one time for the purchase of such blank forms and other supplies. I believe that if we were required to build up our orders to the one thousand dollar mark and advertise for bids such action would be likely to result (no matter how unintentionally) in over purchasing.

In the light of the foregoing, I respectfully request authority to dispense with advertising for bids for the purchase of supplies under budget Item D-1. This request is made under the provisions of chapter 156 of the Acts of 1939.

Respectfully yours,

ARTHUR W. SULLIVAN, Register.

EXTENSION OF CONTRACTS.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT (Sanatorium Division).

J. A. Singarella has been granted an extension of the time on the contract for alterations and repairs to buildings at the Sanatorium Division until April 15, 1946. The work has been held up because of unavoidable delays in the receipt of supplies.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

The Mayor has approved the request of the Public Works Department to extend a contract as requested in the following letter:

Boston, March 13, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—The firm of Coleman Brothers Corporation is now working under an emergency contract approved December 31, 1945, for construction work on the Charlestown Bridge, over the Charles river, necessitated by an accident which occurred on December 17, 1945, when a boat crashed into the bridge and did considerable damage.

At the time the contract was written, it was expected that the work would cost approximately $60,000. Due, however, to the unpredictable increased cost of labor and materials, unfavorable weather conditions, and the extreme care which was necessary to prevent damage to the temporary supports which were installed for the purpose of carrying the Elevated structure which crosses this bridge, the cost of the work will be increased over the original estimate. The item of clearing the site will be increased by approximately $13,000, and the item for furnishing, fabricating and erecting the steel work will be increased by approximately $17,000, making the cost of the work about $30,000 more than was estimated.

In order that the contractor may be paid this amount, it will be necessary to amend the contract. This can be done by inserting an estimated cost of $90,000 in place of the original figure of $60,000 in Item 1 of the contract.

I respectfully request the authority of your Honor to make this amendment, and upon receipt of your approval, I shall ask the Law Department to prepare the necessary document for the purpose of amending this contract.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 617.

Patrolmen Charles L. Evans and Eugene J. Pastore, both of Division 9, are commended, and each is granted two days' additional vacation for meritorious police duty performed in the early morning of February 26, 1946.

During the night of February 25, 1946, a series of robberies were reported from various sections of Boston and adjacent territory, and that they were being committed by two men who were using a black Packard sedan or coach.

Patrolman Evans and Pastore in a sector car, in consequence of descriptions given over the air, intercepted a black sedan containing two men acting suspiciously. The occupants were placed under arrest and finally confessed to having committed thirteen holdups during the month of February, 1946, in Boston, Brookline, Cambridge and Somerville.

The commissioner is pleased to commend these two young officers for their initiative, keen observation and devotion to duty in accomplishing the arrest of these two criminals without regard for their own safety.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

THOMAS F. SULLIVAN,
Police Commissioner.

General Order No. 618.

Whereas, It appears that Patrolman George F. Carey of Traffic Division has performed faithful service in the Police Department for twenty-six and five-twelfths years and that the Medical Board, provided for by chapter 521, Acts of 1922, has certified that the said Patrolman Carey is physically incapacitated,—it is the judgment of the Police Commissioner that the said Patrolman Carey is permanently physically incapacitated for useful service in the Police Department on account of injuries received in the actual performance of duty as a police officer; therefore it is hereby Ordered, That, with the approval of his Honor the Mayor, the said Patrolman Carey be retired from active service in the Police Department under the provisions of chapter 353, Acts, 1892, as amended by chapter 51, Acts, 1893; chapter 6, Acts, 1920; chapter 387, Acts, 1930; and chapter 446, Acts, 1945, and that his name be placed upon the department pension roll with pay at the rate of sixteen hundred sixty-six and sixty-seven one hundredths (1,666.67) dollars per annum (to be paid monthly), said sum being two thirds of the amount of compensation received by him in the office from which he is retired; to take effect Friday, March 15, 1946, at 7.45 o'clock a. m.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

THOMAS F. SULLIVAN,
Police Commissioner.

General Order No. 619.

Patrolmen Edward E. Sheehy and Paul F. Carey, both attached to Division 10, are commended, and each is granted two days' additional vacation for meritorious police duty performed in connection with the capture of three youths for breaking and entering a gasoline station on February 27, 1946.

In consequence of these arrests, four other boys were taken into custody. Further investigation revealed that this group of youths were responsible for a large number of breaking and entering cases, as well as the wilful and malicious setting of fire to numerous buildings in the Roxbury district, including a serious fire at a Roxbury moving picture theater.

The commissioner is pleased to recognize the excellent police work performed by these officers.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

THOMAS F. SULLIVAN,
Police Commissioner.

General Order No. 620.

The resignation of Patrolman Joseph M. Welch of Division 9 having been presented, it is hereby accepted to take effect Monday, March 18, 1946, at 7.45 o'clock a. m., seven days' notice waived.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

THOMAS F. SULLIVAN,
Police Commissioner.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

THOMAS F. SULLIVAN,

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, March 11, 1946.

Regular meeting of the City Council in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 p. m., President KELLY presiding. Absent, Coun. Linehan.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE MAYOR.

Subject to confirmation by the Council, the Mayor submitted the following appointments:

Constables to serve without bond and without authority to serve civil process for term ending April 30, 1946: Walter F. Maguire, 104 Winthrop street, Roxbury; Martin A. Brennan, 62 Quint avenue, Allston; John W. Hanify, 200 Columbus avenue, Boston; Antonio M. Mele, 40 Staniford street, Boston.

Weigher of Goods for term ending April 30, 1946: William L. Graham, 272 O'Callaghan way, South Boston; Thomas Gavin, 274 Willow street, West Roxbury; Joseph Lordan, 77 Sheridan avenue, Medford; James J. Lordan, 77 Sheridan avenue, Medford.

Referred to Committee on Constables and Confirmations when named.

VETO OF RESOLUTION RE CERTAIN RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 11, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I return herewith, without my signature and disapproved, the resolution of your Honorable Body adopted March 5, 1946, favoring proposed legislation relative to retirement allowances for accidental disability or death for members of the Boston Retirement System, and proposed legislation relative to pensions in the Fire Department.

The present benefits for accidental disability and death in the Boston Retirement Act are acknowledged to be generous, and I see no good reason to increase them.

The bill for pensions for members of the Fire Department proposes retirement after twenty-five years of service at two thirds of the annual salary, and applies to firemen who are not members of the contributory system.

The effect of such legislation would be to permit approximately 600 members of the Fire Department who have contributed nothing towards their retirement to be retired after twenty-five years of service under present pay rates at $1,666 a year, while the remaining firemen, approximately 800 in number who have contributed 4 per cent of their salaries each year for the last twenty-two years would only receive after twenty-five years of service about $1,250 a year, part of which is earned by their own contributions. The unfairness of such a proposition is not open to argument.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Placed on file.

INCREASED APPROPRIATION FOR SOLDIERS' RELIEF DEPARTMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 11, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Since submission of the supplementary budget to your Honorable Body on February 25, 1946, I have been advised by the Budget Commissioner that it will be necessary to increase the appropriation for the Soldiers' Relief Department by the sum of $12,821.98. This increase is necessary because of a miscalculation in figuring this budget of $4,200; an increase of $2,863.24 to provide for the salaries of veterans who returned to the department earlier than anticipated; and an increase of $5,758.74 to provide for the filling of two vacancies for visitors and the transfer of two employees from another city department, for which no appropriation was requested.

In accordance therewith I respectfully request your Honorable Body to increase the necessary appropriation, as above outlined, and in accordance with charter provisions I give my approval to such increase.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Referred to Committee on Appropriations.

INCREASE IN CERTAIN BUDGET APPROPRIATIONS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 11, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—In the original budget submitted by me on February 4, 1946, there was provision for the statutory requirements for the necessary appropriations preliminary to issuance of loans as follows:

Public Ways, Construction of..... $146,000
Sewerage Works..... $146,000
Purchase of Departmental Equipment... $146,000

Since submission of the original budget I have been advised by the assessors of an increase in the valuation of the city for 1945, upon which ten cents per thousand is necessary, and as a result the city is obliged to increase the above appropriations $3,000 each, so that, respectively, the above amounts will be $149,000 in each case, or a total addition to the budget of $9,000.

In accordance therewith I respectfully request your Honorable Body to increase the necessary appropriations as above outlined, and in accordance with charter provisions I give my approval to such increases.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Referred to Committee on Appropriations.

CONFIRMATION OF APPOINTMENT.

President KELLY called up, under unfinished business, No. 1 on the calendar, viz.:

1. Action on appointment submitted by the Mayor March 4, 1946, of Joseph F. Noonan to be a Weigher of Goods.

The question came on confirmation, and Coun. Madden and Moriarty were appointed a committee to receive, sort and count ballots.

Coun. HANNON—The thought just occurred to me, relative to calling up this No. 1 on the calendar, that we have been subjected to a lot of criticism lately because of a vote that went through here because we didn't know the party for whom we were voting. Now, we come in here week after week and some matter is presented to us. We are asked to vote for the approval of somebody that we don't know. Now, if it was wrong then, it is wrong now, and from now on I am going to vote "no" unless I know who these people are. They are only weighers of coal, and I don't even know what a weigher of coal does; but I do know that I don't know the party involved, and as long as the newspapers want to question our integrity or want to question our motives in voting for the approval of these people, I think that we too should know more about them. If we are to have any approval, let us know who and what these people are. And I am going to move that our Committee on Constables be likewise appointed a committee on confirmation. We have been criticized once, and I am not going to leave myself open for criticism again, unless I have some assurance who knows the party for whom I am casting my votes.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That the City Council Committee on Constables be known henceforth as the Committee on Constables and Confirmation, and to this committee shall be referred any and every appointment which must be approved by the City Council.

Passed under suspension of the rule, and No. 1 on the calendar was referred to said Committee on Constables and Confirmation.

CRIME WAVE IN BOSTON.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Police Commissioner of the City of Boston be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to take immediate steps to clean up the crime wave which is presently raging in Boston.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, for a long time now I have been wanting to introduce this order. I don't think I have to go into detail to make anybody within the hearing of my voice realize that there is a crime wave in Boston. I think there are two things that could stop a crime wave. To begin with, more police officers should be appointed, regardless of whether there has been an examination held last Saturday or not. I think more police officers should immediately be appointed. And, second, I think that they ought to stop this worry about the traffic situation and doing what they can for business houses of Boston. Business houses are not starving, to my way of thinking, and all you have to do is to go in there and look at the prices on some of the things they are selling, and you will find they are making a pretty good profit, regardless of the ready money people have today. Getting back to the crime wave, we have had quite a crime wave now for the past six months. You see it every time you pick up a paper. Six months or so ago we read where the South Boston Yacht Club was raided. I think the Police Commissioner himself is a member of that club. They arrested some prominent people there. Fot what? Playing cards. We took up the papers here only recently on Wednesday—not on Sunday, but on Wednesday—and we see where the police captain, in East Boston has raided the American Legion. He walked in with a crew of eight or ten officers with pickaxes and found three men with some money on the table playing cards. Not satisfied to take the three men, they took everybody present, and walked into the commander's room, where he was holding a conference, and arrested everybody in that room, even though it was away from where these three men were playing cards. There is no use in kidding ourselves. I have said on the floor here time and time again, no matter where you go you will find a bookie; no matter what station house you go to you will find a card room in the back room, and find them playing for money, playing dominoes for money, or playing checkers for money. It is a pastime. They can't sit there forever talking to each other; they would run out of subjects. They do play cards, and I am willing to say, and say it again, that there is a bookie in the State House, there is a bookie in City Hall, and there is a bookie in the police station, in every station in the City of Boston. The cops themselves do the booking. Everybody knows it. But when they raid a place like the South Boston Yacht Club or the Orient Heights Post of the American Legion, when cops are doing the same thing in the police stations, in their own police stations, I think it is time that somebody took the floor and let it be known that we are not satisfied with conditions and the way they are today. We pick up a newspaper and see where a taxicab driver was kidnapped by two men at gun point, taken for a ride out to Stoneham, and driven back to the City of Boston and dumped off in the Back Bay. Something has to be done. And I say that the cry is that this Police Commissioner doesn't know his job. Some of the captains are taking too much for granted, especially that walk in on the yacht club and the American Legion, when they know themselves there is gambling going on in their own police stations. And I don't doubt that they play with the cops themselves, or play a horse once in a while. But, for the love of God, let us stop kidding ourselves. Conditions are bad in Boston. Houses are being walked into by men with guns, and people are being stuck up. Every day you find in the paper where two, three or four robberies are committed overnight and within the city limits. And then if you go to park in any street in the City of Boston there is always a cop that shows up to give you a tag. But there is never a cop around to give you help when it is needed. I say put on some new men, take a lot of these men off traffic and put them on night details, and put them on cruising cars where they can be at the scene of a robbery as soon as possible. Conditions are bad, but they won't be any better while the Police Department is paying no attention to things that are now going on.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

TRAFFIC SIGNALS AT HUNTINGTON AVENUE AND WEST NEWTON STREET.

Coun. CHASE offered the following:

Ordered, That the Boston Traffic Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install traffic signals at the intersection of Huntington avenue and West Newton street.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, during the past few years, ever since the construction of the Huntington Avenue Subway, Huntington avenue has been a speed highway. Many people have been killed and injured at intersections of the various streets leading into Huntington avenue, especially at the intersection of West Newton street and Huntington avenue. An old man was very badly injured there last Friday, hit by a speeding automobile on Huntington avenue near West Newton street, as the elderly man was crossing the highway. There are no traffic signals there, and it is one of the most dangerous intersections of the city. There should be traffic signals there, and I believe it behooves municipal authorities to take action and have traffic signals put at that particular spot. During the war they had an alibi that they were unable to get the necessary materials to erect these signals, but I know of no more needed and worthy event than to erect signals at an intersection like the corner of West Newton street and Huntington avenue. It means, or it would mean, the saving of human lives and the saving of much suffering and much injury. Mr. President, I don't know if his Honor the Mayor has made any provision in the municipal budget this coming year for traffic signals, but I do say in view of the bad condition at Huntington avenue that he should put ample funds in to provide for remedying conditions on that avenue. I think human life is worth more than money at any time, and I trust, sir, that in order to prevent any further fatal accidents on Huntington avenue his Honor the Mayor will do everything in his power to remedy conditions existing there.

Coun. CAREY—If the councilor has no objection, I would like to ask that the order go to the Committee on Public Safety, for the reason that on Huntington avenue, particularly since gas rationing was lifted, when traffic has become more congested, every day all the way down from the Brookline line to Boylston street we find a line of swiftly moving traffic. Something has to be done not only during the daytime but during the dark hours, because as you come further along on Huntington avenue, you find a curve in the street between Brigham Circle and the underpass that has created a very serious hazard for pedestrians. The time has come—and I have no doubt his Honor the Mayor who travels that highway, is well aware of that traffic hazard—when something has to be done, and done immediately. If there is no objection, I would like to have the councilor have the order go back to the Committee on Public Safety, so that we can bring in the Traffic Commissioner and see if something can't be done immediately to remedy this very dangerous condition.

President KELLY—Have you any objection, councilor?

Coun. CHASE—No objection.

The order was referred to the Committee on Public Safety.

PAYMENT TO INNOCENTIA F. MAGUIRE.

Coun. BAYLEY offered the following:

Resolved, That the City Council of Boston hereby favors the enactment of legislation entitled "An Act authorizing the City of Boston to pay a sum of money to Innocentia F. Maguire for Injuries Sustained by Her at the Brighton High School in said city," provided said legislation includes a referendum to the Mayor and City Council.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

STATEMENT BY REPRESENTATIVE JOHN H. TAYLOR.

Coun. COOK offered the following:

Whereas, A member of the Great and General Court of Massachusetts, John H. Taylor of Quincy, made a false statement maligning a race whose integrity, character and good citizenship have been unquestioned in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; and

Whereas, Such statements are undemocratic and un-American and reflect upon those holding public office who do not rise up to condemn such statements; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council in meeting assembled condemn such statement as false, undemocratic and un-American and call upon the Great and General Court to take such appropriate action as will show to the nation that these statements are contrary to the beliefs and principles of those holding public office in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

STREET LIGHTS IN WARD 13.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to confer with the Commissioner of Public Works, relative to improvement of the street lights in Ward 13.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, I don't suppose that Ward 13 is any worse off than any other ward in the city. For some time past now we have been clamoring for some improvement in the street lighting situation, and I don't know what steps have been taken towards remedying this existing evil. However, last Saturday in my district one fatality occurred when an automobile struck a hydrant and a light, which were in close proximity to each other, and which, because of poor lighting facilities, could not be properly seen. Holdups, accidents, and even deaths can be attributed to the poor lighting situation in the City of Boston. We had a hearing last year relative to the replacing of gas lights by electric lights. Now, I wonder how much progress has been made on this. I am merely offering this, Mr. President, to see if we can't get some information, because I think one of the problems of a wide-awake city is to provide proper lighting facilities. We haven't got them now, and I hope that some steps will be taken so we will have them in the future.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

USE OF VACANT LAND ON CARSON STREET FOR PLAYGROUND.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor direct the Park Commissioner to level off and improve for playground purposes the vacant land on Carson street, Dorchester, belonging to the City of Boston.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

CONSTRUCTION OF LEBANON AND OLEANDER STREETS.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to direct the Commissioner of Public Works to construct Lebanon street and Oleander street in Ward 13, to remove an existing hazard.

Coun. HANNON—These two streets that are mentioned are streets which last year were accepted by the Board of Street Commissioners of the City of Boston. In order to expedite a hazardous condition which exists there, I am requesting the Commissioner of Public Works to construct these streets. They are now practically impassable, and every day that there is a rainstorm because of the depression there the water rushes down this street, and the houses at the bottom are flooded and inundated, and the condition should be remedied.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

THREE COUNCILORS AS MEMBERS OF ADVISORY COMMITTEE.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to consider the advisability of assigning three members of the Boston City Council to the Advisory Committee he is now establishing for the purpose of survey of the city government and its departments.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, the other day I read in the paper where his Honor the Mayor was appointing an Advisory Committee to confer with him relative to city conditions and city departments, financial conditions, and so forth. Needless to say, I was disappointed when I read through the list of appointees to that committee, and I found that the City Council was not even mentioned. Now, I am looking at this as an unfortunate oversight on the part of his Honor the Mayor. I am convinced that he is trying to do a good job. I am convinced he wants to do a good job. But, likewise, I am convinced that we here in the Council are supposed to do a good job, and we have our part and our function in the city government, and, regardless of what improvements are recommended by this committee that he is appointing, those improvements are going to come to us. They are going to come to us for financing. They are going to come to us for ways and means of construction. And I think in fairness to the city departments, in all fairness to the residents of the city and especially in all fairness to the councilors who are representatives of the public, we should be represented on any such committee. I was interested this morning or yesterday morning in reading in one of the Boston newspapers that the Fire Commissioner took certain individuals down the harbor to show how unseaworthy and how irreparable the fireboats were. And I scanned the list of names of those who went down there, and there was no councilor on that, either. Now, we are supposed to work together here, and I think we want to work together. I have wasted—I won't say I have wasted, but I gave up—a day last week to come in here and listen to another committee that was appointed by his Honor the Mayor. I went up to the State House this morning, and I spent the morning up there because I was interested in the financial plight of the city and what we are to do to remedy it. But I am not one who is going to sit back and wait until the last minute and then be called in and be asked to approve this or approve that expenditure. I want to see Boston a better city, Mr. President, and if it is within my power, I want to help make it a better city, but I think the proper way to proceed is to have representation of the City Council on every advisory and supervisory committee that is appointed in the city. After all, we are part of the government of the city. We have to approve loans. We have to approve financing. We have to approve construction, and we often have to approve the appointments of various committee members who might be put on these jobs. We are going to be asked in a few days, I dare say, to vote money for the purchase of these fireboats. Well, I would like to see them, or I would like somebody here to see them. I would like some one of the members of this Council to be on that committee and go down the harbor and view these unseaworthy boats we are going to be asked to replace. I offer this order in all sincerity, but likewise in all seriousness. His Honor the Mayor wants to do a good job as Mayor of the city. I am convinced of that. And I am likewise convinced that I am only one of twenty-two members of this Council who also want to do a good job. Now, if conditions in the city are so bad that committees must be appointed to scrutinize and study them, then I think that we, as the court of last resort, as the court that must pass upon these so-called improvements, should likewise be included in the committee that does the studying or the committee that is going to make these recommendations.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, while I think that is an excellent order, and while I think those criticisms are well founded, I had a recollection of the establishment of a Civilian Defense Committee in 1942, when Bobby Linehan was President, and when he wanted a Council member to be on that Committee on Civilian Defense. But we never got it. It seems as though recent Mayors of Boston have a predilection for scorning the City Council. But, scorn them if you will, they are the Body that makes a man a good or a bad mayor. There isn't a dime he can spend without our authorization, and we have some more recognizable quality than the quality of attendance upon our duties here. We should at least be invited to enjoy and share the secrets that these committees seem to enjoy and share in carrying out the terms of their appointments. I don't like to be too critical. I like to think that everybody today is interested in trying to do something to help the situation, but I don't see why the knowledge they ascertain should be a deep, dark secret to members who are going to be asked to approve $150,000 for the maintenance and establishment of that committee for a survey of Boston. Only a few minutes ago, Councilor Hannon raised a point about the gentleman whose name appears on the order of unfinished business. Who is going to have the say of the gentlemen whose names appear on that committee appointed by the Mayor a few days ago? Are we always to have to go outside the corporate limits of the City of Boston for brains? Are we always going to need to be beholden to wealthy men of this city whose residence is outside the city? Whether they vote here I don't care. Are we going finally to admit in the last census 780,000 people in this City of Boston can't produce fifteen or twenty men for a committee to study the burdens they themselves are charged with liquidating? Or do we always have to go outside of Boston? We should have access to the best brains in the city regardless of where they come from, but in acquiring those brains we should not slight and snub the Boston people who have to live in and on and as a result of those conditions. I said I didn't want to become too critical, so I think I had best stop. And I hope suspension of the rule steps in and the order is passed at once, or its equivalent.

Coun. SULLIVAN—This order is a very good order, Mr. President, and the gentleman from Ward 13 (Coun. Hannon) should be complimented upon introducing it. It has been something that has been fought for here since I have been a member in this body. As the councilor well brought out, committees are appointed, but with never one thought of a member of this Body being appointed as a member. But yet when they want money they come to this Body, and they tell you that you must vote yes for its passage because it is good for the city, and that is all the information you receive. A few of us have been fighting for the past years for information, but there have always been enough votes to vote us down. I believe where his Honor the Mayor extended us an invitation to be present here a week ago last Wednesday, and I think where he appointed members of the banking and real estate interests and so forth, he could have extended here into the fourth floor and appointed one or two or three members of this Body to that committee, because any money that committee will want they will have to come up to this body and get. And I think this order here should not be just passed unanimously on a voice vote. And I am asking it be passed on a roll-call vote. And I hope all future committees appointed for the betterment of the city won't be without one or more members of this Body appointed to those committees. And I ask for a roll-call vote on this particular order.

President KELLY—Does anybody join with Councilor Sullivan on a roll-call vote?

A majority of the members rose, and the roll was called and the order passed, yeas 19, nays 0: Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Bryan, Cantwell, Carey, Chase, Coffey, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, Madden, Moriarty, Russo, Scannell, Sullivan—19.

Nays—0.

DATE OF SUBMISSION OF BUDGET.

Coun. SULLIVAN—What is the last date the Committee on Appropriations has for submitting the budget to this Body?

President KELLY—First Monday in April, councilor.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I move that when we adjourn we adjourn until Tuesday, March 19, which will give the Committee on Appropriations an opportunity to make their report on that date so that we will have then one week with the other members of the Body here that are not members of the Appropriations Committee to study that, and lay it over for one week. If it is returned March 25, it will have to be passed on that same day. I would like to know, if you can get the information from the chairman of the committee, if it couldn't be reported on March 19 so we would have an extra week to refer it to Executive and make a study of it?

President KELLY—I understand, councilor, they are going to hold their meetings next week. Councilor Sullivan makes a motion that when we adjourn today we adjourn until Tuesday, March 19.

Coun. KEENAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. KEENAN—A point of information, Mr. President.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. KEENAN—Do the members of the City Council get a breakdown? Do all the members of the Council get a breakdown of the budget, of the 1946 appropriations?

President KELLY—The Committee on Appropriations have, councilor.

Coun. KEENAN—How can the members of the Council vote to pass the budget if they don't know what they are voting on by getting a breakdown?

President KELLY—The Committee on Appropriations will be able to answer those questions, councilor, as they have every year.

Coun. KEENAN—Is it proper that each member should get a list of the appropriations for 1946?

President KELLY—Well, it never has been done before, councilor. The budget hearings here have been open to every member of the Council. They have been held every day, and every member has been invited to attend.

Coun. KEENAN—Mr. President, I, as one member of this Council, would like a copy of the breakdown that the members of the committee have had.

President KELLY—I think the Budget Commissioner would be glad to give you a copy if you so desire it.

The question came on the motion to adjourn to March 19, and the motion was carried.

ORDER PRESENTED AND WITHDRAWN.

Coun. HURLEY here presented an order.
President KELLY—The Chair will ask Councilor Hurley if he will withdraw this order.
Coun. HURLEY—I withdraw it.
President KELLY—Thank you, councilor.

ORDINANCE RE TAKING OF SHELLFISH.

Coun. SCANNELL offered the following:
An Ordinance Regulating the Digging and Taking of Shellfish.

Section 1. Except as hereinafter provided, no person shall dig or take any kind of shellfish within the city of Boston for any purpose.

Section 2. Any person exercising public authority may at any time dig or take any kind of shellfish for inspection and examination.

Section 3. No shellfish shall be taken for commercial purposes from the area bounded and described as follows:

.....; but any person may dig or take shellfish from said area for his own family use provided that a permit therefor has been issued to him under this section. The city council of the city of Boston shall, upon written application therefor and the payment of a fee of, issue to any inhabitant of Massachusetts a permit to take shellfish from said area for his own family use to an amount not exceeding one bushel in any one week. Such permit shall not allow the taking of shellfish of a size or at a season prohibited by law.

Section 4. Any person may dig or take any kind of shellfish for commercial purposes provided that a permit therefor has been issued to him under this section. The city council of the city of Boston may, upon written application therefor and the payment of a fee of, issue permits to take shellfish for commercial purposes. To avoid undue depletion, not more than twenty such permits may be issued for any calendar year. If there are more than twenty applications for such permits, further permits may be issued with preference to residents of Boston. No permit for the taking of shellfish for commercial purposes shall be issued to an alien unless he has resided in the city of Boston for at least five years next preceding the date of his application therefor, or has been a resident of Suffolk County for at least five years next preceding the date of such application and has taken shellfish commercially within the city of Boston for such period.

Section 5. Permits issued under this ordinance shall be issued under vote, and in the name of the city council, but shall bear the signature of the city clerk. Any permit issued under this ordinance shall be valid only during the calendar year for which such permit is issued and shall be voted by the city council not earlier than one month prior to its effective date. Permits issued under this ordinance shall not authorize the digging or taking of shellfish without a further permit as provided in section seventy-five of chapter one hundred and thirty of the General Laws or contrary to the provisions of such permit, from any area determined under section seventy-four of said chapter one hundred and thirty or under corresponding provisions of earlier laws to be contaminated.

Section 6. Chapter five of the ordinances of nineteen hundred and forty-five is hereby repealed.

Section 7. This ordinance shall take effect on

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, in submitting this ordinance in regard to shellfish for the residents of Boston, I am submitting this as it came down from the Law Department. What I would like to do is have this read in today and acted on today, because I understand through some error in the former ordinance, the result is that there are as many, I am given to understand, as 200 clam diggers here from outside the city, and they are coming in and they are just about cleaning out the Boston flats. And I am given also to understand that there are probably 40 or 50 Boston clam diggers who have licenses, or who have been at this industry for the past 25 or 30 years, and they are being deprived of the opportunity to dig clams. And if we let them go much longer, then all the Boston area will be dug out and there won't be any clams to be had. It seems to me, for the protection of the people of the city—the clam diggers, or the industry at least of this city—we should see if we cannot accept this and accept it today.

The ordinance was referred to the Executive Committee.

WITHDRAWAL OF RESOLUTION FROM COMMITTEE ON RULES.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella.

Coun. KINSELLA—I rise to make a motion. Mr. President, I move that the resolution filed by me on February 4, dealing with the loan to Great Britain be withdrawn from the Committee on Rules because of the fact it has now had 35 days and it has not been reported.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Has the chairman of the Committee on Rules any report to make on that?

Coun. LANE—The Committee on Rules has not yet had a meeting, and therefore the Committee on Rules, speaking as chairman of the committee, has no objection to the withdrawal from that committee.

A rising vote was taken, 13 members rising, and the motion to withdraw the resolution from the Committee on Rules was carried.

The resolution was passed under suspension of the rule.

RESURFACING OF METROPOLITAN AVENUE.

Coun. CANTWELL offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to resurface with smooth paving Metropolitan avenue, from Washington street to Poplar street, Ward 18.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

ACCEPTANCE OF TESLA STREET.

Coun. CANTWELL offered the following:
Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to accept and lay out as a public highway Tesla street, Ward 18.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RULES.

Coun. LANE, for the Committee on Rules, submitted the following:

Report on resolution (referred today) condemning statement by Representative Taylor—that same ought to pass.

The report was accepted, and the resolution was declared passed.

Coun. COOK—In offering this resolution, I know that the City of Boston, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and probably the nation has been started to hear a statement—

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, wasn't this order here referred to the Committee on Rules?

President KELLY—It was, councilor.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Wasn't our ruling that no committee hearing could be held on the same day.

President KELLY—A committee meeting apparently was held, councilor.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I object to having it heard at this meeting.

President KELLY—Councilor Sullivan objects to its being heard at this meeting.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, a point of order. It seems to me that we just accepted the committee's report.

President KELLY—The Chair will have to rule, councilor, on account of Councilor Sullivan's objection, that my acceptance is out of order. The councilor objects, and the resolution will still have to remain with the Committee on Rules. The holding of a paper is strictly a committee right, unless some member of the Council objects.

Coun. COOK—I would like unanimous consent to make a statement.

President KELLY—Is there any objection?

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I have an idea of what he is going to talk on. Does that rule refer to this order, where it is not before us?

President KELLY—His resolution is before the Committee on Rules. Naturally he cannot talk on that resolution. I don't know what he wants to take the floor for.

Coun. COOK—If that is the ruling of the President of the Body, I have no statement to make. I thought on unanimous consent to make a statement I could make a statement on anything.

President KELLY—No, under the rules as passed by this year's Body, you can talk on any matter you want except a resolution which was referred to the Committee on Rules, on which there is no debate. However, you can ask unanimous consent to make a statement. That is why I am granting you the floor, not knowing what you want to talk on.

Coun. COOK—My statement being limited, I don't wish to put anything over on the Body. I want to talk about the principle and the substance of the resolution. If I am ruled out of order, I will be seated. If not, I will talk on it.

President KELLY—Well, the Chair regrets, councilor, that, according to the rules this year, that the members of the Body passed, you cannot speak on the resolution until it is reported out of the committee.

Coun. COOK—Well, Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. COOK—Could I have the number of that rule, please?

President KELLY—Yes, councilor, Rule 13.

Coun. KINSELLA—Will the clerk read Rule 13, please?

The clerk read Rule 13 of the Rules of the City Council, as follows:

RULE 13. No motion or proposition of a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.

Any motion, order or resolution which in the opinion of the presiding officer does not have a direct bearing on the business of the council shall be referred without debate to the committee on rules and shall not be further considered by the council except upon report by that committee. There shall be no appeal from the decision of the chair hereunder, and this rule shall not be subject to suspension. No motions shall apply, nor shall unanimous consent to speak on the matter so referred be in order.

The committee on rules may report that any motion, order or resolution so referred to it is out of order because not having a direct bearing on the business of the council, and its report shall be a final disposition of the matter, subject to an appeal which shall be governed by the same provisions as those governing appeals from rulings of the presiding officer.

Coun. KINSELLA—Will the Chair rule that a defense of some of the citizens of Boston is probably Council business?

President KELLY—Well, the Chair will rule that the resolution presented by Councilor Cook today is not within the province of the members of the City Council.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President—

Coun. KINSELLA—Will the gentleman yield?

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella still has the floor. Does the councilor care to yield?

Coun. KINSELLA—I will yield.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, as I understand Rule 13, it still doesn't prevent me speaking on the resolution because the Committee on Rules has made a report. I still have to hear from the President as to what the rule says as to the committee not making a report.

President KELLY—Although the Committee on Rules has made a report, that report has been objected to by Councilor Sullivan on account of a point of order.

Coun. COOK—I would like to know where that point of order is taken, under what rule?

President KELLY—The clerk will read Rule 30. The clerk read Rule 30 of Rules of the City Council, as follows:

COMMITTEE MEETINGS.

RULE 30. No meeting of any committee shall, without the consent of all the members thereof, be called upon less notice than twenty-four hours from the time the clerk shall have mailed the notices or dispatched them by special messenger, provided, however, that meetings of the executive committee may be held in the recess period of any meeting of the council without such consent or notice. No committee, unless authorized by an order of the city council, shall incur any expense. No committee meetings shall be called later than one hour immediately preceding the time set for any regular meeting of the city council, nor shall any committee remain in session later than the hour named for any such regular meeting.

Coun. COOK—I have yet to hear that the Committee on Rules has not got unanimous consent of all members.

President KELLY—The point involved, councilor, is that no committee can meet during the Council session, except the Executive Committee of the Boston City Council.

Coun. COOK—That sounds like a good rule, but I would like to have it shown to me in some part of your printed rules.

President KELLY—If the councilor will read Rule 30, I think he will understand it.

Coun. COOK—I said that in reference to Rule 30 it appears there was unanimous consent of all members, and the committee can make a report at any time. I have not heard the chairman of the Committee on Rules say he has not had unanimous consent.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Will the clerk read the second paragraph? The clerk read the second paragraph of Rule 13, as follows:

RULE 13. Any motion, order or resolution which in the opinion of the presiding officer does not have a direct bearing on the business of the council shall be referred without debate to the committee on rules and shall not be further considered by the council except upon report by that committee. There shall be no appeal from the decision of the chair hereunder, and this rule shall not be subject to suspension. No motion shall apply, nor shall unanimous consent to speak on the matter so referred be in order.

Coun. SULLIVAN—The reason I object is—I should probably favor this resolution more than any member in this Body, because I represent some 3,000 colored people in my district, but the reason I objected is—that we have rules, and, as long as I am in here, I am going to see that the rules are lived up to. This is the second time that one got by me, and, as long as we have the rules and I know the rules, I am going to act to see that the rules are lived up to, because it is going to affect each and every one of us. Resolutions have been coming in here in the last six years, and I have sponsored them myself, but at least we should have a week to let some committee make a report on them, particularly the Rules Committee, one week after they have been introduced in this Body. That was the reason why that phase of that rule was changed, so that not even a member could have unanimous consent to speak on that particular resolution at that same meeting. It is nothing personal that I am objecting to; it is because such rules should not be broken.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. KINSELLA—To ask a point of information.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. KINSELLA—With reference to the subject under discussion, will the Chair, through the clerk, clarify the intent of Rule 13 where it says "Any motion, order or resolution which in the opinion of the presiding officer does not have a direct bearing"—that does not require support of members, either—"that does not have a direct bearing on the business of the Council shall be referred without debate"—the phrase "without debate" is the point on which I want clarification for future harmony in the filing of resolutions. Does the Chair rule that "without debate" means that the person filing the resolve cannot speak on the subject matter of the resolve, or does it mean that no member of the Body can debate it? Which does that phrase mean? And before the Chair rules, I would like to say, Mr. President, that I think it was the intent of those who drew that rule to obviate the debate that would arise if there was conflict of opinion between the Chair and a member as to the committee to which it should be sent, but there was no conflict as to the right of the sponsor to speak on that resolve. Which is the ruling of the Chair?

President KELLY—I understand, councilor, when they drew these rules, there was to be no debate on a resolution even by the gentleman who drew the resolution or any member of the Body.

Coun. KINSELLA—It doesn't say so.

ELIMINATION OF CAR RESERVATION ON BRIGHTON AVENUE.

Coun. MADDEN and LANE offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to confer with the Trustees of the Boston Elevated, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Board of Street Commissioners, and the heads of all city departments affected, relative to the advisability of eliminating the reservation on Brighton avenue, from Commonwealth avenue to Union square, Allston, with the view to taking immediate steps to resurface and reconstruct this section of highway and thereby remove the heavy single-line traffic presently necessitated by the high curb bordering the reservation.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

CONDITIONS AT HUNTINGTON AVENUE AND WEST NEWTON STREET.

Coun. CHASE offered the following:

Ordered, That the Police Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to assign motorcycle police on Huntington avenue to prevent the dangerous conditions arising there from speeding motorists; and be it further Ordered, That the Police Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, that traffic officers be stationed at the intersection of Huntington avenue and West Newton street on three eight-hour shifts.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, pending the installation of traffic signal lights on Huntington avenue, I think it is only proper for the municipal authorities to make arrangements for the immediate placement of a police officer, a mounted police officer, to cover Huntington avenue, from Copley square to Massachusetts avenue. That particular area, sir, has been a speed highway. The motorists are recklessly traveling over that road at a high rate of speed, endangering the lives of the people in that neighborhood. There have been too many deaths on Huntington avenue. Ever since the completion of the Huntington Avenue Subway people crossing the intersections are constantly in danger of losing their lives by speeding motorists. And I trust, sir, that his Honor the Mayor will, through the Police Commissioner, arrange for a mounted policeman to patrol that area. And in the meantime at the intersection of West Newton street and Huntington avenue his Honor the Mayor should arrange with the Police Commissioner to have a traffic officer stationed there; three officers at eight hours apiece should be at that intersection. It is one of the most dangerous intersections on any highway. I trust that his Honor the Mayor will put this communication through to the Police Commissioner.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

ITEMIZED BUDGETS FOR EACH DEPARTMENT.

Coun. CHASE offered the following:

Ordered, That the Budget Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to furnish the members of the City Council with itemized budgets for each department provided for in the annual municipal budget.

Coun. CHASE—I had occasion to hear, earlier in the meeting, the request of one of my colleagues that an itemized budget should be furnished, that itemized copies of the budget be furnished. I, too, Mr. President, would like to have the complete annual budget submitted to me in broken-down fashion, with all the items plainly made out in that budget. I think, sir, that in view of the fact that we are faced with a tremendous increase in the taxes this year, and in view of the fact that the annual budget has a $5,000,000 increase as against last year's budget, this City Council should carefully scrutinize each and every item in the budget. Not that I lack any confidence in the Committee on Appropriations, sir, but I feel that, since I represent a goodly section of the City of Boston, I would personally like to go over the annual budget item by item. I don't know what sort of a budget has been submitted to the Committee on Appropriations, Mr. President. Earlier, a few weeks ago, newspaper accounts said that his Honor the Mayor had submitted a budget which was not itemized, which was not broken-down, that it was the first time in a good many years that such a budget was submitted to the Council. Well, I don't know how true that is, sir, but I do know, sir, that when I was chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, back in 1939, I resubmitted the budget back to his Honor the Mayor with a request that he arrange to have the Budget Commissioner break down those items, item by item, so that the Council would be in a position to know just where the taxpayers' money was going. And I trust that the Council will be given a copy of the annual budget in a broken-down, itemized manner before it is finally acted upon by this Body. It is a reasonable request, and I trust that his Honor the Mayor will comply with it.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, I am glad to see this sudden interest in the budget. I don't know why the interest was not taken by some, who get so interested now, over the past two weeks. They not only see a budget broken down as much this year as any year that I have been in the Council—and that is going on ten years, including the year when the councilor from Ward 4 (Coun. Chase) was the chairman—but I think the Budget Commissioner will give the councilor a break-down. If he won't give it to him, if he hasn't an available copy, he can have mine. Councilor, I have a full copy, and I have been here at every meeting. I repeat, I am glad to see the sudden interest. It is only too bad they couldn't come here and see the broken-down budget, saving a lot of their own time by talking to the department heads when they were here. I will make this request here now. When you get the broken-down budget, then go and visit your department heads and see if you can get some further information which you should have gotten by attending the hearings.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, in answer to the gentleman from Dorchester (Coun. Fish), may I say through you, sir, that I don't happen to be a member of the Committee on Appropriations. But, as a member of the City Council and as one who is not serving on that committee, I again repeat that my request is a reasonable one, that the Budget Commissioner is in a position to furnish each and every member of the City Council, the 22 members, with a broken-down, itemized budget. There is nothing unusual about that. I am asking for information which can be submitted to me in a written manner.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

FIRE HOUSE ON PARKER HILL.

Coun. CAREY offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor consider the advisability of constructing a fire house on Parker Hill in Ward 10, at the earliest possible date.

Coun. CAREY—For many years we have heard a great deal of comment in the Ward 10 section of this city regarding the necessity for constructing a firehouse on Parker Hill. This year we have heard a great deal and read a great deal in the newspapers regarding the financial plight of the city, which might indicate that there would be no money available this year to construct a new firehouse. However, I was one of those who watched a fire on Cherokee street in Ward 10 yesterday afternoon, and thank God there was no wind blowing, as there was on Saturday, for if we had the same winds blowing yesterday afternoon that we had on Saturday it is safe to say the greater part of Parker Hill would have been wiped out. As it was, the house next door to the one that was burned yesterday was scared, so close are the houses built to one another in that particular section of Ward 10. And I might call to the Mayor's attention the fact that Ward 10 is one of the few wards in the city in which we don't find a firehouse within its confines, or the only one. Any question about the necessity for a firehouse on Parker Hill was sufficiently answered yesterday. In talking with many of the neighbors in the immediate vicinity of 34 Cherokee street, those people told me that they thought that the fire apparatus never would reach that fire. Now, in fairness to the Fire Department, I want to say that if it had not been for the good work of the firemen yesterday very serious results no doubt would have occurred as a result of that fire. In that immediate locality the houses are constructed altogether too close together, and I am going to ask an inspection of the building laws, in an attempt to prohibit not only in Ward 10 but in any section of the city from now on construction of dwellings so close as those are on Parker Hill in Roxbury. This is a request that cannot go into the wastebasket. His Honor the Mayor is well acquainted with Ward 10 and the layout of that section. One thing that the home-owning taxpayers of the city are entitled to is ample fire protection. There is not ample fire protection afforded the people on Parker Hill. The nearest firehouse to Parker Hill is located on Huntington avenue, near the corner of Ruggles street. As was brought out by the councilor from Ward 4 (Coun. Chase) today, when he spoke about the heavy traffic that always passes through Huntington avenue, apparatus in leaving the firehouse on Huntington avenue near Ruggles street has to cross the car tracks, and of course it is very often delayed in making a start to a fire because of the congested traffic that moves on that avenue. To repeat, we have heard for years comment made on the necessity of a firehouse on the hill. It took a fire as serious as the one of yesterday to prove to me and to others the necessity for that firehouse. Let us not wait until a more sad day will occur. Fifteen people had to rush from their homes yesterday on a second's notice. Had that fire occurred at night when those people were asleep their chance to escape would have been reduced to a minimum. I sincerely hope, therefore, that the Mayor will not give this order a mere passing notice, but will consult the Fire Commissioner and the chief of the department in an effort to find a suitable location on the top of the hill. And as I understand it, there is plenty of city land up there upon which they could build a firehouse. I sincerely hope that this firehouse will be constructed in the very near future. I can assure the Mayor that my colleagues here in the Council will be only too glad upon his request to provide sufficient money for such a worthy and necessary function.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

METROPOLITAN AVENUE BUS LINE.

Coun. BRYAN, CANTWELL and McCORMACK offered the following:

Ordered, That the trustees of the Boston Elevated be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to extend Metropolitan avenue bus line to Roslindale square.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS, BROWN AVENUE AND CUMMINS HIGHWAY.

Coun. McCORMACK offered the following:

Ordered, That the Traffic Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install traffic lights at the junction of Brown avenue and Cummins Highway, in the Roslindale section of Ward 19.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

RECESS.

The Council voted, on motion of Coun. BRYAN, to take a recess at 3.21 p. m., subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled and were called to order at 5.27 p. m. by President KELLY.

MEETING OF APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE.

President KELLY announced that the Appropriations Committee would hold a meeting to consider its report at 10 a. m., March 14.

THE NEXT MEETING.

President KELLY announced that the next meeting of the Council would be on Tuesday, March 19, 1946, at 2 p. m.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. FISH, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

Report on ordinance (referred today) re taking of shellfish—recommending reference to Committee on Ordinances.

Report accepted; said reference ordered.

INFORMATION ASKED FROM MAYOR.

Coun. MUCHNICK offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor inform the City Council of the number of employees dropped from the city's employment rolls since January 7, 1946; the total salary savings involved; the number and names of departments involved; the number of employees in each department; the number who were replaced by new employees; and the total number of new employees engaged by the city since said date.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, this past week I have read in one of the newspapers that the Mayor has said that since he has taken office there are now 1,000 fewer employees engaged by the city. I understood and inferred from the article that the Mayor was responsible in having those 1,000 persons leave. It seems to me that the City Council ought to be informed what departments were affected, the number of persons in each department that were let out, if that is the way it was done, and whether the efficiency of any of those departments has been impaired. I understand that the average salary in the City of Boston is, roughly, $30 per week. On an annual basis, that would be $1,500. If 1,000 employees are no longer with the city, then there should be a net saving of $1,500 each in salaries, and that should have been reflected in the budget. I don't imagine that that has been reflected in the budget, in view of the fact that the budget is up some $5,000,000 over last year's and, as we already know, the bulk of the budget is pay roll. Now, if that statement is a correct statement, we ought to know about it. If it is incorrect, we ought to know about it. If that statement merely means that 1,000 people were let go and were replaced by other persons put in by this administration, then I think that we and the other citizens of Boston are entitled to know whether that is the fact. I don't say that that is the situation, but I, for one, would like to know just what happened to these 1,000 jobs and how it all came about. And I ask for suspension of the rule and passage of the order, so that by next week, if possible, we can get this information. The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

EXTENSION OF ADAMS STREET BUS LINE.

Coun. FISH offered the following:

Ordered, That the Trustees of the Boston Elevated be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to extend the present Adams street bus line over Hill Top street to Hallet street, Ward 16.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON COUNTY ACCOUNTS.

Coun. BRYAN, for the Committee on County Accounts, submitted the following:

Report on report of Budget Commissioner and order (referred March 4) amending compensation of assistant clerk of courts, Chelsea District Court—that said order ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed.

Coun. BAYLEY—Were those acted upon altogether? I thought you accepted the committee's report and then passed the order. I wish to speak on it.

Coun. MUCHNICK—A point of order, Mr. President.

President KELLY—State your point of order.

Coun. MUCHNICK—It seems to me that, a vote having been taken on both matters at one time, and the vote having been taken, there is now no occasion for anybody to speak on it unless it is done in the proper fashion.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I move reconsideration. Mr. President, I don't believe this order should be passed until we have all had a chance to know what the Budget Commissioner's report on this is. I understand we had word earlier today, and I would like the City Clerk to correct me if that is not so, that the Mayor returned with his disapproval an order in regard to the Chelsea Court.

President KELLY—I think you are wrong, counselor. That was something else.

Coun. BAYLEY—That is entirely apart?

President KELLY—Yes.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, a point of information. Through you, I would like to ask the chairman of the committee if the Budget Commissioner has approved of this classification change in salary?

President KELLY—The Budget Commissioner has disapproved it, counselor.

Coun. BAYLEY—Well, Mr. President, I think it is about time that we stood up on our own two feet and listened to what the Budget Commissioner has to say in this matter. I understood we had salaries of many of the clerks well fixed last year, and then the Committee on County Accounts, through the ordinance that we introduced—

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose do you rise?

Coun. MUCHNICK—To find out if the counselor from Ward 5 (Coun. Bayley) will yield to a question.

President KELLY—Will you yield to a question, counselor?

Coun. BAYLEY—Yes.

President KELLY—State your question.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Am I to understand from what the counselor from the Ward 5 district (Coun. Bayley) just said about listening to what the Budget Commissioner has to say, and following his recommendations, that he intends to do that with the general budget when that comes in, or does he intend not to listen to him at any time?

President KELLY—Do you wish to answer?

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, we are discussing the change in the Chelsea District Court's classification. When the time comes for discussion of the budget, I will state my position at that time.

President KELLY—Your point is well taken.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Is it not possible for me to have an answer to my question?

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I believe I answered the question.

President KELLY—I agree with you, counselor. I think that he has answered you, counselor.

Coun. BAYLEY—If I understand it, the Budget Commissioner disapproved this classification. And I understand last year the Budget Commissioner disapproved. I think we should hear what the Budget Commissioner has to say. I think we should not pass these increases, as a matter of fact, especially since the Budget Commissioner has shown his disapproval. And I will say that this is a different commissioner from last year that disapproved the changes last year. Unfortunately I didn't know about his disapproval, but now I know about it. I ask that we consider these changes carefully and not go into this at least until we give him the courtesy of listening to him.

President KELLY—The Chair will rule that the Council can pass on the order regardless of the Budget Commissioner turning it down.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, I am a little bit amazed, to put it mildly, at the remarks of the previous speaker. He has been the one who has always been fighting in this Council, and with some justification, that everything be referred to committee, that the committee should take up the matter, and that after the matter has been studied to the satisfaction of the committee we should pass on it here. I have found the previous speaker to be at loggerheads many, many times with the Budget Commissioner, even with the present Budget Commissioner in the budget submitted some time ago by the Mayor's office. If it is not proper to take the Budget Commissioner's recommendation on the total budget, it seems to me highly improper to take his recommendation only at times when he wants to cut from the budget. I am at a loss to understand how the distinguished gentleman from Ward 5 (Coun. Bayley) is reasoning on this matter.

Coun. BAYLEY—Will the gentleman yield for a question?

President KELLY—Will you yield, counselor?

Coun. MUCHNICK—Yes, I yield.

Coun. BAYLEY—Does the distinguished counselor believe that just because the Budget Commissioner may be right in one instance he may be right in every instance, and because you disagree in one instance you cannot agree in another?

Coun. MUCHNICK—It wasn't I who said we should go along with what the Budget Commissioner says. It was the counselor from Ward 5 a few minutes ago. That is what prompted my question to him.

President KELLY—The question now is on reconsideration.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Yes, and I strongly urge that reconsideration does not prevail.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Does the passage of this changing the county classification plan require approval of the Budget Commissioner?

President KELLY—It does not require the approval of the Budget Commissioner. It requires the report of the Budget Commissioner.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Who does that go to now?

President KELLY—It goes to his Honor the Mayor.

Coun. BAYLEY—So that that approval or disapproval of the Budget Commissioner the Mayor may not honor?

President KELLY—That is up to his Honor the Mayor. It goes to his Honor the Mayor now for his decision. The question is on reconsideration.

The question came on reconsideration, and reconsideration was declared not carried.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I would like a standing vote.

Coun. HURLEY—Mr. President, why not have a roll call?

President KELLY—It requires three votes for a roll call.

Coun. BAYLEY—I ask for a roll call.

The roll was called, and reconsideration was carried, yeas 9, nays 6:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Bryan, Cantwell, Carey, Fish, McCormack, Moriarty, Russo, Sullivan—9.

Nays—Coun. Cook, Hannon, Hurley, Kelly, Muchnick, Scannell—6.

Coun. BAYLEY—I move that this be referred to the Executive Committee for further investigation.

A vote was taken, and the motion was declared not carried.

Coun. BAYLEY—I would like a standing vote on that.

President KELLY—What is your request now, counselor?

Coun. BAYLEY—I would like a roll call, Mr. President. The roll was called, and the motion to refer to Executive session was lost, yeas 3, nays 12:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Carey, Sullivan—3.

Nays—Coun. Bryan, Cantwell, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Kelly, McCormack, Moriarty, Muchnick, Russo, Scannell—12.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Did this order just come in here today?

President KELLY—It came in on March 4, counselor.

The question came on the passage of the order, and the order was passed.

MEMBERSHIP OF COMMITTEE ON CONSTABLES.

President KELLY—The Chair will announce at this time that the Committee on Constables will be Counselor Bryan, chairman, and Counselor Cook and Madden. The next meeting of the Council is Tuesday, March 19, at 2 p. m.

MAYOR CURLEY TAKES CASE OF HIS $10,000,000 LOAN TO VOTERS IN RADIO BROADCAST—MAKES PLEA FOR PASSAGE OF ENABLING LOAN LEGISLATION TO SAVE TAX RATE FROM MOUNTING—POINTS TO FACTS THAT EXPENDITURES HAVE MOUNTED BECAUSE OF WAR AND PREVIOUS ADMINISTRATIVE NEGLECTS THAT COMPEL BURDENS OF REVITALIZING CITY AND RECONVERSION REPLACEMENTS ON HIS ADMINISTRATION—RELIEF SOUGHT ONLY WAY TO PREVENT INCREASES THAT IMPEND.

In a broadcast over Station WMEX on Wednesday evening, March 27, Mayor Curley delivered the following address in appeal for passage of legislative act to permit borrowing of $10,000,000 in order to avert tax rate jump this year:

In the recent campaign for the Mayoralty of Boston, I announced it was my purpose to endeavor to secure authority from the Legislature to borrow $10,000,000 for the purpose of reducing the tax rate of Boston from the confiscatory rate established by my predecessor in office of $42.50 per thousand of valuation.

It was not an unusual procedure in view of the fact that during the last 12 years the City of Boston was permitted to issue loans for current expenses in excess of $80,000,000 and that this year there is outstanding from borrowings of previous administrations the sum of $19,474,000, of which $4,165,000 becomes due this year, and must be included in the 1946 tax rate.

The only difference in the request submitted by me from those of my predecessors, is that the amount requested by me, in view of the extraordinary conditions confronting the city, was extremely modest, but due to the fact that it was submitted by Mayor Curley, there was fear on the part of certain interests that have always opposed me and sought to destroy me, and the House of Representatives has seen fit to reject my request.

Appeal to Senate.

The question, however, must still be acted upon by the State Senate and if you are listening in and share my views, regardless of what portion of Massachusetts you live in, I will appreciate your consulting or telephoning your local member of the Senate of Massachusetts and urge him to vote against concurring in the action taken by the House of Representatives. In the event that the Senate follows this action, the matter would then go to conference between the two branches and a compromise might be effected which would save the situation.

The position taken by Representative John Vaughan, a Republican from Belmont, namely, that the prosperity of Boston is so vital to the welfare of every city and town in the Commonwealth, best expresses the facts in the case.

The hearing at the State House, upon the bill which taxed the capacity of one of the largest rooms, found but four persons opposing the loan: Representative Henry L. Shattuck, representing Beacon Hill, a representative of the Boston Real Estate Exchange, a representative of the Boston Chamber of Commerce and a representative of the Municipal Research Bureau. Each was asked, in turn by members of the committee, what substitute they had to offer as a means of reducing taxes. Would it be in the form of 1 per cent withholding pay roll tax, a 1 per cent occupational tax to be levied on persons living outside of Boston and working in Boston, a 2-cent sales tax or an increase in the corporation tax from $5 to $20.

No Substitute Suggested.

They declined to give an answer to these methods of furnishing relief in the lowering of Boston's tax rate for 1946. Each of these men, representing various organizations, stated that they favored an increase in the tax rate rather than providing the relief which would be afforded by the $10,000,000 loan.

I had hoped that someone would present a substitute recommendation that would meet the situation, but none was offered.

I shall offer a substitute in the event that the Senate fails to provide the $10,000,000 relief, namely, that in view of the fact that office buildings, apartment buildings and store properties are at a premium in Boston at the present time, I shall instruct the assessors to more equitably apportion the assessments on these properties.

It has never been my purpose, and it is not now my purpose, to permit the Board of Assessors to increase the assessment on the small home owner. The small home owner has had trouble enough during the war, and now that his children are home again after the war, they are entitled to a chance to breathe and live, and I do not propose that there shall be an increase in the assessment of any small home owner.

MAYOR CURLEY APPROVES PLAN OF REAL ESTATE COMMISSIONERS TO SELL DOWNTOWN BUSINESS PROPERTIES TAKEN FOR TAXES—LAND AND STRUCTURES ASSESSED FOR $1,381,000 TO BE SOLD AT AUCTION APRIL 10—OVER $500,000 EXPECTED TO BE REALIZED AND PROPERTIES WILL AGAIN BECOME TAX REVENUE PRODUCING—SALES TO BE HELD AT OFFICES OF BOSTON REAL ESTATE BOARD.

Mayor Curley has ordered the Board of Real Estate Commissioners, Irving Lewis, Chairman, to sell at public auction downtown property which the city has taken for taxes, assessed at $1,381,000. The auctions are set for Wednesday, April 10, starting at 10 o'clock, and will be held in the rooms of the Boston Real Estate Board, 7 Water street.

One of the parcels to be sold includes the buildings at 161 to 175 Devonshire street, and 32 to 36 Arch street, containing 6,465 square feet of land and structures. The price and terms of sale will be announced at the auction. The assessed valuation is $500,000.

Another piece of property to be sold at the same time and place will be that at 9 Park street, containing 4,100 square feet of land. The minimum price for this parcel is fixed at $50,000, with a deposit of $5,000 required at the time of purchase.

A third block of property to be sold will be that at 33 to 35 Cornhill, containing 900 square feet of land and buildings, assessed for $26,000, with a minimum price of $8,000, and a deposit of $1,000 at the time of sale. Still another piece of property to be disposed of by the Real Estate Commissioners will be that located at 359 to 363 Boylston street. The minimum price fixed by the Commissioners for this property is $75,000, with a deposit check of $7,500. The assessed valuation of this property is fixed at $105,000.

A fourth item of the sale will be the property at 207 to 211 Washington street, with an assessed valuation of $700,000. The upset price for this is fixed at $250,000, with a deposit check at the time of sale of $25,000. This property contains 3,270 square feet of land with the buildings thereon.

The buildings and land on the property at 143 to 147 Federal street and 3 Milton place will be sold at the same auction. This property consists of 3,000 square feet of land and buildings, and is assessed for $75,000. The upset price for this will be $25,000, with a deposit check of $3,000 demanded at the time of sale.

The Chairman of the Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids on each property. It is estimated that these sales will bring into the city coffers more than $500,000 of funds and will also place the properties back into such earning possibilities as to net the city an annual contribution in the way of collectible taxes which will have considerable influence on the tax rates in the future.

MAYOR CURLEY IN RADIO BROADCAST APPEALS FOR PASSAGE OF LOAN LEGISLATION.

Every sane person recognizes that the Nation is passing through a period of reconstruction and reconversion, and that for the past five years of war it has been impossible to make replacements of equipment of any character. This has been evidenced during the past week in a request by the Fire Department for replacements in apparatus which will represent an expenditure of about $1,500,000, for the Fire Department alone. A similar request has been received from the Boston City Hospital and the Sanatorium at Mattapan, for 100,000 sheets and 100,000 pillow cases, in addition to crockery and equipment of every character.

At Long Island it is necessary to replace the boat which has been in use for 24 years, and is no longer serviceable.

The Public Works Department alone will require $1,000,000 for trucks, sweepers and general equipment. In other words, in a single year the City of Boston will be required to make replacements of worn-out equipment of every character that ordinarily could have been provided were it not for the war, during the past five-year period.

TAX RELIEF ESSENTIAL.

What is true of equipment is equally true of buildings which will represent in replacements many millions of dollars.

It is not my purpose that the sick shall suffer because of the action of the House of Representatives, or that the safety of the people of Boston shall be imperilled by their action. I shall economize in every way possible, and am doing so, but regardless of what I may do, it will be impossible to prevent an increase in the tax rate this year unless the relief which I have sought is provided.

The budget as compiled by the department heads for the year 1946 was $12,000,000 greater than the budget of 1945 and this I have reduced so that it is but $5,000,000 greater than in 1945. In all probability it would have been possible to reduce the budget further were it not for the load occasioned by the failure or inability to provide for replacements during the period of the war.

It must be apparent to everyone from the reports appearing in the daily papers that the case of Boston is not an isolated one. The tax rates of the major cities of the country, and even conservative cities and staid old towns in our own State of Massachusetts, such as Blackstone, $50, Grafton, $50, Hinsdale, $52, Leverett, $50, Provincetown over $50, Saugus, $48, Upton, $57, Warren, $52, have been increased, the general rate throughout the entire country being in excess of $45 per thousand valuation.

The City of New York filed bills in the Legislature requesting authority to levy additional taxes to the amount of $148,000,000, and the city has already been granted more than one half of this amount. If Boston were to request relief in a similar manner, New York being seven times as large as Boston, we would be justified in asking $21,000,000.

REDUCTION POSSIBLE.

A reduction in the tax rate to $35 per thousand of valuation would have been possible if the $10,000,000 loan were granted, would have served as an incentive to hold industry here that is vital to the welfare of the people, and also as an inducement for new industries to locate here, which in turn would supply employment for veterans and others.

There is a possibility that with the abandonment of rent controls by the O. P. A. every landlord will take advantage of the opportunity to increase rent of tenants and this would have been prevented if the $10,000,000 loan were granted due to a reduction in the tax rate.

I have endeavored to present the facts to you. It has been my belief at all times that the only hope for the people of our city, returning veterans and other cities, lies in the promotion of industry and commerce and to this task I shall continue to dedicate my efforts regardless of the hamstringing by people who are more desirous of destroying Curley than they are of saving Boston.

The Mayor has approved the request of the Public Works Department for the following construction work:

ANNOUNCEMENT BY CITY AUDITOR ON STEP-RATE INCREASES.

The following procedure should be observed in connection with the sliding scale increases for which provision has been made in the 1946 budget:

1. Address a letter to the Mayor listing the names and ratings of employees involved, the increases to be allowed and the anniversary dates on which effective. Send five copies of this letter to the Budget Department. In the case of city departments, General Personnel Form No. 15 need not be prepared. Notice should be given to the Civil Service Commission of all increases involving Civil Service employees. This notice should indicate that the increases are being granted under established sliding scales and that initial payments could not be made until the passage of the annual budget by the City Council.

2. After the Mayor's approval has been returned to your department, prepare a special pay roll covering any increases effective between January 1 and March 31 for employees paid semi-monthly and monthly, and between January 1 and April 2 for employees paid weekly. These retroactive increases will be paid by check. The pay roll forms to be used in the preparation of this special roll may be secured in Room 60, City Hall.

3. The first regular pay rolls to include the increased rates will be those ending April 9 for employees paid on a weekly basis, April 15 for semi-monthly and April 30 for monthly paid employees. If the new rate of compensation established by the allowance of the sliding scale increase falls in a different withholding wage bracket than the one now in effect, a change in the withholding deduction must be made commencing with the first regular payment of the increased rates.

4. With respect to withholding deductions on retroactive payments, the following procedure is suggested:

Ascertain the difference in the withholding deduction at the new and old salary rates and multiply this difference by the number of pay roll periods involved in the retroactive payment.

CHARLES J. FOX,
Auditor of the City of Boston and the County of Suffolk.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Vacation Extension Approved.

The Mayor has approved the following request of the Fire Commissioner:

March 14, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—The present Fire Department rules and regulations prescribe an annual vacation period of fourteen days to the members of the Fire Department except such members whose vacations are regulated by chapter 7 of the Ordinances of 1945.

I find that this fourteen-day period was extended to eighteen days by the previous administration since May 11, 1942. This extra time was granted as compensation for overtime put in by the members when recalled to duty in times of emergency—during severe snowstorms, hurricanes, and V-E and V-J days in 1945.

I am glad to recommend for your Honor's consideration the continuance of the eighteen-day vacation period for the year 1946, which I believe will be of benefit to members of the Fire Department.

Inasmuch as the seventy-hour work week has been denied to the members of the department, the four extra days vacation will be a welcomed compensation.

I trust that your Honor will approve my recommendation for the eighteen-day vacation period.

Very truly yours,

RUSSELL S. CODMAN, JR.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with firms, contractors, mercantile houses, etc., for furnishing supplies, labor, etc. Communications from the heads of the several departments were as follows:

INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 19, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR.—Authority is requested to incur expenditures, not exceeding $2,000, for boat hire when the steamer "Stephen O'Meara" or "Michael J. Perkins" is incapacitated.

This department has been accustomed to hire the "723," or equal, at $30 per round trip, to allow the "O'Meara" crew time off—one trip on Saturday night, two trips Sunday morning, and as required on holidays. These trips are covered by service orders and charged to Item B-10 of the steamer budget. (See service order No. 9 and such other orders as may be required.)

In addition to the regular trips we are obliged to hire a substitute boat when either the "O'Meara" or "Perkins" are out for repairs and charge same to Item B-39. The department usually hires the "Corkum," a larger boat, at $70 per day for this purpose, although occasionally when the "Corkum" is not available the "723" is used. (See service order No. 12 and such other orders as may be required.)

The prices appear reasonable and I believe nothing could be gained by advertising.

Respectfully,

G. FRANK McDONALD,
Commissioner.

MUNICIPAL COURT OF THE CHARLESTOWN DISTRICT.

BOSTON, March 14, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—It is requested that advertising be dispensed with for the budget items of this court as listed below for the reasons set forth.

B-4. Transportation of Persons. This covers commitment of persons by the court officer to Charles Street Jail, House of Correction at Deer Island, and occasionally to the State Hospital.

D-1. Office Supplies. This includes cost of United States postage and the balance of this account is to cover all printing, dockets, forms, office supplies, etc.

Yours very truly,
JAMES J. MULLEN, Clerk.

MUNICIPAL COURT OF THE DORCHESTER DISTRICT.

BOSTON, March 13, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—In accordance with chapter 156 of the Acts of 1939 which requires contracts for work or purchase exceeding one thousand dollars to be advertised, I hereby request that this court be exempt from compliance with that provision of Item B-4 in the budget of this court relative to the transportation of persons to and from correctional institutions.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM G. LYNCH, Justice.

EAST BOSTON DISTRICT COURT.

BOSTON, March 15, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—We are requesting that we be exempt from advertising in connection with Items B-4 and D-1 as required by the Acts of 1939, chapter 156, both of which we expect will exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) in expenditures.

Yours very truly,
WILLIAM H. BARKER, Clerk.

OVERSEERS OF PUBLIC WELFARE.

BOSTON, March 19, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—The Board of Overseers of the Public Welfare respectfully requests your permission to award contracts for the year 1946, without advertising, to the following undertakers for the burial of poor persons who have no one to assume the cost of their burials:

John L. Doran, 1632 Dorchester avenue, Dorchester.

John W. Donovan Funeral Service, 28 New Heath street, Jamaica Plain.

Caggiano Funeral Service, 978 Saratoga street, East Boston.

The amount of each contract will apparently exceed $1,000. The board feels that due to the nature of the services to be performed, it is not advisable to publicly advertise for bids.

Sincerely yours,
MARGARET J. GOOKIN, Chairman.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 15, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Your approval is respectfully requested to the award of a contract

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

without publicly advertising for bids, to the Stewart Associates, Inc., 38 Memorial Drive, Cambridge, Mass., for plant inspection of asphaltic concrete at 18 cents per ton; asphalt, tar and other binder at 7 cents per gallon; compression tests on cement concrete specimens at $1 per cylinder and ready mix concrete inspection at 24 cents per cubic yard.

The Stewart firm performed this service under a similar contract awarded last year and the services rendered to the department were very satisfactory. The continuance of this inspectional service by the Stewart firm, will assure the city of the proper quality of materials, prepared and installed in accordance with the standard specifications of the Public Works Department.

The department has no facilities for conducting proper laboratory tests of the materials outlined above, and through the award of this contract with a continuance of their service, we will have adequate and proper control over the types of materials furnished the city.

The services to be rendered under this contract affect all street construction, reconstruction and maintenance work to be performed by this department during the current year.

Authority is requested therefore, to award this contract in an estimated cost of $12,000, the contract to be in effect for the remainder of the current year.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 13, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of February 8, 1946, bids were asked through the medium of public advertising on Spruce lumber to be delivered to the Bridge Division of the Public Works Department. The only bidder to respond was Barney & Carey Company who quoted prices as per attached list.

As lumber prices are under the direct supervision of the Office of Price Administration this office checked the prices submitted by Barney & Carey with the O. P. A. and found, that through a misinterpretation of the regulations, the prices submitted by Barney & Carey are slightly higher than the ceilings established by this agency.

In view of the fact that Barney & Carey Company is the only bidder and has accepted the ruling of the O. P. A., I would respectfully request that permission be granted me to award this contract to Barney & Carey Company without further advertisement at the prices established by the Office of Price Administration as follows:

Item 1, $80.75 per M. feet.

Item 2, $84 per M. feet.

Item 3, $78.50 per M. feet.

Item 4, $89.50 per M. feet.

Less cash discount, 2 per cent, ten days.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, March 14, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is requested to award a contract without publicly advertising for bids to the Haloid Company, 141 Milk street, Boston, for furnishing, as required, 150 rolls Haloid Rectigraph Grade B paper, 18 inches by 350 feet, at $18.50 a roll.

This paper is to be used by the Veterans' Rehabilitation Division of the Soldiers' Relief Department in carrying out the city's program of offering photostatic copies of honorable discharges to veterans without charge.

Since the paper is of a special quality and is manufactured only by the Haloid Company for use in the Haloid Rectigraph photocopying machine, no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids.

The total amount of the contract will be $2,775.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, March 15, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is requested to award a contract without publicly advertising for bids to Remington-Rand, Inc., Buffalo, New York, for furnishing tabulating machine equipment and services on a rental basis to the Collecting Department for the period from January 1 through April 30, 1946.

The equipment to be rented consists of the following and the city reserves the right to either substitute or add to the equipment listed below, provided that the monthly rental charge does not exceed $700:

- 4 Automatic Key Punches with Verifying Attachments at $23 each, $92 per month.

MY DEAR COMMISSIONER,—Mr. E. A. Soucy, Special Agent in Charge of our Boston Field Division, has told me about the Boston Police Academy which Nothing is more fundamental to the advancement of the law enforcement profession than adequate training schools in which the various police officers receive the information and instruction they need to be successful in their work. You are indeed to be congratulated for your progressiveness in this regard.

I was especially pleased to note that the men in your department who have been graduated from the FBI National Academy are being utilized as instructors. This gives us a feeling that we of the FBI have indirectly contributed to the formulation and success of your plans. If we can be of any service whatever in this particular activity or in any of your other work, you have only to call upon us.

With best wishes and kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

J. EDGAR HOOVER."

PURCHASE OF OCEAN-GOING TOWBOAT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 14, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am informed by the Institutions Commissioner that there is imperative need for a seaworthy boat to service Long Island. In the communication which accompanies this message the Institutions Commissioner proposes to purchase from the United States Army an ocean-going towboat at a cost of $43,200. This boat is now at Prawl's Island, New York Harbor, where it has been inspected and found satisfactory by the Institutions Commissioner and two qualified boat experts.

In order that this boat may be made adaptable for the required purposes, it will be necessary to make substantial alterations, as explained in the accompanying communication. The total appropriation necessary for the purchase of the boat, and for the necessary alterations, is estimated to be $80,000.

In view of the fact that a new boat, if obtainable, would cost from $350,000 to $450,000, I am of the opinion that we should proceed immediately to the purchase of this ocean-going towboat. At the present time, Long Island is served by two boats, the "Michael J. Perkins" and the "Stephen O'Meara." Both of these boats require extensive repairs, and have long since proved to be inadequate and uneconomical for the service required. The contemplated purchase will result in the sale of both the "Perkins" and the "O'Meara."

I am of the opinion that an appropriation of $80,000 for a boat of the character described in the attached communication is sound and desirable. This boat was delivered to the United States Army less than two years ago. It has had very little use and, for all intents and purposes, is practically a new boat. I strongly recommend that your Honorable Body give prompt affirmative action to the accompanying order. By doing so, we can be certain we are saving the taxpayers at least a quarter of a million dollars, and we are making it possible for adequate and reliable service to Long Island.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Institutions Department, March 8, 1946.
To Hon. James M. Curley, Mayor of Boston.
From G. Frank McDonald, Institutions Commissioner.

Subject: Government Towboats.

It is recommended that the City of Boston purchase one of the ocean-going towboats now at Prawl's Island, New York Harbor, at the government price of $43,200, as is. This boat is to replace the "SS Perkins," which, through a constant need of expensive repairs, expense in operating, and undependability in supplying transportation to Long Island, has outlived its usefulness.

The proposed boat is an ocean-going towboat, wooden hull, 126 feet long, 28-foot beam, 11-foot draft forward and 13½ feet aft. It is powered with two Diesel engines and superchargers, made by the Superior Engine Company of Springfield, Ohio, and develops 1,200 horsepower, with a speed of twelve knots. The boat was built by the Minniford Yacht Yard, City Island, New York, and designed by E. T. Dobson, Naval Architect of New Bedford. It was delivered to the United States Army in February, 1944. It has had very little use and to all intents is a new boat. In giving consideration to the purchase of this boat it is stressed that the purchase price represents less than 10 per cent of its cost price and will ideally supply our needs. The inspection of this boat was made by Mr. Simpson of the John Alden Company, marine architect, Mr. McDonald of the Lawley Company, chief engineer of construction, and myself.

There would necessarily be alterations, and superficially it was agreed that these alterations would require the removal of all extraneous compartments and special structures in the superstructure, the lengthening of the superstructure to provide saloon space to accommodate 200 passengers, with a promenade on the second deck. It was agreed that there would be no necessity in disturbing the engines and their beds or the equipment below the decks or the wheelhouse, which is equipped with all modern appliances, even to a ship-to-shore telephone. The removal of such apparatus as tow cable equipment and power winches, which take up considerable of the deck space, is necessary.

There would be considerable expense in these alterations, probably in the vicinity of $30,000. When it is considered, according to our records, that it cost $30,000 in 1933 to alter the "SS O'Meara" at a time when material and labor costs were low, it would seem that our price would not be out of line. It should also be taken into consideration that we paid $36,575 in 1944 for shipyard repairs to the "O'Meara," and it now needs repairs again.

It is recommended, if the boat is purchased, that it be towed from New York. In discussing this with Captain Clark at the United States Army Base in Brooklyn, who has the custody of the boat, he declared that consideration would be given to the City of Boston in having the Army tow the boat without cost by including it in tows that they are periodically making to Boston.

I respectfully submit that payment for the boat be provided by a recommendation to the Council by your Honor for a special appropriation in the sum of $80,000, to provide for the purchase, architect's fee and alterations of said boat.

G. FRANK McDONALD, Commissioner.

Ordered, That the sum of eighty thousand dollars ($80,000) be, and the same hereby is, appropriated to be expended under the direction of the Institutions Commissioner for the purchase, alterations, etc., of a boat for the Institutions Department; said sum to be raised by taxes on the polls and estates in the City of Boston, and that all orders heretofore or hereafter passed by the City Council relating to appropriations, taxes and the interest thereon apply to the appropriations and taxes herein provided for.

FINANCE COMMISSION REPORT ON PROPOSED LOAN OF $10,000,000.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Finance Commission,
March 13, 1946.
To the Committee on Municipal Finance.

In the Boston City Charter, chapter 486 of the Acts of 1909, the Legislature imposed the duty on the Finance Commission "to investigate any and all matters relating to appropriations, loans, expenditures, accounts, and methods of administration affecting the City of Boston or the county of Suffolk, or any department thereof, that may appear to the commission to require investigation, and to report thereon from time to time to the mayor, the city council, the governor, or the general court." In section 21 of this charter it is implied that the Commission will report to the General Court, among others, its findings as a basis for such laws as may be deemed meet.

It is incumbent on the commission, therefore, to offer what it can in regard to the controversial bill now in hearing by the Committee on Municipal Finance on petition of the Mayor of Boston, this being intended to be an authorization to borrow $10,000,000 in the current year to meet a part of the current expenses.

The commission desires to record its agreement with the statements made by the Mayor and others to the effect that the City of Boston is now almost at the bursting point in respect to taxation. There has been nothing said in the present controversy describing the financial plight of the city which the Finance Commission has not stated over and over again in formal reports.

In each annual report for the last several years, the commission has warned that financing Boston government was becoming increasingly difficult. Only a fortnight ago the commission gave to the Legislature a comprehensive picture of the situation. Furthermore, the commission has repeatedly suggested remedies for the improvement of that situation. To state here again the conditions which the present Mayor faces is, therefore, not now necessary.

The commission knew when it last reported to you the Mayor's intention to seek this new, precedent-making authority to borrow for current expenses. Purposely the commission refrained from giving endorsement to it. Instead, purposely, it offered suggestions for another method of relieving the situation—a sound, scientific method which would not do violence to accepted concepts in governmental administration.

It is well to keep in mind certain principal facts with regard to the predicament. Improvement in Boston management alone cannot remove the danger of high taxes. Because of its geographical and economic situation, it will henceforth require a high tax rate to provide necessary service unless some acceptable method of spreading the cost over a wider base can be found. Borrowing money to meet present costs in part will serve only to make the situation worse in subsequent years. It might transfer some part of the burden from one administration to another, but the same taxpayers will pay more in the end.

Lasting good cannot come either from widening the base or postponing the assessment, but can result only by the reduction of maintenance costs, and such reduction can only be accomplished by the elimination of unnecessary and unjustifiable commitments.

The commission realizes that total elimination of all unnecessary costs cannot be accomplished overnight. No one can reasonably expect that the present administration can, by a stroke of the pen, unravel what the commission has mildly described as "the tangled skein of department organization and administration" with "its conspicuous threads of duplication, lack of coordination, lack of programming, inefficient assignment of personnel, surplus and shortages, of personnel, unused systems, and similar defects." It has taken years of administration, and a long list of injudicious acts of administration, to bring about the present predicament.

The opinion is widely held that the taxpayers have more ability now to carry their heavy burden than they have had for many years; that being so, they will do so more willingly a little longer if they see a real effort being made "to cure the patient rather than to postpone his death." Curing the patient as applied to Boston means, first and last, the elimination of wasteful methods, extravagant costs, and useless expenditure.

There is a serious defect in the present advocacy of "borrowing." The definite need for it has been revealed only in general terms. What the exact tax rate possibility is has not been disclosed by anybody. There has been official statement at one time that the rate, without borrowing, would be $55 or $60; from that lofty peak, apparently, the worst possibility has now come down to $46. Yet hope has been expressed in other quarters that without this new authority it can be pegged at $43.50, which is one dollar more than the 1945 rate.

These rates of $43.50 and $46.00 are predicated on no change in the conditions existing, which are admittedly bad; nor are they predicated on any adjustment downward of palpably high assessed valuations. Therefore, to this time, while the acknowledged bad situation of the city with respect to the tax rate has been deplored, mourned, and held up as the reason why money must be borrowed for current expenses, no reliable and complete figures have yet been revealed to show definitely the exact tax rate situation. It would seem that the burden is on those who ask to be allowed to borrow to show first what the situation is without borrowing.

The extreme state of deterioration of much of the city's plant has been stressed to justify this particular borrowing. Renovation or replacement of the city's plant is not to be confused with the purpose of this bill which is before you. The Finance Commission has been pointing to the constant deterioration of the city's plant for years. Money which should have been spent for such purposes as repair or gradual replacement of apparatus in the Fire Department, and of equipment in the Public Works Department, and for new building in the institutions of the city, and in sufficient roadway construction has gone instead to meet a constantly growing pay roll. Now, as a result, an abnormal capital investment program is necessary. The time has come when this expense can be postponed no longer, but financing these replacements on a major scale is not a reason for "borrowing money for current expenses." They are not now current expenses, and there is no doubt that it is not for these purposes that the authority provided by the bill in question will be used. This $10,000,000 will merely replace that much of the current tax levy, and in so doing will be providing the funds to meet the regular expenses of the city, which, in largest part, are for pay rolls.

Capital expense is properly an expense to be provided for originally by a loan, with the cost spread over a reasonable part of the life of the improvement. The city now has the right under the present law to borrow to the amount of $13,500,000 within the debt limit for capital investment. The commission cannot emphasize too strongly that the intended use of the borrowing authorized by the bill presently under discussion is not for capital investment.

The present Mayor has given some evidence of a purpose to eliminate unnecessary expense. He struck off the pay roll approximately 150 Recreation Department employees who had not yet acquired a permanent basis of employment. Though their pay roll rate was in excess of $300,000 there was but approximately $115,000 spent on them in 1945. He also struck off about eighty of the ninety-five constables when the Finance Commission pointed out to him, as it had done to his several predecessors, that their employment was unnecessary. The commission was chagrined to find that subsequently he put some of those once removed back on the pay roll; that there are now almost forty constables on the rolls, and that the number grows with each meeting of the City Council.

The present Mayor has also eliminated for the present, at least, some proposed undertakings properly classified as luxuries, which would lead to increased maintenance cost, on the theory that the city cannot pay for what it now is doing and should not therefore be continually adding to the burden.

There are, however, many other ministerial acts which he might perform which would lead to less expense. Many of them have already been disclosed by the commission; others will be revealed in subsequent reports. It might well be that, by a combination of further eliminations and further use of the authority given by an act of 1945 to borrow for relief purposes, the rate of $42.50 might be the limit of need for 1945.

To borrow $10,000,000 for current expenses this year and to continue to ignore opportunity to reduce the maintenance cost can only lead to higher rates in later years. It is too ephemeral to have substantial appeal.

Respectfully submitted,
EDWARD F. MULLEN, Chairman.

CLEANING OF STREETS BEFORE EASTER.

Coun. KINSELLA offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to instruct the Commissioner of Public Works to employ at once sufficient temporary help for the purpose of cleaning up the streets of Boston before Easter.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

BATHING FACILITIES, CHARLESTOWN.

Coun. KINSELLA offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to instruct the Health Department to check into the cause of continued pollution in the Mystic river in so far as it affects bathing in Ward 2, Charlestown.

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to cause a survey to be made of the possibilities of constructing in a suitable place a swimming pool for the adult residents of Charlestown, to be put into operation by the start of the swimming season in 1946.

Coun. KINSELLA—These last two orders dealing with the construction of a swimming pool for adults and dealing with the pollution of the Mystic river in Charlestown complement each other. A couple of years ago, Mr. President, reports began to come in of the unsuitability of Dewey Beach for further bathing by adults. The then Health Commissioner of the City, Dr. G. Lynde Gately, caused a test of the water to be made by the Bacteriological Department of the Health Department. The results were contained in a letter which he sent to me and I caused to be published in the local paper in Charlestown for the purpose of acquainting the people there with the reasons for the discontinuance of Dewey Beach as a bathing place. In May, 1944, the then Mayor of the city, Maurice Tobin, came over to Charlestown one Saturday morning to make a tour of the playgrounds. While there, I asked him to come down to Dewey Beach to see for himself the condition of the beach. When we went there it was in a much more frightful condition than I had anticipated and reported to him. We took a couple of sticks and plunged into the sands of the beach. As far down as a foot, oil had penetrated. It was then and there immediately decided that the beach was no longer fit for human bathing. Doctor Gately about that time, or shortly prior to that, sent me a letter to which I have made reference, which said that the bacteriological content of the water of the Mystic river was thirty to forty times in excess of the allowable amount of pollution permitted by the Health Department for bathing by the United States standards of public health. So it is obvious that the beach, beginning then or prior thereto, and continuing to the present time, was and is no longer fit for human bathing. Last night I had the sad duty to perform of attending a wake of a friend of mine. While there, a young man who owns and moors a boat at the Chelsea South draw, which is a bridge spanning a section of the Mystic river, complained to me in the name of the yacht club members that all of the boats are covered with an oil slick that travels down the river with the tide but does not go out to sea. It comes back with the incoming tide. Since the boats were assessed at a true valuation and taxed thereon, the clubhouse members have a right to find out where this pollution starts and why it should be so long continued. At one point a few years ago during the war, Mr. President, I think the other councilor whose district abuts the ocean will agree the degree of pollution in Boston harbor exceeded anything that should be allowed, even allowing for a certain amount of pollution. Doctor Gately at that time was prepared to take steps against the steamship companies for discharging oil from the holds and tanks in their ships. But the Coast Guard at the time, which exercised control over the waters of Boston harbor and rivers that run into the inland part of Massachusetts from the harbor, instructed and ordered that they desist from any intent of prosecution; that they themselves when the time was ripe would take steps to correct the condition. In other words, Doctor Gately was forbidden to prosecute the offences because, as the Coast Guard phrased it, "we are in the middle of a war and bathing beaches do not count too much." Nothing ever was done about it. I think that upon the return of the boys, when these young fellows come home, especially in my town where we have 27,000 residents, it is cruel and inhuman to expect those who cannot get away for the hot summer months to put up with these conditions, people who are going to be handicapped to the extent they cannot go in the water to cool off, on account of the unavailability of bathing facilities and the pollution that exists. The Northern Metropolitan sewer project which I think has now been completed but which before completion contributed to the stagnant condition of the Mystic river water was the principal source of offense. Doctor Gately termed the river itself and the river bed a cesspool. He described it in more lurid language as being worse than a country outhouse because of the uncompleted section of the sewer project of the Northern Metropolitan District Commission. I suppose there is nothing very glamorous about talking on the polluted condition of a river. We are approaching a season when little children and grown men and women, too, are going to be confined to their hot, stifling homes in Charlestown, those of them not fortunate enough to be able to get away, solely because steamship companies seem to be able to operate in defiance of the law that says they shall not discharge any slag oil inside the harbor limits. It is my understanding also that the orders of the Fire Department of the City of Boston contain the injunction to all Charlestown firehouses that upon the receipt of a first alarm for a fire in a waterfront area, all of the apparatus is to respond because of the oil-saturated condition of the piers that support the piers in Charlestown. That probably is true in East Boston and South Boston, and yet nothing seems to be done about it. I do hope above all other things that the Mayor of Boston will find out through the Health Department why this pollution is allowed to continue and what can be done to remedy it and who is going to be held liable for causing it. I hope the rule is suspended on the orders, and they may be permitted to pass.

The orders were passed under suspension of the rule.

BUS SERVICE, WARD 3.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:
Ordered, That the trustees of the Boston Elevated be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to put into operation bus service from Charles street to Bowdoin square, Ward 3, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m.

Coun. RUSSO—Briefly on this order here, the Boston Elevated Railway Company saw fit to discontinue the service for the emergency, during the war emergency, to conserve gasoline. When the war ended, I had many requests for restoration. I feel that the people in the section there have been patriotic during this emergency. Now that the war has ended, I feel the service should be put in operation forthwith. I hope this order will pass.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

TYLER STREET BATH HOUSE.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Buildings be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to make alterations to the bath house on Tyler street, and to put it in first-class condition.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, the Tyler Street Branch Municipal Building is in a very deplorable condition. I have not seen anything like it. The condition that exists there should not exist. I have had a conversation with the Building Commissioner. He feels the same way as I feel, that the condition there should be remedied and constructed and brought into first-class condition. I am trusting that his Honor the Mayor will see that this is followed through and that the people in the section get the proper attention they deserve.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

ROPING OFF UNION PARK STREET.

Coun. SULLIVAN, for Coun. Hurley, offered the following:

Ordered, That the City Messenger be authorized to provide for the roping off of the section of Union Park street, between Washington street and Harrison avenue, between the hours of 2 and 4 p. m. on Saturday, April 13, 1946, for the annual ten-mile road race run under the auspices of the Cathedral Club, and that the expense of same be charged to the City Council Appropriations for Ropes, Flags and Stakes.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

RESURFACING OF BEECH GLEN STREET.

Coun. MORIARTY offered the following:
Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to resurface with smooth pavement Beech Glen street from Fort avenue to Highland street, Ward 11.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

ACCEPTANCE OF WEBSTER PLACE.

Coun. LANE offered the following:
Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to accept and lay out Webster place in Allston, Ward 21, as a public highway.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

CONSTRUCTION OF MECHANIC STREET, WARD 21.

Coun. LANE offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to instruct the contractor to immediately proceed with the construction of Mechanic street, Ward 21, now known as Higgins street, work on which was suspended during the winter months.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

LIGHTING OF STAIRWAY OF MONASTERY PATH.

Coun. LANE offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install lights along the stairway of Monastery path, which is located between the Brighton High School and the United States Marine Hospital, on Warren street, Ward 21.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

MEMORIAL TO GENERAL GEORGE S. PATTON, JR.

Coun. LANE offered the following:
Resolved, That the City Council of Boston favors the enactment of legislation providing for the erection in the City of Boston of a monument or other memorial to the memory of General George S. Patton, Jr.

Coun. LANE—I think this is an opportune time to introduce this resolution in the Council due to the fact that a few days ago I had the pleasure of talking with the widow of General Patton. She came up from her home in Hamilton to appear at the State House for the pressmen when her bill was heard before the Committee on Military Affairs and Public Safety. The bill has been reported favorably. It has been recommended that an appropriation of $15,000 be made for the committee to study the advisability of building, the type of architecture, and the structure. It has been suggested that the members of the committee make a trip to Europe, which apparently seems most unnecessary.

President KELLY—Excuse me. At this time the Chair will call Councilor Fish to preside.

Coun. FISH in the chair.

Coun. LANE—Representative Charles D. Driscoll of Boston introduced House Bill 221 at the present session of the Great and General Court. It was he who arranged with the widow of General Patton to come to Boston and survey various possible sites for the location and erection of a monument to her late, lamented husband. She looked over the grounds of the State House. It was suggested they go to the Esplanade and that section adjoining the Hatch Shell. That was the spot that appealed most to Mrs. Patton. It is her express wish and desire that the monument, if and when erected, shall be in the same vicinity, on the Esplanade, as the Hatch Shell. I feel that whereas General Patton, although born in Santa Monica, California, is recognized as a native son of Massachusetts, certainly the monument to the memory of the late general, in my humble opinion, should be located in our capital city. I hope we will have immediate action on this resolution.

The resolution was passed under suspension of the rule.

ENDORSEMENT OF H. R. 5363.

Coun. KINSELLA offered the following:
Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled on Tuesday, March 19, 1946, unanimously endorses H. R. 5363 now pending in Congress, which seeks "To provide benefits for certain employees of the United States who are veterans of World War II and lost opportunity for probational civil service appointments by reason of their service in the armed forces of the United States."

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

RESURFACING OF WOOD, UNION AND DEVENS STREETS.

Coun. KINSELLA offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to proceed with the immediate resurfacing of Bartlett street, Cordis street, Wood street, Union street and Devens street, in the Charlestown, Ward 2, section of Boston.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

RESOLUTION CONDEMNING STATEMENT MADE BY MEMBER OF GENERAL COURT.

Coun. COOK—I rise to make a motion. I move, sir, that the resolution which was referred to the Committee on Rules, relative to condemning a statement in the General Court be taken from the committee.

Chairman FISH—The Chair will request the chairman of the Committee on Rules to report. Are you ready to report the resolution? What resolution was it, again?

Coun. COOK—A resolution offered by myself relative to the City Council going on record as condemning the statement of the member of the General Court.

Chairman FISH—Did the Rules Committee have a hearing on that?

Coun. LANE—We had a hearing the other day. It was laid on the table. May I speak on it now?

Chairman FISH—You report you have had a hearing of the committee and they voted to lay it on the table?

Coun. LANE—That is right.

Chairman FISH—If Councilor Cook will yield, we will be glad to have you speak on the reasons for laying it on the table.

Coun. COOK—I will not yield. I insist on my motion. Speaking on the motion, this resolution was offered by me a week ago Monday, and was referred to Rules. At that time a poll of three members on the Rules Committee showed they would vote to have it read and passed. On objection by one of the councilors, it was sent to Rules and no debate was had upon the subject. It seems to me, Mr. President, and gentlemen of the Council, there is absolutely no reason for laying such a resolution on the table. It would indicate to the general public that the City Council has not quite made up its mind whether the purpose of the resolution was a fair one and one that should pass. I do not see any reason why I or anybody else should waste 30 or 35 days which we have to wait to take it back from the committee. My resolution was for the condemning of statements which are false and which malign a race and that the City Council should go on record as a body to condemn such statements as being undemocratic and un-American. I do not wish to clutter the record. If the Committee on Rules stuck to its original position, they would have come in and it would have been passed under the rules, and there would have been no debate. Laying on the table, it seems to me is not a wise way of ducking an issue. It has been suggested it is not the business of the City Council to go on record in resolutions of this kind. Mr. President and gentlemen, the City Council not only deals with financial matters and tax rates, it deals with things that go much deeper. I feel strongly on this resolution. I hoped there would not be any need for any speaking so that we would have all been on record in a resolution that I think we all agree upon. The only objection heard in the committee was that it was not the business of the Council. I will stick to that point, the morale, the welfare, the financial well-being and everything else that is concerned with the citizens of Boston are our concern. Otherwise, we may as well pass an ordinance or a law that only those who are C P A's can be city councilors. Any race has a right to feel that if a public official, and I do not care where he is from, the General Court, a Board of Aldermen, Selectmen, or any place in this state, makes a statement at a public hearing that is false, that is un-American and un-democratic, all other city officials and state officials in any capacity should rise and let their feelings be known. It was through this resolution that I thought the City Council would let the city, state and nation know that at least the Boston City Council disagreed and condemned such statements. I think it should be taken from the committee now and voted upon now and passed, so that at least for the time to come, the people of this country will know if any official gets up to malign any race, any creed or any color, the Boston City Council is against that and will go on record and say they are against it.

Chairman FISH—The question is on taking from the committee and presenting it before the Council.

Coun. CAREY—I do not like to raise any objection to a discussion of this nature. As has been said here time and again, the duty of those who come here when the City Council meets is to devote their time to the business for which they were elected by the people of the district they represent. I do not for one moment subscribe to the remark of the representative from the South Shore district—I forget just where he comes from—which was made at a hearing in the State House a few days ago. I have always found the press of the City of Boston only too willing to print any statement that a member of any legislative body might make for or against any particular matter brought before the public attention. To object to the resolution introduced by Councilor Cook might be interpreted in some quarters as being agreeable to the statement that was made by the member of the Legislature. That I do not do. Never have I subscribed to such statements. I hope never to have occasion to subscribe to them in the future. But there is always too much time taken up here on this floor solely for the sake of publicity by certain individuals, putting the Body as a whole on record solely to satisfy the desires of a particular councilor. The gentleman who made this distasteful remark, and I emphasize the word "distasteful," has already apologized to the members of the Body of which he is a member. The case is a closed book in the eyes of the public today. The body of which this gentleman is a member did not see fit to take any action against that member. Yet the City Council, as is altogether too often the case, is asked to do just what the Legislature itself, of which that gentleman is a member, did not deem necessary to do. Why it is found necessary, whether it is for the sole purpose of catering to a particular race or creed or color, having in mind the benefits that might be derived at the polls on election day, that prompts one to introduce such a resolution, I do not know. But I do not wonder that this Body is often criticized by the people of the city for spending altogether too much time here in long-winded arguments, indulging in matters that do not affect this Body as a public body constituted for the purpose for which it was constituted. We are constantly having these questions brought before us. Some of my very best friends and some for whom I have worked hardest in the last nine years are members of the race to which the gentleman alluded when he made his statement in the State House. I do not need to get on my knees and beg forgiveness for any opposition I might take. I am not taking opposition to this matter because it is this particular matter, but only to the constant recurrence of such instances before this Body. In the last nine years, I have sat here time after time and have seen practically an entire session devoted to arguing back and forth on a matter such as this one that Councilor Cook is interested in. We are all interested in it. But as I see it, there is no reason why any member of this Body when he wishes to raise objection to a statement of this kind does not resort to the press. The press is only too willing to let the people of that councilor's district and the people of the entire city as a matter of fact know just where he stands on any particular matter. It would be a very fine thing in order to avoid further recurrences of cases such as this if the Committee on Rules and the entire Council, as a matter of fact, would get together and make up its mind that henceforth the time spent here would be spent for the purpose for which we are elected. Why doesn't an individual member of this Body raise the objection through the channels that are available to him? I know from my nine years' experience here that time and time again similar resolutions have been introduced here. Individual members of this Council have wondered why they should be expected to be engaged in showing their stand one way or the other regarding a point raised here. It is most unfair. I say this fully realizing that I have a great number of members of the race that the gentleman of the Legislature pointed out in his remark in my own district. But I take the stand and the viewpoint that this Council might well devote its time to the purposes for which it was elected, to try to do from a financial standpoint particularly the things here in this Council that would be for the benefit of the city.

Chairman FISH—The question comes on taking the matter from the committee.

There was a standing vote, yeas 13, nays 2, and since the necessary 15 votes in the affirmative were not had, the motion to take from the committee was lost.

Coun. COOK—I ask reconsideration. I would like to speak on the motion for reconsideration. After hearing the arguments from the worthy councilor in the adjacent ward (Coun. Carey) I did not think I had to get up and answer them.

Coun. McCORMACK—Will the gentleman yield for a second?

Chairman FISH—Do you yield for a question? Coun. COOK—I will.

Coun. McCORMACK—I will ask the chairman of the committee if he is in favor. If he says he is, the resolution would be passed unanimously, and it would save time.

Chairman FISH—The committee has already voted to lay it on the table.

Coun. McCORMACK—I still would like to ask the chairman of the committee if he is now in favor of having the resolution passed in this section.

Chairman FISH—If the chairman of the committee wishes to answer that, he may.

Coun. LANE—Do you yield?

Coun. COOK—Yes.

Coun. LANE—The other day when in our Committee on Rules we had a rather prolonged discussion of what should have been terminated in a very few moments, the discussion lasted about an hour and a half, and when we were through, we knew nothing more about it than when we started. I have given deeper consideration to the matter. I can now say voluntarily and without appearing in behalf of any councilor in the room, I am heartily in favor of the resolution.

Chairman FISH—Councilor Cook, the question is on reconsideration.

Coun. COOK—In view of what the chairman says, if he would vote that way in the committee, it ought to pass. We would have no debate and no time would be wasted, as the councilor who voiced his objection to taking it out of the committee has so well stated. I would like to point this out. I said before that the purpose of the City Council was not only financial, but involved everything concerning the well-being of the citizens. So far as taking up time is concerned, I would like to remind everybody that there are those in the service and those with loved ones in the service. We wasted five years exactly on such a point in those areas where a race different from the one that was maligned in the State House would be maligned. We should stand up and voice our objection, too. I think if you read my resolution you will find that it is the consensus of opinion, or it should be the consensus of opinion of the City Councilors, that they as a Body are against such statements and denounce them. I would like to know if there are members of the City Council in agreement with such statements. Mr. President, I ask reconsideration, and I shall ask for a roll call vote if it does not prevail on the standing vote.

Chairman FISH—The question is on reconsideration.

Coun. KINSELLA—I would like to ask through the Chair a question of Councilor Cook.

Chairman FISH—Does Councilor Cook care to answer a question?

Coun. COOK—Yes.

Chairman FISH—You may proceed.

Coun. KINSELLA—I am anxious to know if Councilor Cook knows whether or not the Legislature censured Representative Taylor or otherwise reproved him for his remarks?

Coun. COOK—The only way I can answer is by hearsay, that is all I read in the papers. I know that the Republican floor leader said that the Republican party disassociated itself from the statement of the member of his party who made such remarks. I know the Governor and Mayor denounced it. I am still waiting for the Boston City Council to denounce it. We are wasting time. The chairman of the Committee on Rules says he favors the resolution. There is no point in laying it on the table thirty days and waiting to have it brought out from the committee.

Coun. CAREY—For the purpose of the record I want to state clearly I do not think the question here at all hinges on whether or not the City Council agrees with the statement made by the gentleman who is a member of the Legislature. I very clearly stated I denounced such statements. My remarks were made solely on the opportunity that is seized so often here, and I repeat I believe it is for the purpose of seeing what benefits might be derived at the polls on succeeding election days. A matter of this nature definitely is not the business of the City Council, having in mind the purpose for which the City Council was instituted in the beginning. It is well to say the Governor and the Mayor and this one and that one raised objection. They did so through the press. That is what I am asking the gentleman from Ward 12 (Coun. Cook) to do. Let us stick to the rules, as they say, and carry on here on the floor the business for which we were elected. I do not think it makes a bit of difference. When all is said and done, who care how the City Council feels about this matter? The Legislature itself did not see fit as a body to raise objection. The members of Congress, the Massachusetts bloc in Congress as a body, did not see fit to yell from the roof tops. There is no doubt but what every member of Congress from this state denounces such remarks, as I do.

Chairman FISH—The question is on reconsideration.

Coun. COOK—I would like to answer the counselor who has just spoken. I am not seeking publicity. If my name is never carried on this, I am just as well satisfied. I have had my publicity in the matter. If the counselor thinks he is in favor, he could have had it come before the Body. There would be no speaking and no publicity. It seems to me that he himself is spending the time talking and getting publicity. For my part, I think the Council should go on record if they all agree the statement is undemocratic and un-American, and end it then and there.

The motion to reconsider was carried, and the question came on taking the matter from the committee.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Is it in order to take a recess and let the Rules Committee go into session and bring a report back one way or the other? The chairman of the committee seems to be in favor. They all seem to be in favor. They keep it in the committee. There is talk here. I move a five-minute recess.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President.

Chairman FISH—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. KINSELLA—To raise a point of order.

Chairman FISH—State your point of order.

Coun. KINSELLA—The point of order is the rule says we cannot hold a meeting within an hour of a regular meeting. How can we delegate the discussion to the committee meeting?

Chairman FISH—I think your point of order is well taken, counselor.

Coun. SULLIVAN—We have had one committee meeting. It would be different if they had not held a committee hearing. They have already had one. They could go in what you might call an executive session and take it from the table and make a report.

Chairman FISH—As the Chair understands, the Committee on Rules has discussed the matter and decided to lay it on the table. The counselor who offered the resolution originally now asks that it be taken from the committee. The question is now on taking from the committee.

Coun. BAYLEY—It seems to me too bad to take up the time of the City Council on a discussion of a matter like this when we have more important functions of our own about to come before the Body. I refer to the budget. We have been debating this subject for half an hour.

Coun. COOK—Will the gentleman yield?

Coun. BAYLEY—No.

Chairman FISH—The answer is no. Continue.

Coun. BAYLEY—The committee met and held a hearing on this question when both sides of it were thrashed out fairly, when the gentleman from Ward 12 (Coun. Cook) was present and presented his case, ably assisted by the gentleman from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick). This committee held a hearing and decided to table the motion for reasons of which there has been some mention by the counselor from Ward 10 (Coun. Carey). I do not believe this is City Council business, to tell the Legislature what to do and go over the Legislature's head after it has failed to act in this matter. We are here on several important functions, like passing the budget. Many times we have refused to take things from a committee. This committee decided to lay it on the table. Why they have, I do not know. It should be kept in the committee. It was given a thorough hearing. I believe the Council should expedite business and help to keep out superfluous and unnecessary motions. After the committee votes, I hope no further motions will be brought in here on another day which have very little to do with Council business.

Chairman FISH—The question is on taking from the committee.

Coun. COOK—I would like to make it brief. I hate to bring this up. I would like to remind the counselor from the Back Bay (Coun. Bayley) that I and others spent over five years fighting because of statements like this. I hope we can get through without much talk. The quickest way is to have it come from the committee, unless the two counselors voice their objections, which in their opinion were reasonable. I think they were sincere. It will come up thirty days from now.

Chairman FISH—The question is on taking from the committee.

Coun. COOK asked for a roll call, and the vote to take from the committee was yeas 16, nays 2:

Yeas—Coun. Bryan, Cantwell, Coffey, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Muchnick, Russo, Scannell, Sullivan—16.

Nays—Coun. Bayley, Carey—2.

Chairman FISH—The resolve is taken from the committee. The question is now on the passage of the resolve.

The resolve was declared passed.

Coun. LANE—I doubt the vote and ask for a roll call.

Chairman FISH—The clerk will call the roll.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President.

Chairman FISH—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. COOK—Will the clerk please read the resolution as it came out of the committee?

The clerk read the resolution as follows:

"Whereas, A member of the Great and General Court of Massachusetts, John H. Taylor of Quincy, made a false statement maligning a race whose integrity, character and good citizenship have been unquestioned in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; and

"Whereas, Such statements are undemocratic and un-American and reflect upon those holding public office who do not rise up to condemn such statements; therefore be it

"Resolved, That the Boston City Council in meeting assembled condemn such statement as false, undemocratic and un-American and call upon the Great and General Court—"

Coun. COOK—No.

Chairman FISH—Continue reading the resolution. You may make corrections at the end.

The CLERK (continuing reading)—"to take such appropriate action as will show to the nation that these statements are contrary to the beliefs and principles of those holding public office in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts."

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. Chairman.

Chairman FISH—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. MUCHNICK—In the committee that last part that was read by the clerk was deleted. It should stop after the word "un-American." That was by unanimous vote of those present at the committee meeting.

Coun. LANE—That is right.

Chairman FISH—The clerk will now call the roll on the passage of the resolve.

Coun. KINSELLA—A point of order.

Chairman FISH—State the point of order.

Coun. KINSELLA—On a roll call vote there were not two other members who rose to support the counselor.

Chairman FISH—The point of order is well taken.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I am standing.

Chairman FISH—The Chair will admit it may have been in error and overlooked it. It is a new ruling which requires this. The clerk will now call the roll on the passage of the resolve.

Coun. RUSSO—A point of order.

Chairman FISH—State your point of order.

Coun. RUSSO—The way I understand it, once the roll call has been taken and a motion to reconsider has been made and accepted, a motion can be made and accepted for reconsideration on the motion. When the motion comes before us again for vote, you have to have the other two members to sustain you on a reconsideration?

Chairman FISH—This is asking for a roll call and not reconsideration.

Coun. RUSSO—Do I understand Counselor Sullivan's motion correctly—that he stated that he made a motion to reconsider?

Chairman FISH—Counselor, the motion was passed on a voice vote. Counselor Sullivan asked for a roll call. That is why he has to have the two assist him. The clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called, and the resolve was passed, yeas 19, nays 0:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Bryan, Cantwell, Carey, Coffey, Cook, Chase, Fish, Hannon, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Muchnick, Russo, Scannell, Sullivan—19.

Nays—0.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC SAFETY.

Coun. KINSELLA, for the Committee on Public Safety, submitted the following:

Report on order (referred March 11) that Traffic Commission be requested to install traffic signals at intersection of Huntington avenue and West Newton street—that ought to pass.

Report accepted; said same order passed.

ENDORSEMENT OF STATE-CONTROLLED LOTTERY.

Coun. KELLY offered the following:

Resolved, That the Boston City Council in meeting assembled favors the enactment by the Massachusetts Legislature of House Bill 122, providing for a state-controlled lottery to raise funds to pay a $1,000 bonus to veterans of World War II, now before the Legislative Committee on Military Affairs and Public Safety.

Referred to Committee on Rules.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS.

Coun. McCORMACK, for the Committee on Appropriations, submitted the following report:

The said order includes the increased appropriations as recommended by the Mayor on March 11, 1946, and the appropriations as submitted by the Mayor February 4 and February 25, 1946, with the exception of the following reductions in said appropriations, as recommended by the Committee:

For the Committee:

THOMAS L. McCORMACK,
Chairman.

Chairman KELLY—The question first comes on the acceptance of the report of the committee.

The report was accepted.

Chairman KELLY—The question comes on the adoption of the budget as reported by the committee.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I move it be referred to the Executive Committee.

The motion to refer to the Executive Committee was declared not carried.

Coun. SCANNELL—I doubt the vote.

Chairman KELLY—Counselor Scannell doubts the vote. The Chair will ask the members to rise. All those in favor of referring the budget to the Executive Committee please rise.

The motion to refer to the Executive Committee was lost.

Chairman KELLY—The question comes now on the adoption of the budget as reported by the Committee.

Coun. CAREY—I would like some information before we vote on it regarding the various cuts. I am wondering if the chairman would let us know why the cuts were made.

Coun. McCORMACK—In this assessment—

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President.

Chairman KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. SULLIVAN—I would like the City Messenger to furnish us paper so we can make notes on the figures.

Chairman KELLY—The City Messenger will furnish each counselor with some paper.

Coun. CHASE—A point of inquiry. Last week the City Council passed an order requesting his Honor the Mayor to have the Budget Commissioner give each counselor a break-down on the annual budget. May I be excused, sir, for asking if we have that information?

Chairman KELLY—Will you please state your remarks over?

Coun. CHASE—Last week the Council passed an order requesting the Mayor to arrange for the Budget Commissioner to submit to the twenty-two members of the Council a broken-down, itemized budget. I do not see any itemized budget before me. I trust, sir, his Honor the Mayor has carried out the request of the Council?

Chairman KELLY—I understand the request was sent to his Honor the Mayor.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, may I ask you, sir, whether or not that material is available for the Council?

Chairman KELLY—The Chair is not aware of it.

Coun. CHASE—May I request you, sir, to delegate a special messenger to the Mayor's office with the request that the Council awaits the Mayor's answer for an itemized budget for the non-members of the Appropriations Committee?

Chairman KELLY—I will, counselor. I will designate you as a committee of one to go down and wait upon his Honor the Mayor. I will declare a recess of ten minutes. I will ask Counselor Chase to go and wait on his Honor the Mayor.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, this is not a matter—

Chairman KELLY—I am serious. I designate you as a committee of one.

Coun. CHASE—I suggest, sir, one of our employees here be delegated to go to the Mayor's office—the City Messenger.

Coun. McCORMACK—A point of order.
Chairman KELLY—State your point of order.
Coun. McCORMACK—I thought I heard you declare a recess and bang the gavel. Any remarks now are out of order.

President KELLY—Correct.

(A short recess was taken.)

President KELLY in the chair.

President KELLY—The Council will be in order. Councilor Chase left for the Mayor's office five minutes ago. I recessed for ten minutes. I am going to call the meeting to order. It is now sixteen minutes.

Coun. McCORMACK—Somebody wanted an explanation of the cuts. In the Assessing Department we cut $3,300. Three thousand dollars of it they said they did not need. The other $300 was to pay their way to conventions. That is in the Assessing Department. The City Planning Board we cut $1,000. That was for expert services. We left $1,800 in. The Park Department we cut $90,000. Fifty thousand dollars for parks and playgrounds and improvements. Twenty thousand dollars for the A-1 item. That $20,000 is going to be made up from the cemetery trust funds. Twenty thousand dollars from the perpetual care fund. The $40,000 of the A item is made up of those two funds. We cut the Sewer Division $100,000. We are going to get the $100,000 from the loan and transfer of funds. The Police Department we cut $40,000. The Commissioner said he did not think he would get the cloth for the uniforms. The snow removal was cut $100,000. The committee recommended that the Municipal Employment Bureau be abolished as of April 1.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, might I ask the chairman how much money would be saved by abolishing the Employment Bureau?

Coun. McCORMACK—Twenty-five thousand dollars.

Coun. SCANNELL—Thank you.

Coun. HANNON—We are in a peculiar position in the Council here, a position where we can cut the budget and cannot increase the budget. Now I have been in public life quite a length of time. As long as I have been in it, and as long as I will be in it, I will not be any party to any cutting. If I cannot increase, I certainly will not be guilty of cutting, because no matter where you cut, what you blot out, how you trim the thing, you are taking bread and butter off somebody's table. As far as I am concerned, I am against any and all cuts. When the day comes that I can raise somebody's pay, I will be happy. But the day has not yet come when I am going to be a party to cutting anybody's pay or to lopping off any departments. I do not know where this sudden spirit of economy has come from. Certainly, I am amazed that a committee of the Council, a committee of us fellows who work for less than $5 a day are recommending abolishing a department. I think we are reaching a new low when we go so far as that. Generally in the Council we are fighting and finding fault with somebody who recommends the abolition not of a department, but of a job. Yet through some artifice or some peculiar type of thinking, here we are up here with a committee of this Body recommending the abolition of a department. I certainly will not be any party to it. Believe me, there will be a long and articulate fight on this floor before anything like that goes through. It is bad enough if you are going to cut contractual obligations. Probably we could well cut an item like snow removal. With the help of God we might not have any snowstorms next year. As far as cutting anybody's pay is concerned, you will never get it through if my voice can stop it, and my voice will be raised plenty before any item goes through here abolishing any city department. Why, I do not know what it is that has got into that committee. I never heard any committee up here doing anything like that. What the committee should strive to do is get some backing in this Council so that we can appoint people to jobs, so that we can increase pay, so that we can do something for them. I am not one of these birds who believes that every city employee is a loafer. I work for the city. The city has just as many faithful employees as any other corporation. Not every city employee is overpaid. Not every city employee is loafing. Yet we hear in the Council, when a budget is sent to us, we are going to recommend more cuts. I thought that budget was pretty well pruned before we got it. When you talk to Brother Carven and Brother Fox, I do not think they are spendthrifts. I do not think they will approve too much money for any department. I would like to know where this idea originated of abolishing the Employment Bureau. I do not know how many here ever use the Employment Bureau. I use it. I will tell you truthfully and frankly you accomplish more through the Employment Bureau and we are more on a level with people than we would be by giving them a card or walking their legs off or asking somebody else to take care of them. I have sent people to the Employment Bureau. They have received good positions. I know some of the employees down there. They have been faithful employees for years. Yet we hear a recommendation to abolish it. I do not think that day has come when any group of councilors, any legislative group or government group of which I have the honor to be a member, is going to sit idly by and merely by a stroke of the pen throw men and women out of their jobs. What are we coming to? If an order like that emanated from another department and was sent up here, the very members of that committee that are now recommending we do something along the line of abolishing a department would be the first to take the floor here and flaunt the suggestion that this or that department be eliminated. I will have no part in it. Now, Mr. President, I make a motion that we defer action on this budget and that before the next meeting each member of the Council be given a copy of the report and be given a copy of the proposed slashes.

President KELLY—Councilor Hannon moves we defer action for one week.

Coun. HURLEY—I have been around this Council going on seven years. I have had the pleasure of serving with the councilor from Ward 13 (Coun. Hannon). I have listened to him make some good speeches here and say some constructive things. I think this is one of the most constructive talks he has made since he has been a member. I heartily agree with every word that has been said. I know I will not ever vote for a decrease in salaries. I will never vote to take a man's job away from him. If I can put someone to work, if I can make his working conditions better, his salary or his work better, I am all for that. I will never vote to take a job or take his salary away from him. I, too, am amazed at the action of the Committee on Appropriations, how they ever came around to that idea of eliminating anyone's job. If there was any talk of eliminating the Municipal Employment Bureau, we could have done it six or seven years ago, when there were plenty of people working and there was no need probably for the entire force working at the time. The newspapers were filled every day with concerns looking for help. All that has changed. Now you read in the paper that the Boston Navy Yard is going to lay off thousands. They have closed down at Hingham. They are curtailing work in Fore River. This plant and that are laying off help. That is the time this department is needed. There is no need of my talking further. I do not think it could be explained any clearer by anybody after the remarks just delivered by the councilor from Ward 13 (Coun. Hannon). Mr. President, I certainly will vote against any taking away of that money.

Coun. FISH—I sat in on every budget hearing there was this year. I do not know what action you are going to take, whether you are going to defer it or not. I hope you will not defer action. I want to inform the Council that Councilor Fish voted against all the cuts. I do not think a budget was ever scrutinized as closely as the 1946 budget which we are working on. Bear in mind I have seen budgets here for eight years. I am convinced the budget could not be cut, regardless of snow or anything else. For that reason I am submitting this as an order, asking that the budget be passed as submitted by his Honor the Mayor. I submit this in the form of an order.

Coun. FISH moved that the appropriation orders submitted by the Mayor February 4, 1946, the supplementary appropriation orders as submitted by the Mayor February 25, 1946, and the recommendations of the Mayor of March 11, 1946, to increase various appropriations, be substituted for the orders as reported by the Committee on Appropriations.

The substitute orders, as offered by Coun. FISH, are as follows:

APPROPRIATIONS AND TAX ORDERS FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR 1946.

Ordered, That to meet the current expenses payable during the financial year beginning with the first day of January, 1946, for performing the duties and exercising the powers devolved by statute or ordinance, or by vote of the City Council during the year, upon the City of Boston, or County of Suffolk, or the departments or officers thereof, the respective sums of money specified in the tables and schedules hereinafter set out be, and the same are, hereby appropriated for the several departments and for the objects and purposes hereinafter stated.

Ordered, That the appropriation for Water Service, current expenses, and the payment to the State, under the provisions of chapter 488 of the Acts of 1895, and acts in addition or amendment thereto, and for the interest debt requirements or for loans issued for water purposes, be met by the income of said works and any excess over income from taxes; that the appropriation for Printing Department be met by the department income and any excess over income from taxes; and the appropriation for the City Record be met by the income of said publication and any excess over income from taxes; and the appropriation for the Traffic Tunnel be met by the income from tolls and any excess over income from taxes, in accordance with the provisions of section 11, Chapter 297, of the Acts of 1929, as amended by chapter 74 of the Acts of 1935; and the appropriation for the Board of Real Estate Commissioners be met by the income of said board, exclusive of proceeds from the sale of foreclosed property, and any excess over income from taxes; that the other appropriations hereinafter specified be met out of the money remaining in the treasury at the close of business on December 31, 1945, exclusive of the money raised by loan or needed to carry out the requirements of any statute, gift, trust or special appropriation; by the income of the financial year beginning January 1, 1946; by taxes on the polls and estates in the City of Boston; and by the proceeds of any duly authorized loans.

Ordered, That all sums of money which form no part of the income of the city, but shall be paid for services rendered or work done by any department or division for any other department or division, or for any person or corporation other than the City of Boston, be paid into the general treasury, and that all contributions made to any appropriation be expended for the objects and purposes directed by the several contributors thereof.

Ordered, That all taxes raised to meet the appropriations of the city, and all taxes assessed for meeting the city's proportion of the state tax for the year 1946, or for any other taxes or assessments payable to the Commonwealth, shall be payable in two equal installments, on July first and on October first, 1946; that interest shall be charged on all taxes remaining unpaid after the first day of November, 1946, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 59, section 57, of the General Laws, as amended, until paid, except the taxes assessed upon shares of national banks, which shall bear interest at the rate of 12 per cent per annum from the first day of October, 1946, until paid, and that all interest which shall have become due on taxes shall be added to and be part of such taxes.

Ordered, That except as the appropriation for any purpose or item shall be increased by additional appropriations or transfers lawfully made, no money shall be expended by any department for any of the purposes or items designated in the tables and schedules hereinafter set out in excess of the amount set down as appropriated for such specific purpose or item.

President KELLY—There is a motion before the house to lay the present budget on the table for a week. We are talking on that now.

Coun. KINSELLA—A point of information.

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella has the floor.

Coun. KINSELLA—Through the Chair I would like to ask Chairman McCormack what inspired the suggestion that the Municipal Employment Bureau be stricken from the budget and, Mr. President, if any provision is made for the employees there to be employed elsewhere?

President KELLY—Councilor McCormack, can you answer the question? Councilor Fish, can you answer the question?

Coun. FISH—I will be glad to answer it with the chairman's permission. Although I am not in favor of it, I will say they had quite a discussion in there on it. Many questions were asked. The assurance was given every employee of the Municipal Employment Department on civil service would be taken care of, on the information I got, with the possible exception of those who were hired within recent years and then placed on a blanket order under civil service. Those loyal employees of the city would be absorbed in other departments. That is as I understand it.

Coun. KINSELLA—Another question, did Councilor Fish learn the identity of the person or persons who offered the assurances?

Coun. FISH—I may say I could not answer just who offered the assurance. In fact, I do not feel free to disclose certain things like that. I feel they would be taken care of, although I voted against the measure itself.

Coun. KINSELLA—Talking on the motion, Mr. President, when the budget was first submitted to us, we were given to understand it was a budget arranged by former Mayor Kerrigan, and that it contained an increase of something like $11,000,000 over the budget for 1945. We were further told, Mr. President, that after close scrutiny by the Auditor and the Budget Commissioner that $11,000,000 was further reduced to something like $6,000,000. In other words, the 1946 budget is now about $5,000,000 over the gross figures of 1945. The amount to be struck out on the Municipal Employment Bureau is $25,000. It is so small it is hardly noticeable in the $5,000,000 increase, much less a $45,000,000 to $46,000,000 gross total. It is nice to get up here in the presence of the gallery and the press—please do not misunderstand me and my statement—and say, "We are opposed." I think it is taken for granted we are all opposed. Our chief function is to give people work and employment perhaps. I cannot understand myself why a picaresque item of $25,000 which would bring such aid and comfort to people employed there now could have such a material effect on the financial condition of the city that it should become part of the economy program and be slashed. I know somebody feels that it should be eliminated. What is the reason for feeling that way? I do not know. We do not have those facts. We do not share that knowledge. It may well be that anyone of us or all of us in fact might rise unanimously in support of the abolition of the item from the budget if we had a good, sound, sufficient reason. But since we are not taken into the confidence of those who seem to know why it should be slashed, I think the proper thing to do is go along and take steps to restore it to good standing and include it in the final passage. Now, with the permission of the Chair, I would like to ask the clerk a question, if I may, a point of information.

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I would like to know in the event that the Council fails to abolish this item, does the Mayor then have the arbitrary power and authority to strike it out himself, and to make that striking out effective?

President KELLY—I understand the Mayor can discontinue the operation of a bureau any time he sees fit.

Coun. MUCHNICK—A point of information. President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. MUCHNICK—If that were to be discontinued after the money were applied, what would happen to those funds?

President KELLY—The money could be transferred to any other department the Mayor saw fit to transfer it to.

Coun. KINSELLA—Because of the seriousness of the matter, I would like to repeat the answer to my question. The Mayor can discontinue the department, even though we pass it in the final budget?

President KELLY—That is right.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Just a moment, if you please.

Coun. CHASE—I am talking on the motion. President KELLY—The question comes on Councilor Hannon's motion.

Coun. CHASE—A short while ago you delegated me to represent the councilors by a committee of one before his Honor the Mayor to find out why the Council's order which was passed last week was not carried out. Well, sir, I went downstairs and met with his Honor the Mayor. For about ten minutes he had no idea of what I was talking about. Apparently he had no notice that such an order was passed by the City Council. He called in the City Auditor. The City Auditor sort of agreed with practically everything his Honor the Mayor said. I do not know if the City Auditor is really the auditor or the Mayor's yes man. Then the Mayor took the telephone and called the Budget Commissioner to find out whether or not such an order was passed. The Budget Commissioner said, "Yes." After 15 minutes' consultation he ascertained that the Council did last week pass an order requesting a broken-down itemized budget to be sent to the Council members. Apparently the Budget Commissioner told his Honor the Mayor he did not have the necessary papers or something like that, to make out a broken-down, itemized budget. After awhile, after further conversation with his Honor the Mayor, I departed from him. He left with these few words, "Why the hell don't the Council members who want the budget information consult the Committee on Appropriations?" I submit to you we are in our branch of the city government just as important to the municipal government as the chief executive's office. That budget cannot be adopted unless we agree to it. I say, sir, that this Honorable Body, each member of us, is entitled to a little more courtesy. I see no reason, sir, why such a reasonable request could not be carried out, especially in view of the fact that we are faced with some $5,000,000 increase over last year's budget that the taxpayers are going to be called upon to pay in the form of taxes. After all, we are here representing the taxpayers. We have a right to get that necessary information. It is a reasonable request. I feel that in view of the fact his Honor the Mayor has gone away out of his way to get legislative relief and has appealed to the Massachusetts Legislature to give ten million dollars as a loan in order to reduce the taxes, I can say, sir, in my representative capacity, representing the Fourth Suffolk District, I shall oppose that ten-million dollar loan because of the failure of the Mayor to cooperate and to submit to our branch of the government a properly broken-down, itemized budget. I cannot possibly be expected to intelligently act on the matter before us today unless I have the necessary figures to gauge the matter by. Back in 1939 as chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, I made a similar request to his Honor Mayor Tobin. There was not any dillydallying. Mayor Tobin at that time promptly acquiesced to my request. He submitted to me a broken-down, itemized budget which even accounted for rubber bands and pencils and pens. He broke that budget down within three days. Well, now, sir, if one administration can do it upon the request of the Council, surely another administration can do it. I say, sir, that Boston has a budget which is only a few million dollars less than your state budget. Just imagine, the Commonwealth's budget is only a few million dollars more than the City of Boston's budget. The Ways and Means Committee, sir, operates on that budget. They conduct hearings for the department heads. It runs into months. Day-long hearings are required. Bear in mind that the state budget is only a few million dollars more than our municipal budget. How can we intelligently act on this when the Committee on Appropriations has only given five days study, without any figures to go by? I would like, sir, to have that broken-down, itemized information in view of the fact that we are faced with a tremendous increase in taxation and in view of the fact that in this budget there are many million dollars more than last year. I see no reason why we cannot have that information. I trust, sir, your Honorable Body will defer the matter until such time as we do get this information. I look at my colleague's budget sheets. I do not see any breakdown or itemized budget there. I do not see what the various departments call for on furniture items and stationery items and for various items necessary in the functioning of their departments. That is the information I want. That is the only way in which you can intelligently act on a budget. I hope, sir, your Honorable Body will defer passage.

President KELLY—Are you talking on the motion?

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, as I said earlier—

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. Isn't it usual when one person has spoken on a subject first, then those who have not spoken will be given precedence?

President KELLY—The point is well taken. If Councilor Fish will yield.

Coun. FISH—I will yield until the 22 members speak, and then I will speak again.

President KELLY—The Chair recognizes Councilor Lane. The point is well taken.

Coun. LANE—Mr. President, in Councilor Chase's recent description, he brought out the fact and emphasized that his Honor the Mayor apparently was discourteous to him when he waited on him a few minutes ago. I, for one, can appreciate the problems confronting the chief executive of a city such as Boston.

Coun. COFFEY—I rise to a point of order. None of the councilors who have spoken recently have discussed the motion before the Body.

President KELLY—Discussion on the motion, please.

Coun. LANE—Continuing, I for one can appreciate the position the chief executive is in. Let us ask ourselves, Have we ever in our official capacity, whatever our official business connection might be, have we ever unintentionally been discourteous to one who has come to our office to seek advice on one point or another? I feel that we should pass this budget today. Councilor Hannon moved that the budget as presented and prepared by the Committee on Appropriations be laid over for one week. I feel that we owe it to the chief executive of this city and to the departments constituting physically the make-up of our city government, to pass this budget as originally presented by his Honor the Mayor, and to pass it forthwith.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I have been a member of the Committee on Appropriations for three years. I am now serving in my third year. I feel this committee has done an excellent job. It went into the job very thoroughly. Five of the seven members attended nearly every meeting all the time regularly. The meetings started shortly after ten o'clock and went to four and sometimes to five with only an hour out in the meantime. It was about as thorough and exhaustive a study as we can have of the budget. While we did not have a segregated budget, we tried to ask questions which would bring out what was wrong in certain items and break down the figures ourselves. Any member of the Council who wanted information on that could have attended the meetings which were open. Only one or two took advantage of it. The meetings were held openly. We would have welcomed any support, which we could have from other members of the Council. The chairman has been thorough and painstaking in his work. He is the finest chairman by far that I have served under. He did a fine job. If you are going to overturn the committee's report, and they worked hard on the idea, I feel like the distinguished councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick) who wonders if we should abolish committees. We have already overturned a committee by protest earlier this day. I cannot take the word of the Budget Commissioner. I moved for 25 other cuts. I go along with those which were recommended, and I ask for 25 cuts in the budget. I asked for them last year without success. It would not take a great deal of time. If I felt I could not get the consent of this Honorable Body, I would not do so, having lost in the committee. I feel the cuts are reasonable on the question of the budget under consideration. I did some questioning of the heads of departments. I asked how many jobs had been secured through the agency last year and this year. There was no answer. They were unable to tell me.

Coun. MUCHNICK—A point of order. My understanding is that there is pending before this Body a motion to table. Such a motion usually is not debatable.

President KELLY—There is a motion to postpone action on the budget for one week.

Coun. MUCHNICK—As I remember it being read or being received by you, it was a motion to table for one week.

President KELLY—The motion was to defer action for one week on the budget. Councilor Hannon made the motion.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. HANNON—Merely to explain what the motion was. I made the suggestion we defer action for one week in order that we might be given copies of the committee's report containing facts and figures of the deliberations.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Defer or on the table?

Coun. HANNON—Defer.

President KELLY—Councilor Bayley may continue.

Coun. BAYLEY—Well, Mr. President, I think we were unable, in our estimation from the answers we received, to justify the continuance of the bureau. Many people feel, and I do, too, that there are too many city departments. We could not see the reason to saddle $25,000 on the taxpayers of Boston. I for one voted in favor of the abolition of the board as of April 1st. As to the others, many of them, and most of them, in the A-1 items, are not cuts in salaries. They are being taken from certain funds. In the Park Department $20,000 is being taken from Perpetual Care, as it has been in the past, and $20,000 from the general Cemetery Fund, $20,000 in addition to $60,000. Those are not really cuts. I hope the members of the committee will be backed up by the members of the Council for the fine job they have done, the thorough and painstaking work. Many of us examined the blue books (containing the stenographic notes) thoroughly and carefully. I believe the cuts are justified as well as the others which I hope to make.

Coun. COFFEY—Speaking on the motion to defer for one week, naturally I think I have been as much a champion of the laboring man as anybody here. As for the fake bureaus, I have to call them fake bureaus. I, for one, was very much hurt. I was hurt for selfish and political reasons, I admit. I was hurt because the Legislature saw fit to create a few bureaus by an act of legislation without permissive legislation by the City Council. They created three bureaus at that time without any consent whatever from the City Council, although we have to pass on their salaries and we have to pass on their employment.

Coun. MUCHNICK—A point of information. I do not believe the gentleman is speaking on the motion.

President KELLY—I think he is. He is speaking on the Municipal Employment Bureau. That seems to be the contention in the discussion here. So long as he confines his remarks to the bureaus, he may proceed.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I am not only speaking on the motion, I am speaking on the same statement that Tom Hannon made. I agree with Tom Hannon in everything he said although in spite of what I say today, I am going to vote against the way I feel for only one reason. Far be it from me or my vote, if it means anything, to take the food away from them and their loved ones—the fact is I was pretty sore with them and the Legislature, both. There was only one man out of that group a year or two years ago who went up there, all Tobin favorites, everyone of them. Somebody Tobin wanted to take care of in his last days. They went to the Legislature. That Legislature passed without any consent or permissive legislation or any agreement whatsoever that the legislation or acts passed by them would come before the Boston City Council for our approval. The only one who had the common sense and decency enough, who wanted a permanent job, was Billy Galvin of Charlestown. I never heard any grief for Billy Galvin in this Body. I fought him more than anybody in here, and their combined efforts. When Billy Galvin had an act passed making his job permanent, I was not speaking to him at the time. When he came here for a vote, I said yes. He was the only one that had any decency about it. He not only had the act passed by the Legislature, but he came down here and sought our permission for his job to become permanent. That is the reason I voted for him. Personally, I am the only one he asked. He knew at the time we were not friendly. I am not too friendly yet. I still voted for him. He was the only one who saw fit to go to the Legislature and see that included in the act would be the permissive legislation given by the Boston City Council. The members of the Employment Bureau did not do it. Neither did the members of the Recreation Board when they went up and had their legislation passed. They tried to get it without permissive legislation. It was bad advice that was given to them. They turned around and had permissive legislation. The Bureau of Americanization did the same thing. We know a lot of them have two or three jobs. Do not forget there are 63,000 veterans in the 920 Club that cannot get employment. Nobody was ready to get employment for them. They were home. Rather than taking a job at 50 cents an hour as a laborer, they collect $20 a week at 9 Beacon street. Some of them down there are holding two and three jobs. I do not begrudge the fact they have got themselves a permanent position. I am only peeved at one thing, the fact they were up there and got the legislation through. It was a rotten and raw way they did it. They should have come before us. When they want anything they come to us. When this board was up for abolition a year or so ago we got several calls from the employees there. We stood by them even after they got their jobs. It was right in the last days of the Tobin administration when he put another dozen there, and a dozen in the Americanization Bureau. They still had contact with their councilors even after ignoring them in the first place. They begged us to supply the money so they could get their salaries. I did not think I was going to get in the discussion. I came in with the intention of sitting down and listening to what would take place. I have been peeved with the present administration. I have a right to be peeved, more right than any man in this room. You will agree with me when I say that. I was hurt the first of the year. I am still hurt. I have not changed any. I have to live. When I see some of the councilors that get up here—I was absent one day when one of them said something about being a rubber stamp. I wish I had been present that day. If anybody has been a rubber stamp up here, he has been a rubber stamp. There were no cuts. He would not talk or vote unless he calls the Mayor's office to find out how the Mayor wanted him to vote. The councilor who just got up and condemned the present Mayor did not care about this matter last year. He did not care about the budget last year. Whether it was blanket or otherwise, throw it in. What did he care? Every time there was a hearing he would walk out. The only time he came in was when Mayor Kerrigan needed a vote. The shoe is on the other foot. That is the reason I do not want to fight this administration if I can help it. I know Curleyism. I was brought up on it. What am I doing? I am fighting his enemies, who have been my enemies for eight years. They have spent money in my ward to defeat me. They stuck candidates in to defeat me, a sympathetic candidate, a widow with two children to knock Coffey off by all means. To fight Curleyism I have to fight that type. I do not want to. If I have to, I will. I do not want to give them the satisfaction of sitting back and laughing at something I have been fighting here for years. It does make me sick to my stomach to have people on the floor who did not care last year or the year before what was in the budget. I suppose others will take the floor here. I will take it after them. I can recall a budget where Councilors Fish and Hannon and Dwyer and myself stayed here from nine in the morning till seven at night if need be. We never missed one meeting. The chairman of that committee would refuse to allow the councilors, any of them, to ask questions. He would rule him out of order on everything he wanted. This year I am waiting patiently to see what he has to say. Broken-down figures, why they would not even let you ask questions. The committees were always picked. We know that you have to be friendly with the administration to get on an important committee. This year I did not care. I did not want any. Anybody could have been on the winning side. Everybody knew that. Some of us did not want to be on the winning side. As far as I am concerned this year, I still hold the way I did the first of the year. Committees do not mean a thing. If they are going to the Parker House, I will go over and go in the room. I do not think anybody will throw me out. They will talk and I will listen. I was not interested this year. I am interested now in the fact that the shoe is on the other foot. It is hurting somebody. They want broken-down items. They want to know where the rubber bands are coming from, and who is buying them, where the stamps are coming from, and whether the government is giving a rake-off to anybody who is buying the stamps, and so forth. The same with the envelopes. Certain prices are fixed by the government. You cannot cut the prices and get a commission by buying. I am going to wait patiently and hear the statements made here today. We are going back a year or two, and ask whether those people were asking questions a year or two ago who are asking questions today. They were not so much interested in the budget or anything as long as their friends Kerrigan and Tobin got what they wanted and to hell with the city.

Coun. KINSELLA—The total budget figure is $55,652,035 to run the city until December 31. The amount of money allowed in 1945 which was Mayor Tobin's last budget since it was prepared by him after being elected Governor was $47,052,806.19. On January 4, 1945, at ten o'clock in the morning, or rather at noon when Mayor Tobin was inaugurated as Governor, John Kerrigan became Acting Mayor of the City of Boston. There was then a bill filed to grant him all the powers and privileges of a duly elected Mayor. Some time in February they passed it, and Mr. Kerrigan became Mayor of the city to the eternal detriment of the city, I might say. We had the budget for 1945 submitted to us on January 2d. We find that the budget was passed on February 5, 1945, after four days of a combination of debate and questions and answers. While it does not appear any place here in the minutes of February 5, the day on which we passed the budget, 13 to 3, I say while it does not appear here any place that anybody said, "Let's give Johnnie a break and put it through," that was the opinion expressed before the meeting. We wanted to give the fellow a chance to get into operation although on February 5 he was not the legislative Mayor of the city. There were no remarks made about breaking down that budget into an itemized list of pencils, erasers, scrap paper and elastic bands. Now I suggest to the Boston City Council with a duly elected front door Mayor that we pass the budget with certain reservations about which I spoke originally. Where we gave Johnnie a break, let us give Jimmie a break. That should be just as acceptable in 1946 for Curley as it was in 1945 for Kerrigan. The principle is the same. Is it good principle to prolong the debate and study the budget by wanting to know what a $200 expenditure on office equipment is intended to buy? The principle was as sound a year before, when we had another man in the Mayor's office. Let us give Jimmie a break. We gave Johnnie a good one. He nearly broke the backs of everyone of us. I hope the budget passes, with certain reservations.

President KELLY—The question is on the motion to postpone for one week.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, a point of order.

President KELLY—State your point of order.

Coun. FISH—Am I out of order in submitting the order to pass the budget as submitted by the Mayor?

President KELLY—Until this motion is disposed of or withdrawn.

Coun. COFFEY—A point of order. Can the councilor from Ward 13 (Coun. Hannon) withdraw his motion to lay on the table for a week, and make another motion that this item of $25,000 to be cut, be restored?

Coun. HANNON—I withdraw the motion.

President KELLY—Councilor Hannon withdraws his motion. Another motion is in order.

Coun. FISH—I now resubmit the motion that the budget orders be passed as submitted by his Honor the Mayor.

President KELLY—Councilor Fish now submits a motion that the budget orders be passed as submitted by his Honor the Mayor.

Coun. KINSELLA—A point of information. Is that to be construed as a minority report?

President KELLY—The right motion is to substitute this motion for the motion submitted by the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations.

Coun. KINSELLA—It is still a minority report. The chairman submitted the other.

Coun. FISH—If I may answer, Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Fish.

Coun. FISH—I will submit that as a minority report not having acceded to the cuts in the budget by the committee. My reason for opposing the cuts is that of the $90,000 from the Park Department, $50,000 of that is to come out of Parks and Playgrounds, Improvements of. Whether or not every councilor agrees, the fact still remains we spent somewhat like three-quarters of a million dollars on parks and playgrounds and buildings last year. I do not think any sound business house would spend that much money and then jeopardize it the following year by letting it go to rack and ruin. That is my reason for not wanting the $50,000 cut. I do not voice an opinion as to whether to use $20,000 additional from the Cemetery Fund and $20,000 from the Perpetual Care Fund. I express no opinion on that. As a matter of fact, it does not involve the cut in any way. It is a question of whether or not the $40,000 is from salaries.

One hundred thousand dollars is to be taken from the A-1 personal item, and that comes from the loan. I assume. After all, you cannot just decrease salaries. You may say, "What help is necessary?" The Public Works Commissioner and the Sewer Division engineer came forward here not only this year but years before, for four or five years, and have said the sewers are in a deplorable condition. We have an opportunity to get material this year. If we cut this $100,000 out of the sewer loan, many of the inspectors are being paid out of that loan. It serves as a reduction in help. May I add this little thought now? Any added help that may come to this city of Boston this coming year will come from civil service. At the head of the list on civil service are the World War veterans. There will be nobody hired but a World War veteran. Think that over. There is $40,000 for police uniforms. Maybe they will not be able to get the uniforms. I do not know. I think we are able to buy clothing a little easier now. If they cannot get them, they will not spend the money. If they can get them, we have allowed for added money to increase the personnel of the Police Department. What are they going to do, go around in their veterans' uniforms? They have to have uniforms. I am willing to believe that they will be available. There is $100,000 for snow removal. That is a controversial subject which I voted against in the past. There is about $300,000 now remaining for snow removal until next January. If we repeat next November and December what happened last year, we will spend the $300,000 and more. If we do not get any snow, we will not spend any money. The other cut was the Municipal Employment Bureau. I do not need to speak on that. I would just sum it up by repeating something that Councilor Coffey said, "It all depends on who submits the budget." I think Councilor Kinsella may be a little off on the date. Last year the budget was through on January 28 instead of February 5. Maybe I am wrong.

Coun. KINSELLA—February 5, passed, 13 to 3. It is on the record.

Coun. FISH—I thought it was the 28th. May I answer one thing the councilor from Ward 4 (Coun. Chase) said? We have studied it five days. We have been on the budget over three weeks. When it comes to a break-down, I have sat in on budgets now for eight years. I have got the identical break-down this year that I ever got. It was never given to the 22 members of the Council, to my knowledge. It was given to the committee. I have got as much of a break-down as I ever got. I think that is about all I care to say, only that I hope that the budget will pass today as submitted by his Honor the Mayor.

President KELLY—The question first is on the motion of Councilor Fish to substitute the Mayor's budget for the report of the committee.

Coun. BAYLEY—Speaking on the motion, first a point of inquiry. Doesn't the report of the majority committee recommending the budget with expenditures taken off, get preference? Does that not take precedence?

President KELLY—The report of the committee has already been accepted.

Coun. BAYLEY—Doesn't the question come on the passage of the budget?

President KELLY—It does, but the motion of substitution is always in order.

Coun. BAYLEY—Thank you. Speaking on the motion, I must venture to disagree with the distinguished councilor who preceded me on the matter of snow removal. An appropriation was asked for $500,000, of which approximately almost to the penny, $200,000 had been spent, leaving $300,000 in that budget. The normal expenditure over the course of many years for snow removal, November and December, is approximately $100,000. It was higher this year. We had an exceptional amount of snowfall in December. I understood the Public Works Commissioner, in whom I have confidence, to say that the removal of snow during the months of last December and January was $200,000. So that the chances are if in the midst of snow storms which we had this year in December and January we could only spend $200,000 in those two months, the chances are good we would not spend more than $200,000 next November and December, remembering that few snowstorms come in November, $300,000 is left. A cut to $200,000 leaves us with only a sufficient margin, but a very sure one, if the normal course of removing snow in December is only subtracted. If it goes through, we have $200,000 left. I would like to point out as the Public Works Commissioner pointed out, that if they had a terrific storm and we had to spend more money than appropriated, it could be spent on the ground of such necessity and would not have to come to the Council. As a matter of extreme emergency, it can be spent. In submitting the Park Department budget, most of you remember we had a request of $1,000,000 for Parks and Playgrounds last year. According to the records, $679,000 of that was spent last year, leaving $321,000 which was taken away, partly taken for the appropriations for the Board of Recreation and $46,000 transferred to Item A-1 in June. At the close of the year, $71,000 was taken. The figure of $321,000 was put in so as to make an even balance of one million dollars. Last year and this year it was felt by me a cut of $50,000 on that item would not work any hardship. I voted last year for one million dollars, after speaking and saying I would. Was the one million dollars spent wisely and efficiently? I regret to say in some cases I do not think the money was put to the best use and spent as efficiently as it could have been. I believe taking $50,000 off $321,000 will be certainly enough for the Park Department's program. We asked them to submit a program to us on how the $321,000 will be spent. We did get a general statement but not a breakdown, an itemized budget to show us exactly why they had to have $321,000. I believe $50,000 can be taken away. It has nothing to do with salaries. In the A-1 Park Department, there is an increase of $100,000. I was in favor of cutting $25,000 or $30,000 because 50 new employees were put on last year and they were to provide 25 new employees that will not be put on until we pass the budget. I was not convinced at any time that the new employees were needed. Possibly I was wrong. I hope the Council will go along with the committee which has done such a fine job. I am one who voted against the budget last year and spoke 47 minutes against it last year. I have recommended 25 cuts there. It is not that I am going with the administration or against it. The year before I also asked for cuts which did go through. I also acted on the passage of the budget. If I think the money of the taxpayers is not being spent wisely and efficiently, I am going to try to cut it to a reasonable burden.

President KELLY—The first question is on Councilor Fish's motion.

Coun. KINSELLA—A point of information.
President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. KINSELLA—To keep this legally clear, don't we have to reconsider the action of the committee's report on the budget submitted by the chairman?

President KELLY—The committee's report is merely a recommendation. Where there is a substitute motion, it will supersede it.

Coun. KINSELLA—I move the acceptance of the substitution.

President KELLY—That is not the question before us.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Russo, talking on Councilor Fish's motion.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I did not intend to say anything, but I cannot help, when I look back at the years I have spent in this Council and look at the individuals today and I include myself in it, too, each and every one of us, it is very amusing, how we can be one way one time and another another time. Thank God, in so far as I have been concerned, it makes no difference to me who the administration is or who they are. I let my conscience be my guide. If I recall the motion made at the last hearing, Mr. President, it was to have the budget submitted to us today so that we can lay it on the table for a week and give each and every one of us an opportunity to study the budget. Here we are today trying to rush it right through, passing this budget. I do not know who the councilor is who made the motion on the proposed cuts by the committee on the budget and then withdrew his motion. In one way I am glad he did. In another, I do not know, myself. However, Mr. President, in so far as the reduction of that budget is concerned, I have not got clear in my mind how the committee arrived at its result in cutting that budget, especially the Municipal Employment Bureau. I think it is fair to assume it is an open book. In so far as the discussion here today is concerned, his Honor the Mayor is trying to put the City Council on the spot. I have not been and will not be a party to doing the bidding for someone else, the Mayor or anyone. I am wondering, Mr. President, if that was not a nice way of trying to put the Council on the spot. Consider some of the actions of his Honor the Mayor up to date. May I bring to the attention of the Council the abolition of the constables? Then what happened? There was a right-about-face. In so far as the Veterans' Bureau was concerned, there was another right-about-face. You and I have heard the expression time and time again, "Was he with me?" If he was not, he was out. Well, I wonder if that is not another right-about-face. I say to his Honor the Mayor, I, as a public servant elected by the people of my respective district, won out because that was the people's wish. At the beginning of the year I asked only for a simple and honest answer to all my requests, which I believe each one of us is entitled to. On anything that concerns our district, we ought to be informed before any action takes place. That is another right-about-face. I say and I have said it time and time again, are we a body of men governing the City of Boston, or are we just men who will only exercise power when we feel that the shoe is on the other foot, and then we cry out? Where is our power? Our power is just as much as we make it. In six years, going on seven years, in the City Council I have seen many right-about-faces. I speak from the bottom of my heart, Mr. President, and that is the reason why I am taking this opportunity today to say that I do not know and I do not feel anyone is properly informed in so far as this budget is concerned. I do not subscribe to the view that no cutting should be done from the budget. Neither do I subscribe to the view that any city employee should be given the air without a hearing. I say to his Honor the Mayor if he feels a department like the Municipal Employment Bureau should be abolished, then why doesn't he say so? I feel that the Body of the City Council would give it proper action. I say to the Mayor if there is anyone in the city employ who is not doing his work, then let him bring it up. But I do not subscribe to the view that I have to be a "yes" man. I never was and never will be. I will try to give the best that is in me. I hope that when my decision comes, I make it in an honest way in order that I may feel that I am satisfied in so far as my decision is concerned. So I say, Mr. President, we ought to give some respect to the committee which has studied this budget. We also should give some respect to ourselves to carry out our intent. A motion was made last week, I believe it was by the councilor from Ward 9 (Coun. Sullivan), to bring in the budget this week so that we might be able to leave it on the table so that it would give us a full week for each one of us to scrutinize the budget and then make our report and bring it in. Is this giving us the opportunity to which we are entitled, Mr. President? I ask you, let us be fair with ourselves and fair with the administration. Let us do things above board. I do not see any reason why this budget should be rushed today. Was it not the intent of this Council last week on the motion I have just stated that was made last week, was it the intent of the Council to bring it in this week and then lay it on the table so that each one of us should have an opportunity to have more information or get some information, those of us who did not receive the information they are entitled to? For those reasons, therefore, I move at this time, Mr. President, that we table the report of the Budget Committee for one week. I feel that we should table it. Rather, may I make this motion, to table the full budget as presented to us for one week?

President KELLY—The motion is out of order.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, may I ask you a point of information?

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. RUSSO—Will you state why I am out of order?

President KELLY—There is a motion of Councilor Fish before the Body to substitute the Mayor's budget for the report of the Appropriations Committee. After that motion is disposed of, then any other motion is in order.

Coun. RUSSO—Does not the motion to table the budget precede any other motion?

President KELLY—The motion to table is in order, but a motion to table for one week is not in order.

Coun. RUSSO—I move, then, that we table.

President KELLY—What?

Coun. RUSSO—That we table the budget as reported by the committee.

President KELLY—That is in order, councilor. Councilor Russo moves that we table the report.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, a point of order.

President KELLY—State your point of order.

Coun. FISH—Do I understand the motion is to table the order submitted by me?

President KELLY—No. It would be the report of the budget as reported by the committee.

Coun. FISH—Then what happens to my order, as a point of information?

President KELLY—Your motion is lost if this motion on the table passes. There is no debate on this motion. The question is on tabling the budget as reported by the Appropriations Committee. There is no debate.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

President KELLY—State your point of order.

Coun. KINSELLA—The point of order is that a short while ago the Chair ruled that substitution was always in order. Now the Chair has ruled that if Councilor Russo's motion to table prevails, it kills the substitution which is a separate instrument. I think the Chair is in error.

President KELLY—When the Chair made the first decision, there was no motion to table introduced.

Coun. KINSELLA—Another point of information. Will the clerk state through you, Mr. President, that the substitution is a different instrument and in that it varies from the committee's report it must be treated separately?

President KELLY—The Chair will state that the motion to lay on the table takes precedence over a motion to substitute.

Coun. KINSELLA—A point of information. We are discussing a regularly substituted bill on appropriations. I claim it is a separate instrument from the committee's report although dealing with the same subject. It should be treated separately. That is my point of order. Table the committee's report if you will, and then the next order of business should be the substitution.

President KELLY—The Chair will rule that the motion to lay on the table is in order at this time.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President.

President KELLY—There is no debate, councilor.

Coun. FISH—A point of information. If this ruling is in order and the report lies on the table for a week, what happens to the order I introduced, which we have been discussing?

President KELLY—Your motion is defeated. If this motion is carried, and the question is on laying on the table, there is no debate.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President.

President KELLY—There is no debate.

Coun. CHASE—A point of information.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. CHASE—I would like to know, Mr. President, the reasons for the various increases in the Public Works Department as against last year's budget.

President KELLY—The Chair will rule that out because there is no debate on this motion.

Coun. RUSSO—A point of information.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. RUSSO—If the motion to lay on the table prevails, doesn't Councilor Fish's motion become subject to re-examination when the budget comes before us?

President KELLY—Not at this meeting. Next week it could be.

Coun. RUSSO—When the budget comes before us?

President KELLY—That is right. We are voting on the question to lay on the table the budget submitted by the committee.

Coun. FISH—A point of information.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. FISH—It may be that I am not too well versed in parliamentary procedure. I have a motion in here. Somebody puts in a motion to lay on the table some other motion that has gone by. Yet if that is passed and laid on the table, my motion goes out the window according to the ruling?

President KELLY—That is right.

Coun. FISH—I think my motion should still be in order. I am going to appeal from the decision of the Chair on the ground that if the committee report lays on the table, my motions should then come up and be acted upon. I appeal from the decision of the Chair.

President KELLY—The Chair will rule it is parliamentary law that a motion to lay on the table precedes.

Coun. FISH—I would like to have read to me that particular passage in the parliamentary law.

President KELLY—The clerk will read the law. The CLERK—"When a question is under debate, the following motions only shall be entertained and shall have precedence in the order in which they stand arranged: 1, to adjourn. 2, to lay on the table. 3, the previous question. 4, to close debate at a specified time. 5, to postpone to a day certain. 6, to commit. 7, to amend. 8, to postpone indefinitely."

President KELLY—The motion to lay on the table is the second motion in parliamentary law.

Coun. FISH—I understand. I did not know the second motion or the fourth motion in parliamentary law applied to a group of motions. I thought it applied to one. As a point of information, the report of the committee is submitted. I submitted a substitute. They are closely related. Anything that lays one on the table, lays both of them on it?

President KELLY—The Chair will state this whole matter can clear itself up after we take the vote on the first motion to lay on the table. If that motion is defeated, this motion is in order.

Coun. FISH—If it is not defeated.

President KELLY—Then it is not in order. The question comes on laying the report of the Appropriations Committee on the budget on the table.

A vote was taken, and President KELLY declared that the motion was not carried. Coun. RUSSO doubted the vote.

President KELLY—Councilor Russo doubts the vote and having sufficient support, he asks for a roll call.

The roll was called, and the motion was lost, yeas 6, nays 11:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Cantwell, Chase, Keenan, Russo, Sullivan—6.

Nays—Coun. Bryan, Coffey, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Scannell—11.

President KELLY—The motion is lost. The question now comes on Councilor Fish's motion to substitute the Mayor's budget for the report of the Appropriations Committee.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Can't we make a breakdown on some of the figures from the chairman of the Appropriations Committee? What was allowed for 1946 and what the department expended for the years 1945, 1944, 1943, 1942? Also, on the removal of garbage and ashes, on the contractual end of it, was there an increase and how much? It was brought to my attention that the present district now being handled by the city is going to be let out on contracts. I do not know whether the members of the committee were informed accordingly but I know in my district three-quarters of it is going to be affected by this. I know I do not want any contracts or taking over the other three-quarters of my district, if the men who are going to work for them are like those who are working for the present contractors who have the other fourth of my district. The people of my district, throughout the upper section of Roxbury, have to stand the vile and filthy talk of the workers, the dirty, filthy language they use to the residents out there. You make complaints to the Public Works Department but it does not mean anything. This is our opportunity now because of the new arrangement. They are going to be leasing out and it is going to affect quite a few councilors, practically the majority of the councilors, at some time or other. The new and old councilors have complained about the garbage and ash removal in their district, and especially more so where the contractors have had those areas. We have never had any complaints relative to city employees giving housewives and property owners any abuse or using vile language. I want to know how much of an increase in the Sanitary Department there is on ashes and garbage removal, if there is any.

President KELLY—Councilor McCormack, can you give us that information for Councilor Sullivan?

Coun. McCORMACK—$100,000 increase. We were not informed they were going to be turned over to the contractors.

Coun. SULLIVAN—What is the amount allowed for 1946?

Coun. McCORMACK—$1,320,000.

Coun. SULLIVAN—What was the department's estimate?

Coun. McCORMACK—$1,450,000.

Coun. SULLIVAN—What was the expenditure in 1945?

Coun. McCORMACK—$1,233,122.80.

Coun. SULLIVAN—1944?

Coun. McCORMACK—$1,096,280.

Coun. SULLIVAN—1943?

Coun. McCORMACK—We did not have any.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Is that under contractual services?

Coun. McCORMACK—That is B-19.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Have you any information relative to the increase of $1,096,000 to $1,320,000?

Coun. McCORMACK—Mr. President, we were informed it was to increase salaries and step rates, and because they had this new law we passed on vacations, they would need that money.

Coun. SULLIVAN—This is contractual services. I am referring to B-19.

Coun. McCORMACK—He told us there was an increase in the rates, a 10 per cent increase.

Coun. SULLIVAN—That 10 per cent represented over $100,000.

Coun. McCORMACK—I will read this if you want. Councilor Bayley asked the commissioner, "How much is done by your force in the removal of waste?" He answered, "One-fifth by our forces, and four-fifths by contract."

"Coun. BAYLEY—You haven't the men to do it yourself?"

"Mr. CURLEY—No, we haven't."

"Coun. BAYLEY—Don't you think if you had sufficient men you could do a cheaper job than by contract?"

"Mr. CURLEY—No, we couldn't possibly."

"Coun. BAYLEY—At a less price?"

"Mr. CURLEY—No, we couldn't."

"Coun. BAYLEY—Haven't they done so in Cambridge?"

"Mr. CURLEY—Must we go into that?"

Coun. SULLIVAN—That is not much of an answer there, Mr. President, relative to the increase in 1946 against the year 1945. There is almost $100,000 difference, $90,000 difference.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, a point of information. I want to offer an explanation to Councilor Sullivan if he would care to have it.

President KELLY—Will Councilor Sullivan yield for an explanation?

Coun. SULLIVAN—Yes.

Coun. FISH—As I understand, from a year ago last January, during the year there were two increases granted to all the help who were employed by the contractors. This increase was ordered by the union. I think that would take up practically pretty nearly the $100,000. If there is any more, it is possible that the contractors have to pay more for their help and for the maintenance of equipment, for oils and gasoline, and repairs, and so forth. They would submit their bids accordingly. I understand these contractors were brought in and, believe it or not, I do not know whether it is true or not, many of them did not care whether they had contracts. They would not take the contracts for the prices they took them at the year previous for the work I have just stated.

President KELLY—Does that answer your question?

Coun. SULLIVAN—I think the councilor ought to give me reasons why contractors cannot bid because certain contractors have a monopoly on the dumps in the city. One contract could not be renewed over three months at the beginning of the year because of the fact that the contractor did not know whether he would have a dump after three months.

Coun. FISH—If I may make myself clear to Councilor Sullivan and the rest of the councilors, I do not stand up in defence of the contractors. I am merely trying to offer an explanation of why there was an increase over 1945. I do not stand up and defend them.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I thank you for your information. I wonder if the chairman of the committee could inform us on the Sanitary Service, Document 40, increase in the Sanitary Service, $460,456.53. How does that come about? I am reading from Document 40. I assume it is the entire Sanitary Department, a net increase of $46,000.

Coun. FISH—On the entire department?

Coun. SULLIVAN—I assume so. It is the Sanitary Service. I assume it would be the entire department.

Coun. FISH—I would have to see the items. There is an increase in permanent employees, $1,450,000 to $1,594,000. I understand one of the reasons for the increase in personal service was the increase of 50 cents per day given to many who were working for $5 to $5.50. There are a great many step rates that go along in the department. There is a provision made in here for quite a number of those in the service now who will be returning very soon, we hope. They estimated that. They may have carried it for nine months or so. That is an item they did not carry last year. They did not anticipate they would be returning from service. This year they have carried that item. That may be small. No matter what you estimate, it will be more than the exact amount. You cannot tell when they will be back, March or May. They have averaged the amount they figure is necessary. Between the 50 cents increase, the step rates and that provision, I think that takes up the A-1 item. While on teams and trucks, there was an increase from $6,000 to $15,000, I think the explanation of that is our own equipment is going down and getting worse. They have to do certain work for public health and safety. They have to get outside aid. There are other incidentals as you go through the budget. Naturally, because of the times, other things enter into it and bring the total up. That is something you will find in every department as you go through the budget. I think I have hit on the really big item that goes to make up the increase.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Will you inform me, on the 10 per cent increase, was that in effect last year?

Coun. FISH—Ten per cent. The contractors have to pay their help. Is that what you mean?

Coun. SULLIVAN—Yes.

Coun. FISH—I am certain it was not effective last year. I am quite certain when I say they got this increase last year, they got one in the spring after we passed the budget, and another later in the fall. Whether the whole thing amounted to 10 per cent on the two increases or not, I do not know. I could not say.

President KELLY—The Chair wants to make an explanation. I do not want to interrupt you. There is a cloud in my mind. I want to clear up something so we will get along and know what we are acting on. We have before us a motion of Councilor Fish to substitute the Mayor's budget for the report of the Appropriations Committee. If we can take a vote on that, then we will know what we are really acting on. The Chair would suggest we take a vote on that motion and know where we are at.

Coun. CHASE—Is it wise to vote on that question before we ascertain what the budget is?

President KELLY—You can ask all the questions in between the vote and Councilor Fish's motion, if Councilor Fish's motion prevails. Then the question is on the passage of the budget. Then you can ask all the questions you desire. I would like to clear it up so we will know where we are at. If Councilor Sullivan does not object, I will put Councilor Fish's motion to the Body.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Councilor Fish's motion is to accept the budget as presented by his Honor the Mayor?

President KELLY—That is right.

Coun. SULLIVAN—It is going to look foolish on somebody's part if we vote for that and start asking for a cut.

President KELLY—Councilor Fish's motion is to substitute the Mayor's budget for the report of the Appropriations Committee. If that is accepted, you have the budget before the entire Body. You can amend it or do anything you see fit. Councilor Fish's motion is a substitute of the Mayor's budget for the report of the Appropriations Committee.

Coun. KINSELLA—Do we understand that you want us to vote by following the procedure of accepting the committee's report after which the Chair will put the question on passing it, whereupon these questions will then be injected?

President KELLY—Those questions will be in order.

Coun. KINSELLA—Prior to the vote?

President KELLY—That is right, councilor.

Coun. FISH—As I understand it, I thought I made a motion to pass the budget as submitted by the Mayor.

President KELLY—The first motion is to substitute the Mayor's budget for the report of the Appropriations Committee.

Coun. FISH—And then submit the Mayor's budget?

President KELLY—That is right. The Chair will put the question to the Body.

Coun. RUSSO—If we accept this, we are accepting the minority report?

President KELLY—That is practically what you are doing, councilor. Debate is in order. You have the budget before you.

Coun. CHASE—Don't you think it would be wiser to ascertain the reasons why we should substitute the budget measure of the Mayor for the report of the committee, the majority report of the committee? We ought to have reasons why we substitute the Mayor's budget.

President KELLY—We can discuss that question right now, discussion is in order after we take care of the motion.

Coun. CHASE—I have in mind various items. Practically every department has a large increase over 1945. I would like to know why there are increases.

President KELLY—Those questions can be asked after this motion is disposed of. Those questions will then be in order.

Coun. CHASE—To pass on the question of the substitution first is improper. We may show ample reason why we should not substitute.

President KELLY—It is up to the members to decide.

Coun. CHASE—Having that thought in mind, I would like to ask a question of some member of the committee through you.

Coun. FISH—A point of order. Councilor Sullivan has the floor.

President KELLY—The Chair will rule that Councilor Sullivan has the floor when I suggested putting Councilor Fish's motion to substitute. Now I ask Councilor Sullivan if he has any objection.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I have no objection. President KELLY—The question before the Body is on Councilor Fish's motion to substitute the Mayor's budget for the report of the Appropriations Committee.

Coun. CHASE—Talking on the motion.

Coun. SCANNELL—Didn't we just start to take a vote on the substitution?

President KELLY—The vote was not completed. I am trying to simplify the matter.

Coun. CHASE—I do not think it is proper for the Council to substitute the Mayor's budget for the report of the Committee on Appropriations. I think in view of the fact there has been an increase in practically every department over that of 1945, we should ascertain the reasons for the increases, before we act on the motion to substitute. For example, I note, Mr. President, that the Mayor's Office last year had appropriations in the amount of $85,980. This year the appropriation for the Mayor's Office is $124,984. In other words, there is an increase of $39,004 over last year. I know, Mr. President, the Public Works Department has a tremendous increase over that of last year. Practically every single departmental budget has a large increase. It is only in two instances that there are decreases on the Mayor's budget, to my knowledge, namely, the Art Department has a decrease of $30, and the City Planning Board, which has a decrease of $42, as against last year's budget. The Fire Department has an increase of over half a million dollars over last year's budget. The Election Department has an increase of $78,000 over last year's budget. The Building Department has an increase of $55,000 over last year's budget. Now, sir, there are many large increases here. I think the Council should be informed of the reason for these increases. The total increase is an amount of over $5,000,000 as against last year's budget. I am concerned with that increase of $5,000,000. I would like to know what that $5,000,000 is being spent for, before we act on the motion to substitute the Mayor's budget for the report of the Committee on Appropriations.

Coun. COFFEY—I am not going to repeat that the shoe is on the other foot. They want to know where things are, why they are happening. None of these questions were asked last year. I am going to do something I have never done in 11 years in public office. I am only going to do it for one reason. I am not hurting anybody. I am the first one to object to any debate being shut off, the first one to object to anyone being shut off, on what they have to say. In this case we are not hurting anybody. After we act on this motion, we can continue to ask questions and continue to attack the budget item by item if we see fit. I am going to move the previous question.

President KELLY—Councilor Coffey moves the previous question. No debate.

The motion for the previous question was passed.

President KELLY—The question now is on Councilor Fish's motion to substitute the Mayor's budget orders for the orders reported by the Appropriations Committee. No debate.

The motion was declared carried.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman arise?

Coun. BAYLEY—I doubt the vote and ask for a roll call.

President KELLY—Wait until I get it straight.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Are you standing with Councilor Bayley?

Coun. COOK—I am, but also I want to clear something up. I have a point of information.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. COOK—Under our rules, I still think we are allowed a standing vote, when a vote is doubted.

President KELLY—The gentleman asked for a roll call.

Coun. COOK—You cannot ask for a roll call until you get a standing vote. You can ask for a standing vote first.

President KELLY—The gentleman prefers a roll call. Does the councilor join in asking for a roll call?

Coun. COOK—Yes.

President KELLY—All right. Call the roll. The question you are voting on is Councilor Fish's motion to substitute the Mayor's budget orders for the report of the committee.

The motion to substitute was carried, yeas 12, nays 5:

Yeas—Coun. Bryan, Coffey, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Sullivan—12.

Nays—Coun. Bayley, Cantwell, Chase, Cook, Muchnick—5.

President KELLY—Now the question comes on the passage of the Mayor's budget.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I move $100,000 be cut out of the snow removal item inasmuch as we have $300,000 now left in there. There is a statement by the Public Works Commissioner that he does not require more than $200,000. He has told the members of the committee that in no way will his department be endangered if the cut is made. The normal amount spent in November and December is $100,000. If we cut this $100,000 out, we still have $200,000 left, double the amount normally necessary in December. I move $100,000 be cut from the snow removal item.

The question came on the motion to cut $100,000 from the snow removal item, and the motion was declared lost.

Coun. BAYLEY—I doubt the vote and ask for a roll call.

The motion was lost, yeas 7, nays 12:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Cantwell, Chase, Cook, Muchnick, Russo, Sullivan—7.

Nays—Coun. Bryan, Coffey, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Scannell—12.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I move on the report of your Appropriations Committee that $90,000 be cut from the Park Department budget, $20,000 of this to come from the Cemetery Fund, of which the income is normally $20,000, and which up until this year or last has been used to decrease A-1 item of employees. We have been told it will be done as it has in the past. Twenty thousand dollars will come from the general Cemetery Fund.

Coun. KINSELLA—I would like to ask through you if Councilor Bayley will yield for one question.

President KELLY—Will you yield?

Coun. BAYLEY—I will yield.

Coun. KINSELLA—I would like to ask the councilor if he will not lump all his objections together? It is obvious a negative vote will prevail, and it will eliminate roll calls. If I may have permission to explain to Councilor Bayley, it is obvious that those who supported Councilor Fish's substitute are going to oppose all these cuts. Why keep us here until eight o'clock with a lot of senseless roll call votes where one can establish our opinion now?

President KELLY—Will you answer Councilor Kinsella?

Coun. BAYLEY—I intend to make two or three separate motions on what I consider fairly strong proposals, as I did last year. If I feel that way, after three or four votes, I will lump my remaining objections, including my 25 proposed cuts in a final vote to see if I am not successful in getting the councilors to regard the interest of the taxpayers.

Coun. MUCHNICK—It is my intention to vote with him on some cuts, and against him on others such as the Municipal Employment Bureau, if he brings that up for a cut. Under those circumstances, from my point of view, I do not see how they can be lumped.

President KELLY—That is up to Councilor Bayley. We are getting along all right.

Coun. FISH—A point of information. I do not see why his objection holds ground at all. If he has any cuts to offer, let him offer them. Do not let Councilor Bayley offer them.

President KELLY—Your point is well taken. Councilor Bayley, you still have the floor. You may continue.

Coun. BAYLEY—That is a fine suggestion. The councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick) is a better speaker and orator than I am, and can present his case much better.

Coun. MUCHNICK—It is hard to disagree!

Coun. BAYLEY—Twenty thousand dollars may be taken from the general Cemetery Fund as it has been in other years. By transferring $40,000 from two funds, we thereby will cut $40,000 from the A-1 item and reduce the tax rate. The other $50,000 in accordance with the committee's suggestion come from the general Park and Playgrounds Improvements. That can be cut from the amount allowed, $90,000, from the Park Department budget.

President KELLY—Councilor Bayley moves $90,000 be cut from the Park Department budget.

Coun. SCANNELL—Speaking on the motion, it is easy to see the traditions that have prevailed, to see a gentleman from the Back Bay section of Boston come into the City Council and ask to take $50,000 or $90,000 away from the children of this city. It is easy to see that he comes from the Back Bay section. There was one man who often said they have a lot of dogs there, but they have no children. We are interested in the children of this city. We are interested in the taxpayers of the city. We are interested to see that these children are taken care of. I am interested to see that in some of my districts in South Boston that the parks and playgrounds are kept up. He talks about economy, about cutting the budget. Why the people of the city have recently spent one million dollars on parks and playgrounds. He is asking that a small sum of $50,000 be cut. Let us not be kidding ourselves. Every man in this Council is interested in the taxpayers of Boston, interested to see that we build up the city. To take an item such as $50,000 off the parks and playgrounds where some day you might be able to buy the children of this city a few baseballs or things, I think is outrageous! I do not think we should vote for it.

Coun. RUSSO—I suppose perhaps in what I might have to say I might be out of order. I am going to say it, anyway.

President KELLY—If you are out of order, I will rule you out.

Coun. RUSSO—If you call me out of order, I will take my seat quietly.

President KELLY—Go ahead.

Coun. RUSSO—That is the reason I have made that motion to lay this on the table. That was the intent of the Council at the last meeting when we voted to have the report of the committee submitted to us today, in order for us to take a week's time to go into it. It has been brought to my attention that even the members of the committee, Mr. President, have only received just this afternoon the final stenographic report. They have not had a chance to study it. In such a case as this, to cut $50,000 from the Park Department for playground improvements, I am certainly against that. I will not see a dime cut off so far as the improvement of playgrounds for our children is concerned. I will not subscribe to taking $20,000 from the Perpetual Care in the Cemetery Department. I will not subscribe to the other. That is something you cannot decide without giving quite a bit of thought to. I would like to see the report to find out the answers and the questions that were put forth. That is what we are trying to do. We think if we are voting against it, we are voting against the Mayor. If we vote for it, we are voting for the Mayor. For God's sake, let us do the right thing. Give us a week's time in order to think it over. Let us read the report of the stenographer. In that way we can vote intelligently.

Coun. COOK—I do not like to take up too much time. Everybody wants to say something. I will read from the Finance Commission's statement, page 19:

"The City Council demonstrated a desire to disregard the objective of the administrative method and treat this function of appropriation lightly. When the budget is presented by the executive and is unsound in many parts as it has been, it is the purpose of the legislative processes to correct the defects within the Council. This has not been done. The budget receives no proper study by the City Council, particularly, as is well known."

May I point out to the members of the Council, the committee sat for about two weeks. They asked questions of each witness. It is in these typewritten reports. One of the councilors asked why there were different increases. Generally the different increases were due to two main things, one, the increase of employees due to people coming back from the service, and also to the step-rate increase. Secondly, it is due to the large item of increased expense in the price of labor and materials from the contractors and the materials not from contractors. The different appropriation cuts the committee recommended in every instance except the Municipal Employment Bureau do not affect the cutting of any employees. On the snow removal, the Public Works Commissioner knew about it and felt no grievance. He did not argue strenuously against the cut. I would like to remind the President and the members of the Council, during the executive committee meeting of the Appropriation Committee, most of the time the Budget Commissioner was there and in the cuts we recommended he voiced no very strenuous objection. The parks and playgrounds cut was on a special appropriation that we found was supposed to be for what is known as permanent improvements, not repairs, but permanent improvements. Upon questioning, I think the general consensus of the majority of the committee was that the Park Department would not get the material or the labor for any permanent improvements they had in mind. So the committee felt that we should rather wait until such a year that we could guarantee that if they wanted it, it could be put in. In the cut we have in the Sewer Division of $100,000, they wanted a certain amount. I forget the increase. It was to clean the sewers. They practically admitted to us they could not do the job this year. If we cut them $100,000, it would not affect them. They would not spend it. In the cut in the Police Department, $40,000, it was pointed out that the Police Department needed that for the purchase of uniforms. They agreed that they probably could not buy the uniforms this year. So if you ask the committee or some of the councilors who have questions about certain decreases or increases as submitted, you will find out that we went through that thoroughly and the committee in its wisdom thought that so far as the tax rate for this year is concerned, we could take a chance and cut out certain parts of the submitted budget they would not spend, anyway, unless we want to leave a kiddy in there to be transferred. If we save only 25 cents on the dollar for the taxpayers, we are doing something. I do not think anybody will be hurt with the exception of the Municipal Employment Bureau. I stand ready to change my vote on that. I think you ought to give consideration to the committee's study. If you have questions, you had two weeks to ask any of the committee members. I still would not like to see this go into a long harangue. I submit some of the cuts are justified. No argument of hurting the children or discharging employees really applies.

President KELLY—The question comes on Councilor Bayley's motion to cut the Park Department $90,000 from the budget.

The motion to cut $90,000 from the appropriation for the Park Department was declared lost.

Coun. BAYLEY—I doubt the vote.

President KELLY—You are moving something?

Coun. BAYLEY—I prefer to doubt the vote.

President KELLY—Councillor Bayley doubts the previous vote. Does any other member join with him?

(As no other member joined with Coun. Bayley, there was no roll call, and the motion was lost.)

Coun. BAYLEY—I move that the Police Department budget be cut $40,000 on the ground that in the matter of getting supplies for uniforms, the Police Commissioner definitely said he did not know if he could get uniforms nor not. That is on page 315. He said they were working on it at Washington through the National Police Chiefs' Association. He did not believe they could get enough material. I move that $40,000 be cut from that item. I think it is supplies.

Coun. FISH—On the other hand, the Commissioner stated that they expected to put back to work all former policemen who had gone in the service. At the present time, to bring it up to the quota they deem necessary for public safety, there would be added veterans put on. If these veterans are going on, you will have to get them uniforms from some place. They have to have the money to buy them.

The motion to cut $40,000 from the Police Department appropriation was lost.

Coun. BAYLEY—I move that $105,000 be cut from the Public Works Department, Sewer Division, on the ground that as the councillor from Ward 12 (Coun. Cook) said, the commissioner said he did not think he could do all that work and it was doubtful if the money could be spent.

Coun. FISH—On the other hand, he said he might be able. I asked him if we are going to build more houses for the G. I.'s, if we will have to build streets. They are going to get service. Will anybody dare say they will not get materials and service some place?

The motion to cut $105,000 from the appropriation of the Sewer Division was declared lost.

Coun. BAYLEY doubted the vote, and as only one other member joined with him there was no roll call.

Coun. BAYLEY—I move the Assessing Department be cut $3,000. This is under the item of B-29 which was put in according to the commissioner for an emergency not used in the past. Originally he asked $28,000. Twenty-five thousand dollars was transferred to another A item. There was $3,000 in there for an emergency. He was asked, "Do you think it is necessary?" He said, "No, we asked for it. I could go without it." I move that $3,000 be taken from the B part of the Assessing Department.

Coun. COFFEY—I rise to a point of information.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. COFFEY—Didn't the gentleman from Ward 5 (Coun. Bayley) make a promise if the first three motions did not go through, he would introduce the rest of them in blanket form?

President KELLY—I have been waiting for him to live up to the promise.

Coun. BAYLEY—One more, and I will be through.

The motion to cut $3,000 from the Assessing Department appropriation was lost.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I now make a recommendation.

Coun. COFFEY—It is out of order. I do not know what a recommendation has to do with City Council business.

President KELLY—The point is well taken.

Coun. BAYLEY—I will make a motion on this matter. I moved this before, but was unable to get support, Mr. President. In the budget submitted, under department 32, the Mayor's Office Expenses, the expenditure under A-1 was $68,000 in 1944. It was $76,000 in 1945.

Coun. COOK—A point of order. I would like to hear a motion and not a speech.

President KELLY—Will you confine your remarks to the motion, please?

Coun. BAYLEY—I am building up the motion. I move, Mr. President, that the sum of $10,000 be cut from A-1 and the item of $10,000 allowed for temporary employees also be cut. It is a total of $20,000. The expenses in 1944 were $68,000. In 1945, a campaign year when the then Acting Mayor was running for the office of Mayor, it was $76,000. We were asked to allow $88,000. Mr. President, according to the lists submitted to us here, in the Mayor's Office there is a quota of twenty-six employees. There are twenty in his regular office, and six in the Licensing Department. Two years ago when the present Governor Tobin was Mayor, there were seventeen people only as employees in the Mayor's Office. There were three in the Licensing Division. At that time it consisted of a chief, a clerk, a clerk-stenographer. Now, we have six, a chief, an assistant chief, a secretary, a clerk, and two clerk-stenographers. I have not been able to find any reason why the Licensing Division or the Mayor's Office must be doubled nor have I found out why the Mayor's Office itself should have twenty employees in it when two years ago it required fourteen, and only fourteen last year. We have new positions created, one new assistant secretary, one new clerk, a new stenographer, one new clerk-stenographer, and two clerk-stenographers, a total of six new employees, an increase of nine employees in the past two years. Under A-2, when I asked City Auditor Fox about that, why he had $10,000 for temporary employees, which had never before been in the budget, he said it was an emergency. He could not tell how many employees he would need. I said, "I hope you can get by with the permanent ones." I said, "It is not a campaign year. What is it for?" He was not able to give me a satisfactory answer. Economy begins at home. How can we expect to budget fairly? Why is there a five-million dollar increase? There is a $20,000 unnecessary increase. Economy begins at home. If the Mayor wants economy let him put it in his own budget. I move $20,000 be cut out of the Mayor's Office.

Coun. KINSELLA—Talking on the motion, I was wondering if Councillor Bayley would answer a question.

President KELLY—Would you answer a question?

Coun. BAYLEY—I shall try to.

President KELLY—State your question.

Coun. KINSELLA—The question is this. Some time last summer the then Acting Mayor of Boston wanted an appropriation of $5,000 for additional clerical help in his office. This is part of the question. We summoned down the Budget Commissioner, and in Councillor Bayley's presence he said, "This being election year, you have to give the Mayor what he wants." The question now is, did Councillor Bayley then oppose that $5,000 which he knew was being used as part of the city money for a private campaign?

Coun. MUCHNICK—A point of information. President KELLY—To be fair to Councillor Bayley, will you permit him to answer Councillor Kinsella's question? We will move on from there.

Coun. BAYLEY—I do not recall the precise occasion.

President KELLY—Now, Councillor Muchnick.

Coun. MUCHNICK—A point of information. This would involve also a ruling from the City Clerk. A short time ago, as I understand it, a motion prevailed substituting the Mayor's budget for the report of the Appropriations Committee. Wasn't that in effect denying the report of the Appropriations Committee and in turn passing the Mayor's budget?

President KELLY—Yes, it did deny the report of the Appropriations Committee, but it did not pass the Mayor's budget because we are talking on the Mayor's budget now. It is before the Council.

Coun. MUCHNICK—That is the part I would like to develop. We accepted instead of the report of the committee the Mayor's budget. I do not happen to have agreed with that acceptance. The majority of you gentlemen did accept the Mayor's budget as the budget, and it seems to me that vote passed it.

President KELLY—The majority of the Body accepted the substitution of the Mayor's budget in preference to the report of the Appropriations Committee. You have the Mayor's budget substituted in place of the report of the Appropriations Committee, but the Mayor's budget is yet to be passed upon.

Coun. MUCHNICK—What effect does that have?

President KELLY—Now we are discussing it on the floor. Now we have brought the thing to a head. These motions are brought to one head. Councillor Bayley, you have a motion to cut the Mayor's Office $20,000.

Coun. RUSSO—On the motion, I wish to state I am not in favor of the motion because I believe that the Mayor has been in office only three months. I feel we ought to give him enough, whatever he wants, in order to carry out the duties of his office. However, I wish to bring this to the attention of the Mayor. I hope those he does employ within his own office and his own jurisdiction will be men who are competent and men who are courteous not only to those in the City Hall but to the public in general.

Coun. FISH—The Mayor's Office over the past four or five years has been like a Sleepy Hollow, you might say. The war was going on. There were not many people coming in and making demands and requests. They are busy now with the war over. They are back again. The office down there is a hubbub. They need the help. If they did not, I would not vote for it. They need it down there today.

Coun. LANE—In answer to a query of mine made to one of the members of the Appropriations Committee, there was discussion regarding the additional appropriation being requested by his Honor for both the Licensing Division and the Mayor's Office. So that I would be well qualified to speak honestly here today, I conducted an independent survey or investigation; and found out from qualified persons that the expanding services resulting from the service of those two departments, the additional burden being placed upon them, justified the addition. I feel it should be voted for.

Coun. HURLEY—Speaking on the motion, I suggest that with every request the councillor from the Back Bay (Coun. Bayley) makes in regard to cutting the budget, if every member would offer no opposition, only on the vote, we would proceed faster.

President KELLY—That is a very expeditious suggestion.

The motion to cut $20,000 from the appropriation for Mayor's Office Expenses was declared lost.

Coun. BAYLEY asked for a standing vote, and the motion was lost.

Coun. BAYLEY—I realize that further attempts to cut the budget in the interest of the taxpayers is useless. I will make a few remarks on those I would cut, and run over them briefly and as quickly as I can.

President KELLY—Wait a minute. We want everything in order. I have been very patient with you. You said you would make three or four motions. I have been waiting for you to live up to your word. You have made seven or eight.

Coun. HURLEY—He never does.

President KELLY—Are you going to make this in the form of a motion.

Coun. BAYLEY—This is the final one.

Coun. RUSSO—A point of parliamentary procedure. Is there anything within our rules that forbids an individual councillor from taking the floor as many times as he desires, as long as he is within the subject matter before us?

President KELLY—Wait a minute. Councillor Bayley said he would make three or four motions, and he promised the members of the Council if he was defeated in three or four motions he would not make any more. Councillor Bayley has made seven or eight motions. He is making another motion. He says he is going to put all his cuts in one motion. I have been very fair with him.

Coun. RUSSO—I feel that if the councillor has any more suggestions or motions to make, he should bring them out one by one. Not only Councillor Bayley but the other councillors may have something to talk about on other items. I have not had a chance to look into the questions and answers. Therefore, I have nothing to suggest and nothing to iron out as far as the budget is concerned. At least if there are others who have any knowledge, I would like to hear from them.

President KELLY—I have allowed you to make a speech on your point of order. I might say every councillor is allowed to take the floor while I am president of the Council. The man made a statement he would make three or four recommendations.

Coun. BAYLEY—I said I would finish up with a blanket motion.

President KELLY—Speak as long as you want.

Coun. BAYLEY—It is getting late. I cannot do a great deal. On the Public Works Department and others, the blue book just arrived today. The last blue book arrived at two o'clock. I did not have time to read it. I got up at six o'clock to make sure I read the other five blue books. I think the cuts are reasonable.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Will the councillor yield for a question?

President KELLY—Will you yield?

Coun. BAYLEY—Yes.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Would you have more opportunity to examine this, councillor, if we adjourned for a week?

Coun. BAYLEY—I would like to have another week in which to study the last remaining blue book.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Make it a motion.

President KELLY—Continue, Councillor Bayley.

Coun. BAYLEY—I would like another week. I will not make the motion.

President KELLY—Go ahead.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. CHASE—To move this budget be laid on the table for a week.

President KELLY—The motion is in order. Councillor Chase moves to lay it on the table for a week.

Coun. FISH—A point of information. Councillor Bayley is in the middle of a speech on reductions. While he is in the middle of that speech, can a man get up and move to lay on the table?

Coun. BAYLEY—I yield the floor.

President KELLY—Just a minute. He had not made a motion at the time. Councillor Chase's motion is in order.

Coun. FISH—Is Councillor Bayley through asking for reductions?

President KELLY—You have yielded the floor, Councillor?

Coun. BAYLEY—With pleasure I yield to Councillor Chase.

President KELLY—The motion is to lay on the table for one week.

Coun. COFFEY—To expedite things, I am going to ask for a roll call.

Coun. BAYLEY—I will join him.

The roll was called on the motion to lay on the table for a week, and the motion was lost, yeas 7, nays 13:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Cantwell, Carey, Chase, Muchnick, Russo, Sullivan—7.

Nays—Coun. Bryan, Coffey, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Scannell—13.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I would like to ask a few more questions of the chairman of the committee relative to snow. What was requested and what was allowed in 1946 and 1945 and so on back?

President KELLY—Councillor McCormack.

Coun. FISH—Is it all right if I answer?

Coun. SULLIVAN—Yes.

Coun. FISH—Snow removal, allowed in 1945, $1,000,000. They expended $928,049.59. In 1946 the present budget allowed for snow $500,000.

Coun. SULLIVAN—That was requested, $500,000.

Coun. FISH—It was allowed by the Mayor. They requested $800,000.

Coun. SULLIVAN—What was the 1945 expenditure? $928,000?

Coun. FISH—That is right.

Coun. SULLIVAN—What was 1944?

Coun. FISH—$219,000, practically, $220,000.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, going back to what I stated before relative to the garbage and the ash collections which are out on contract, apparently the money is in the budget some place. That is one reason why I voted in regard to the matter of waiting for one week. A week ago yesterday, when I made the motion, ordinarily we would adjourn for two weeks. Yesterday was a holiday. When I made my motion to adjourn until the 19th which was today, it was to give them a chance to make their report today so that we would have until next Monday to study it, those who were not members of the committee.

Coun. COOK—I would like to know on what subject the councilor is talking. There is no motion before the Council.

Coun. SULLIVAN—The budget is before us.

Coun. COOK—There is no motion passing or rejecting.

President KELLY—The budget is before the Council. He is talking on the budget.

Coun. COOK—It is my understanding we ought to have a motion to pass it or a motion on some cut. We have had something on snow removal.

President KELLY—The question now is the passage of the budget.

Coun. COOK—I have not heard such a motion.

President KELLY—The Chair put that motion quite awhile ago, if you did not hear him. The question the councilor is talking on is the passage of the budget.

Coun. SULLIVAN—That was the reason why a week ago yesterday I made a motion to adjourn until today. That is something we ordinarily do not do. We adjourned for two weeks. I believe that was the understanding that everyone had, that we could get the report of the committee today and act upon it next Monday. We would have at least six days in which to study it. It seems to be the feeling today that we ought to rush it through regardless. On what I was stating before, the ashes and garbage contracts which the city forces are presently doing, are going out to contractors. The money is hidden in here some place. The department asked for $364,900 for motor vehicles. It was not allowed one red penny. On gasoline, oil and grease they asked for $37,000 and are going to receive $30,000. It is an increase of $4,000 more than what they received last year. What are they going to use it on when they cannot purchase trucks? You know the trucks are dilapidated. They are laid up in the various yards. Where are they going to spend the money? Another item that has been increased is the disposal of waste. Fifty-four thousand dollars increase over last year. What is that $54,000 for? Why leave a substantial sum of $300,000 in the snow removal? I feel that money at a later date will be transferred so as to let the other areas that are presently being done by the city out to the contractors. Once this budget gets by us, we will not have anything to say. We will have to take it. The constituents of my district should not have to take this abuse. I am going to recommend now or make a motion—if they want it, they can come back later and ask for a transfer; I hope the members will go along with me—I am going to move now that the snow removal item be cut by $300,000.

Coun. FISH—It can be cut $300,000, and then there will not be a cent. That is about the amount that is for snow removal for the balance of the entire year. If they cut the $300,000 there will not be a cent. If you get snow next November or December, whether they have to spend $100,000 or $1,000,000, they will get the money, they will have to, for public safety.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Councilor Fish answered the question before I asked it.

The motion to cut the appropriation for snow removal by $300,000 was declared lost.

Coun. SULLIVAN doubted the vote and asked for a standing vote. The motion was lost on a standing vote. Coun. MUCHNICK asked for a roll call, and the motion was lost, yeas 4, nays 14:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Carey, Chase, Sullivan—4.
Nays—Coun. Bryan, Cantwell, Coffey, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Muchnick, Russo—14.

Coun. BRYAN—I make a motion we take a recess for half an hour.

Coun. KINSELLA—A point of information. I was going to ask if Councilor Bayley has submitted all his objections. I was out of the chamber for five minutes and lost track of the proceedings.

Coun. BAYLEY—I have my blanket objection to make. It will take four or five minutes, and that is all.

Coun. BRYAN—I will withdraw my motion.

Coun. BAYLEY—Continuing where I left off, I list the following items I would like to see left off the budget. In the Registry of Deeds, C-9, $1,000 for typewriter supplies approved by the Committee on Appropriations. Superior Criminal Court, B-34, $5,000. C-9, cut $1,000. B-28, $1,500. In the Municipal Court of Boston, $1,000 in supplies. Under Courthouse Custodian, B-39, $5,000. Under Jail, B-39, repairs, cut $2,500. C-7, Jail, $2,000. Penal Institutions, House of Correction, F-7, cut $5,000. E-1, $3,000. Special Appropriation for industries, $5,000 for them. Twelve thousand dollars was asked for. Budget B-4, for conventions, $200. Mayor's Office, in addition to the one which has been defeated, on B-39, eliminate $500. I would cut the Auditing Department $592 on the C-13 item. Traffic Department, C-17, cut $5,000. Building Department, $10,000. Unsafe Buildings, $25,000. Planning Board, $1,000 for expert. I think the committee was unanimous in cutting this out at one time. Under the Health Department I would cut B-28, $1,500. I would like to cut out without any special amount the A-1 item, the appointment of a man to hold the position of Deputy Health Commissioner, or place a man to do the job there at $2,800. The new man will get $4,500. I would like to cut that out, if there is any way. Treasury Department, $8,000. Public Buildings, $25,000. Institutions, $15,000. Special Appropriation for Long Island Repairs, $35,000. Mr. President, I had some other cuts. I have been allowed a limited time. I have not studied the last of the blue books. I move the items I outlined be eliminated from the budget.

Coun. CHASE—Talking on the councilor's recommendation for further cuts, I would like to ask the Committee on Appropriations to explain the increase of $25,000 over the Contingent Fund last year.

President KELLY—Is this one of the suggested cuts of Councilor Bayley?

Coun. CHASE—I may want to recommend amendments to his recommendations, including larger cuts. I would like an explanation of why the Mayor's Office feels that he needs $300,000 this year as against last year's appropriation of $275,000?

Coun. FISH—I have explained many things for the committee today. I do not say I am going to be called upon to explain many more. Let this particular gentleman study the figures, study the budget and make his recommendations, and put them in order. He can submit them as an order for a reduction. I am willing to explain matters. But they can go too far in their little antagonism and go beyond the patience of a man. If he wants a cut, let him order a cut. He has had this in the Council for two months. Why the sudden interest here?

President KELLY—The point is well taken. Just a minute, please. I want to be fair with everybody. Councilor Bayley has made a motion for various cuts. The proper thing to do is to let the councilors vote on it. If you have further recommendations, you make them in the form of a motion, and we will vote on yours.

Coun. CHASE—I doubt if it would be legal for me to move cutting an item which already had been passed on.

President KELLY—We have not passed on any item until the whole budget is voted on.

Coun. CHASE—If you are going to act on Councilor Bayley's motion, and I submit a motion which has been defeated, I do not think it is possible.

President KELLY—You can still have the motion put to a vote. You may have a different motion from Councilor Bayley.

Coun. CHASE—May I ask the clerk if that is possible, through you?

President KELLY—If you intend to make amendments to Councilor Bayley's motion, you are in order.

Coun. CHASE—That is what I want to do, and that is what I thought it was.

President KELLY—That is what I ruled.

Coun. CHASE—That is just the reason I say I desire more information. The gentleman from Dorchester (Coun. Fish) said his patience has become exhausted. I have not done anything today which should exhaust anyone's patience. I have merely asked for information from a committee which you appointed to give just that very information to the Council and the members who desire it. Now, sir, in the 1945 annual budget the Contingent Fund was $275,000. This year there is an increase of $25,000. I would like to know why. I assume a simple answer could be given to me by some member of the Committee on Appropriations.

President KELLY—We will see if we can get the answer for you. Councilor McCormack or Councilor Fish.

Coun. FISH—My patience is nearly exhausted with anybody who has the budget two months. Anybody can look at the budget. It is not a secret vote of the committee. I would like to ask the councilor why he did not make these recommendations back in 1939 when he was chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

Coun. CHASE—The point is out of order. I would be glad to answer the question.

President KELLY—I am not going to allow cross questioning here.

Coun. CHASE—If I remember, Councilors Shattuck, Wilson and Chase submitted certain recommendations in 1939, and the Council outvoted us on them.

Coun. FISH—Will the councilor answer another question?

President KELLY—Will you yield?

Coun. CHASE—I will be happy to.

Coun. FISH—Would you like to see cut out all the increases that your favorite for Mayor gave last year which were carried in this budget when you were in the Mayor's Office, increases that went into that, which Mayor Curley has to carry this year? Do you approve them or do you want them cut?

Coun. CHASE—There is such a thing as drawing a red herring. The Councilor is endeavoring to do just that. I repeat that the Mayor's budget for 1946 is $5,000,000 more than the budget under Mayor Kerrigan. I am curious to know on many items why do we have to have substantial increases? I assumed you appointed a Committee on Appropriations to give us just that very information in order that we can act intelligently on this budget. Mr. President, I have not been answered.

President KELLY—May I answer you now. When I appointed the Committee on Appropriations, the seven members held public hearings on the budget. Every man on the Council could have come to the budget hearings. They were invited to be present. They could have asked individual questions of each and every department head. You would have received information on every dollar if you attended the hearings.

Coun. CHASE—The gentleman from the Back Bay (Coun. Bayley), who happens to be a member of the Committee on Appropriations, informed me that this budget was acted on by the Committee on Appropriations in about five days.

Coun. FISH—I would like to ask that member of the committee if that is true, that we gave five days' study to this budget?

Coun. BAYLEY—in reply I would say we held hearings for five full days. Then we considered the budget at another hearing which took three or four hours. We considered it briefly this morning. I would say it was five or six hours besides the five full days' hearings.

Coun. FISH—On February 28 the Budget started. March 1, 6, 7, and March 8—those were the hearings on the departments. After that we went into executive session, as he stated; probably we sat for another full day, a total of a full day. It was just about three times as much as was done last year on the budget.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I still desire to get the information on the question I asked. Why is there an increase of $25,000 on the Contingent Fund? I would like to know what the Mayor contemplates with the additional $25,000 as against last year's budget.

President KELLY—Can the chairman of the committee inform the councilor in answer to the question?

Coun. MCCORMACK—I cannot. I do not know what the increase is.

President KELLY—Will Councilor Chase proceed?

Coun. CHASE—With that in mind, I move that $25,000 be struck from the budget, reduced from the budget on the Contingent Fund.

President KELLY—Let me understand you. You are making that as an amendment to Councilor Bayley's motion?

Coun. CHASE—That is right.

Coun. FISH—On the motion, I wonder if he would give his reasons, if he knows it is sound or is not?

Coun. CHASE—My patience with the Committee on Appropriations is exhausted. I have asked them continuously for answers to my questions. Why is there an increase of $25,000?

Coun. BAYLEY—I have that information. I remember it.

President KELLY—All right, Councilor Bayley, for the Committee on Appropriations.

Coun. BAYLEY—I believe there was an appropriation of $275,000 in the Contingent Fund last year. Two hundred ninety-five thousand dollars was spent. The allowance this year was $300,000. That is the reason for it, in view of what was spent last year.

President KELLY—Does that answer the question? Let us get in order here. Councilor Chase, do you press your motion?

Coun. CHASE—I move that $25,000 be cut from the Contingent Fund of the budget.

President KELLY—Councilor Bayley has made a motion that certain cuts be made. Councilor Chase has made an amendment to the motion.

Coun. KINSELLA—A point of information. For enlightenment, so that we can understand when we vote on this matter, we are voting on the group of Councilor Bayley's individual recommendations and the individual recommendation of Councilor Chase?

President KELLY—We are voting on the amendment of Councilor Chase.

The motion to cut $25,000 from the appropriation for Contingent Fund was lost.

Coun. KINSELLA—A point of information. We were under the impression that Councilor Bayley's group was in order since it preceded the councilor's amendment.

President KELLY—He is making amendments to Councilor Bayley's motion. As long as he makes amendments, he is in order.

Coun. CHASE—I would like to ask the committee or any member of the Committee on Appropriations, sir, why the budget on Conventions and Entertainment of Distinguished Guests has jumped from the 1945 figure of $25,000 to $44,750?

President KELLY—Will the gentlemen from the committee answer that?

Coun. FISH—We have more distinguished guests since the war is over.

Coun. CHASE—I move that $19,750 be cut from the budget on the special appropriation for Conventions and Entertainment of Distinguished Guests.

Coun. KINSELLA—I would like to raise a point of order. Since Councilor Chase did not amend anything that Councilor Bayley offered, they are out of order until we have disposed of Councilor Bayley's recommendations. Then we will listen to Councilor Chase as a separate individual on his items.

President KELLY—Wait a minute. Councilor Chase is moving to amend Councilor Bayley's motion. Amendments are in order.

The motion to cut $19,750 from the appropriation for Conventions and Entertainment of Distinguished Guests was lost.

Coun. BRYAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Chase has the floor.

Coun. CHASE—I would like to ask the Committee on Appropriations, sir, why there was an increase of $39,000 in the 1946 budget as against the 1945 budget for Public Celebrations.

President KELLY—I must impose upon you, councilor. Can you inform the councilor what it is for?

Coun. FISH—Can I hear the question?

President KELLY—It is on the appropriation for Public Celebrations.

Coun. FISH—The increase for Public Celebrations. When it comes to a vote, I will let the Council answer that for themselves.

President KELLY—Does that answer your question, Councilor Chase? Proceed.

Coun. CHASE—In view of the fact there is no justification offered by the Committee on Appropriations as to why that particular item should stand, I move that the budget for Public Celebrations be reduced $39,025.

The motion to reduce the appropriation for Public Celebrations by $39,025 was lost.

Coun. BAYLEY—A point of information. Would it be possible to put my cuts to a vote and then Councilor Chase can proceed?

President KELLY—If Councilor Chase will yield.

Coun. CHASE—I will yield.

Coun. RUSSO—A point of information. May I know what are your cuts? I do not know what the cuts are.

President KELLY—Councilor Bayley recited miscellaneous cuts in the various departments.

Coun. RUSSO—If a member was not present, he has not the information.

President KELLY—You shall have all the information you desire. If you desire Councilor Bayley to once again read them, I will have him do so.

Coun. RUSSO—Will you have the stenographer read what the cuts are?

Coun. MUCHNICK—From beginning to end?

President KELLY—Councilor Russo, do you press your motion?

Coun. RUSSO—I would not know what I would be voting for unless I know what the cuts are.

President KELLY—I would not want you to do that. Councilor Russo has the floor. Councilor Bayley, will you kindly read your recommendations again, please?

Coun. BAYLEY—May I ask the stenographer to read them?

President KELLY—I have the figures here. Will you allow me?

Coun. RUSSO—With pleasure.

President KELLY—Superior Criminal Court, $5,000. Registry of Deeds, $1,000. Jail, $3,500. House of Correction, $8,000. Conventions, $200. Mayor's Office, $500. Building Department, $35,000. Planning Board, $1,000. Treasury Department, $8,000. Public Buildings, $25,000. Long Island Repairs, $35,000. Those are the series of recommendations.

Coun. BAYLEY—There were a few more, another half dozen.

Coun. RUSSO—I would like to take them one by one and vote for them on some of them and against others. I would not be able to vote intelligently on all of them at one time.

President KELLY—Councilor Bayley put them in as a whole and made the motion. He was giving them all as a whole.

Coun. RUSSO—Some I would be in favor of and some I would not.

President KELLY—The question is on Councilor Bayley's motion.

Coun. RUSSO—Does my amendment prevail? I wish to have them voted on one at a time.

President KELLY—If I do not go forward with Councilor Bayley's motion, Councilor Chase automatically has the floor again.

Coun. RUSSO—I yield to Councilor Chase. I would like them one by one.

President KELLY—Let us employ parliamentary procedure. Councilor Chase has the floor.

Coun. MUCHNICK—A point of order. Councilor Russo having yielded to Councilor Chase, and Councilor Chase having yielded to Councilor Bayley, the only order of business right now is a vote on Councilor Bayley's motion.

President KELLY—The point is well taken. The question now is on Councilor Bayley's motion.

Coun. RUSSO—If that is the case, I make the amendment that we proceed to take them one by one. I do not think it is fair that ten items should be voted at one time. That is not being fair with the Council.

Coun. MUCHNICK—The order of business now, as I understand, is the taking of a vote and not the making of a motion for amendments or making speeches, or anything else. I urge you, sir, to proceed to a vote in order that we may expedite our business.

President KELLY—The point is well taken. The question is on Councilor Bayley's motion. The Chair has made its ruling.

Coun. RUSSO—A point of parliamentary procedure.

President KELLY—State your point of parliamentary procedure.

Coun. RUSSO—Did I understand the motion made by Councilor Bayley was that all these items he has stated should be voted at one time?

President KELLY—That is right.

Coun. RUSSO—Is my amendment in order to take them one by one?

President KELLY—It would be, if you had the right of the floor. The only reason you have the right to the floor was because Councilor Chase yielded.

Coun. RUSSO—I have the floor, whether the councilor yielded or the President recognized me.

President KELLY—But not for the purpose of making a motion. Councilor Chase yielded the floor to you.

Coun. RUSSO—There was no reservation, to my knowledge.

President KELLY—The Chair has made its ruling. You have the right to appeal the question.

Coun. RUSSO—I do not wish to press an appeal.

Coun. MUCHNICK—The order of business now is not the making of speeches or having a debate. You have ordered a vote on a certain motion. That is the only thing we have before us. I would like to see the business carried on in orderly fashion.

President KELLY—The point is well taken. The question before us now is Councilor Bayley's group of motions to cut the budget.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I move that we now adjourn.

President KELLY—That is in order.

The motion to adjourn was declared lost.

Coun. RUSSO—I doubt the vote and ask for a roll call. The roll was called, and the motion to adjourn was lost, yeas 4, nays 15:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Chase, Russo, Sullivan—4. Nays—Coun. Bryan, Cantwell, Coffey, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Muchnick, Moriarty, Scannell—15.

President KELLY—The question before us is Councilor Bayley's various cuts.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I now move we lay all these cuts on the table for a week.

Coun. MUCHNICK—A point of order. A motion to adjourn may be always in order during any kind of business. But the only business we had was the taking of a vote, and no other motion would be in order at that time.

President KELLY—The Chair is going to rule that motion to lay on the table is in order, and he is going to put it to a vote.

The motion to lay on the table was declared not carried.

Coun. RUSSO—I doubt the vote and ask for a roll call. Being joined by only one member, the request for a roll call was lost.

President KELLY—The question comes on Councilor Bayley's motion on the various cuts.

Coun. BAYLEY's motion for various cuts in the budget was declared not carried.

Coun. BAYLEY doubted the vote and asked for a roll call. The roll was called, and the motion for various cuts was lost, yeas 2, nays 16:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Chase—2.

Nays—Coun. Bryan, Cantwell, Coffey, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Kelly, Keenan, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Muchnick, Scannell, Sullivan—16.

Coun. BRYAN—I move we take a recess for one hour.

Coun. BAYLEY—A point of order. Councilor Chase had the floor and then he yielded to me to have my question put as a motion. It has been defeated, and Councilor Chase has the floor. You cannot recognize any other councilor.

President KELLY—Your point of order is well taken.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I will ask the Chair to reverse itself. When a gentleman yields, he yields for all time and does not reclaim the floor.

President KELLY—I will have to disagree. He yielded for the purpose of permitting a motion.

Coun. KINSELLA—A man yields for all time under the established parliamentary procedure.

Coun. MUCHNICK—A point of order. As I recall Councilor Chase was making a motion to amend Councilor Bayley's general motion. If I am correct in that, the motion itself having been defeated, no motion to amend would be of any importance, and therefore he does not get the floor back.

President KELLY—Councilor Chase still has the floor and can make a motion to reduce as well as an amendment.

Coun. CHASE—I would like to ask the Committee on Appropriations, sir, the reason why the 1946 budget under Public Buildings has increased $187,900 as against the 1945 budget.

Coun. FISH—A point of information. Am I right in stating that all orders have to be reduced to writing?

President KELLY—If the Chair so desires. It is a rule that can be insisted upon. Only the Chair can decide that. I want to be fair. The Chair would kindly ask Councilor Chase, if you could combine all your motions in one order like Councilor Bayley did?

Coun. CHASE—Bear in mind you delegated me as a committee to visit the Mayor's office and find out the reasons why we did not get a breakdown from him. I reported to his Honor the Mayor who said, "What the hell—get the information from the Committee on Appropriations." That is what I am trying to do, get the necessary information from the Committee on Appropriations.

President KELLY—I gave you the courtesy of appointing you as chairman of a committee to call on his Honor the Mayor. I am trying to be fair. It is late and we are getting hungry. I am asking you, I have not made a ruling, to submit all your orders in writing, which I can do. I am asking you to make your motions altogether, like Councilor Bayley did. I think it is a fair request.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Chase has the floor.

Coun. RUSSO—Will the gentleman yield?

President KELLY—Will Councilor Chase yield?

Coun. CHASE—Not at this time.

Coun. RUSSO—For a question?

Coun. CHASE—Yes, for a question.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I would like to ask through you if my colleague on my right has had sufficient time to put his motion in writing.

President KELLY—The Chair has not requested he put his motion in writing. It is up to the Chair. The Chair asked him several times to put his motion like Councilor Bayley did.

Coun. CHASE—I again would like to ask the question of the Committee on Appropriations through you, why there is $187,900 increase as against the 1945 budget. That is in the Public Buildings Department.

President KELLY—Council McCormack, can you answer that question? Perhaps Councilor Fish can help the chairman.

Coun. FISH—I was not very attentive.

Coun. CHASE—The Building Department increase listed here is $187,900 over last year's budget. Last year's budget was $513,000. This year it is $701,000. Public Buildings.

Coun. FISH—Because of the State Legislature who have passed certain basic laws pertaining to the City of Boston. They enforced them themselves last year. They have thrown that on the city this year. It means added inspectors for public safety. The work must be done.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I make a motion to adjourn. It is fairly obvious we will reach no particular conclusion without a lot of wrangling. It is unfair to many members of the committee that the minority should keep us here.

Coun. COFFEY—The gentleman made a motion and is out of order.

The motion to adjourn was declared lost. Councilor RUSSO doubted the vote and asked for a roll call. The motion to adjourn was lost, yeas 4, nays 14:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Chase, Muchnick, Russo—4.

Nays—Coun. Bryan, Cantwell, Coffey, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Scannell, Sullivan—14. Coun. SULLIVAN moved to take a recess for an hour.

President KELLY—In regard to the motion to take a recess, I have been informed by the City Messenger that there is not any place where he feels we can get food to eat at this hour.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I move a recess of one hour.

President KELLY—That motion is not in order. Councilor Chase has the floor.

Coun. CHASE—May I ask the Committee on Appropriations how much of this $187,000 is going toward additional inspectors as against last year, under the Public Buildings?

President KELLY—Councilor Fish.

Coun. FISH—What is the question?

Coun. CHASE—How much of this $187,000 under Public Buildings is to be spent for additional inspectors as against last year's budget?

Coun. FISH—If it is not spent for that it will be for step-rates, salary increases. Last year the regular normal cost of living which we are all subject to has been increased by 10 to 15 per cent in private life.

Coun. CHASE—May I ask the Committee on Appropriations what proportion of this $187,900 will be spent on contracts in public buildings such as painting and repairing and other renovation of public buildings?

Coun. FISH—I have not the Public Buildings Department budget before me. I did not think the gentleman would get so suddenly interested in the budget. I could give him the information if I had the sheets before me. But I will say this: when I did give the answer, I think the answer would be satisfactory to the Council. I am only going to ask the Council to believe that statement.

President KELLY—I would like to make a statement. I am informed by the City Messenger that he has contacted every place available and they have not any eating facilities. We will proceed with the meeting.

Coun. CHASE—May I ask the Committee on Appropriations, can they furnish me any additional information on this $187,000 increase in Public Buildings?

President KELLY—Councilor Fish, have you any additional information?

Coun. FISH—I have additional information and facts for every one of the questions. He is getting a bit antagonistic. I refuse to answer him. Let him put his motions in and let the Council vote.

President KELLY—The Committee on Appropriations refuses to answer any more questions.

Coun. FISH—I, as a member—

Coun. RUSSO—Will the councilor yield so that I can ask a question? I would like to ask a question through you of the councilor from Dorchester (Coun. Fish) in view of his last remark. I would like to get information, too, after Councilor Chase gets through. I am wondering if Councilor Fish in his last statement is not going against himself because here with the majority of the Committee on Appropriations report killed, a minority committee report was accepted. Therefore, it does not mean to say we have to take the report of the committee for granted that everything is O.K. I feel if Councilor Fish can give the information, let him give it. If he cannot, let him say so. That is the reason why, Mr. President, I have been pressing for the adjournment for one week so we can think this over and go into the stenographic record, so that we can come in next week and give an honest opinion and have our objections written. I do not know for one what the report of the committee would have been, Mr. President.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. FISH—Does he care for an answer?

President KELLY—Will Councilor Chase yield to Councilor Fish?

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, no. The gentleman from the Back Bay (Coun. Bayley) graciously gave me some information. On this $187,000 increase, apparently $100,000 is an increase. Mr. President, under the item general repairs on public buildings there is an increase over the 1945 budget, and $25,000 allowed for temporary and additional employees. I move, sir, that $100,000 be cut from the Public Buildings budget.

Coun. FISH—If my memory serves me correctly, it may be the appropriation of $100,000 is over the first of the year. His colleague in the Back Bay (Coun. Bayley) merely gives the full figures. There was $50,000 transferred during the year from the recreation fund.

The motion to reduce the appropriation for Public Buildings Department by $100,000 was lost.

Coun. COFFEY—The only reason I arise now is the fact that Councilor Chase asked a large number of questions here this afternoon. I would like to remind all the members present and myself at the same time that in 1945 he did not ask one question on the budget.

President KELLY—Nobody else is asking for the floor, Councilor Chase.

Coun. CHASE—I might say that this annual budget for the year 1946 is over $5,000,000 over last year's budget. I might say, Mr. President, his Honor the Mayor requested the Massachusetts State Legislature for a $10,000,000 loan in order to reduce taxes. His Honor the Mayor on a number of occasions publicly said that the City of Boston is in dire straits. He needs assistance from the state government. Well, sir, I am one of those who believe that we should make every effort to help ourselves first before asking the state government to give us relief. With that in mind—

Coun. SCANNELL—Will the gentleman yield for a question?

Coun. CHASE—No. With that in mind, this $5,000,000 increase as against the 1945 budget has been proposed, and there has been no adequate explanation given to me today or at any time since the budget was submitted. Why should we have a $5,000,000 increase? There are a good many items here, sir. They necessitate an explanation. I requested a broken-down, itemized budget two weeks ago. At that time I was over-ruled. Last week the Council very graciously consented to my order and requested that his Honor the Mayor furnish the City Council, the entire membership, with a broken-down, itemized budget. Today I am on the floor, sir, after my conference with the Mayor who told me that I could get the information from the Committee on Appropriations. I am still trying to get the information. Lacking the information, I am recommending these cuts. I would like to ask the Committee on Appropriations, sir, why there has been a $6,000 increase in the Law Department as against 1945.

Coun. KINSELLA—A point of order. Since it is obvious that the gentleman from Ward 4 (Coun. Chase) is carrying on a filibuster out of a sense of personal pique and since he failed to avail himself of the public hearings on the budget here, these dilatory tactics are not in good taste. The gentleman appears to be going through the appropriations, picking anything that appears to be an increase. He is down now as low as $6,000. I think a point of order would be well taken.

President KELLY—Councilor Chase has the right to make motions to reduce the budget.

Coun. KINSELLA—In view of the fact that Councilor Chase has every legal right to raise objections to every item in the budget, hasn't the Chair the legal responsibility to interpret the reason for the objection? I have said that the tactics are deliberately dilatory and out of a sense of personal pique. There is an obligation on the Chair to respect the members of the Council who are being kept here for no valid reason.

President KELLY—The Chair has no right to take a man's personal rights from him as long as no one else wants the floor. Councilor Chase has the right to talk. At the end of a motion I shall recognize the councilor. After every motion Councilor Chase has made, any councilor who has a motion can be recognized.

Coun. FISH—Councilor Chase can ask as many questions of the Committee on Appropriations as he cares. I for one am not going to answer. If this was new to him, these figures, if he did not have the opportunity to look them over before in the hearings and familiarize himself with them as the other councilors have, I might see some sense in this. I do not see any reason why he should continue. I would have answered him every question in reasonable time. I think, and I repeat, he has been a little too antagonistic, for what reason I do not know. But that never crept up on him in other years.

Coun. CHASE—May I say to the gentleman, through you, sir, that during the years 1938 and 1939 when I was a committee member on Appropriations and in 1939, chairman, I was prepared with the other committee members, including Judge Wilson and Henry Shattuck, to give any Council member all necessary information of that sort. That is why we have a Committee on Appropriations, sir. That is why you have a Committee on Ways and Means at the State House. May I repeat, in 1939 it took me three months to go through the job. At that time it was only $42,000,000. Today we have a budget close to $50,000,000 or over, an increase of $5,000,000 in 1946. The taxpayers are crying about the increase in taxes. I think the Council should do something about it, should endeavor to do something about it. That is why we are having cries for Plan E and other reforms in Boston. We in the Council are too apt to follow the Mayor blindly. This budget is $5,000,000 over the Kerrigan budget. I am asking for explanations on that $5,000,000 increase.

Coun. COOK—May I answer the gentleman?

President KELLY—Will you yield?

Coun. CHASE—I will not yield.

Coun. COOK—I thought he asked a question.

President KELLY—In general terms he did. Do you yield?

Coun. CHASE—I do not yield, sir.

Coun. COOK—A point of order. Do I understand that the councilor can make a long-winded speech and ask questions and not wait for an answer?

President KELLY—I guess he can ask questions and try to get the answers.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, in view of the fact that his Honor the Mayor failed to cooperate with me and in view of the fact that the Committee on Appropriations apparently is not versed in such knowledge on the budget, I move, sir, that a blanket reduction of two and a half million dollars be made on the 1946 budget.

The motion to reduce the budget by two and one half million dollars was declared lost.

Coun. BAYLEY—I doubt the vote.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, the councilor from Ward 4 (Coun. Chase) stated here he wanted to save something to help the taxpayers. He said in his remarks we have to go and ask for state assistance. The Mayor of Boston does not want any assistance from the state. He wants to borrow $10,000,000 to help lower the tax rate. I do not think the Republican Legislature will give it to him.

Coun. BAYLEY—I hope not.

Coun. SCANNELL—If these gentlemen from Wards 4 and 5 are interested in the taxpayers, they had better go up to the State House and lobby with the Republican legislators if they want to reduce the tax. We do not want any assistance from the state. We want the right to borrow and cut the tax rate. He says we want assistance from the state. We do not. We want to borrow the money to help cut the tax rate.

Coun. COOK—I move the previous question.

The previous question was ordered.

President KELLY—The question comes on the passing of the budget.

Coun. KINSELLA—I move that the vote be by roll call.

The question came on the passage of the budget as submitted in Coun. Fish's substitute order, and the budget was passed, yeas 15, nays 2.

Yeas—Coun. Bryan, Cantwell, Coffey, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Scannell, Sullivan—15.

Nays—Coun. Bayley, Chase—2.

Later in the session Coun. RUSSO said: Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. RUSSO—A point of information. Has the budget passed?

President KELLY—It has, and the bell rang for three or four minutes.

Coun. RUSSO—I happened to be out. I could not be here. I would like to have unanimous consent to be recorded.

President KELLY—In the affirmative or negative?

Coun. RUSSO—Must I state so before I vote?

President KELLY—Of course.

Coun. RUSSO asked unanimous consent to be recorded in favor of passage of the budget, and the budget was passed, yeas 16, nays 2.

AIDS PAID TO ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS FROM INCOME TAX REVENUES.

Only since 1919 has the state participated widely in the financing of elementary and secondary schools. Before that time state aid to municipalities was less than 2 per cent of the total cost of education, and was granted only to a limited group of towns. In 1919, however, provision was made for payments from the proceeds of the newly enacted personal income tax to every city and town which met certain teacher salary and qualification standards. Except for slight modifications the program is still the same as that established in 1919 (chapter 363, Acts of 1919). Every city and town is paid a fixed amount for every teacher employed (primary reimbursements), and some municipalities with low valuation per pupil receive additional grants (supplementary reimbursements).

STATE FISCAL AIDS TO CITIES AND TOWNS FOR PUBLIC ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS.

State aid to municipalities for public elementary and secondary education amounts annually in Massachusetts to six million dollars. This aid constitutes almost one tenth of the total annual expenditures for public education, and thus it is of considerable importance to municipal finance. The funds come from three sources: Over four fifths from income tax proceeds, the remainder from the General Fund and from the income of the Massachusetts School Fund. This aid for elementary and secondary education is in seven forms, which can be classified under three headings: General aid to every city and town, aid to equalize the financial burden of education among the cities and towns, and special aid to small towns. In all cases the aid is in the form of reimbursement, i. e., partly based on expenditures by the municipality.

PORT STORAGE IMPORT ORDER.

The Office of Defense Transportation, in an amendment to its general order No. 16, has instituted a permit system for acceptance by railroads or truckers of shipments of domestic or import freight to specified port areas for storage for the account of a government agency in a public warehouse in such area. Growing volume of imports, due to decline in ship losses, the O. D. T. said, was putting added strain on port storage facilities thus making the institution of a permit system necessary.

The application for the port storage forwarding permit the order says, must be made by the government agency for whose account the freight is to be stored, in accordance with procedures prescribed by the director of the division of storage of the O. D. T., in an administrative order.

The following port areas were named in the order: Baltimore, Bellingham, Wash., Boston, Camden, Everett, Wash., Galveston, Houston, Jacksonville, Los Angeles, Mobile, New Orleans, Newport News, New York, Norfolk, Oakland, Cal., Olympia, Wash., Pensacola, Philadelphia, Portland Ore., Portsmouth, Va., Richmond, Cal., San Francisco, Savannah, Seattle, Tacoma, Tampa, Vancouver.

Merchant vessels built in the United States in 1943 numbered 1,896 with a total deadweight tonnage of 19,239,626, according to a report by Admiral Land, chairman of the Maritime Commission and administrator of the War Shipping Administration. Of these 208, aggregating 2,044,238 deadweight tons, were completed in December. Of the 1943 production, 1,238 vessels were Liberty ships; 70 C-1 cargo ships, 53 C-2 cargo ships; 39 C-3 cargo ships; 5 C-4 cargo ships; 167 tankers; 28 coastal tankers; 57 Liberty tankers; 3 passenger-cargo vessels; 33 coastal cargo ships, including two concrete ships; 16 ore carriers; 27 concrete barges; 46 seagoing tugs; 114 military types, not transports; 53 special types and a considerable number of smaller types, including tugs, barges, etc. Late in 1943, Admiral Land said 2,900 ships were under control of the War Shipping Administration, operated by some 76 general agents of the W. S. A.

SQUARE DEAL IN ASSESSMENTS FOR TAXATION.

Many cities are finding it greatly to their advantage to have their tax valuations periodically overhauled. The first criterion of any assessment is equity. For every citizen who wants through "pull" or however else to get off easy, there are twenty, nay a hundred who want a fair and square deal for all.

The appraisal of city real estate is a highly technical affair.

Few things are more important than the equalization of assessments. Particularly in cities that are cramped by an inflexible debt or tax limit, an honest, full value assessment may be a great boon. Without the slightest raise in the tax rate a substantially greater tax yield may be had.

TRANSPORTATION STATISTICS.

A recent analysis of surface transportation by John A. Beeler, transit engineer and consultant, reveals noteworthy performance by trolley coaches in comparison to other public transportation vehicles. Comparison of results of operation of trolley coaches with those of street cars on four different lines in as many different cities, shows, according to Beeler, that trolley coaches are eight times as good.

The analysis shows that in 1942, 25,449 street cars carried 5,171,000,000 revenue passengers; 3,363 trolley coaches carried 765,000,000; and 42,458 motor coaches carried 5,427,000,000 revenue passengers; the average fare being 6.66 cents, 6.89 cents and 6.72 cents, respectively; and the revenues being $344,600,000, $52,700,000 and $365,000,000, respectively. Average revenue passengers per street car was 203,191; per trolley coach 227,475; and per motor coach 127,820.

Total number of services, 170,516; dairies inspected, 126; inspections of country creameries, 1,054; bacteriological examinations at country creameries, 8,931; milk cans inspected, 108,371; milk cans condemned, 6,443; milk temperature tests, 47,804; inspections of licensed dealers, 2,563; inspections of establishments for pasteurization of milk, 1,414; inspections of ice cream plants, 98; investigation of high counts, 149; laboratory inspections, 6; abatement notices served on licensed dealers, 719; dairies excluded because of poor quality milk, 945; dairies readmitted after compliance with requirements, 822.

SEA-GOING DRY DOCKS.

Bigger than a battleship! That's the rough proportion of some of the new Navy floating dry docks which can be towed or self-propelled at speeds sufficient to follow our fleet into action. Indeed, the dry docks are large enough to handle even a mighty battleship when it needs repairs or overhauling.

Never before have floating dry docks been built so large, taken so far. Never before have docks of this character been so mobile. The Navy has spent upward of $300,000,000 on their floating dry dock program and it has been a shrewd investment. Now, instead of damaged warships traveling the thousands of miles from the theaters of action to an American coastal dry dock for repairs, it can be placed in a floating dry dock on the spot in a matter of hours, thus saving precious time.

AIRCRAFT MATERIAL PRODUCTION 41 PER CENT OF TOTAL AUTOMOTIVE WAR JOB.

Behind current attempts to knock Germany out of the war by means of airpower, stands the teamwork of the automotive industry, which has done much to get bombers in the air over Hitler's domain.

The motor industry, starting as a scrub team in the aircraft field a year before Pearl Harbor has since attained major league stature.

In the two years since December 7, 1941, the industry's output of bombers and fighters has constantly soared. Measured in dollar volume, it rose from $400,000,000 annual rate of production on the day of the Jap's assault to $4,300,000,000 on the second anniversary of that "day of infamy."

The same upward spiral took place in deliveries of all forms of war materials by automotive plants. When Pearl Harbor news struck, they had reached an annual production rate of $1,777,000,000 for all forms of military requirements: aircraft, military vehicles, tanks, guns, ammunition, marine engines and other equipment. Today the annual production rate tops the $10,000,000,000 mark.

BOND SALES.

Labor, farm, school and women's groups were responsible for 1943's greatest sale of E Bonds.

Using the person to person approach, Payroll Savings added two million workers—bringing its ranks to 26.4 million. Payroll Savings allotments jumped from 355 millions in December, 1942, to 445 millions in October, 1943. Thousands of labor-management War Bond committees were organized.

Farm committees worked intensively through personal solicitation and farmers' organizations to convert a large share of the largest farm income in history into War Bonds.

In the schools, the nation's youngest group of Bond buyers is rapidly enlisting every pupil in America.

MAYOR CURLEY CALLS FOR APPROPRIATION OF $1,500,000 FOR PURCHASE OF NEEDED EQUIPMENT FOR CITY DEPARTMENTS TO REPLACE OBSOLETE AND WORN-OUT MATERIAL — FIRE-FIGHTING APPARATUS MOST PRESSING NEED, HE TELLS CITY COUNCIL — ALSO FOR PUBLIC WORKS, PARK AND OTHER DEPARTMENTS — ALL TO BE ACQUIRED AS SOON AS AVAILABLE FROM MANUFACTURERS.

The following letter was on April 1 forwarded to the Boston City Council by Mayor James M. Curley:

To the City Council,

GENTLEMEN,—I am submitting herewith a loan order for departmental equipment in the sum of $1,500,000, for the purchase of much needed equipment in many of the city departments.

In preparation of the budget for 1946, requests for permanent equipment included in the budget estimates amounted to over $1,100,000, and as the purchase of this permanent equipment could be provided for by bond issue, I disallowed such items in the budget, hoping thereby to save an increase in the tax rate.

As you well know, departmental equipment is in a most deplorable condition, due largely to the failure of the city to purchase such necessary equipment as was available, and further, in the last couple of years, the nonavailability of such equipment, due to wartime restrictions.

The most pressing problem concerns the lack of proper fire-fighting equipment, which, in my opinion, will require a total of $1,000,000 in new equipment to properly protect the city from fire hazards, and it is my purpose to make available from this proposed loan, approximately $500,000 to be expended in the current year and next year for such equipment.

The pressing need for necessary equipment in the Public Works Department, the Park Department, and other departments of the city will require the purchase of equipment as soon as it becomes available.

Upon final approval by your Honorable Body, I shall cause the Superintendent of Supplies to advertise as promptly as possible and to make contracts for the purchase of equipment, as soon as such equipment becomes available.

I therefore recommend your early consideration of this loan issue, and I respectfully request its adoption by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That under the provisions of clause 9 of section 7 of chapter 44 of the General Laws, the sum of $1,500,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended by various departmental officials, under the direction of the Mayor, for costs of additional departmental equipment, and that to meet said appropriation, the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, on request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness to the city to said amount.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with commercial houses, contractors, etc., for furnishing labor, supplies, etc. Communications from the heads of the several departments interested were as follows:

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 25, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of March 19, 1946, bids were requested through informal quotations on Fire Department requisition No. 619 calling for 500 No. 1 Rock Island sponges. The following bids were received:

Boston Janitors Supply Company, Inc. (bidding on Mediterranean sponges), unit price, $1.98, total, $975.

Diemont Levy Company, unit price, $2.18, total, $1,090.

American Sponge and Chamois Company, unit price, $2.39, total $1,195.

Stanton Supply Company, unit price, $2.40, total, $1,200.

Heaney Manufacturing Company, unit price, $2.50, total, $1,250.

Stadium Textile Company, unit price, $3.50, total, $1,750.

Since the list of firms shown above is representative of the field, it is my opinion that no lower prices would be submitted in a formal opening of bids.

Your permission is therefore requested to dispense with public advertisement and award to the lowest bidder on specifications, Diemont Levy Company, at its bid price of $1,090, less a cash discount of 2 per cent for payment in ten days.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, March 28, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of February 11, 1946, bids were publicly advertised by this office for 100,000 yards of toweling for delivery to the Park Department. This material is used to make individual towels for use in the public bath houses. This is a revenue item to the city as the toweling is sold to the patrons frequenting public bath houses.

Due to the scarcity of textiles in general, no bids were received in response to this advertisement. The Supply Department then contacted the State without result as it had also been unable to secure toweling of this nature.

In an effort to secure this material, this office sent out requests for quotations to practically the entire list of textile dealers in Boston. The only bidder to respond was the Sparrow Chisholm Company, 140 West street, Boston, which quoted a price of 13½ cents per yard delivered.

In view of the foregoing, I would respectfully request that permission be granted me to award a contract without further advertisement to the Sparrow Chisholm Company at the price of 13½ cents per yard delivered. The total amount of the contract will be $13,250.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 20, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—On January 24 you approved my request for permission to hire trucks and men to supplement the equipment of the Sanitary Division in connection with the collection and removal of ashes, etc., and also for street cleaning. Considerable work was done under this authority by service orders which were issued.

The snowstorms of last month interfered with this work. I feel that we should resume this method of remedying the conditions which exist because of the fact that many of the trucks of the Sanitary Division are in such poor operating shape that they are of little use to the department.

When trucks alone are hired, we pay the following rates, the charge being made against budget Item B-6:

One and one-half to three tons (where the registration fee is not over $36), $2 an hour.

Larger trucks (three and one-half to five tons)—(where the registration fee is over $36), $3.50 an hour.

These rates include the rental of the vehicle, the wages of the chauffeur, and gasoline and oil.

At times it is the opinion of this department that labor is required in connection with the vehicles, and when we find it necessary to obtain extra men with the trucks, the contractors are paid for such labor at the rate of $1.50 an hour. Foremen are engaged with the men, and when foremen are required, the contractors are paid at the rate of $1.75 an hour. The above-mentioned rates include government contributions, Workmen's Compensation, and profits.

Under conditions as they exist today in regard to the equipment of this department, I feel that this is the most advisable manner of handling the situation, and I respectfully request that your Honor give me permission to issue service orders for such men and equipment as will be required to supplement the regular force of the department on the collection and removal of ashes, etc., and also for street cleaning.

The cost of this work, in each instance, will probably be in excess of $1,000, but will not exceed $2,000.

No advantage would be gained by advertising and, for that reason, I respectfully request the permission of your Honor to dispense with the requirement of publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 28, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—With the approval of your Honor granted on March 6 and on March 11 to my requests for authority to engage contractors to make emergency repairs to the surfaces of the streets which became so badly broken up as a result of the winter storms, service orders were issued to eight contractors to furnish men, equipment and material for repairing streets in certain designated areas.

A very large amount of repair work has had to be done and the services performed by these contractors have been entirely satisfactory. As this department feels that more work should be done in this manner, I respectfully request the authority of your Honor to issue a service order to Central Construction Company and Joseph J. Benkert for furnishing men, equipment and material for this patching work, at a cost under each service order not to exceed $2,000.

I also consider that it is advisable to issue a second service order, not in excess of $2,000, to each of the following-named contractors who were listed in the original authorization approved by your Honor:

John Deveney Company, Edward M. Matz, Inc., Martin J. Kelly, Inc., Ward General Contracting Company, Hancock Construction Company.

As stated in my original requests, this is an emergency which I feel can be taken care of to the city's advantage in this manner, and, for that reason, I ask your authority to dispense with the requirement of advertising for bids.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

MUNICIPAL COURT.

BOSTON, March 22, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—I inclose letters from the civil and criminal clerks of this court in which they request your Honor to dispense with the necessity of advertising for bids for the printing necessary in their respective offices. I approve their requests and hope they will be granted.

Very truly yours,

DAVIS B. KENISTON,
Chief Justice.

MUNICIPAL COURT (for Civil Business).

BOSTON, March 20, 1946.

HON. DAVIS B. KENISTON,
Chief Justice.

MY DEAR CHIEF JUSTICE,—With reference to section 1, chapter 156 of the Acts of 1939, requiring a written contract for purchases in excess of $1,000, or approval by his Honor the Mayor to dispense with contract formality, I wish to advise that no one item to be purchased by this office will amount to $1,000.

The different forms of writs, certificates, executions, summonses, etc., of which there are 140, are purchased from time to time as needed, as there is no manner in which an estimate could be made of the number of any one form to be needed during a given period.

The largest item needed annually is the docket, and the cost of having these printed and bound is in the vicinity of $600.

I know of no way in which these various purchases could be combined to amount to $1,000, and therefore feel that this office should be exempt from the requirement of a written contract.

Sincerely,

EDMOND J. HOY, Clerk.

MUNICIPAL COURT (for Criminal Business).

BOSTON, March 21, 1946.

HON. DAVIS B. KENISTON,
Chief Justice.

MY DEAR MR. CHIEF JUSTICE,—I respectfully submit herein reasons for exemption of this office from chapter 156, Acts 1939. No one or several items purchased by this office will amount to $1,000, with the exception of the purchases of various dockets and indexes. These various dockets, consisting of Domestic Relations, Drunk, General, Released Drunk, Inquests and Traffic Violations differ in many respects and it would be impossible to class them in one contract. The dockets used in the Parking Violations are of a greater variance from the rest, so this would have to be treated as an individual item. It would take many orders for over a period of months in the printing of our forms to total the amount of $1,000. It does not seem to me that there is any possible way to estimate the number of the arrests or cases brought by summons that would appear before this court; therefore, one could not estimate the number of the various forms used for the various crimes that we would use in any given year.

The statistics of this court will show that there is a variance in each year, sometimes increasing and sometimes decreasing, the increase or decrease not being consistent enough to set a figure for a certain amount of forms that would be needed for the particular offences. Again I would call to your attention that the printing of these forms should be done by a printer with plenty of experience along the line of printing legal papers, as it is very important that much care should be used in this work.

Therefore, I feel that the above should be sufficient to grant the exemption requested.

Very truly yours,

DANIEL J. LYNCH,
Clerk of the Court.

REGISTRY OF DEEDS.

BOSTON, March 21, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—In accordance with the provisions of chapter 156 of the Acts of 1939, I hereby respectfully request from your Honor written authority to dispense with advertising for proposals for the furnishing of supplies for the Suffolk Registry of Deeds, particularly with respect to Items B-1 and D-1 of the budget, for the following reasons:

1. Practically all of the Item B-1 is for the binding of indexes and record books. This work has been efficiently, satisfactorily and expeditiously performed by the same concern, at a fair price, for more than half a century; this concern agrees to do the work at the same prices at which the contract was awarded to it last year.

2. The Item D-1 covers the furnishing of grantor and grantee indexes for the Recording Department and for the Registered Land Department, which are furnished under the same conditions referred to in paragraph 1; and the item also covers standard record paper and sundry articles of stationery, which are furnished at standard prices.

Respectfully yours,

WM. T. A. FITZGERALD,
Register.

SUFFOLK COUNTY.

BOSTON, March 22, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

YOUR HONOR,—I respectfully request that Service Orders 3 and 4, under date of March 22, in favor of Scott & Company, Limited, which cover the furnishing of uniforms to twenty-nine court officers, be awarded, with your approval, to Scott & Company, Limited, without public advertising.

These two orders involve an expenditure of $993 from the Superior Court (General Expenses), Civil Sessions, and $446.85 from Superior Court, Criminal Sessions. The total amount is $1,439.85.

I feel certain that no advantage can be gained by publicly advertising this proposed purchase, because Scott & Company, Limited, has the type of serge customarily worn by court officers which is generally unobtainable in the market today. Consequently, they are in the unique position of being the only available house which can fulfill satisfactorily the uniform requirements of the court officers. Moreover, their price is no greater than we would have to pay for these uniforms under competitive conditions.

I respectfully request your approval of these contemplated purchases.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES J. MELLEN,
Special Sheriff.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 633.

Whereas, It appears that Patrolman Arthur J. Jobert of Division 7 has performed faithful service in the Police Department for twenty-five years and that the Medical Board, provided for by chapter 521, Acts of 1922, has certified that the said Patrolman Jobert is physically incapacitated,—it is the judgment of the Police Commissioner that the said Patrolman Jobert is permanently physically incapacitated for useful service in the Police Department on account of injuries received in the actual performance of duty as a police officer; therefore it is hereby Ordered, That, with the approval of his Honor the Mayor, the said Patrolman Jobert be retired from active service in the Police Department under the provisions of chapter 353, Acts, 1892; as amended by chapter 51, Acts, 1893; chapter 6, Acts, 1920; chapter 387, Acts, 1930; and chapter 446, Acts, 1945, and that his name be placed upon the department pension roll with pay at the rate of sixteen hundred sixty-six and sixty-seven one-hundredths (1,666.67) dollars per annum (to be paid monthly), said sum being two thirds of the amount of compensation received by him in the office from which he is retired; to take effect Wednesday, March 27, 1946, at 7.45 o'clock a. m.

STATE-COLLECTED TAXES SHARED BY CITIES AND TOWNS.

Approximately $5,000,000 are distributed each year among all cities and towns as reimbursement of a portion of the amounts expended locally for salaries of teachers in the public schools. This one distribution constitutes about 80 per cent of all fiscal aid paid by the Commonwealth to cities and towns to assist in financing public schools. As the amount paid to each city and town depends upon the number and educational preparation of teachers employed, it favors well-to-do towns which can afford to hire more and better qualified teachers, and penalizes towns which by reason of less favorable circumstances operate their schools with fewer teachers. The original objective of this distribution was to raise standards of teacher preparation and to encourage local governments to pay certain established minimum salaries. As a means toward these objectives this distribution has outlived its usefulness.

VETO OF AMENDMENT TO COMPENSATION AND CLASSIFICATION PLAN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 25, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I return herewith, without my signature and disapproved, the order passed by your Honorable Body on March 11, 1946, to amend the County Compensation and Classification Plan for the Assistant Clerk of Court, Chelsea.

I am prompted to take this action because of the report of the Budget Commissioner disapproving the proposed amendment.

In my opinion, there is grave danger to the entire structure of the County Compensation and Classification Plan in the adoption of isolated amendments of this character. Such amendments are not acceptable unless made with due regard to other comparative and relative positions in the county plan. It is my intention, in the future, to follow the recommendations of the Budget Commissioner in all such cases.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS, BROWN AVENUE AND CUMMINS HIGHWAY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 23, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commission, in reply to your order of March 11, 1946, to install traffic lights at the junction of Brown avenue and Cummins Highway, in the Roslindale section of Ward 19.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Traffic Commission, March 22, 1946.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—This is in reply to Council order dated March 11, 1946, which reads as follows: "Ordered, That the Traffic Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install traffic lights at the junction of Brown avenue and Cummins Highway, in the Roslindale section of Ward 19."

While we recognize that there is a traffic hazard at this location and are aware that a police officer directing traffic was recently injured here, we also know that, happily, the accident record is far less serious than the records at hundred of other intersections throughout the city which are not signalized.

The only funds available to this commission at present for the installation of traffic signals are earmarked for a group of high accident locations. This money was provided several years ago, and part of the equipment for these intersections was purchased at that time. It is proposed, now that all of the equipment is available, to make these approved installations this year. This project will use all of the money in the appropriation.

Respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. HICKEY, Commissioner.

APPROPRIATION FROM PARKMAN FUND.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 22, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the attached communication from the Board of Park Commissioners requesting the appropriation of $41,000 from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund, to be expended under the direction of the Board of Park Commissioners for the Maintenance and Improvement of the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887.

The 1946 budget estimates of the personal service requirements of the Park Department included an estimate of the total income of $211,000 from the Parkman Fund. The budget allowances made provision for the purpose of defraying the cost of work actually performed on the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887.

I submit herewith an order appropriating the sum of $41,000, the accrued income now available from the Parkman Fund, and respectfully recommend its immediate passage by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, March 21, 1946.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—By vote of the Board of Park Commissioners you are respectfully asked to request the City Council to transfer from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund the sum of $41,000, which is now available, to be expended under the direction of the Board of Park Commissioners as follows:

Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, Maintenance and Improvement of.....$41,000

When making up the budget estimates for the year 1946, a sum equal to the total yearly income of the George F. Parkman Fund was deducted from the A-1, Permanent Employees, item with the understanding that this deduction was to be replaced by the total yearly income of said Parkman Fund for 1946, to be transferred as it accrued from time to time during the year to the regular maintenance appropriation of the Park Department.

Respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

Ordered, That the sum of $41,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund, to be expended under the direction of the Park Commissioners, for the Maintenance and Improvement of the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, as follows:

DEATH OF EX-GOVERNOR HURLEY.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:
Resolved, That the City Council of the City of Boston, in meeting assembled, expresses its deep regret at the untimely passing of Charles F. Hurley, former Treasurer and former Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, whose contributions in public affairs will preserve his memory as one of the outstanding citizens of Massachusetts. Passed by a unanimous rising vote.

TRAFFIC TOWER AT UPHAMS CORNER.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:
Ordered, That the Traffic Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to replace the aged traffic tower at Uphams Corner with automatic lights or a new tower.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

CAR STOP ON COLUMBIA ROAD.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:
Ordered, That the Boston Elevated officials, in conjunction with the Board of Traffic Commissioners, consider the advisability of changing the existing car stop on Columbia road opposite the Strand Theatre.

Coun. HANNON—I am offering this order in an attempt to straighten out the snarl of traffic conditions which sometimes exists in the outgoing traffic on Columbia road. One of the leading contributors to the eradication of this is Police Captain Kane, of Division 9, who made a study of this problem and suggested that if the Elevated stop is moved up Columbia road from its present location traffic will probably move in a much more smooth fashion. As to the other matter, the matter of the traffic tower, I think the tower at Uphams Corner is about ready to be sold as an antique. It is probably one of the first towers to be erected in the City of Boston. It gives the police officers many a tough session up there. It does not always flash when it is supposed to. It does not always flash when it should flash. I think if automatic traffic signals could be installed, they should be. If they cannot be, this antique should be sold as such, and a new traffic tower put in its place.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

INSURING OF CITY-OWNED PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to appoint a committee, consisting of the Corporation Counsel, the City Auditor, the Building Commissioner, the Fire Commissioner, two members of the Boston City Council and three citizens of Boston, to consider the advisability of insuring all public buildings owned by the City of Boston.

Coun. HANNON—Generally, when you speak of an order concerning insurance companies, I suppose immediately the thought is going to arise that you must be employed by one of them. However, disregarding any such opinion, I am offering this order for consideration in the interest of common sense and of the taxpayers of the City of Boston. I do not know the facts and the figures on the matter. Every so often it seems to me a school or some other public building is gutted or even destroyed by fire. Then we are faced with a situation where we have no funds to replace the building. Certainly there is some lack somewhere. If we have not got funds to carry on and replace these buildings, I think an insurance fund should be established or insurance should be carried, and these buildings should be replaced. Last year out in my district the municipal building was burned down. It cost about $25,000 to replace it. For weeks and weeks the public library was not available to the children of the district. And even yet, despite the apparent speed with which that replacement job has gone forward, that building is not in an acceptable condition and is not yet open to the public. A few weeks ago an even more tragic thing happened. The primary school in my district was burned down. Today, upon investigation as to why it has not been reopened, I have been told that probably it will never be reopened. They are going to tear it down because it is so far gone that it is useless to attempt to replace it. The only thing they can do is build a new building. We find once again that they have not any money or they have not any funds from which they can obtain the money to replace this building. Looking forward a matter of a month or two, that means next fall the youngsters in that district, born and brought up there and entitled to schooling, well might find themselves in the predicament of walking a mile through dangerous traffic and intersections in order to get to school, simply because somewhere in the city we, the public officials, were shortsighted and when fire destroys a building, we have not money enough to replace it. I am merely offering this for some consideration. I am offering it for some thought. It may not be practicable. To me it seems there should be some way of replacing one structure with another structure. The average property owner, if he did not carry insurance on his property, would be regarded as indifferent if fire destroyed that property. Everybody would say he was too tight to insure it. Well, now, we own the schoolhouses. We own the municipal buildings. We own all the public buildings in the City of Boston and I think, in the interest of good business, we should carry some form of insurance. Either we ourselves should insure it, or we should carry insurance with some reliable company so that, if fire does destroy one of our pieces of property, we will have money enough to replace it. You notice this. When I suggest a committee in this order, I suggest likewise the members of the City Council be included in it. We are part of the government of the city. This is our job. It is part of our task to see that the city is run in a businesslike manner. So I hope this matter will receive prompt and proper consideration.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

SOLDIERS' RELIEF.

Coun. CANTWELL submitted a report for the Committee on Military Affairs, recommending passage of order for payment of aid to soldiers and sailors and their families in the City of Boston for the month of March.

Report accepted; said order passed.

ACCEPTANCE OF RUSKINDALE ROAD.

Coun. CANTWELL offered the following:
Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to accept and lay out as a public highway Ruskindale road, Ward 18.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

ACCEPTANCE OF SUMMIT STREET.

Coun. CANTWELL offered the following:
Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to accept and lay out as a public highway Summit street, Ward 18.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

REPLACING OF GAS LAMPS ON CLIFF STREET.

Coun. COOK offered the following:
Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to immediately replace the antiquated gas lamps on Cliff street, Roxbury, with modern electric lights.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, I know it is difficult to replace the gaslight system throughout the city. However, Cliff street is a short street cutting through from Washington street to Warren street. A lot of traffic goes through there at night. I think a situation like that could be remedied there quicker than on other streets in the city.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

ACCEPTANCE OF RANGELEY STREET, WARD 16.

Coun. FISH offered the following:
Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to accept and lay out the unaccepted portion of Rangeley street (approximately 200) in the Ward 16 section of Dorchester.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

LIFEGUARDS AT CHARLES RIVER BEACH AND NORTH END PARK.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of the Boston Park Department be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to assign a sufficient number of lifeguards at the Charles River Beach and the North End Park to guard the life and safety of the large number of bathers who use these locations during the summer months.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SPRINKLING OF WARD 3 STREETS.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to have sprinklers water the streets of Ward 3 during the coming summer months.

Coun. RUSSO—We are approaching the summer months. I feel we ought to give sufficient time to the Public Works Commissioner to put into operation this coming summer the sprinkler system. That is, to see that the streets of our city are watered daily by the sprinkler so that the dust and refuse will not be blown around by the wind, hindering the life and safety of the public. I read recently an article in a Boston newspaper stating the condition of the streets of the North End is bad. I am happy to agree, because it only makes me stronger in my arguments which I have offered in this Body for the past six years. There has not been one week that has gone by but I have called attention to the conditions of our streets, and in particular the condition of the streets of my ward. I am sure something has to be done. I am only wondering if the Public Works Commissioner would give it proper consideration, knowing that the streets of our city are filled with cars that are parked from morning until night. Naturally, the sweepers that might be used in our streets cannot do the job they are supposed to do. I am wondering whether it would not be advisable to have six or eight or ten men in our district go around with carts and sweep the streets. Then there will not be all that refuse and dirt and what-have-you, letting the public view that condition. Something has to be done, especially in the North End. Mr. President, you and I know that during the summer months we will have thousands of visitors from all over the country coming into that section to see our historic city. I maintain, Mr. President, everywhere I have gone, to organizations and everywhere I have had an opportunity to speak, that we need the cooperation of the people just the same as we need the cooperation of the city departments. I maintain that the city departments must see that they do their share in keeping our streets clean. While time and time again, as I stated before, I speak about these conditions that have existed in my district, I wonder how many times I have spoken to this Body here to bring to your attention the congested area of that section of my ward. We have not the proper facilities in the ward. We do not have a community center. We do not have a municipal building. Still, his Honor the Mayor fifteen years ago said that the North End and Ward 3 needed more playgrounds because it is one of the most congested areas of our city. What has been done? We need housing. I have not seen anything up to the present time that his Honor the Mayor promised to the people of the North End. He said he would give better facilities, more playgrounds, and that he would keep our streets clean. Well, I want to find out when he is going to start and keep his promises.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

INVESTIGATION OF DEMONSTRATION AT MICHELANGELO SCHOOL.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:
Ordered, That the Boston School Committee, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to conduct an investigation into the cause of the recent strike demonstration at the Michelangelo School.

Coun. RUSSO—A strike took place in the North End at the Michelangelo School, and I would like to find out the cause of it, Mr. President. I, for one, do not subscribe to the view that the children of our schools have the right to take the law in their own hands. However, Mr. President, I would like to find out the cause. I am wondering if the cause is not that perhaps they did not have sufficient time for lunch hours. That is something that the School Committee ought to look into, not only at the Michelangelo School, but throughout our schools and throughout the entire system of our schools. There have been many rumors, and I do not heed those rumors, Mr. President. That is why I am asking that a thorough investigation be made and a report be given. That is why I went to the Michelangelo School and urged the boys and girls to go back to school, to give us an opportunity to investigate, so that a report could be made. I know, Mr. President, that perhaps the people of our city and the entire nation might misconstrue the actions of the children of the Michelangelo School. I know that they are living in conditions that should be improved. As I stated, our housing conditions are one fault. We of the city government ought to do something to induce the Federal Government, in conjunction with the state and city governments, to see that the people receive proper facilities. We have many young men, Mr. President, and many fathers of these boys and girls who go to that school who have given their all in order to teach to the world the difference between tolerance and intolerance. Some of them paid dearly with their own lives. That is why, Mr. President, I, for one, would like to have a thorough investigation to find out the cause of such a strike. I am hopeful that the School Committee will investigate thoroughly and find out if it would not be advisable to have a cafeteria in the school. All of these things add up and have some bearing in the reaction of our children. A few weeks ago I asked that the Building Commissioner make a report as to the physical condition of the North Bennet Street Bath House. The report came back that it needed some repairing, not only outside but inside, and that at the most it could hold about 220 individuals, or so. What are we going to do with the rest of the thousands that we have there? These things do add up to bring about what took place last week. I do not know what prompted the action, but I would like to find out, and have a definite answer on the cause of the condition of what took place last week at the Michelangelo School. I hope this order is passed.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC LANDS.

Coun. MORIARTY, for the Committee on Public Lands, submitted the following:

Report on message of the Mayor and order (referred December 17, 1945) for sale of Fire Station 17, Harrison avenue, land and building—that same ought to pass.

The report was accepted, and the question came on the passage of the order.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I am not opposing this particular order at the present time because I am opposed to a hospital being built on this land. I am opposing it because I have not had sufficient assurance that the fire house that was on this particular parcel of land, and has been removed, is going to insure that section sufficient fire protection. I say that, if we do not pass this order today, we are not holding up the program of this hospital to continue erecting or making plans for the erection of such a hospital. This land is being sold for $15,000. I do not know whether or not that is a fair and reasonable price that the city ought to sell that parcel of land for. I say there was a committee meeting that was held last week. I believe it had no quorum. As I understand, the committee has only met this morning in the Mayor's office. I wonder if we are going to abide by our decision in the Mayor's office or are we going to abide by our decision in our committee meeting. I was not called into the Mayor's office. This particular parcel of land is in my district. So I move, Mr. President, that the report be referred to the Executive Committee.

President KELLY—Councilor Russo moves the matter be referred to the Executive Committee. Talking on the motion, Councilor Moriarty.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, the usual prevailing deference that is accorded councilors when they have a matter pertaining to their particular ward was likewise given to the councilor from Ward 3 (Coun. Russo). This particular subject requires a little history for the greater enlightenment of the Council Body. So I will take myself back to December 11, 1945. This order was submitted then under a thoroughly different administration from that which prevails today. It sought the purchase of an abandoned fire barn. The Fire Commissioner of the then administration had investigators with longevity in the service make a survey of the practicability of relocating that abandoned fire house. They did rehouse the apparatus elsewhere. In the Fire Commissioner's report he points out that the area has been given adequate fire coverage and fire prevention protection. He advises the sale of the land. The Commissioner then called in a private appraiser. The appraiser's price was $15,000, which was considered extremely fair. With the change of administration the attorney for the Pratt Memorial interceded with me on one occasion to get a committee meeting. He pointed out to me privately the advantage of disposing of this parcel of land on adjacent property which had been bought up by the Pratt Memorial Foundation. One parcel of land interfered with their program. We then called a formal committee meeting at which we had a quorum. The quorum concluded that it was advisable to sell. However, as I say, we delayed in deference to the councilor of that ward, who wanted to make a personal survey. This was back in January of this year, I dare say two months ago. He wanted to make a personal survey to determine whether there was adequate fire coverage. Therefore, we laid the matter on the table. Attorney Quarles consulted me at a later date. Another committee meeting was called. No further action was taken in deference to the councilor from that ward. Last week we called another meeting. Admittedly, there was no quorum. However, it would have been repetitious to go over this matter. The most thoroughly adverse person on this subject is the councilor from that particular ward. What his hostility is, I do not know. However, here is an undertaking, a project for the good of all of us and not a particular group. It is a coverage of all. This hospital will maintain certain charitable features. I dare say on one occasion or another we are going to tax that charity. I dare say the councilor from Ward 3 (Coun. Russo) will intercede for some of his constituents at one time or another for that charity. Yesterday I happened, on an unhappy occasion, to be in the City Hospital. God knows, if we need any more hospitalization, a visit to the City Hospital will prove it. The commencement of building and the commencement of the program depends upon the availability of the materials and the acquisition of this parcel of land. I say here is a matter, gentlemen, that affects us all. The councilor from the particular ward has had more than sufficient time to make his survey to see that this particular area has adequate fire coverage. For the purpose of the record, I would like to read into it the Fire Commissioner's report. The first paper, signed by John I. Fitzgerald, Fire Commissioner, is rather lengthy. I will point out the pertinent remarks.

"As far as the Fire Department is concerned, it will be necessary to place Ladder Company 17 in the quarters of our Broadway Fire Station, at 194 Broadway, which is a few hundred yards away. In the postwar period, it would be desirable to combine this company, Ladder 17, with Engine Company 7, now located on East street near the South Station, in a new location on Kneeland street near our High Pressure Station. In this way Engine 7 and Ladder 17 would be ideally located for serving the retail district, the shoe and leather district and the garment industry."

"According to the last records we have available, the quarters of Ladder House 17 cover an area of land of 2,134 feet. The building was constructed in 1890 and is of first class construction."

There is a further report by Fire Commissioner Russell Codman, Jr. As I said earlier, Mr. President, it is not just the Fire Commissioner's statement that acquaints us with this knowledge. They must assign inspectors, men of longtime service, who say that the area is well covered. They know the area. Here are some of the pertinent remarks of Fire Commissioner Codman: "Inasmuch as this piece of land is now a part of the hospital program, I believe the over-all interests of the City of Boston are better served by incorporating this site into the hospital property than retaining it by the Fire Department."

Therefore, Mr. President, I, as chairman of the committee, and the rest of the committee members submit to the Council Body the hope that this will pass today so that there will be the prospect of submitting it next week.

President KELLY—The question is on referring the matter to the Executive Committee.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I wish to concur with what has just been said by the councilor from Ward 11 (Coun. Moriarty). Within the past couple of weeks I had occasion to discuss with the Mayor certain problems concerning the city. While it is usual in a matter to check with the councilor of the ward, and to give way to him in most instances, this is not a matter that affects only the third ward of Boston. The Pratt Hospital Dispensary services not only the people of Boston but the people of New England. It is essential that the hospital begin enlarging its facilities as soon as possible. I was assured by the Mayor that the fire protective facilities would be taken care of so that the district would have the adequate fire protection that all districts in the city should have. The nub of the whole situation is stated in the last sentence that Councilor Moriarty read from Commissioner Codman's letter, that for the over-all benefit of the people of Boston it is much more important to give up this particular fire house and give the property to the hospital. I urge that this matter be acted upon favorably now instead of being stalled longer in Executive or in any other committee.

President KELLY—The question comes on reference of this matter to the Executive Committee.

Coun. RUSSO—I wish to impress on the councilor that the City Council cannot help the progress of the hospital because, first of all, Mr. Quarles, attorney for the Bingham Associates, and one of the trustees of this new corporation said they were waiting to be incorporated or, as I understand it, they have been incorporated only last week. At the last meeting held by the committee, at which there were only two members present, I asked Mr. Quarles if this needed immediate action. He said it was not needed at the present time. They were waiting for a certain parcel of land that they were trying to purchase adjacent to this property. It is owned privately. Putting it in his words, he said, "They are holding us up and we are willing to pay $35,000 for this other parcel of land which is owned privately." If Mr. Quarles made that statement, the order does not need immediate action. I do not see any reason why we should act on this here today. I, for one, would like to make certain that the people of that district will have sufficient fire protection. I do not know, Mr. President, that I have all the—shall I say faith?—in these men who are going to be in charge of this hospital, that they will give to the poor of our city and give them the proper attention. But, however, Mr. President, don't you think it is fair that I, as one of the representatives of a part of the City of Boston, should be assured that at least the people who live in that vicinity will be assured proper fire protection? I ask that the Fire Commissioner be invited to appear before the committee. He sent a letter that he had to go elsewhere for the Mayor of the City of Boston, and it made it impossible for him to appear. I am not asking for anything. I am not trying to delay. But the matter of delay does not hinder the program of this particular corporation or the trustees. That is why I ask that it be brought into the Executive Committee today.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Speaking on the motion to refer to the Executive Committee.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I do not want to appear here in what may be a false light, protecting the Mayor of Boston or bearing cudgels in his behalf. But I do want it distinctly understood I discussed this particular matter at length with him—this particular piece of property to which the councilor from the third district (Coun. Russo) refers as holding up the entire transaction. According to what the Mayor told me, the hospital has bought this property from the private individuals concerned, and the price and terms have been agreed upon.

Coun. RUSSO—Will the gentleman yield for a question?

Coun. MUCHNICK—Yes.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I would like to ask through you if the gentleman knows when this property was purchased, if it has been purchased?

Coun. MUCHNICK—I was informed by his Honor the Mayor two weeks ago yesterday that the property had been sold by these people to the hospital for the sum of $35,000 after considerable negotiations, and that the matter was a completed transaction. It was just a question of title reference and title checking. I do not know whether that has been done. If it has not been done, three weeks is ample time for counsel for the hospital to check the title.

Coun. RUSSO—I would like to ask another question instead of going into a lengthy discussion.

President KELLY—Will you yield for another question?

Coun. MUCHNICK—Surely.

Coun. RUSSO—Does he know of his own knowledge when and if this land is purchased? That is all I am asking. I would like to have an answer if he does know.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, I have not checked the title. I do not know if the title has changed hands. If it has changed hands, I do not know whether it has been recorded. I am merely passing along what the Mayor of Boston told me two weeks ago. It seems to me the Mayor of Boston would have no reason to tell me an untruth about that matter or any other matter. In view of my previous remarks and the questions and in view of the remarks made by Councilor Moriarty and more especially in view of the need, I urge we clean this up now.

Coun. MORIARTY—The councilor from Ward 3 (Coun. Russo), as I said earlier, has been at all times acquainted with what is going on. Attorney Quarles on his visits brought over tentative and preliminary layouts and blueprint plans. If this whole parcel of land were not acquired, it still would not interfere with the construction of the building. They could very well circumvent it. This particular parcel of land is on a corner and is to be used particularly for decorative purposes. It is not a component part of the project. Therefore, they could very well circumvent that particular parcel of land. However, along with the councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick), I, too, have been assured by the Mayor that the parcel of land in question has been purchased by the Pratt Memorial Foundation.

President KELLY—The question comes on referring the matter to the Executive Committee.

Coun. RUSSO—I, too, was assured two or three weeks ago by his Honor the Mayor that the property had been purchased by the Pratt Hospital. However, I would like to ask the councilor from Ward 11 (Coun. Moriarty) if he did not hear Mr. Quarles in the last committee meeting only a week ago state that they had not bought up to that time this particular parcel of land. That is what I am trying to impress on you. It is not a speedy problem that we have to act on today. There is nothing being delayed.

Coun. MORIARTY—The crux of my statement is that even if it were not purchased, this hospital could go along and start construction without it. It is not a component part of the project. It is to be used purely for decorative purposes. The councilor from Ward 3 (Coun. Russo) saw the preliminary layout and blueprint plans. It does in no way interfere with the over-all project.

President KELLY—The question comes on referring the matter to the Executive Committee.

Coun. RUSSO—I am wondering if the councilor from Ward 11 (Coun. Moriarty) would inform the Council in so far as the blueprint was concerned that was shown to us, if on the blueprint they have or have not included this particular parcel of land they are trying to buy which has not been bought up to this time, outside the fire house.

Coun. MORIARTY—I have just stated—how clear I can make it to him I do not know—it has been included, but it is not going to be a component part of the project. These people are pure hold-up men. They have driven the Pratt Memorial people to the wall by establishing the $35,000 price. They evidently got it.

President KELLY—The question comes on referring the matter to the Executive Committee.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I am wondering if the chairman of the committee or any member of the council or the councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick) could inform us what is the great difference between the $15,000 being offered to the city and this other parcel of land they are paying $35,000 for? Is it that the city has no building on that land and the other parcel has? Or is it the amount of land in square feet on each of these parcels?

Coun. MORIARTY—It is now an abandoned fire barn. I do not know the area. It is on the order. It is by far a smaller parcel of land.

President KELLY—I am informed by the City Clerk it is approximately 2,100 feet.

Coun. MUCHNICK—On the other, I do not know. It is not city business. We have no information as to that. Mr. Quarles does have it. He made the statistics available to us.

President KELLY—The question comes on referring the matter to the Executive Committee.

Coun. SULLIVAN—My questions were not answered.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I can throw a little light on it. It is my understanding that the private owners of the property have land that is somewhat larger than the city's property. It is also my understanding that the private property is a piece of corner property fronting on two streets which from a real estate point of view makes it a little more valuable. It is further my understanding that the private property contains a store and some dwellings, I think, which of course, are more valuable in the open market than an abandoned fire house. The city also wanted to get the regular appraised value for its land. The private people thought they were in a position to get a little more due to the great need and tack the tariff on a little bit.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Is it worth that $20,000 difference? We are dealing here with the taxpayers' money. If one can get $35,000, I do not see why the city cannot get a little more. The difference in the two pieces of property should not be worth that much, $20,000.

Coun. MUCHNICK—It is my feeling that if the city wanted to go into the speculative real estate business, they could say to the Pratt Memorial Foundation, "We will not sell unless we can get $50,000 or $75,000 or $100,000." By hard, shrewd trading, we could do it. It does not seem to me it is the city's legal obligation or moral obligation, particularly when the residents of Boston will be among those who are benefited by the erection of the additional facilities, to do such a thing. I would not feel at all badly if in return for the future expected facilities of a medical nature that will be given to the citizens of Boston the Mayor and the City Council of Boston gave this property to the Pratt Memorial Foundation people without any charge whatsoever.

President KELLY—The question comes on referring the matter to the Executive Committee. It is not a vote.

Coun. RUSSO—I doubt the vote and ask for a roll call.

The roll was called, and the motion to refer to the Executive Committee was lost, yeas 5, nays 14:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Chase, Keenan, Russo, Sullivan—5.

Nays—Coun. Bryan, Cantwell, Carey, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, Madden, McCormack, Moriarty, Muchnick—14.

The question came on the passage of the order, and the roll was called. The order was given its first reading and passage, yeas 15, nays 3:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Bryan, Cantwell, Carey, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, Madden, McCormack, Moriarty, Muchnick—15.

Nays—Coun. Chase, Keenan, Russo—3.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS.

Coun. CAREY, for the Committee on Claims, submitted the following:

Report on petition of Paul Wilkening (referred March 4) to be reimbursed for amount of execution issued against him on account of his acts as operator of motor vehicle belonging to Police Department—recommending passage of accompanying order:

Ordered, That the sum of one hundred sixty dollars ($160) be allowed and paid to Paul Wilkening in reimbursement for amount of execution issued against him on account of his acts as a member of the Police Department, said sum to be charged to the Contingent Fund.

Report on petition of Biaggi Germano (referred March 19) to be reimbursed for amount of execution issued against him on account of his acts as operator of motor apparatus belonging to Fire Department—recommending passage of accompanying order:

Ordered, That the sum of four hundred six dollars and fifteen cents ($466.15) be allowed and paid to Biaggi Germano in reimbursement for amount of execution issued against him on account of his acts as a member of the Fire Department, said sum to be charged to the Contingent Fund.

Reports accepted; said orders passed.

REPAVING OF CERTAIN WARD 19 STREETS.

Coun. McCORMACK offered the following: Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to repave Eliot street and Lamartine street, in the Jamaica Plain section of Ward 19, and Fifth road in the Rosindale section of Ward 19.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

PLAYGROUND AT CORNER OF CANTERBURY AND POPLAR STREETS.

Coun. McCORMACK and CANTWELL offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor consider the advisability of taking the property located at the corner of Canterbury and Poplar streets, Ward 19, by eminent domain, and converting same into a playground.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

HEALTH MENACE ON CANTERBURY STREET, WARD 19.

Coun. McCORMACK and CANTWELL offered the following:

Ordered, That the Health Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to take immediate steps to correct the health menace in the open field which is inundated with four feet of water, located at the corner of Canterbury and Poplar streets, Ward 19.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

NEW FIRE HOUSE, WARD 20.

Coun. BRYAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Fire Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to take the necessary steps for the immediate erection of a new fire house at Washington street and the Parkway, Ward 20, the proposed construction of which has been pending for some time.

Coun. HANNON—Talking on the motion to pass on suspension of the rule, I think that this order is the subject of a loan order which was approved by this Council about a year ago in conjunction with other little matters, one of which was a gymnasium for South Boston, another one of which was a municipal building for Mission Hill, and the most important of which, to my knowledge, was a bath house at Savin Hill Beach. These four items have been banded back and forth for over a year. Sometimes it gets your goat when you read in the paper or listen to all these orations of what is going to be done and what work is going to be provided. We provide money for these projects and other projects. It was done over a year ago. Unbeknownst to the council from Ward 20 (Coun. Bryan), I was checking up on that very thing today. I am checking up on the law on the matter, too. When we subscribed to that loan, we subscribed to it for those specific purposes. I intend to see to it that in my district we get the full benefit out of the money borrowed for the specific intent of constructing a bath house at Savin Hill Beach. I am sick and tired of reading and listening to the many acts that are going to be accomplished, to the many projects that are going to be started. I really think we ought to be fair to the public. We ought to be fair to the veterans. We ought to get down to brass tacks and start things. That is one reason why I voted for the construction and sale of land to the Pratt Hospital. I think private enterprise will go ahead quicker than we will. We read every day in the paper about some councilor here or some representative in the State House endorsing the construction of a garage under Boston Common. That is all right. It is probably a worth-while project. But I think, in all sincerity, it is time for action. I cannot understand why this city does not go ahead and do something. You drive out through the country. There are private homes under construction. Even out in Newton you will see a big apartment block under construction. Go into the smaller cities, and stores are being erected. In Boston I do not think we have a thing under construction. It is all newspaper talk. The necessity for the fire station was brought out here years ago. Ted Lyons brought it out. Shannon brought it out. And now Councilor Bryan takes up the cudgels. I think we ought to build these things. We vote for a loan order because we are told it is necessary and we need the money, and the project should go forward. That was a year ago. Yet I do not think any one of the four projects has been started. I know at Savin Hill they sent an engineer out there and made soundings. They tested the piles of the old bath house. They even engaged an architectural firm to draw plans. I put the pictures and plans in the windows of the various stores out there, acting in good faith. Yet two or three weeks ago I received back a letter in answer to an order we passed. The letter was from the Park Commissioner. He advised me that the work could not be done this year. If it cannot be done, why did they take the money, the loan order? If that is true on my project, you will probably find out it is true on others. The only thing I am fearful of is this, if we do not keep on the job, if we keep our eyes closed to the subject, we will wake up some day and we may find that the money for which we gave permission for the city to borrow for those specific purposes, that the money was not used for those purposes. We will wake up some morning and find that the money in some mysterious manner has been used for some other purpose. The same thing applies to incinerators, as another councilor suggested. That is true; we appropriated and gave approval for a $30,000 expenditure for plans for the incinerator. Where are the plans? Where is the incinerator? Most important of all, where is the $30,000? In the same way we have been reading for years now of this super-duper highway going around the city. They have so many plans; each one of us was going to be included. One route was going my way, and another one your way. There were more routes than you could count. Here we are after the war is over for a year. We find out nothing has been started. Evidently nothing is going to be started, unless we get up here week after week and insist that something be started. These boys coming home do not want to be living on $20 a week. That $20 a week was all right. It was well intended. I say in all sincerity I am really fearful if we keep giving these boys who want to work—and there is no work—if we keep giving them $20 a week instead of helping them, we are going to hurt them. I hope we soon get together and give them not words, not plans, but really, in a honest-to-God fashion, give them some work.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I have a list of some things that happened several months back in Executive Session on this subject. I will ask the clerk through you to refresh my memory and bring us up to date—the old councilors and the new councilors—in the chronology of this loan order. Was it or was it not withdrawn several months ago and resubmitted in another form?

President KELLY—It was submitted to us one Monday and withdrawn and submitted to us again with additions, and we passed on it.

Coun. KINSELLA—Isn't this the order, the loan order that originally contemplated something in Councilor Carey's ward and Councilor Scannell's ward, and there was something about a bath house. The total, as I remember, was $525,000.

President KELLY—That is the one, councilor, which you refer to.

Coun. KINSELLA—Does the clerk inform the Body, Mr. President, that after the withdrawal we subsequently approved a new loan order for that amount or an additional amount?

President KELLY—I understand from the City Clerk the first one was $475,000 which was withdrawn. The next one that came up was $525,000, which this Body approved.

Coun. KINSELLA—Isn't there a certain sum like $640,000 total? I thought it came from $525,000 to $640,000. I may be wrong.

President KELLY—The clerk cannot remember the exact figures.

Coun. KINSELLA—I think Councilor Hannon is very much right when he speaks of the $21 a week or $20 a week or whatever these young fellows are getting. I think that creates a terrific pauper class of young men. Some of those boys are required to support a family on $20 a week. The 920 designation is the laughingstock of America.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, a point of order. I do not believe the gentleman is speaking on the order.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, the gentleman is speaking on a feature of the order.

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella is leading up to it.

Coun. KINSELLA—I will submit to any suggestions of the councilor from Ward 13 (Coun. Hannon) or ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick), so that I will speak on the things that please him only. I repeat, we are creating a terrific pauper class. Yet it is true, as Councilor Hannon said, unless these public projects which have been promised are brought to fruition, we are going to have a problem on our hands which we will not be able to handle. We had a demonstration of that at Faneuil Hall the other day. If there is anybody in public life stupid enough to think that he is dealing with a lot of nitwits, he has another thought coming to him. We have these public projects sponsored out of the public treasury, for which the authorizing body sets the money up. If they do not get going on them fast, we will have a chaotic condition here that promises will not be able to control. I myself was present at an executive meeting when we were advised that the wisest parliamentary thing to do and the wisest practical thing to do was to withdraw the old order and wait for the submission of the new one. I can remember that. I do not remember that the second order was submitted. If the record shows it was, then to whom shall we apply for action? Is that money available? Has it been used for something else? Through you, Mr. President, I would like to ask the clerk to tell us where we can go to find out what the status is of that loan order at the present time.

President KELLY—I am going to refer this order to Executive Session, Councilor Bryan's order, and we will attempt to find out the status of the money. The order is referred to Executive Session.

Coun. KINSELLA—Would you be good enough to send for the Auditor?

Coun. BRYAN—I want to thank Councilor Hannon for going along with the order. My position, as far as the fire house in West Roxbury goes, runs back ten years through civic organizations and through the West Roxbury Joint Planning Board. We have worked in behalf of new fire protection for that district. In the past fifteen years the West Roxbury district increased 35 per cent in population. Nothing has been done as far as more police and fire protection is concerned. We have had many bad fires out there. When a fire occurred our apparatus was found fighting grass fires and not available for a real fire. We had to depend on the Fire Department at Jamaica Plain and at Roxbury to put out the real fires. As I said, it is through these organizations I have worked. I have had two meetings with former Mayor Tobin in conjunction with the West Roxbury Joint Planning Board, representing sixteen organizations in behalf of this fire house. At that time Mayor Tobin told this committee we would have this fire house as soon as the land was sold and the East Boston airport was taken over by the state. Later on we had another meeting. He said we would have $75,000 of that money. We were led to believe at that time the money was available for the fire house. As I said, I have done a lot of work through ten years on this new fire house. I believe this is the time to get going. We have been held up on account of the war, and I believe that now the materials are available. I think the time is ripe so that we can get started on buildings some of these buildings.

President KELLY—Councilor Bryan moves a recess for the purpose of going into Executive Session.

RECESS.

On motion of Coun. Bryan the Council took a recess at 3.35 p. m., subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled and were called to order by President KELLY at 4.30 p. m.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

President KELLY—The Council will be in order. We will have the report of the Executive Committee.

The clerk submitted the following:

1. Report on order (referred today) that the Fire Commissioner take necessary steps for immediate erection of a new fire house at Washington street and the Parkway, Ward 20—recommending that same ought to pass.

The report was accepted, and the order was passed.

2. Report on petition of Boston American League Baseball Company for license for Sunday sports at Fenway Park—recommending that the license be granted.

The report was accepted, and the question came on the granting of the license.

Coun. MUCHNICK—For many reasons which I advanced in the Executive Committee, most of which are a matter of record in the meeting last year and two years ago when the same matter came up, I urge that this license be denied. I do not at this time want to take up too much time of the Body in going into the details of the reasons all over again unless it becomes necessary to do so. But it seems to me that the arguments that were advanced in the Executive Committee today, and by my colleagues and by myself last year and two years ago, are irrefutable and should sustain the contention that this license should at this time be denied.

President KELLY—The question comes on the granting of the license.

Coun. COOK—Not having been a member of the Council for the time that the reasons were advanced by the councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Muchnick) last year, and due to the fact that many statements were made the truth of which I have no way of ascertaining without talking to those who are familiar with the questions and the answers to the questions that may be proposed, I now move that this license application be laid on the table for a week, and that the manager or owner, or some other person having the knowledge and information, be required to attend a session of the Executive Meeting to answer such questions as may be necessary.

President KELLY—The question comes now on laying on the table for one week. It is not a vote.

Coun. COOK—I doubt the vote and ask for a roll call.

President KELLY—Three members having joined, the clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called, and the motion to lay on the table for one week was lost, yeas 3, nays 13:

Yeas—Coun. Chase, Cook, Muchnick—3.

Nays—Coun. Bayley, Bryan, Cantwell, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Keenan, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Russo, Scannell—13.

President KELLY—The question is on the granting of the license. It is a vote and so ordered.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I doubt the vote. It is my understanding the usual method of granting a license is by roll call.

President KELLY—If you so desire, councilor.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I understand that is the usual way it has been done for the three years I have been here.

President KELLY—Only on request, if you so desire.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I do.

President KELLY—If two others will join with you, the clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called, and the license was granted, yeas 14, nays 3:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Bryan, Cantwell, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Russo, Scannell—14.

Nays—Coun. Chase, Cook, Muchnick—3.

Coun. MCCORMACK, for the Committee on Appropriations, submitted the following:

1. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred March 4) appropriating $25,000 for abolishment of Bird Street grade crossing, said amount being city's share of said cost—that same ought to pass.

The report was accepted, and the question came on the passage of the order.

President KELLY—The clerk will call the roll.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I would like to be informed for what purpose.

President KELLY—The clerk will read the order.

(The clerk read the order.)

President KELLY—The clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called, and the order was passed, yeas 17, nays 0:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Bryan, Cantwell, Chase, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Kinsella, Kelly, Keenan, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Russo, Scannell, Sullivan—17.

Nays—0.

2. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred March 19) appropriating $80,000 for purchase and alteration of boat for Institutions Department—that same ought to pass.

President KELLY—The question is on the acceptance of the report of the committee. It is a vote. The question is on the passage of the order. The clerk will call the roll.

Coun. RUSSO—Did I understand that is for one boat?

President KELLY—That is right, one boat to be purchased from the United States government.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, I am not opposed to anything that would be beneficial to Long Island. There is some question in my mind as to the advisability of buying this proposed boat, this towboat in New York Harbor. We do not want to buy anything that might not be used in the city to good advantage. I understand this is a towboat and it is a Diesel job, and it has an 11-foot draft. We do not want to buy this boat and probably have to dig channels to get this boat into certain sections of the harbor. I think it would be a good idea to have somebody tell us about it. It may save several thousand dollars. To buy the boat costs $42,000. It does not say there is approximately $40,000 worth of repairs on the boat. I think we should go along and not be too hasty with the matter. Let us see if we can find out more about it. We should bring in this man from the Lawley Shipbuilding Corporation and bring in the other man who recommended that we buy the boat. We do not want to have a boat that has an 11-foot draft. Let us realize what that is. You would not want to have a large tugboat going down carrying passengers up and down the harbor to Deer Island. I think we ought not to be too hasty in this matter. We should take another week to look it over and find out from the engineer who recommended buying the boat whether it would be for the best interests of the city that we purchase this boat or some other boat. I therefore move it ought to lie on the table for a week to see if we can get a little more information on this appropriation for this boat.

President KELLY—Talking on the motion, Councilor McCormack.

Coun. MCCORMACK—I do not know anything about boats. We had an engineer go over from the Lawley Shipyard. We had some other man from some other shipyard, hired by the city, to go over there. I was informed today while it does have a draft of eleven feet or whatever it is, something like eleven, it is perfectly capable of going to Long Island and going in the water down there. This boat cost $440,000. I understand, when the government built it. We are buying it for $43,000. The balance of the money is for making it comply with the necessary alterations to carry passengers. I think it is a very good buy for the city. I think we should purchase the boat and pass this today.

President KELLY—The question is on laying on the table.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, while the chairman of the Appropriations Committee said they had an engineer look at the boat, there is a question in my mind as to whether he talked with the engineer or not. I would like to ask the chairman of the Appropriations Committee whether he talked to the engineer.

Coun. MCCORMACK—I did not. I talked with the Commissioner of Institutions. I think we in the Council should be able to take their word for it.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, that is what I would like to know. I would like to get in touch with these people who recommended that the Institutions Department buy this boat. I would like to know who was recommending to the Mayor or the people of the City of Boston why we should buy a tugboat for passenger purposes. The question will be how many people will we be able to take to Long Island on this tugboat we are buying from the government. There is something wrong with this deal. If the government is going to pay $45,000 to build this boat which we can buy for $43,000, I would like to know what we are buying. I do not want to spend the taxpayers' money foolishly. I know a little bit about some boats. I would like to know and to talk with the engineers of these companies, the Lawley Shipbuilding Company and the John Alden Company—I never heard of it before. I would like to talk to the engineer and get a picture of what we are buying. We do not want to buy a pig in a bag. You are going to buy a tugboat for passenger purposes. I think we should lay this on the table one week and have the chairman of the Appropriations Committee get together with the members of the Council and those men who recommended this boat. What does the Penal Institutions Commissioner know about boats? What does any member of the Body know about boats? Let us get hold of the engineer who recommended buying the boat and bring these men in here before the next meeting and find out what we are buying. I do not want to be criticized later on when we are buying a tugboat for passenger purposes. How do we know that the harbor engineer for the United States government is not going to come in and say, "You are going to put thirty passengers on that boat?" We do not know what we are buying. I do not know. All I know is I am appropriating $80,000, $40,000 for the boat and probably $40,000 more to have this boat repaired. It will not do any harm, gentlemen, to wait another week and find out what we are buying. Let us call in the engineer of the John Alden Company and the Lawley Shipyard Company and find out what we are buying.

President KELLY—The question comes on laying over for a week.

Coun. KINSELLA—Briefly, I think Councilor Scannell's suggestion should be heeded by the councilors. I think I was informed a few years ago of a ledge that exists at the Long Island pier. I think Councilor Scannell is primarily interested in finding out if 11-foot draft is not too much for that pier at low tide. If we have a ledge there and eleven feet of water or more is not there over the ledge, we are liable to wind up with a big repair bill for the new boat. I know the geology of Boston Harbor. We have delayed much more important matters for over a week. It might be prudent on the part of the Council not to go ahead for one week, so Councilor Scannell can satisfy himself as to the seaworthiness and mechanical condition of the boat and so that we can satisfy ourselves as to the fact that the 11-foot draft is not too much at low tide. The tides wait for no man. If they get stranded there or have a wreck, we will be responsible. I think a week's time is all right.

President KELLY—Talking on the motion for laying over for one week.

Coun. CHASE—I think the point is well taken. It would seem to me in this particular instance time is not of the essence. There is no particular reason why we should be in a hurry to pass this appropriation order today. It would seem that a tugboat is not adaptable to carrying passengers. In the event that this tugboat could be made adaptable, I would like to see how they propose to do it. I believe, Mr. President, that the proper thing to do is lay the matter on the table another week and consult the experts on the matter.

Coun. MUCHNICK—A point of information.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Assuming this gets laid on the table a week for the purpose, is it the purpose in accordance with the motion to have it go back to the Appropriations Committee or come into Executive Session next Monday?

Coun. SCANNELL—In doing so, I asked that it be laid over for one week, and referred to the Executive Committee, and these gentlemen be brought in.

President KELLY—If this motion passes, a motion to refer to the Executive Committee can be made at next week's meeting.

Coun. MUCHNICK—That would not give us enough time to notify the engineers to be present. That is why I raise the question.

President KELLY—The motion before us is to lay on the table for one week. It is a vote, and so ordered.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Is it in order now to move that when this hits the Body next week it be referred to the Executive Committee, and that within the week these different persons be invited to attend the Executive Committee hearing?

President KELLY—The motion is out of order at this time. You can make a motion to refer to the Executive Committee next week. In the meantime we can invite the gentlemen to be here next week at the Executive Session of the Council.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Whose function would that be to invite them?

President KELLY—I will instruct the Clerk of Committees to invite the gentlemen here.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. RUSSO—Is a motion in order that we send this to Executive?

President KELLY—It is out of order. It is laid on the table for one week. That motion will be in order next Monday.

Coun. BAYLEY—Can it be moved it be referred to Executive Committee now and later a motion be in order?

President KELLY—That motion is out of order.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I move reconsideration of the motion to lay on the table. My purpose for moving reconsideration is the hope that it will prevail, and then I think a motion will be in order to refer to the Executive and it will be in the Executive Committee next week.

President KELLY—Councilor Muchnick moves reconsideration. Talking on reconsideration.

Coun. SCANNELL—If this order is laid on the table one week, at the next meeting you can ask to have it referred to the Executive, and then, meantime, I think we will have the Clerk of Committees get in contact with these two engineers, and they will be here next Monday.

President KELLY—That is what I have stated.

Coun. MUCHNICK—We have no assurance at next Monday's meeting of this Council that the Council will vote to send the matter to Executive at that time. If we do it today, then we do not have to depend upon the vagaries of human nature.

President KELLY—Councilor Muchnick presses his motion for reconsideration. It is not a vote.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I do not doubt the vote.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LICENSES.

Coun. SCANNELL, for the Committee on Licenses, submitted the following:

Report on petition of Everett K. MacIsaacs (referred December 10, 1945) for driveway opening at 312-318 Athens street, South Boston—that license be granted.

Report accepted; said license granted.

FENCE ON MARCELLA STREET, WARD 11.

Coun. MORIARTY offered the following:
Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to reconstruct, for the greater safety of the citizenry, a new metal fence to replace the broken and unsafe one that now prevails at approximately 140 Marcella street to Centre street, Ward 11.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

RESURFACING OF MARCELLA STREET.

Coun. MORIARTY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to repair and resurface Marcella street, Ward 11, from approximately No. 140 to Centre street.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

LICENSING OF PINBALL MACHINES.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:

Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to prepare legislation for presentation to the Legislature for the licensing of individual pinball machines and for establishing by the city of appropriate license fees therefor.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I believe some time ago I read in the newspaper where a decision had been given in a Middlesex County court, of all courts, that pinball machines had been found to be legal. Naturally we abide by the decision of the courts until we hear otherwise. So if they are legal, then, Mr. President, I say that the pinball machines ought to be licensed and a reasonable fee set upon each one of them individually. You and I know, Mr. President, where these pinball machines are being operated. They are places where the ordinary individual is not apt to go. That is one of the basic problems that we face in our city, to remedy the delinquency situation. I have three of them in my own ward which have been forced upon the people of my district. It is a shame that these places operate only on an amusement license. They pay a fee of only $25 per year. They have many pinball machines. The operation nets them thousands of dollars during the year. Above all, it is surprising to find children from seven to fifteen years of age are in there constantly putting in their nickels in these machines. Mr. Mayor, I believe you have claimed there is no other way of bringing sources of revenue into our treasury. This is one way that you can look forward to increasing our treasury and reducing our taxes. I have been unable to get the information on how many pinball machines we have in operation not only in these places, but throughout the entire city. I believe there are quite a few of them. They give the argument they do not make any money on these pinball machines. If they do not make any money, why do they have them in their places taking nickels and dimes away from the poor children of our city? I believe a nominal fee of at least $50 a year ought to be paid on these machines. Some of these machines bring to the owners $50 in one day. That is one way of getting some revenue here. If they cannot operate them after a license fee has been put on, then it will be the best thing to eliminate them from our city. They do not induce the good person or the good child to these places. But they induce a congregation of individuals,—as we have said in the past, individuals were caught in these places who have committed murder. I maintain, Mr. President, that the State Legislature ought to take this into consideration to allow the City of Boston to license the pinball machines and to put a fee on them. I hope the order will pass.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

APPROVAL OF BOND OF AMERICAN LEAGUE BASEBALL CLUB OF BOSTON.

The bond of the Indemnity Insurance Company of North America, for American League Baseball Club of Boston, was submitted for approval.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Is it customary on an application for a license to have the bond in with the application?

President KELLY—I am informed by the City Clerk they do it every year.

Coun. MUCHNICK—They send it in at the same time?

President KELLY—They send them both in together. They do that every year.

Coun. MUCHNICK—On the presumption we are just a rubber stamp?

President KELLY—The question is on the approval of the bond. It is a vote. Councilor Kinsella moves we adjourn.

Adjourned, at 5:15 p. m., on motion of Coun. KINSELLA, to meet on Monday, April 1, 1946, at 2 p. m.

CITY RECORD

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 38

SATURDAY, APRIL 13, 1946.

No. 15

MAYOR CURLEY GOES TO PEOPLE OF BOSTON AND THE STATE OVER THE RADIO IN EFFORT TO HAVE SENATE ACT FAVORABLY ON HIS LEGISLATIVE REQUEST FOR PERMISSION TO BORROW $10,000,000 THIS YEAR TO KEEP BOSTON'S TAX RATE DOWN AND TO LOWER THE BURDEN NOW BORNE—AGAIN WARNS THAT ALTERNATIVE TO GRANTING HIS REQUEST WILL MEAN HIGHER RATE AND ADDED BURDEN NOT ONLY ON BOSTON BUT WILL HAVE EFFECT ON STATE—ASKS THAT RADIO AUDIENCE COMMUNICATE WITH SENATORS OF ALL DISTRICTS TO HAVE THEM VOTE FAVORABLY.

The following is the address delivered by Mayor James M. Curley, over station WMEX on April 7, in the interest of his request to the Legislature to be allowed to borrow $10,000,000 to keep the tax rate down:

The Massachusetts State Senate will tomorrow pass judgment upon the measure introduced by me, seeking authority to borrow $10,000,000 for the relief of the tax rate of the City of Boston.

I sincerely hope that everyone in this audience who shares my views will make it his business to communicate with the State Senator in his district, regardless of where he may live in the Commonwealth. After all, that which affects Boston adversely must affect adversely every other city or town in the Commonwealth. The question really to be determined is whether or not Boston is worth saving for the welfare of the people of the entire State.

I was not elected Mayor of Boston to raise the tax rate of this city. I was not elected by a minority group. The voice of the people spoke on November 6, and inspired by their vote of confidence I set myself to the task of rebuilding Boston. I had promised in a radio address four days before the election to file a bill seeking authority to permit the City of Boston to borrow a sum not exceeding $10,000,000 for the purpose of tax rate relief.

Leaders Invited to Join.

On Election Day, the voters of Boston by an overwhelming vote endorsed this proposal when they elected me as their Mayor. In keeping that promise, I introduced legislation designed to accomplish that proposal, and I invited the leaders of industrial, commercial, banking and insurance interests in this city to join with me in my proposal. I pointed out that during the reconversion period Boston, like every other large city in the country, would be faced with the problem of expenditures during 1946 far in excess of the previous year. I discussed the possibility of raising revenue in some other form of taxation and asked for any proposal that would afford relief to the already heavily burdened home owner. In the absence of any alternative proposal I invited the Legislature to listen to an open discussion on the Boston tax problem and I explained in detail the needs of Boston and the necessity of asking for authority to borrow a sum of money not exceeding $10,000,000 in order to grant the tax rate relief.

The borrowing of money occasioned by any emergency requires the sanction of the Legislature, and borrowings of this nature are not resorted to as a settled and permanent fiscal policy but as a means of relieving an acute situation and predating the costs over the tax rate of future years.

The stresses of war have made great demands upon the government of the city and great inroads upon its physical plant. It has been impossible, partly because of financial reasons and partly by reason of the shortage of labor and materials, to keep the municipal plant in condition to serve the minimum needs of the people of Boston. These factors have brought about a situation in which the needs of the people of Boston with regard to health, welfare and physical safety itself cannot be adequately met.

The city, like any other institution, is facing a drastic problem of reconversion to peace-time operations. Moneys spent for these purposes are not a current expenditure of the year 1946. The expenditures are necessary to serve the needs of the people of Boston for the future as well as for the current year and, while serving the people of Boston, they in turn serve all the people of the Commonwealth.

Boston is confined, in the raising of revenue, to a single type of taxation, which for practical purposes is restricted almost entirely to taxation of real estate. That system of taxation is unable to meet the necessary expenditures of the city even in normal times without excessive hardship on a particular group of citizens—those who own real estate. I proposed, therefore, the alternative of borrowing to meet the extraordinary needs of this year to the end that it would afford some relief to the taxpayer in the City of Boston.

Proposal for Relief.

I proposed it also with the thought that it would spread the extraordinary expenditures over the tax rate of several years, instead of concentrating it in the rate for 1946. It is argued that borrowing of this character is unjustified in times of prosperity; that is, at a time when money is plentiful. Those who propose this argument apparently assume that the prosperity of which they speak can in some way be reached by the city for revenue purposes. In fact there is no such possibility. In practice the city is confined to a tax on real estate. In practice the prosperity assumed by those objecting to this legislation is reflected to only a slight degree in the real estate values under the present archaic tax system.

From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

BUSINESS PROPERTY IN DOWNTOWN DISTRICT, LONG NON-TAX REVENUE PRODUCING, VALUED AT MORE THAN $1,550,000, RETURNS $728,500 TO CITY TREASURY AT AUCTION—SOLD UNDER HAMMER BY IRVING LEWIS, CHAIRMAN OF BOSTON REAL ESTATE COMMISSION—NOW RETURNED TO TAX-PRODUCING CONDITION—SPIRITED BIDDING BY AUDIENCE OF MORE THAN 150 INTERESTED REALTORS.

The sale by auction under the hammer wielded by Irving Lewis, Chairman of the City of Boston Real Estate Commission, who acted as auctioneer of five city-owned properties, brought a potential $728,500 into the city treasury on Wednesday, April 10. Incidentally, by acting as auctioneer the chairman of the board saved the city $17,101.50 in fees.

The properties, assessed at $1,550,000, were auctioned at the rooms of the Boston Real Estate Board, 7 Water street.

The largest property at 207-211 Washington street, former home of the Morris Plan Bank, and used last year by Mayor Curley as campaign headquarters, was auctioned for $279,000. It is assessed at $700,000. Buyer of the property was Arthur Shatman, who said he was in the real estate business.

Land and building at 9 Park street, only a few doors down from the State House, was purchased for $62,000, as-essed at $175,000, by Karl H. Healer, who has a partnership in the jewelry store now on the first floor of the property.

Nathan Sharaf, who owns a chain of 12 restaurants in the Boston area, purchased a corner property at 143-147 Federal street for $45,000. It was assessed at $75,000 and contains a five-story building.

Max R. Cargman, representing a Chicago real estate firm, bid $225,000 on property at 161-175 Devonshire street, which is assessed at $500,000.

Property at 359-363 Boylston street was purchased by Abbott N. Kahn for $117,500. Mr. Kahn, who was released from the service recently, was a lieutenant in the Navy.

More than 150 persons attended the sales which not only brought revenue into the city treasury but also placed the properties back into the tax-producing class.

MAYOR CURLEY IN RADIO APPEAL ON PETITION TO LEGISLATURE FOR PERMISSION TO BORROW $10,000,000.

The City of Boston today is unquestionably a larger, more wealthy, and busier city than it was in the year 1911. Tremendous additions have been made during the last thirty-five years to the physical bulk of our real estate in the way of office buildings, factories, dwellings, apartment houses and other types of taxable realty. Yet, it is an astounding fact that despite the tremendous volume of such physical additions to the taxable real estate the taxable valuation upon which the city must rely for its revenue is today the same as it was thirty-five years ago in the year 1911. This would indicate that the tremendous expansion in the physical plant and in the volume of business done in the City of Boston has not reflected itself in real estate values. If such increase in business and prosperity is to be reached by taxation and made available to help support the municipal service which it requires, then it is evident that some other type must be employed.

FOR WELFARE OF STATE.

The question really to be determined is as to whether or not Boston is worth saving for the welfare of the entire people of the State.

The measure, as drafted, is in no sense an innovation for the reason that the city has borrowed in the past twelve years $80,000,000 for current expenses under authority of the State, of which amount $50,000,000 was to be retired through taxation. Of this huge amount there is still a sum of $19,000,000 unpaid as of the beginning of this year and I will be required to include in the tax rates for the next four years approximately $14,000,000 of this amount—not a dollar of which was incurred by me. As a matter of fact, in this year of 1946, I must include in the tax rate $4,165,000 for this outstanding debt.

I received a report yesterday from the Public Welfare Department which is somewhat appalling and which reads as follows:

"New applications and reapplications to this department for all types of assistance for the first three months of 1946 were almost 100 per cent greater than those received for the corresponding months in 1945.

"Expenditures for March, 1946, were approximately $113,000 more than those for March, 1945. However, if the increased trend in applications continues, expenditures for later months in the year will be very much greater when compared with corresponding months in 1945.

"During this first three months in 1946, 11,102 persons filed claims for unemployment compensation. Unemployment compensation is granted for a period of twenty-three weeks at $21 per week. Consequently, unless business conditions substantially improve, a large number of persons receiving unemployment compensation may be obliged to apply for assistance when the unemployment compensation benefits expire.

"The case loads in dollars represent $1,036,000 for 1946 as against $923,535 for the same period of 1945 and are obligations which the city must discharge for the aid of the needy and unfortunate, and there is every indication that during the year there will be a further increase which may equal the peak load of 1933, which was $14,500,000 for public welfare and soldiers' relief."

OTHER LARGE CITIES.

In New York, legislation has been adopted providing for a new system of taxation which will net the City of New York $68,000,000, and this legislation received the approval of both Republicans and Democrats in the New York State Assembly. Los Angeles, at the other end of the country, has adopted ordinances providing for additional revenue in the sum of $12,600,000 outside of the tax on real estate, and Cleveland, in the centre of the country, has adopted measures where they will receive over $13,000,000 from sources other than by taxes on real estate, and in the deep South—Alabama—$10,000,000 is being distributed by the State to the cities and counties of the State for the reduction of the tax rate.

Legislative bodies in every progressive state of the Union are granting relief to their respective cities and towns. The Republican Legislature in New York has granted to a Democratic Mayor forty-four out of the forty-eight measures he requested for the City of New York. Why should the people of Boston in 1946 be deprived of the right of tax rate relief that has been granted to them by the Legislature during the past twelve years? All that I seek from the Legislature is a fair and equitable authority to grant to the people of this city the relief which I advocated.

Legislative proposals calling for a huge expenditure approaching nearly $100,000,000 for highways, port development and for air transportation have received favorable consideration by the Legislature, while it is common knowledge that these proposed improvements cannot be of value unless there is a sufficient backlog of business to make them profitable, and a backlog of business is only possible by a tax rate less than $40. This is vital if we are to retain industries now located here and to induce other industries to establish here.

Everyone appears to be willing to give lip service to the unemployed and needy veterans. There is only one thing that the average veteran who has sacrificed for his country in the hour of trial asks for, and that is a fair opportunity to earn a livelihood with a sufficient wage to maintain his family in conformity with American customs. This is only possible through industry and commerce. Let's stop following methods that make all these men who served their country in the hour of crisis mendicants or peddlars of apples or other wares. Let's find work for the veterans and, finding that work, preserve their self-respect, decency and spirit of Americanism.

ADVERTISING RATES FOR "CITY RECORD" ADVANCED.

The Mayor has approved the following suggestions of the City Auditor for advancing City Record's advertising rates:

BOSTON, February 5, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—During 1945, expenditures in connection with the publication of the City Record exceeded receipts by $14,492.27. This is the twelfth consecutive year in which an operating deficit has occurred in connection with the publication of the official organ of the city.

The main reason for this continuing annual loss is the fact that since 1934 it has been necessary to advertise only once in the City Record in connection with the sale or taking of delinquent tax properties. Prior to 1934, three separate and distinct advertisements were necessary. Since tax sale advertising is the most important source of revenue to the City Record, it is only natural that the material reduction which has taken place in such advertising since 1934 should seriously impair the revenue structure of the City Record.

Under the provisions of section 2, chapter 32 of the Revised Ordinances "the price to be paid by departments for advertising therein (City Record) shall be fixed by the City Auditor with the approval of the Mayor." The present advertising rate of $2 per inch has been in effect for at least three decades and is a much lower rate than that charged by newspapers throughout the city. I am advised that the minimum rate charged by the principal daily newspapers of the city is $4.50 per inch. I appreciate that raising the rate will result in increasing advertising expense of those departments who use the City Record for this purpose. I believe, however, that the advertising charge to departments should more closely approximate the actual cost of the service than is true at the present time. I therefore recommend and request your approval to fixing the advertising rate to be charged by the City Record effective March 1, 1946, at $4 per inch. This doubling in the advertising costs, while it will not eliminate the entire operating deficit, will go a long way toward placing City Record on a self-supporting basis.

Very truly yours,

CHARLES J. FOX,
City Auditor.

Inspector of Fire Alarm Boxes.

The Mayor has approved the following request of the Fire Commissioner:

Boston, March 26, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:—A communication dated March 13, 1946, was received from your office suggesting that consideration be given to the creation of a position of Inspector of Fire Alarm Boxes. Also, the name of Mr. John J. Delaney of the Fire Alarm Construction Force was recommended for appointment to the position should it be established.

I have conferred with the Superintendent of Fire Alarm to ascertain the present system of inspection of fire alarm boxes and to determine the advisability of designating some member of the Fire Alarm Division as Inspector of Fire Alarm Boxes.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters, rule 206-15, states:

"Boxes shall be maintained in good operative condition. They shall be examined, cleaned and tested monthly...."

I find that the Fire Department is not carrying out the recommendations of the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

In October, 1945, the Superintendent of Fire Alarm submitted a communication to the Fire Commissioner requesting that additional men be appointed to the Construction Force, pointing out that due to inadequate personnel and the shortage of trained telegraphers, the fire alarm boxes of the City of Boston were not being properly inspected. Instead of boxes being tested once a month most of the boxes were being tested only two and three times, and in some cases, once a year, with a result that in several cases fire alarm boxes were found to be in an inoperative condition. This is a serious condition. The failure of a box to transmit an alarm of fire might be the cause of large property damage or loss of life.

The Fire Department has a definite responsibility in maintaining its 1,400 or more fire alarm boxes in perfect working condition.

As a result of the information at hand I request that your Honor approve the creation of the position of Inspector of Fire Alarm Boxes. Furthermore, upon recommendation of the Superintendent of Fire Alarm, I believe that Mr. John J. Delaney is qualified to fulfill the duties of this position. At the present time Mr. Delaney is a cable splicer in the Construction Force, employed at a salary of $2,300 a year plus $200 E. C. A. I believe that the responsibility incumbent upon an Inspector of Fire Alarm Boxes warrants a permanent fixed salary of $2,700 a year.

Respectfully yours,

RUSSELL S. CODMAN, JR.,
Fire Commissioner.

MERCHANT SHIP PRODUCTION.

Merchant vessels built in the United States in 1943 numbered 1,896 with a total deadweight tonnage of 19,239,626, according to a report by Admiral Land, chairman of the Maritime Commission and administrator of the War Shipping Administration. Of these 208, aggregating 2,044,238 deadweight tons, were completed in December. Of the 1943 production, 1,238 vessels were Liberty ships; 70 C-1 cargo ships, 53 C-2 cargo ships; 39 C-3 cargo ships; 5 C-4 cargo ships; 167 tankers; 28 coastal tankers; 57 Liberty tankers; 3 passenger-cargo vessels; 33 coastal cargo ships, including two concrete ships; 16 ore carriers; 27 concrete barges; 46 seagoing tugs; 114 military types, not transports; 53 special types and a considerable number of smaller types, including tugs, barges, etc. Late in 1943, Admiral Land said 2,900 ships were under control of the War Shipping Administration, operated by some 76 general agents of the W. S. A.

FORECAST OF EXPENDITURES IN 1945.

A total of $308,840,000 is forecast as the expenditures of the transit industry in 1945 for new equipment and maintenance of existing property and equipment. This sum is $25,000,000 more than the forecast for 1944 made at this time last year, and is $40,000,000 more than the expenditure ultimately made in 1944.

Total expenditures in 1945 for new equipment are expected to reach $101,100,000 which compares with $65,592,000 in 1944. New rolling stock will absorb most of the additional money with $61,000,000 being allocated to new buses, $12,000,000 to new cars and $5,000,000 to new trolley coaches. However, it is estimated that $20,000,000 will be spent on ways and structures, which is nearly $5,000,000 more than was spent in 1944. In the power and line departments capital expenditures are forecast at $3,100,000, which is slightly less than was spent in 1944, but is more than double the amount that was forecast for 1944 at this time last year.

Only moderate increases in maintenance expenditures are forecast for 1945. For maintenance materials the total for 1945 is put at $78,340,000, which compares with $76,561,000 spent in 1944. Maintenance labor costs are placed at $129,400,000 for 1945 compared with $126,343,000 in 1944.

FIRE DEFENSES OF FORTY-FOUR CITIES SURVEYED IN 1944, TEN CHANGE CLASS.

During the year 1944 five cities of more than 10,000 population were placed in a better fire insurance classification, and five other cities were put into a poorer class as the result of new surveys made by the National Board of Fire Underwriters or by state rating organizations.

At the end of 1944 a total of 28 cities over 25,000 population were in class 2, 104 cities in class 3, 128 in class 4, and the remaining cities in classes 5 and 6, with none in class 1.

The fire insurance classification of a city is determined through the use of the grading schedule of the National Board of Fire Underwriters in making an engineering appraisal of fire protection facilities.

MODEL FOR BLACKOUT ORDINANCES.

The National Institute of Municipal Law Officers has prepared a blackout ordinance, approved by the Office of Civilian Defense; it delegates reasonable administrative powers to the proper executive officer and contemplates both actual air raid conditions and those of practice blackouts. Several state leagues of municipalities have also prepared model ordinances.

The first city to enact a blackout ordinance was Seattle, Washington, early last year. Many others have done so more recently, the ordinances ranging in character from the type that delegates all authority to the mayor or city manager to those providing no delegation of power but outlining completely the rules for civilian conduct during blackouts. In some cases, at least, the city is declared not liable for damage to persons or property resulting from an authorized blackout.—Municipal Review.

COMPENSATION OF MEDICAL PANEL BOARD EXAMINING VETERANS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 1, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the attached communication from the City Auditor, which is apparently self-explanatory. I recommend for adoption by your Honorable Body the attached order which provides for the compensation of members of the medical panel board in connection with the examination of veterans seeking retirement on the grounds of being incapacitated for further service.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Auditor's Office, April 1, 1946.
Hon. James M. Curley,

Mayor of Boston.
Dear Sir,—Under the provisions of section 57A of chapter 32 of the General Laws, the city is required to pay the expenses of the medical panel board which, since the first of the current year, has been responsible for the physical examination of veterans seeking retirement on the grounds of being incapacitated for further active service. The board, which consists of three members, is meeting every Wednesday, and so far has examined at least two applicants at each meeting. The compensation established for members' services is ten dollars per member per examination.

Because it is impossible to foresee or estimate in advance what departments will be effected, I feel payment of examination expenses should be charged to the Contingent Fund. I suggest, therefore, that the accompanying order be submitted to the City Council for consideration and adoption.

Respectfully,
CHARLES J. FOX, City Auditor.

Ordered, That, until otherwise ordered, the expenses incurred by the medical panel provided under the provisions of section 57A of chapter 32 of the General Laws, for the examination of veterans, be charged to the Contingent Fund.
Referred to Executive Committee.

LOAN FOR PURCHASE OF DEPARTMENTAL EQUIPMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 1, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am submitting herewith a loan order for departmental equipment in the sum of $1,500,000, for the purchase of much needed equipment in many of the city departments.

In preparation of the budget for 1946, requests for permanent equipment included in the budget estimates amounted to over $1,100,000, and, as the purchase of this permanent equipment could be provided for by bond issue, I disallowed such items in the budget, hoping thereby to save an increase in the tax rate.

As you well know, departmental equipment is in a most deplorable condition, due largely to the failure of the city to purchase such necessary equipment as was available, and further, in the last couple of years, the non-availability of such equipment, due to wartime restrictions.

The most pressing problem concerns the lack of proper fire-fighting equipment, which, in my opinion, will require a total of $1,000,000 in new equipment to properly protect the city from fire hazards, and it is my purpose to make available from this proposed loan approximately $500,000, to be expended in the current year and next year for such equipment.

The pressing need for necessary equipment in the Public Works Department, the Park Department, and other departments of the city will require the purchase of equipment as soon as it becomes available.

Upon final approval by your Honorable Body, I shall cause the Superintendent of Supplies to advertise as promptly as possible and to make contracts for the purchase of equipment, as soon as such equipment becomes available.

I, therefore, recommend your early consideration of this loan issue, and I respectfully request its adoption by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That under the provisions of clause 9 of section 7 of chapter 44 of the General Laws, the sum of $1,500,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended by various departmental officials, under the direction of the Mayor, for costs of additional departmental equipment, and that, to meet said appropriation, the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, on request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.
Referred to the Finance Committee.

SALE OF LAND AT SUMNER AND ORLEANS STREETS, EAST BOSTON.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 1, 1946.
To the Honorable City Council.

Gentlemen,—The City of Boston in 1940 under proceedings in the Land Court acquired a parcel of foreclosed tax title property containing approximately 16,000 square feet of land situated on the southwesterly side of Sumner street at the westerly corner of Orleans street in the East Boston district. By an order of your Honorable Body passed September 29, 1941, this parcel of foreclosed tax title property was transferred from the care, custody, control and management of the Custodian, Foreclosed Real Estate Division, to the Park Department, for the purposes of establishing thereon a playground.

The Board of Park Commissioners informs me that the site of this parcel of property is at the junction of two heavily travelled streets where truck travel predominates and bounds the railroad property of the Boston & Albany Railroad Company. In the opinion of the Park Department it would be exceedingly dangerous for children to go to and from a playground on this site, and it would be very costly to develop this parcel of land into a suitable playground.

A prospective purchaser desires to obtain this parcel of land for the purpose of erecting thereon a factory for the manufacture and packaging of foodstuffs. I am informed that this proposed enterprise will erect a modern factory building and employ a substantial number of people.

In my opinion this parcel of land situated in a commercial district is not suited nor may it be adapted for playground purposes, and it is my further opinion that this parcel of city-owned property now lying idle, vacant and non-taxable, and no longer needed for any public purpose, should be sold, and thereby accomplish the fourfold measures of the restoration of productivity of property, the addition to city revenues of the purchase price, the return and addition of such property together with the improvements thereon to the tax assessment rolls, and the means of providing increased employment and pay rolls.

I recommend that this parcel of land be sold at public auction at an upset price of $1,500, and your consideration and passage of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Whereas, The City of Boston by a decree of the Land Court, Suffolk Registry District, dated March 26, 1940, foreclosed a right of redemption under a tax deed recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 5668, page 120, on about sixteen thousand (16,000) square feet of land on the southwesterly side of Sumner street, numbered two hundred forty-five (245) in the numbering of said Sumner street, making the westerly corner of Orleans street in the East Boston district; and

Whereas, The said parcel of foreclosed tax title property by an order passed in City Council September 29, 1941, and approved by the Mayor September 30, 1941, was transferred from the care, custody, control and management of the Custodian, Foreclosed Real Estate Division, to the care, custody, control and management of the Park Department, to be used for playground purposes; and

Whereas, The said parcel of land has not been used for playground purposes and in the opinion of the Park Department the said parcel of land is not suitable for playground purposes and is no longer needed for any public purpose; now, therefore, it is hereby Ordered, That the Chairman, Board of Real Estate Commissioners of the City of Boston, be, and he hereby is, authorized in the name and behalf of the City of Boston to sell at public auction at an upset price of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) the said parcel of land hereinafter described; and, it is hereby further Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor of the City of Boston be, and he hereby is, authorized in the name and behalf of the City of Boston to execute and deliver to a purchaser at said public auction a written instrument satisfactory in form to the Law Department of the City of Boston, conveying said parcel of land, bounded and described as follows:

"Land on the southwesterly side of Sumner street, numbered two hundred forty-five (245) in the numbering of said Sumner street, making the westerly corner of Orleans street, adjoining an estate now or formerly of Boston & Albany Railroad Company (numbered 243 Sumner street), and supposed to contain about sixteen thousand (16,000) square feet."

Referred to Committee on Public Lands.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—This is in reply to Council order dated March 19, 1946, which reads as follows:

"Ordered, That the Traffic Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install push-button traffic signals at the intersection of Cottage and Maverick streets, Ward 1."

In the opinion of the engineers of this commission traffic conditions at the intersection of Cottage street and Maverick street do not warrant the installation of a traffic signal.

There are certain minimum conditions which must obtain before the approval of the State Department of Public Works can be secured for a traffic signal installation. The volume of cross traffic using Cottage street is below the minimum requirements.

Furthermore, while it is to be deplored that serious accidents have occurred at this intersection, the record shows that the number of these accidents is far below that at hundreds of other non-signalized intersections throughout the city.

Respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. HICKEY, Commissioner.

Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—I return order of City Council passed at its meeting of March 19, and reading as follows:

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to instruct the Commissioner of Public Works to employ at once sufficient temporary help for the purpose of cleaning up the streets of Boston before Easter."

The regular force of our department has been supplemented by the appointment of one hundred and five temporary men; forty of these men are working in the Highway Division and sixty-five in the Sanitary Division.

All of the forces of these two divisions are now concentrated on the work of street cleaning in connection with the annual clean-up campaign. We are following this matter very carefully so that within a short time all of the streets of the city will be thoroughly cleaned.

Respectfully yours,
ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, among those requests I notice there was one asking for permission to hire temporary help in order that the streets might be cleaned by Eastertime. I hope that that request won't take the usual procedure of being placed on file, and I don't think it will be because I know that the Public Works Commissioner is anxious to do a good job and get the streets, which are without question a disgrace to the city, cleaned up. It is too bad this request did not come earlier, in order that a sufficient number of men might be obtained to do the work that was necessary. One thought that I had in mind in connection with the cleaning of the streets is this: It will do no good to clean the streets unless at some time something is done to clean the sidewalks and to clean the vacant city property and the vacant land area that is being used during the year by the public and others for dumping purposes. I don't know whether we should expect the street cleaners to clean off the sidewalks or not, but I have observed time and time again a street sweeper going through a district, and there was more dirt left on the sidewalk and cluttered around iron fences and wooden fences than was actually on the street itself, and, lo and behold, the men had no more than left that particular section of the street when the debris that was on the sidewalk and cluttered around the fences was blown into the street again. Now, if the job is going to be done, let us, at least on this particular occasion, have the job done right. Time and time again complaints have come to me, and I dare say have gone to each and every other member of the Council, from persons wanting to know why the streets are not kept in a cleaner condition. I suppose we are all to blame one way or another for the condition of the streets at times, but in order to hope that, for any length of time, the streets will be kept clean, we have got to have at the same time a good job done on the sidewalks and around the fences, and we have got to have the Mayor send out word to the employees of the contractors, warning those individuals against the careless manner that they pursue in dumping barrels onto the ash carts. I have seen on more than one occasion a street not in too bad condition on the day when the ashes and rubbish were being collected, only to see the employees of the contractor who had the contract in my district, with utter disregard for cleanliness and health and what not, deliberately and carelessly strew rubbish and ashes along the street. The contractor is to be sympathized with. However, we can't carry that excuse back to the taxpayers. They expect the job to be done right, and we want the job done right, but when this street cleaning program gets under way I certainly hope that for once a thorough job will be done, even if it takes two or three weeks longer to do it. There is absolutely no sense in sweeping the streets and permitting the sidewalks to be cluttered with rubbish, when it is only a matter of minutes when that rubbish is blown into the streets again, and then they look as bad as though they were never touched at all.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I observed on Sudbury street the other day some city employees sweeping the gutters in front of the commercial establishments there. When I arrived at City Hall I went up to the Public Works Commissioner and asked him why it would not be better to divert those men to the areas where families lived, rather than to do the work for non-resident business men. And he said that the greatest accumulation of dirt and rubbish can be found in front of these stores and business establishments, because they use so much paper and twine and one thing and another. But it doesn't strike me as an adequate answer. I have seen in Charlestown as recently as this morning a handful of city employees sweeping up Main street, and I saw mountains of dirt, two feet high, going over the curbstone, as close to each other as two feet. Apparently a few shovelfuls of the broom and they have four or five shovelfuls of dirt, grime and refuse waiting for a truck to come along and pick it up. I wish that somebody in this city would establish the policy of cleaning the streets for the health of the residents, rather than for the scenic beauty of people who come into the city. I have as much pride in the appearance of the City of Boston as anybody in the city, but if I were Mayor of this city I would pay less attention to the commercial streets of the city until the residential streets were cleaned up, and I wouldn't care what the criticism was or where it stemmed from as long as the menace and danger to the health of the people of the city was removed. And once again I say that I don't think it is an adequate answer that the sidewalks and gutters in front of commercial establishments ought to be cleaned first for non-residents, and I wish that I might have said that in the form of an order so it would reach somebody's eye. When you see the condition of the streets of Boston, due no doubt to the tremendous fall of snow that we had this past season, it makes you wonder if Boston is the only dirty city around. We have heard Cambridge extolled for the fine job of snow removing they did, and when those methods were suggested to us we were told that they cleaned up the entire city of Cambridge for $15,000, but subsequent investigation showed that they did only the main streets, and very likely you can be dead sure that Brattle street and Kirkland street, where the aristocratic element lives, were considered among the main streets. I bet they didn't go into side streets where Joe Doakes lives. But until they stop thinking about all the scenic beauty of Boston, rather than its appearance, Boston will be just what it is.

Coun. RUSSO—If I am in order, I would like to speak on a previous order.

President KELLY—You are perfectly welcome, councilor.

Coun. RUSSO—Of course, on these orders there have been many orders presented in the Council, and I have presented many of them myself, and I concur in the opinion of the previous speakers. In particular, I think if you look at the records you will find that Easter and Christmas days, which are remembered by everyone, are the days that seem to be most forgotten. And particularly in regard to the owners of stores that don't live in the district that they do business in, where they sell fruit, vegetables and various other items. I say that something ought to be done. We need the cooperation of the people themselves, and we must have the cooperation of the city employees. But each must work hand in hand; otherwise we will never get anywhere, and it is very nauseating at times, Mr. President, to see that these individuals day in and day out, night in and night out, seem to forget the people that live in the neighborhood once they close their stores. The proper authorities ought to do something about it, perhaps by warning them, in the first place, and then, if not followed up, by taking drastic action. And I refer to Salem street, Cross street, Prince street, and there are other streets in my particular district. Every Easter Sunday you will find they leave their refuse and garbage and everything outside, forgetting the people that live there. So I do hope that the proper authorities will do something about it this coming Easter and every day thereafter.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. CAREY—Does the communication from the Mayor indicate how many men he had anticipated putting on for street cleaning?

President KELLY—The Chair will gladly have that read.

(The communication is read by the clerk.)

Coun. CAREY—Frankly, I think we could use 105 men in District 7 alone. I know within the past month there has been very little cleaning done in District 7, which embraces Roxbury and Jamaica Plain, principally because the force that ordinarily works out of that yard has been used downtown. Now it is well to have the streets clean and in a presentable way and I guess in every ward there are taxpayers who for the most part do cooperate in an endeavor to keep the streets clean. But, with the exception of Tremont street, that part that runs through Ward 10, I don't think the men of the Highland Street yard have had a fair opportunity to do any of the street cleaning in my ward, and the weather has been such for the last five or six weeks that plenty of street cleaning could have been done. But in talking with the foreman out in the Highland Street yard, he tells me he has neither the men nor the equipment. He has three trucks out there, and sometimes you will find that one of those trucks can be used in the morning, and two have to stay in the yard. We have no street sweepers out there, although we will from time to time observe mechanical street sweepers in the downtown sections of the city. Well, I think the people back in the residential sections are just as much entitled to the use of mechanical sweepers as the people in the downtown section, in the business section. I find in my experience of over five years that very little is done in the way of giving tax relief to the residential taxpayers of the city. Therefore, it is about time that they were given a break, seeing that the streets in their districts are put into and kept in a presentable condition. It is common sense to know, with the force that they have in District 7, and no doubt every other district in the city, with no mechanical sweepers, that it is impossible to keep the streets in good condition, to either sweep them or make any other effort to keep them in good condition. So let us hope that this won't only be a matter of 105 men being put on. Let them send them out to District 7, where they are badly needed, and the need is there for more men. So let us quit kidding ourselves and the people in our districts. It is impossible to keep the streets clean without proper facilities, and I hope that his Honor the Mayor will see to it that proper facilities are obtained to do this work.

Coun. KEENAN—Mr. President, I would like to add a few words to what Councilor Carey has said. Out in Dorchester, in the Gibson Street Sanitary Yard—I stopped there last week—they informed me that that yard takes in practically five wards of Dorchester, and all they have is nine men, no sweepers and no trucks. I inquired how many were to be sent out from the list that his Honor the Mayor submitted of 150 temporary men, and they said they were either in the Back Bay or downtown. So I hope that the few words I have to say will be added to what Councilor Carey has said, in order to see that more men are sent out to my ward, which is positively a disgrace.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, about two or three years ago, when Governor Tobin was Mayor, if you recall, we appropriated $5,000 to organize a clean-up campaign in the city. The city then was in as deplorable a shape as it is today, and I made the statement at that time, which has just occurred to me, and which I shall repeat, that probably 80 per cent of the filth of the city is contributed by non-Bostonians. And I stand to prove my statement. I have observed hundred after hundred leaving their trains in the morning, who will walk along the streets towards their place of employment, and at some place along the line one out of ten will take an old newspaper that he has finished reading and throw it into the gutter or lay it on a wide window ledge, or throw it into a doorway of a building that probably is not occupied or at that time in the morning is not open. They don't make use of the refuse and trash stands provided by the city. They throw their empty cigar and cigarette packages and empty match packages into the street. I have seen over at Bunker Hill Monument, one of the hallowed shrines of this part of the country—and, yes, of the world—I have seen groups of tourists going up the stairs, while somebody, generally the father of the group, very often stays behind, and, since those cars are out-of-town cars and have done some travelling, it gives them a chance to brush out the back and front of their car, right onto the sidewalk. Now, we take great pride in the condition of the streets around the monument, but God alone knows how much dirt the visitors for whom we clean up bring back to us without charge. I say in defence of the Boston residents, many of whom are lax and indifferent, that not all of them are lax and indifferent. I have seen a long stream of Navy Yard workers leave that yard down there in the evening, race over Bunker Hill street, throw out empty cigarette packages and newspapers, and the casual observer riding along through the town later says, "What can you expect from Charlestown people?" But they don't know how to analyze the condition or examine into it, and we take on the shameful burden of being unclean. Well, we are not unclean. That can be said of the average Boston ward where there is heavy non-residential traffic. They bring in 80 per cent of our scum and dirt, and don't pay a damn cent toward removing it. And then when we have to appropriate money up here it is like pulling teeth without gas. I think the truth of the matter is that word I utter today about the non-Bostonian, and what I said two or three years ago was and still is the truth. Eighty per cent of the filth of Boston is brought in here without charge to us, except for removal. And that is what makes me more and more in favor of an occupational location tax. If they are going to bring that in, they should have to compensate for it, and give us something with which to remove it. Half of them who are taken to the City Hospital on any given night, collapsing in the street, don't live in Boston, and rarely, if ever, pay Boston for the treatment given to them there. It was only last week that the City of Medford threatened to take a resident of Charlestown into court for non-payment of a hospital bill. I have yet to hear of the City of Boston threatening to take a non-Bostonian into court for non-payment of a hospital bill. I think the truth is a little bitter for them to swallow, but it is truth and they can swallow it or not.

"STOP" SIGN ON SOUTH STREET.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner, in reply to your order of March 4, 1946, to place a "stop" sign on South street, at the corner of Centre street, Ward 20.

Traffic Commission, March 22, 1946.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—This is in reply to Council order dated March 4, 1946, which reads as follows: "Ordered, That the Traffic Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to place a "stop" sign on South street, at the corner of Centre street, Ward 20."

This location is comprised of the intersection of Centre street, Church street and South street. We assume that the Council order intends the installation of a stop sign in South street at Centre street to govern South street traffic entering the intersection. Because of the peculiar layout of this intersection it would be necessary to erect such a sign at a point so far back of the desired stopping point that it could not be effective.

Accurate observations made by this department show that only about 30 per cent of motorists obey stop signs. It is our opinion that the percentage which would obey a sign erected at this location would be much less, and that a more dangerous condition than exists at present would be created, because Centre street traffic would assume that all traffic entering the area from South street would stop before entering. As a result, the Centre street traffic would proceed through the intersection at a higher rate of speed than it does under present conditions and would thereby increase the potential collision hazard.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM P. HICKEY, Commissioner.

RECONSTRUCTION OF RICHARD C. HUMPHREYS SCHOOL.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor direct the School Committee to make immediate plans for the reconstruction or the replacing of the Richard C. Humphreys School in Ward 13, which was destroyed by fire.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, a few weeks ago one of the schools in my district was destroyed by fire. This, of course, necessitates transfer of the pupils to another school, with the result that that school is very much overcrowded. The children are forced to go a longer distance to school, and many times they have to face traffic conditions and cross very heavily traveled streets. This, of course, I understand, is a very temporary arrangement, as it was an emergency which could not be anticipated. However, for many weeks this school, since the fire, has been there, apparently standing on its own; and even yet, as I understand it, no determination has been reached as to whether this school is going to be repaired or torn down. Now, we need that school. Of course, a school cannot be built overnight, and I want the children of my district to have proper facilities for educational purposes. This school is needed, and if the School Committee has not got the money to repair or replace the school, we might as well find it out now and not wait until next September, when the children will be returning to school. We need that school there, and I want the school repaired or replaced.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

IMPROVEMENT FOR PLAYGROUND PURPOSES OF LAND ON CARSON STREET.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to direct the Park Commissioner to proceed forthwith with the improvement for playground purposes of the land on Carson street, Ward 13, now owned by the Park Department.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, sometime last year, in the fall of last year, I, through the cooperation of the other councilors, was able to put through the Council a transfer of land from the Real Estate Division to the Park Department of the city. Now that land belongs to the Park Department, and I think even yet the most pressing problem we face is the problem of juvenile delinquency, and it amazes me sometimes when I know that the heads of the departments, to whom the people have entrusted the recreational facilities for our children, really don't seem to put themselves out much to provide any recreational facilities for the youngsters. This vacant land has lain there all fall and winter. There has been nothing done to improve it. I would like to see something done. The kids can play there even if it isn't vacant, but it is about time that we heard the name "playground" given to something other than a mere bare tract of land. I think that a playground should be a playground. There should be some facilities there for the children to play. I hope the Park Commissioner will do something to improve this land and really make it inviting to the children of the neighborhood to go in there and play.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

ACCEPTANCE OF RUSKIN ROAD.

Coun. CANTWELL offered the following:
Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to accept and lay out as a public highway Ruskin road, Ward 18.

NAMING OF LAMARTINE STREET PLAYGROUND.

Coun. McCORMACK offered the following:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONSTABLES AND CONFIRMATIONS.

Coun. BRYAN, for the Committee on Constables and Confirmations, submitted the following:

Report on appointments by the Mayor (referred March 25) of constables for term ending April 30, 1946, authorized to serve civil process upon filing of bond, William Thomas Galvin and Walter E. Hamlet, and appointment of Joseph A. Locke as constable to serve without bond and without authority to serve civil process for term ending April 30, 1946—that same ought to pass.

The report was accepted, and the question came on confirmation of the appointments.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I wonder if I am in order that we lay this on the table for one week?

President KELLY—I have ordered the taking of the ballot. Are you going to make a motion that the three of them be laid on the table for one week?

Coun. RUSSO—Unless the Committee on Constables can give me some information.

President KELLY—Well, the Chair is going to refer this matter to the Executive. Is there any objection?

Coun. RUSSO—No objection.

The matter of confirmation of the above appointments was referred to the Executive Committee.

RECESS.

The Council voted at 3.15 p. m., on motion of Coun. HANNON, to take a recess subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled in the Council Chamber and were called to order by President KELLY at 4.25 p. m.

1. Report on petition of National League Baseball Club of Boston, Inc., for license for Sunday sports at Braves Field—recommending that license be granted.

Coun. MUCHNICK—May I have that read once more, just the heading?

(The report is again read, as requested.)

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, may my opposition be recorded for the same reasons advanced last week?

President KELLY—It will be recorded, councillor. The report was accepted, and the license was granted, under usual conditions.

The bond of the Indemnity Insurance Company of North America was submitted and approved by the Council.

2. Report on message from the Mayor and order (referred today) that expenses incurred by medical panel for examination of veterans be charged to the Contingent Fund—that same ought to pass.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. RUSSO—May I have the order read again?

(The order is again read by the clerk.)

Coun. RUSSO—I rise to a point of information, if I may, Mr. President.

President KELLY—There is no debate in the process of a roll call. You can ask a question.

Coun. RUSSO—I just started to ask, Mr. President, where was this money taken from, before? Is this new?

President KELLY—This is something new, councillor. This is the first year on it.

The question came on the passage of the order. The roll was called, with the result of yeas 15, nays 0.

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Bryan, Cantwell, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, McCormack, Moriarty, Muchnick, Russo, Scannell, Sullivan—15.

Nays—0.

3. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) that sum of $80,000 be appropriated, to be expended under direction of Institutions Commissioner, for purchase, alterations, etc., of boat for Institutions Department—that same ought to pass.

The report was accepted, and the question came on the passage of the order.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, I find myself now in a rather peculiar position, because I realize full well, of course, that any adverse statement or any adverse action might be interpreted as contrary to the best interests of politics and contrary to the best interests of those to whom this purchase is supposed to be of some benefit. However, we come here with certain obligations, and to the best of my ability I try to fulfill mine. Now, we are faced here today with a proposition of appropriating $80,000 for a boat. The boat itself, as I understand it, is to cost $42,500, and everybody who has appeared before the committee has informed us that this is a very good boat. So I am willing to take their word for it, that that $42,500 is a good buy. At the same time, however, the $42,500 is a lot of money to pay for a second-hand article, especially when you can be given no assurance and no proof that the article for which you are paying $42,500 is going to be of any value whatsoever. Now, I listened to the stories out there about the "Perkins" being damaged and about the "O'Meara" being damaged, and if they have been damaged why isn't this big boat going to be damaged, too? It seems to me we are proceeding backwards here. The thing to do—as I sat out there and listened, and I took great pains to listen rather than talk—I sat out there and listened, and I think the first step here is to prepare the harbor and prepare Long Island for the reception of this boat. We are going to spend $42,500 for a boat, and if you want to classify boats this thing is a tug. It is a tugboat. It is built primarily for towing purposes, and once we get it up here it is going to be dismantled, ripped apart, and practically reconstructed. Well, that might be good business, but I can't see it. If you are going to buy a pleasure car, I don't think you would buy a truck and take the body off and have seats put in there for passengers, and for the life of me I can't understand why they are buying a tugboat. The government must have other boats, and yet the commissioner was honest enough and man enough to tell us that no other boat was considered, no other boat was inspected, no other boat even was contemplated, before they made arrangements to purchase this boat. Now, I am no mariner. I don't want to compete with some of the other members of the Council whose judgment I respect in matters marine, but as a business man, as a member of the Council, I think it would be well for us to investigate how much the repairs of this boat are going to cost. And as one member of the Council brought out, suppose we do remove all this ballast, suppose we do remove these tanks that hold the oil and which will not be necessary on trips to Long Island, then if they encase it, put an upper deck on it, we don't know but what the thing might not operate, it might be top-heavy. And another phase of this subject I would like to consider before we spend $80,000 is this: What ever happened to the contemplated plans to move Long Island Hospital to the mainland? Have they been discarded? Have they been scrapped? Whatever became of the plan to build a bridge down there? Has that been abandoned? We are faced here with a proposition of paying $80,000 for a boat, and how long that is going to last we don't know. And maybe next week or next month they will be in here telling us that Long Island Hospital is going to be transferred to the mainland. That is what I would like to see, and that is why I hesitate to spend $80,000 for some question mark—and that is all it is, a question mark. The boat is $42,500, but this thing has got to be ripped off it, that thing has to be ripped off it, and then somebody has to tow it over here from New York. In plain language, I think we would be better off if we left the boat over in New York at least until other inquiries are made and see if there is not some other boat better fitted for our purposes, and determine and find out whether or not Long Island Hospital is going to stay at Long Island. This boat is used primarily to bring patients and bring visitors down to the hospital at Long Island. Now, if that hospital is going to be moved we won't need any boat, yet where is the answer to that question? And the other proposition is: When are we going to do this dredging? It is all right to tell us out there that it will only cost $1,000 to dredge Eastern Wharf, only cost $1,000 to dredge Long Island. When are we going to do it? After we get the boat? I think honestly and in all sincerity we should find out what is going to become of Long Island Hospital first before we start buying another boat. If I were going to spend $42,500 for a boat, or if I were to spend $80,000 for the complete purchase of some equipment that would take me back and forth to Long Island, I would go out in the market and get something new. I would get something I would know what I had. I would get something built to specifications, and built for a certain purpose. So I think, Mr. President, we ought to go slow on this matter. And I move that this matter be laid on the table until next week.

The motion to lay on the table was put to a vote. The Chair was in doubt and asked for a rising vote, and the motion was lost.

The question then came on the passage of the order.

Coun. HURLEY—Mr. President, I didn't intend to speak on this order. I am voting in favor of it for this reason, that since I have been in the Council the boats that have been taking passengers and freight to the islands in Boston Harbor have been costing us probably $35,000 to $40,000 a year. The councillor has brought out that if they are to move Long Island Hospital to the mainland it is not needed. I say it is needed, because whether we keep Long Island Hospital there and build a viaduct or move it to the mainland or not, it will be a matter of years before it is accomplished, and therefore you will need the boat. This boat here was built in 1944, and it took to the water two years ago. It must be in great shape. It is a government boat, and they kept their equipment up, and they estimate the cost would be $30,000 to put a superstructure on it. If it was $50,000, $20,000 over the estimate, I think the city would be saving money until such time as they decide what they are going to do with Long Island Hospital. There is an awful lot of controversy. I had a talk with the Mayor about Long Island Hospital about a week ago. I just happened to be talking to him casually about different things, and it was brought up about Long Island Hospital. I thought originally that Long Island Hospital belonged where it is, that it is a proper place there. It is a beautiful spot for a hospital and an almshouse. There is no suitable place in Boston that you can bring both of them. You can bring a hospital side of City Hall or in the South End, but certainly you are not going to bring an almshouse there. We were in the Council when they transferred the veterans' hospital to West Roxbury, the extreme end of Boston, in the face of all the petitions about putting that hospital out there. That is a nice, clean hospital. There is nothing unsightly about it. And of course with an almshouse you won't see the same spectacles—well dressed people on the grounds. It will be poor people. And of course you would want them in the best place in Boston. The best place in Boston would be right near Allston or parts of Jamaica Plain or Mattapan. Another thing that was brought to our attention was, if the hospital and almshouse were brought to the mainland, we have a graveyard down there with over 1,000 people buried, and then what becomes of the dead buried at Long Island? Do we move their bodies up, or do we still maintain Long Island and keep a respectable cemetery there, in addition to moving it on to the mainland? I think this investment here is a necessary investment, because if the almshouse and hospital are still situated on Long Island, it will be years before we can put in a modern building, and if they are brought to the mainland by the time the buildings are put up and the causeway is built, we will have to have boats to Long Island until that is built. And I think this order ought to pass. It is not a great expenditure of money, and when we think of the millions and millions of dollars we are spending here—and we know in the past years we have appropriated lots of money that has not been well spent and not well administered. If the necessity of using the boat does no longer exist, there probably will be a good market value for the boat from some company along the shore here.

Coun. HANNON—Well, Mr. President, I respect the opinion of my brother from Ward 8 (Coun. Hurley) and I think that much of what he said is true. We do spend a lot of money here. I think one of the obligations of every councilor here is to try and spend that money in the best possible way. And nobody can tell me that if we are spending $80,000 for a boat, $42,500 of which is the capital outlay for the structure of the boat itself, and the remainder of which is to be used for renovations, the cost of which nobody yet can estimate—nobody can tell me that is operating in a businesslike manner. I am not going to enter into any discussion about the proper location of the almshouse or the proper location of the hospital, but I want to correct my brother when he said that the best parts of Boston were Allston and Brighton. I just want to advise him that he made a mistake. The best part, of course, is Dorchester. I think my brother will acknowledge that. However, the question before us is whether or not this boat is worth $80,000; whether or not we should expend $80,000 on a proposition which has not been made clear to any one of us. Now I am as intelligent and as smart as any other member in the Council here, and I can understand that certain members of the Council might be more interested in a boat than others of us. Some are lovers of the sea. However, this question here resolves itself into two or three problems. Is Long Island Hospital going to be kept there is problem No. 1. If any part of it is going to be moved, then certainly we don't need a boat that is going to accommodate 250 passengers. If any part of it is moved, a much smaller boat will serve the purpose. Another factor is that if the government, with the number of boats that the government constructed, or the government has built, there must be boats that were built to carry passengers, and if that is so, why haven't we looked into the purchase of one of those boats? Why take an old tug? The head of the Institutions Department said today that the "O'Meara" and the "Perkins" only go six knots an hour, but he would guarantee this one would go twelve knots an hour. Well, if we are to get a boat, we might as well get a good one and, if I know anything about boating, I don't think twelve knots an hour is any kind of speed for a modern boat to do. They talk about winches there. You know we are not going to get anything for the winches they take off that boat. We are going to get hooked for $80,000. And this isn't only one boat. The commissioner told us there were ten or eleven of them down there. And if they are such bargains, why is it there is such delay in purchasing them? I am not voting against it because I feel I have superior knowledge of it. I am not voting against it because I am willing to state it is a poor bargain, but I am voting against it because I am not in any position to say it is a good, sound investment. I agree with the councilor from Ward 8 (Coun. Hurley) that we have spent a lot of money in repairs to the "Perkins" and the "O'Meara." But what guaranty is there to us that we are not going to spend just as much, and even more, money for repairing this boat? The main cause of damage to the "O'Meara" and the damage to the "Perkins" has been the depth of draft of the boat. And yet this boat we are purchasing is going to have a deeper draft. And, according to my method of mathematics, if a boat with a 9-foot draft is going to get caught in the mud, then, no matter how you tamper with or alter that boat with an 11-foot draft, that boat is going to get caught even deeper in the mud.

Coun. MADDEN—Mr. President, I quite concur with what Councilor Hannon has said. It doesn't make sense to me, after three months in this august body, trying to procure reasonable things from the Mayor's office, to be told, week in and week out, that we must economize. I have been trying to get reasonable increases in wages for some of my friends, as no doubt you all have. I have a man in my district who has worked for the City of Boston for 36 years and gets the princely salary of $33 a week. And I could go on and name case after case. And I am told at the Mayor's Office we must economize. I pick up the paper, and I see where the government is going to toss into eternity millions of dollars worth of equipment. If they can throw millions of dollars worth of equipment away, if they can give three billion dollars to England, I think it is preposterous to even spend $40,000 for this junk. To me, gentlemen, it smells. I don't know what the story is behind it. I am not proposing that the cost is out of line, but nobody in the City of Boston seems to know what the cost of renovating is going to be. And even then nobody has any assurance we will have a boat that will suit the purpose for which it is being purchased. For that reason, Mr. President, I am very much opposed to it.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, speaking on the motion. I have listened to both sides with a great deal of interest. In the first place, on the one hand, we understand from the commissioner that it has been costing about $25,000 to $30,000 a year to repair the two boats. At one time, about a month ago, both boats were up at the same time, so we had to borrow a boat from the Coast Guard. On the other hand, there is a great deal to be said for what the distinguished councilor from Ward 13 (Coun. Hannon) has brought out, that we must be sure this is a sound investment, and that we should look into it to see if there are any other boats which might be better suited for the purpose. Therefore, so that we may give the commissioner a chance to see if there are any other boats that are suitable, we should take a little more time. I think that a boat should be purchased, so that we will not go through this year repairing old boats that we have now. I move that this be laid on the table.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President.

President KELLY—There is no debate on the motion, councilor.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose do you rise?

Coun. SCANNELL—A point of information.

President KELLY—State your point of information.

Coun. SCANNELL—Wasn't this motion to lay the order on the table voted down?

President KELLY—The previous motion was to lay it on the table for one week, which is really a motion to assign. So this motion to lay on the table is in order. There is no debate.

A vote was taken, and the Chair being in doubt asked for a rising vote. The motion to lay on the table was carried, yeas 7, nays 5.

Coun. SCANNELL—I ask reconsideration.

President KELLY—The motion for reconsideration is out of order.

TAXES TO EASE REAL ESTATE TAXATION.

Coun. MUCHNICK offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor consult with his newly appointed Board of Boston Businessmen to determine the advisability of sponsoring legislation permitting the City of Boston to assess a use tax at the rate of $1 per seat per year on the seating capacity of all places of public assembly, exclusive of religious institutions and schools, so as to relieve in part the burden now being borne by real property, for a period not to exceed five years.

TAX ON RENTAL OF HOTEL ROOMS.

Coun. MUCHNICK offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor consult with his newly appointed Board of Boston Businessmen to consider the advisability of sponsoring legislation to enable the City of Boston to assess a tax on the income received by hotels from the renting of hotel rooms to transient persons, so as to relieve in part the burden now being borne by real property, for a period not exceeding five years.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, a few weeks ago the Mayor called in the real estate men, industrialists, the merchants and the bankers and various other business and professional men of the city on two occasions, and tried to get them to go along with his proposed $10,000,000 loan. And on both of those occasions he spoke at great length about the burden being borne by real estate and about the need for easing those burdens for some period of time, so as to encourage the building of more buildings in Boston, and to encourage industry to come in here. The loan has met a very unhappy fate from the point of view of the Mayor. The Legislature in its wisdom—frankly, I happen to be one of those who agree with the Legislature—saw fit to kill off the loan at its inception. But it does remain a fact that real estate is bearing almost the entire burden of the tax problem of the City of Boston, and there is a great to-do at present about the fact that the tax rate may hit $45, or even closer to $50, at the rate we have appropriated funds with which to run the city this year. I am not too greatly concerned about the size of the tax rate, because if it were proper for a tax rate to be $40 five years ago, based on the value of the dollar today $50 is not unreasonable from an economic point of view, even if it may be from a political point of view. But that is not the problem with which we are concerned here in these two orders. There is a board of businessmen who were asked to function by the Mayor to help solve what he called the problems of Boston. That board should be asked to function, and not merely be a board in name, to which the Mayor or anybody else can pass the buck, and which board in turn can pass the buck back again by saying they have never been consulted about problems which, according to some newspapers, are insurmountable. Although, if one were to analyze the problem carefully, he would find that Boston is in as good condition financially, as a result of past administrations, as any city in the country. Now, in these orders, Mr. President, we have a chance for the businessmen of Boston—if they really mean business and want to go along with it—we have a chance for a few years to ease the burden on real estate. There are, in my opinion, at a rough guess, at least a million seats in the City of Boston that could be subject to tax. There are three or four large places, like Boston Garden, Harvard Stadium, Fenway Park, Braves Field, all the movie houses, all the night clubs, and barrooms, the large rooms in hotels—any of those places that get licenses, so that their seating capacity could be ascertained—that could easily be the subject of a tax of $1 or more, depending on the discretion of the Boston businessmen, which money could be used, and should be used, to ease the taxation problem. Now, that would be a tax that would be borne in the main by non-residents of the City of Boston. People from Brookline, Belmont, Newton, Malden, all over, come into Boston to take advantage of our facilities, particularly our luxury facilities. They could easily stand the tax. They could stand their share of running the City of Boston because of the use which they make of the city, both in their daily lives and in the indulgence of their pleasure-seeking habits. And it seems only fair that we should pass some of the burden along to them. From that point of view it seems most equitable to me that that be done. The various theatres and halls and other pleasures would not be standing this tax by themselves, because from what I know of the various houses in Boston and in other cities they will pass the tax along to the consuming public. The same thing is true of taxing the income that hotels get from transient renters of their hotel rooms. If people who come in here to do business in our city from New York and various other cities can pay $4, $5 or $6 for a hotel room, just for the rental, it seems to me they would have no objection to paying a small fraction as a tax on that rental to help carry on the business of the city from which they are seeking to gain some benefit. For those reasons, and for many others which are obvious and which could easily be adduced here, it seems to me that the rule should be suspended and the orders passed.

Coun. BRYAN—I should like to have the first order read.

(The order is read by the clerk.)

Coun. BRYAN—Mr. President, I would like to have that order amended, so it will also exclude schools or any assemblies for charity. I would like to have it amended to exclude schools or anything that is held in behalf of charity.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, I have no particular objection to leaving schools out, excepting that I left it out deliberately so that places like the Harvard Stadium, which are not used primarily for educational purposes, but for luxury and fun purposes, should be included.

President KELLY—If it is amended to read "excluding schools," Councilor Muchnick has no objection.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, this is an important suggestion that the councilor has put forward, and I think it requires a great deal of consideration. I move at this time that this be referred to an appropriate committee, and that a hearing be held on the matter, before we take hasty action one way or the other.

President KELLY—The Chair might state that he was going to pass both orders under suspension of the rules, unless there was a motion made.

Coun. BAYLEY—What would be an appropriate committee to refer this matter to?

President KELLY—That would be up to you, councilor.

Coun. BAYLEY—I move that it be referred to the Executive Committee.

Coun. MUCHNICK—It seems to me that the major purpose of both of these orders is to get the reaction of the Mayor's committee of businessmen, and, if we are going to get a reaction there, either pro or con, we should get it quickly because of the fact that the Legislature is now in session and it may require some immediate action. If we stall it off for one more week, and then it takes the Mayor some time, assuming we pass it, to send it along to his committee, there would be delay. They are the ones who should hold public hearings, if anybody should. I don't see what we have to gain by holding such a hearing, and I would like to see the motion to send it to Executive defeated.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, I think there is tremendous value to these two orders, and in substance I go along with them. I don't know whether there are any organizations—and I don't know what purpose all playgrounds are put to in this purpose, and what all halls are apt to be used for. For that reason we may be going a little further than we should in voting a usage tax. In substance, places of assemblage that are run for profit and gain, yes; but we don't know how far some of these halls are being used for other purposes. For that reason, before we place ourselves on record, I think we should study it. If it is a question of having the committee the Mayor has formed getting some action, I think that could be done by direct contact by the individual himself. In fact, I would join with him and go down and see if that study could be made. But I hesitate to have the entire Council go on record in something that they don't know the full extent of.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, as the councilor has just stated, I think the orders are very good ones. Still, we should not go too hastily about them. I think the orders should be given thorough study, and I am very much in favor of sending this into Executive so that we may be able to get the Mayor's committee before us and they may be able to give us some information that would enlighten the Council as to how to act and act wisely. Therefore, I don't want to take more of the Council's time. I do hope this will be referred to the Executive Committee.

A vote was taken and it was not a vote. Coun. BAYLEY asked for a rising vote, and then asked for a roll call.

President KELLY—Councilor Bayley now changes his request and asks for a roll call, and, enough councilors having joined him, the clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called, and the motion to refer to the Executive Committee was carried, yeas 7, nays 6:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Keenan, McCormack, Russo—7.

Nays—Coun. Bryan, Hurley, Madden, Moriarty, Muchnick, Seannell—6.

The roll was called, and the motion to remove from the table was denied.

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 38

SATURDAY, APRIL 20, 1946.

No. 16

FINANCE COMMISSION FINDS BOSTON'S TAX BURDEN INEQUITABLY BORNE — IN REPORT TO MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL POINTS TO CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH APPROXIMATELY 49 PER CENT OF LAND IS TAX-EXEMPT, THUS THROWING BURDEN ON OTHER 51 PER CENT — EXPLAINS WHY BOSTON'S TAX RATE IS AMONG HIGHEST IN COUNTRY — SUGGESTS REORGANIZATION AND ENLARGEMENT OF FORECLOSED REAL ESTATE DIVISION TO HANDLE AND DISPOSE OF TAX TITLE PROPERTY TO GREATER ADVANTAGE AND TO SPEED RETURN TO REVENUE-PRODUCING STATUS.

In a communication to the Mayor and the members of the City Council the Finance Commission reveals that only a little more than half the taxable land value in the city provides for the expenses that the city has to provide for its upkeep. In other words, almost half the land value of the city is nontaxable for one reason or another.

According to the report Boston has 396,985,341 square feet of land, valued at $543,916,565, tax-exempt to governmental, religious, charitable, and educational organizations. The report also states that "the cost of government for Boston reached $82.3 per capita, the highest by a substantial margin of any city in the United States." Boston, also, topped the list of comparable cities in the country in volume of tax-exempt property in relation to tax-bearing property.

The report said real estate sales in Boston for 1945 averaged only 78 per cent of the assessed value, despite a rising market for residential homes. "Nevertheless, the 1945 city valuation of $1,479,172,000 was still $493,000,000 less than the high level reached in 1930. Yet expenditures increased by more than $4,000,000 in that period," it added.

The large percentage of tax-exempt property was one of the reasons for the high per capita cost, the commission said. Boston was the "hub of 2,000,000 persons," who used all the city's municipal services without paying for them, the commission said. Boston in supporting its governmental activities can "afford little money for waste and extravagance."

Taking up the problem of the city-owned real estate, the commission said the city was trying to operate a million-dollar real estate business with inadequate means. It recommended giving large quarters to the Board of Real Estate Commissioners, adopting modern business methods and transferring engineers from other city departments to be added to the board. "The foreseeable future holds no promise of liquidating the board, but of increasing its work." The report says:

Assessed Valuations.

The decline in property valuation, which had been continuous for more than a decade, was halted by the assessments of 1945. The total real property valuation increased in 1945 approximately $17,150,000, although it was generally expected that there would be a continuation of the $10,000,000 to $30,000,000 decrease characteristic each year of the preceding decade. Similarly, in 1945 there was a $20,000,000 increase in the personal property valuations.

Nevertheless, this greater 1945 total property valuation of $1,479,172,000 was still $493,000,000 less than the high level reached in 1930, and meanwhile appropriation orders (rights to spend) had increased about $4,000,000.

A significant, but little appreciated, fact is that taxable property (valued at $1,479,172,000) represents only 73 per cent of the actual property valuation of the city. The other 27 per cent is property value exempt from taxation by one or another provision of the Massachusetts statutes. The latter comprises the property held for literary, benevolent, charitable, religious, educational, public government purposes. Property held for these purposes was valued by the Assessors in 1945 at $543,916,565.

Assessed Area.

In area the City of Boston (43.9 square miles of land) comprises 1,223,861,760 square feet. The Assessors reveal that 396,985,341 square feet is the area of the tax-exempt property. Furthermore, the street area of the city is figured to be 202,466,880 square feet. From these figures it appears that only 624,409,539 square feet of the 1,223,861,760 square feet in the city are expected to yield taxes.

In other words, the taxable land area in the city is figured to be 51 per cent of the whole area, the exempt area is 33 per cent, and the street area is 16 per cent, which means that no taxes are levied on about one half the land area of the city.

MAYOR CURLEY MOVES TO HALT EPIDEMIC OF FIRES THAT HAVE CAUSED DEATHS AND MENACED THE LIVES OF CITIZENS OF BOSTON—CALLS CONFERENCE OF LAW-ENFORCING HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS WHICH DECIDES TO PROSECUTE VIGOROUSLY EFFORTS TO REMOVE MENACES TO HEALTH AND LIFE BY THOROUGH INSPECTIONS OF APARTMENTS AND ROOMING HOUSES—ALSO ORDERS MORE THAN 200 BUILDINGS CONDEMNED AS FIRE MENACES AND NUISANCES—LAW DEPARTMENT TO DRAFT AND URGE PASSAGE OF LAW ENFORCEMENT LEGISLATION.

On April 11 Mayor Curley issued the following statement:

A conference was held at the office of the Mayor on April 11 at which were present Commissioner Russell S. Codman, Jr., Fire Department; Chief Montgomery of the Fire Prevention Division; Francis Hickey of the District Attorney's Office, who has charge of arson cases; Col. Thomas F. Sullivan of the Police Department; Commissioner John J. Mahoney of the Building Department; Commissioner Robert P. Curley, Public Works Department; Commissioner Frederick J. Bailey of the Health Department; Corporation Counsel Joseph A. Scolponeti, and James Kelleher of the Law Department, to consider various matters. It was found that the laws enacted succeeding the Coconut Grove fire deprived the Police and Fire Departments of certain authority in the matter of fire prevention which they previously enjoyed.

The conference agreed to have all departments of the city, including the Police Department, make a thorough check-up throughout the city and submit reports, where violations of health and safety laws are found, to the Fire Commissioner. The conference further agreed that the Corporation Counsel will assign an attorney to work with the Fire Department in the prosecution of all violations.

The Corporation Counsel will draft suitable legislation to restore powers to the Police and Fire Departments of which they were deprived by legislation enacted last year, in order that their work be carried on in conformity with law and in order to safeguard the public. A bill is now pending before the Legislature to restore the powers formerly enjoyed by the Arson Squad of the Fire Department. Building Commissioner John Mahoney has arranged to have condemned and ordered taken down some 200 buildings throughout the city which, in his judgment, are a menace to public safety, and, in the opinion of Dr. Frederick J. Bailey, a menace to public health.

It has been further determined that where an owner of a premise fails to comply with the order of the Fire Commissioner in a matter of removal of buildings which may constitute a fire menace, prosecution will take place at once. It will be necessary to increase the working force of the Fire Prevention Division in the Fire Department in order to carry out this work which will greatly increase their labors, due to the fact that for the first time in the history of the city, all departments are to concentrate on matters of Fire Prevention, which means that men in all departments and men in the Water Department who take meter readings covering every house in the city every three months, will also be required to report.

Under the existing law, the Fire Prevention Force is not authorized to enter one or two-family houses without the consent of the owner, and the Corporation Counsel will take the necessary steps to draft a law which will cover these particular cases. In the opinion of Chief Montgomery, Director of the Fire Prevention Division, the best laws on fire prevention are those in operation in Detroit, and a copy of these laws will be procured by the Corporation Counsel with a view to drafting similar regulations for Boston.

Assurances have been received from District Attorney William J. Foley that his office will place every available man necessary for the full and complete prosecution of arson violations on this work.

AUTOMOTIVE GOLDEN JUBILEE DAY.

On April 15 the Mayor issued the following statement:

Fifty years ago, the automobile came into being. Beginning on May 31, and continuing for one week, a Golden Jubilee celebration will be held in Detroit, the birthplace of the automotive era. Mayor Edward J. Jeffries, Jr., of that city has expressed the hope that the other communities of the nation may join in the observance of this anniversary.

At his suggestion, I am designating June 1 as Automotive Golden Jubilee Day for the City of Boston, and I am glad to join with our local automobile representatives in helping to impress upon the general public the national significance of this industry and the possible benefits which it may provide for the America of the future.

The automobile, probably more than any other product of manufacture, is characteristically American. Industrialists have perfected this product to a unique point. As a result, statisticians show that one out of every seven gainfully employed persons in the United States today is in a job directly connected with this industry.

The world recognizes the automobile as symbolic of the comparative luxury of the American way of life. We in America recognize that the high speed of our economy could not be maintained were it not for the general ownership of automobiles.

Let us all join in paying tribute to this highly essential industry and its founders.

CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 8.

CITY OF BOSTON,
MAYOR'S OFFICE, April 10, 1946.

To Heads of All City Departments.

GENTLEMEN,—The Convention of the National Association of State, County and Municipal Employees will be held in Chicago, Illinois, the week of April 22 to 26, 1946.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts has authorized an accredited representative from each state department to attend, granting them leave of absence with pay while attending the convention.

I suggest that you arrange to send an accredited representative from your department to represent the employees of the city and extend to them the same privilege provided by the state to their selected representatives.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 9.

CITY OF BOSTON,
MAYOR'S OFFICE, April 11, 1946.

To the Heads of Departments.

GENTLEMEN,—You are hereby directed to grant leave of absence, without loss of pay, to employees of the city who are of Jewish faith for their observance of the Feast of the Passover, Tuesday, April 16, and Wednesday, April 17, 1946.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

MAYOR FAVORS STATE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

His Honor the Mayor on April 11 forwarded the following letter to Mr. Roy C. Smith, House Chairman, Ways and Means Committee, State House, Boston:

MR. ROY C. SMITH, House Chairman,
Ways and Means Committee, State House, Boston.

MY DEAR MR. SMITH,—I desire to be reported in favor of the bill to aid the Department of Commerce, Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The chief obstacle in the past to obtain travel from the Port of Boston has been due to irregularity of sailings, with the result that the Port of Boston has become a Port of Call. One of the chief reasons for this situation has been due to lack of freight shipments. In other words, cargo backlogs. This situation must be obviated if there is to be a real port development, and it can best be accomplished through a capable and able force of solicitors fortified with the slogan "Ship and Sail from Boston."

Despite the advantage of direct ocean sailings with the expense of tugs or lighters, which on a round trip with a super-commerce carrier from Europe or South America would represent in excess of $25,000, we are still a Port of Call. More than 70 per cent of all the merchandise shipped from New England is shipped via New York, despite the fact that it could be handled more efficiently and more economically through the Port of Boston.

It is necessary that the industrialists and the State be educated as to the importance of shipping and sailing from Boston, and, in my judgment, this result can be best accomplished with the creation of a Department of Commerce, the establishment of which I am absolutely in favor of as speedily as possible.

Sincerely,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

MAYOR SUSPENDS THEATER LICENSE.

Upon April 12 the Mayor made public the following letter:

Tuesday, April 16, 1946.

Police Commissioner of Boston.

Designated Member, Art Commission of Boston.

MAYOR CURLEY VETOES SCHOOL COMMITTEE'S BUDGET AS SUBMITTED.

The following letter has been forwarded by his Honor the Mayor to the School Committee:

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE,
City of Boston.

GENTLEMEN,—I return herewith without my approval, thus indicating my disapproval of, appropriation orders totaling $18,212,508.87, adopted by you at your meeting on March 28, 1946. My objection to these orders is based on the opinion that further reductions may be made in the various appropriation items set forth in the orders without disrupting in any way the conduct of school activities.

At our conference yesterday afternoon, a schedule of proposed reductions totaling $440,636.71 was presented by the City Auditor and apparently well received. Adoption of the reductions set forth in this schedule would merely serve to remove the so-called "cushion" which evidently is present in this year's budget. Stopping at this point, however, is not enough. The budget as adopted by your committee is $1,184,402.70 in excess of actual expenditures in 1945. I am unable to see any justification for this huge increase in the light of the fact that on January 31, 1946, the number of pupils attending our public schools was 1,231 less than last year, and 39,760 less than in 1935, when the school budget was $825,000 less than that proposed for the current year.

I pointed out to you yesterday a number of examples taken from this year's budget which clearly indicate that a large share of the increase in the budget may be attributed to the creation of positions and the establishment of activities having only indirect bearing on the fundamental responsibility of the schools, namely, "instruction in the three R's." I am confident that careful study of this aspect of the budget will disclose the possibility of an over-all reduction in the 1946 budget of one million dollars. I recommend that you review the appropriation orders which are herewith returned with this objective in mind.

Very truly yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

PER CAPITA TAX.

In the foregoing statistics may be seen one of the principal reasons why the per capita tax in Boston gives the city the distinction of being one of the highest taxed in the country. Only 51 per cent of it is assessed a tax, yet there is no part of it which does not require and obtain municipal service. Most of the 49 per cent which is not taxed is used quite as much by those who pay no taxes in Boston as by those who do. Joining to that consideration the fact that Boston, being the hub of the Metropolitan wheel, and therefore being the business center for a population of over 2,000,000—though the population of the hub is only 770,000—it can be appreciated that Boston in supporting its governmental activities can afford little money for waste and extravagance.

In per capita figures, the cost of government in Boston reached $104 in 1945. When revenues and receipts other than locally assessed taxes were applied against the total warrants and appropriations, the tax levy amounted to $82.3 per capita. Though it is impossible to obtain conveniently the present comparable figures from comparative cities, previous studies by such agencies as the United States Census Bureau and the Special Legislative Commission on Real Estate Taxation have found Boston ensconced by a substantial margin at the top of the list in per capita figures.

THE SHIFTING OF THE TAX LOAD IN BOSTON.

Within the city itself there has come about in the last few years a distinct shifting of the load. Where formerly the so-called downtown (Ward 3)—the central business area—yielded 41 per cent of the tax money of the city, now, because of reduced valuations and the elimination of valuations by the demolition of buildings, this area is yielding only 32 per cent of the taxes.

UNUSED CITY-OWNED PROPERTY.

Briefly, there are two types of unused real estate owned by the city: (1) property which has come into the city's possession through foreclosure for non-payment of taxes, and (2) property which has been acquired by the city for various departmental uses, but not now used.

In 1936 the city held title by foreclosure of tax title (i. e., the city had taken possession of) on 722 parcels. The comparable figure in 1946 is 3,376. On February 1, 1946, additionally the number of parcels on which the city had acquired tax title but had not foreclosed, was 7,130. This means a total of 10,506 parcels at present either already taken over by the city or due to be taken over.

Of the foreclosed parcels, those held by the city in 1936 were valued by the Assessors at $1,160,800. In December, 1945, the value of the foreclosed parcels was $7,259,650.

The taxes owed the city in 1936 on properties on which the city held tax title plus those of which the city had taken possession were $8,840,752. In 1946, the taxes owed on the parcels on which the city holds tax title (without foreclosure) plus those of which the city has taken possession is $6,223,884. The difference in the amount in these two years is accounted for by the fact that some have been redeemed by the owners, and others have been sold by the city. Of the latter class the city has sold parcels by which the city has received $1,749,860.

At a recent date, the tax title account was made up of parcels on which $3,205,940 was owed, and the foreclosure account (parcels now in city possession) was made up of parcels on which $3,017,944 is owed.

CURRENT ADMINISTRATIVE INADEQUACY.

This real estate department, set up in 1939, and organized as a board a few years later, became a powerful department of extensive scope almost overnight; but it has been operated by a small staff and housed in cramped quarters. Its failure to make a study of accounting procedures, management methods and proceedings may be attributed to the volume of current business as indicated by the amount of sales, which is one of its functions.

It is important that sound business systems and record-keeping procedures, with provision for checking bills, etc., and opportunity for the objectives already mentioned, be provided, even at this late date in the history of this department. Although ideally the city has no proper place in the selling and leasing of real property and the other functions of real estate business, there is no alternative. Moreover, the foreseeable future holds no promise of the dissolution of such work; indeed, the opposite is indicated. The amounts in the city's tax title account and tax possession account, the increasing blight in many sections, the tax rate picture, obsolescence general throughout many parts of the city—all point to future prospects of an increase rather than a decrease in volume of property surrendered to the city.

As a matter of fact, the scope and importance of this work should dictate a more important status than the department has at present. Larger quarters, new location, and other developments are probably needed.

UNUSED PROPERTY.

A related matter as indicated above is the volume of unused parcels, particularly those owned by the schools. Many of these have no foreseeable use, nor do they occupy any place in the plans of the several departments which now have custody of them. If the committee charged with the disposition of school property could be persuaded to regard such parcels as surplus and they could be transferred to the Department of Foreclosed Real Estate, a substantial core of land for municipal use and productive purposes could be developed. The present method of leasing unused property to various groups is certainly not the best use.

DETAILED STATISTICS ON FORECLOSED PROPERTY.

That the situation in Boston with respect to foreclosed real estate owned by the city is serious is shown by the number of parcels and their assessed value in the various wards, and the number of buildings and their value. The total number of parcels on December 1, 1945, was 3,376; the assessed value represented by the 3,376 parcels was $7,259,650. More than $3,000,000 was represented in twenty-three commercial buildings in Ward 3. The parcels totaling in value the balance of $7,259,650 are distributed among the other twenty-one wards.

The size of the residential holdings is relatively insignificant, representing only about 5 per cent of the total parcels taken. Vacant land taken is heaviest in a few wards. For instance, Ward 18 contains 832 parcels or 24.6 per cent of the total but represented only 4.5 per cent of the assessed value. Ward 3 represented the highest concentration of value, about 51.6 per cent.

Moreover, at the end of February, 1946, there was $3,205,940 in the city's Tax Title Account (7,130 properties on which title had been taken) and $3,017,944 in the Tax Possession Account (3,520 properties on which the city has taken possession). How much of the tax title property will be redeemed is not known.

Some progress has been made, however, in spite of these difficulties since the establishment of the city's real estate office in 1939. This process of sale is not done without some expense. During 1945 the cost of the auctioneer's fees and advertising alone was about $35,000.

While 258 parcels were sold during 1945, a substantial number were added, so that there are still over 3,000 parcels listed. There were 3,758 parcels on hand on January 1, 1944; 3,784 on hand on January 1, 1945; and 3,376 parcels on hand on December 1, 1945. Thus, even in the current favorable real estate market a huge backlog of parcels is not moving.

SUMMARY.

The situation may be summarized somewhat as follows:

The city has come into possession of hundreds of acres of vacant land and a number of commercial buildings by foreclosure. The disposition of this land and the management of these buildings is important business and calls for competent administration. There is, moreover, need of another element in the picture which has not been developed. This is a comprehensive plan for the best use of this and the other unused land owned by the city.

Much of the foreclosed land has serious limitations of development, but practically all the school land is excellent. The combined holdings of the city are found in small and large lots, some in deteriorated surroundings, some in the undeveloped hinterland. Moreover, the prospects are that much more property will fall into the city's hands.

The city is confronted with a tax base which has been shrinking, except in a few of the upper wards, since 1930, and the failure of downtown real estate to carry its traditional proportion of the tax load is throwing an increasing load on these few wards. The flight of the middle and high-income population and business to the suburbs cannot be stopped; indeed, will increase in the next decade. The real estate situation, therefore, is approaching an impasse, and every avenue of alleviation should be explored.

1. The city must take stock. In order to view the situation as a whole and as a basis for predicated policy, a large-scale map showing location and type and size of all foreclosed and unused property should be made.

2. Master plans for recreation, housing, highways, school buildings and other uses should be completed, to determine the best use of this land and what parcels to hold for these purposes.

3. Foreclosed parcels which are to be sold should be listed and classified along the lines of suitability and customer interest.

4. A land use and zoning study to determine the changed picture during the last twenty years should be made and plans for new uses determined where indicated.

5. Determination of how best to dispose of or promote the large tracts in the undeveloped sections where new buildings must take place should be made. In anticipation of the benefits to be derived under the Wagner-Ellender-Taft bill, suitable lands looking to the assembly of land and redevelopment of blighted areas should be made.

6. Many studies have been made and others started in the field of assessing methods. It is time to complete these studies and implement these findings in the light of the valuation problem.

7. The Strayer Report contemplates the relocation of many schools. Shifts in population have brought in their wake the need for relocated recreation space and public buildings furnishing services to the district. In the light of such changed conditions possible uses of city-owned land should be studied. All these should be comprehensively planned, however.

8. The possibilities of exchanging presently owned, or to be acquired, parcels, for other parcels to carry out the plans referred to should be investigated.

Sooner or later the Real Estate Department must become a modern real estate office engaged in operating parcels of which the city should still retain possession, and of getting back other parcels into taxable ownership as far as possible. It must spend time in study to determine what the city could properly do to enhance the salability of many of the parcels, such as land clearance and site preparation, particularly those in the outlying areas.

The staff at present is overwhelmingly a stenographic staff. The number of its investigative employees diminished while its responsibilities multiplied. That is the reason so many important tasks which should have been accomplished have not even been attempted.

The whole setup of the department needs revamping. If a board is to control it, responsibility should be divided equally among its members. The nature of its organization should be motivated by the real duties when fully realized. Obviously it needs more staff; specifically, it needs engineers, and it needs other kinds of assistance which can be supplied by persons of ordinary intelligence. The duties of the latter would be sometimes investigative, sometimes light office clerical work, sometimes merely messenger work.

Nevertheless, to obtain that new help does not require the appointment of another group of new city employees. The other city departments, many of them, can release to the Real Estate Board all the non-engineering help it needs. This would furnish an opportunity to derive some municipal benefit from many on the city pay roll who are not now sufficiently employed.

Furthermore, from among the 160 engineers now scattered through various departments, the Real Estate Department should be able to recruit all the engineering help it needs. The City Planning Board can also obtain from this reservoir the engineers it needs to complete or bring up to date the several types of plans and controls needed to determine the best use of city-owned land and to further the redevelopment of the city.

The report is signed by the full Commission consisting of: Edward F. Mullen, Chairman, Alexander Wheeler, Leo J. Dunn, Frederick Deane; Robert E. Cuniff, Secretary.
